The off shore storm signal is flying today.

To-morrow we may look for April zephyrs, April showers and April-fools.

People without taste regard the "Pinafore" as a plague, but they don't quarantine it.

March seems bound to go out in a blast of defiant wrath. To-day is one of the most blustering of the whole month.

Look out for Professor Dare the daring rope walker and his intrepid wife from the top of the Bank of Cape Fear building to Exchange Corner to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock.

No wonder Kasprowitz is getting rich when he can afford to give a meerschaum pipe away for fifty cents. This afternoon he advertises a horse, buggy and harness for the small sum of five dollars.

The schooner Jesse W. Knight, from Baltimore, bound to Charleston, put into Smithville yesterday, (Sunday) with the loss of her rudder. She will obtain a new one and then proceed on her voyage.

Body Found.

The body of Dick Crawford the unfortunate colored man who was drowned one week ago, was found at Point Peter, opposite this city yesterday. Coroner Hewlett held an inquest this morning and returned a verdict in accordance with facts heretofore published in the REVIEW.

A Phenomena.

Officer Goodman, of the night police force, informs us that at about 2 o'clock this morning, a bright light in the heavens nearly overhead, was visible for some minutes. It resembled the meteors that are frequently seen, and started in an easterly direction at a declivity of about fifteen degrees, assuming in its passage an appearance and shape precisely like a figure 6. After assuming this shape, it became stationary and soon faded from sight.

There is nothing better for a lady's hair than that Hair Invigorator, for it cleans out all the dandruff and gives the hair a good glossy appearance. It can be had at a reduced price at Carraway's.

Change of Hours

The time of ringing the breakfast bell according to the custom for these many years will on to-morrow morning the first day of April, be changed from 8 o'clock to 7 o'clock, turn out bell from 9 to 8 and Market bell for closing the Market from 11 to 10 o'clock. One hour sooner for breakfast now is what housekeepers will have to consider. No April fool about this.

The Delinquents Again.

The city delinquents on the license tax business are still being gently received and their deposits kindly taken care of by the City Treasurer. Another batch called to-day and were warmly welcomed by the gentleman who holds the cash box in the Treasurer's department. Other notices in alphabetical order will be served this afternoon and those who come just before tea (T) will be honored on this occasion.

Knights of Honor.

Through the instrumentality of Dr. W. J. H. Bellamy, Grand Dictator of the State, two lodges of this Order has been established within the past few days. One at Washington and the other at Battleboro. In every section of the State, Lodges are starting as soon as the benevolent, fraternal and beneficial features which are its characteristics are known. The Knights of Honor need only to have their objects and aims properly explained to commend them to all considerate and provident men.

Dr. Bellamy has served the Order well and it is to be hoped he will receive the Honor of Grand Dictator again.

Special attention to Misses' and Children's Hair Cutting. I claim to have the best Child's Hair Cutter in the city. J. H. CARRAWAY.

The Quarantine Law.

By act of General Assembly, just adjourned, the port of Wilmington has been provided for with a more effective quarantine law. We quote from memory some of the new features as we have not seen the new bill since its ratification. The quarantine officer at Smithville is assisted by two consultants chosen from the medical profession of Wilmington by the President of the State Board of Health.

Dr. W. G. Curtis, the quarantine officer at Smithville, is well pleased, and believes it will afford security and satisfaction to the public.

The Legislature made an appropriation for the repair of the quarantine hospital. As least, so says the March number of the North Carolina Medical Journal.

In the same number of the above named journal, notices is given by the Secretary of the State Board of Medical Examiners, that the Board will meet at Greensboro on Monday, May 19th, to examine candidates for licensure, thereby enabling those who are licensed and join the Society to participate in the meeting.

Hotel Arrivals.

EMPIRE HOUSE.—Wilmington, N. C., March 31st.—I. L. Dolby, proprietor.—from 8:15 o'clock March 30 to 8:15 o'clock March 31—J. F. Williamson, Edwin Fennell, J. Billington, J. B. Taylor, M. H. Robbins, J. F. Wilson, N. C. Thos. Lawther, city; H. B. Pope, Weldon, N. C.; W. B. Applewhite, Brinkley's, N. C.; W. L. Campbell, Wilson, N. C.; L. McK. Bell, Alexandria, Va.; J. C. Willis, Pa.; Tom Smith, Va.

The most concealed lawyer is frequently taken down by a reporter.

Jonah was the first man to go a fish in.

To make the true Maltese cross, stroke his for the wrong way.

Deaf Lady—'What's his name?' Young Lady—Augustus Tyler.' Deaf Lady—'Bless me, what a name! Bosthis Biler! Eliza, you must be making fun of me.'

The man who walks for twenty-four hours on a stretch is considered a hero, but no one seems to have a kind word for the baby that yells straight ahead for seventeen hours.

There are very few sermons preached which better sum up the whole matter than the speech of the little boy who said: 'I want to grow good and goeder every day of my life. Amen.'

An up-country belle recently received a present of a pair of twenty four button kid gloves from one of her admirers. She wrote him a letter of thanks in which she feakily told him he had made a mistake in the size, but she remedied it by cutting off the feet and only wearing the legs.

A man passing through a gateway up town in the dark the other night ran against a post. 'I wish that post was in the lower regions!' was angry his remark. 'Better wish it somewhere else,' said a bystander. 'You might run against it again.'

City Court.

One trifling case was disposed of by His Honor this morning to the satisfaction of all concerned, except the prisoner. The next case was that of "Dick the accordion fiend." He was drunk and disorderly on Saturday night and this morning for his offense he was fined $20 or thirty days imprisonment in the city prison. This wound up the business for the day.

Don't ruin your health, and besides, make yourself disagreeable to other people by your continued coughing. A twenty-five cent bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup will cure you. At all Druggists.

Rip Van Winkle To-Night.

The following, which we clip from the Savannah Recorder, is but an echo of the popular sentiment wherever Mr. McWade has appeared:

To say that the appearance of Mr. McWade last night, at our Theatre, as Rip Van Winkle, is to imply that a beautiful work of dramatic art was set before the public. It is but just to Mr. McWade to say that his Rip is not a conception reduced to a common mechanism by long usage. He entered into the character heart and soul, and his speeches and movements were full of cheery vivacity. Mr. McWade's natural gifts, as exemplified in Rip, are of the most pronounced order, while his art is of the best school. His manner of combining the gay and the pathetic almost in a single breath, is, perhaps, the most beautiful phase of his art. His touch upon the spring of pathos, is firm and true. He is one of the most faithful and conscientious artists, leaving nothing undone to make a point wherever it is possible.

His performance last night was real and life-like. It was the impersonation of nature that errs only through excess of goodness, in sun-shining temperament that radiates drollery and comfort in the tender heart which almost breaks with contrition in the simple, courageous frankness of the woodland wanderer, in the forlorn wistful humor of the man among the ghosts, in the abject, piteous, feeble, yet infinitely venerable age, which falters out its sad moral of the utter emptiness of life without love.

The character of Rip Van Winkle represents not only beauty, love and sympathy, but also drunkenness, moral degradation and heartlessness. To witness the character of Rip Van Winkle, as was portrayed by Mr. McWade last evening, understanding what the ideal was that he embodied, was like breathing the sweet air of a forest grove in early autumn, in which birds twitter, and through which a brawling brook runs on in music.

WHOLESALE AND NUTRITIOUS BREAD.

—Intelligent housekeepers who use Dooley's Yeast Powder—there are thousands upon thousands who now use and have used it for the past twenty-two years—will not be misled by the false statements of unscrupulous rival manufacturers as to its purity and wholesomeness. They know by practical experience when they buy Dooley's Yeast Powder that they get one of the best baking powders in the world; an article of perfect purity, of full strength and full weight; one which always makes light, wholesome and nutritious biscuits, bread, rolls, muffins, corn-bread, waffles and cakes of every kind. It stands to-day, as for the past twenty-two years, the leading, Standard Baking Powder of America.

A good advertisement in a newspaper pays no fares on railroads, costs nothing for hotel bills, gives away no boxes of cigars to customers, or merino dresses to customers' wives, drinks no whiskey under the head of traveling expenses, but goes at once and all the time about its business free of expense.
