It is a Fact
That DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER will go further in use in the kitchen, and the results will be more satisfactory in the production of elegant, light rolls, biscuits, cakes, etc., than if any other baking powder is used. Try it. Sold by grocers.

Minstrel Troupe.
A minstrel troupe is being organized in this city for the purpose of playing for the benefit of charitable institutions. The members are all old hands at the business and have made for themselves something of a burnt cork name. They propose giving an entertainment in May.

Seventeen Pounds at Birth.
Talk about your twins and triplets, one good fat, jolly, saucy, single baby is worth them all. Mrs. Anthony Devose, of Rich Island, Cypress Creek, in Pender county, about the middle of last month presented her happy husband with a girl-baby which weighed 17 pounds at birth. Mr. and Mrs. Devose have our congratulations.

Unmailable
The following is a list of unmailable letters remaining in the Post Office in this city:

W. H. Fisher, Catherine Davis, M. A. Campbell, L. Johnson, Lucas McGuire, Rev. W. H. Merrick, Rev. A. A. Moore, Sarah Moore, Lizzie Merrick, J. J. Flowers, Harper Warren, Margaret Virginia Midgett.

Criminal Court.
The following cases were before this tribunal to-day, and were disposed of as follows:
Susan Hines, larceny. Verdict guilty. Sentenced to 4 years in penitentiary.
Henry Jones, larceny. Securities called and fined. Judgment nisi.
Jim Dotey, larceny. Jury out.
Fred Brown, larceny. Motion to quash. Motion granted.

Confirmation.
Good Friday evening, at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, the holy rite of Confirmation will be administered to seven persons, the Rev. Dr. Bernheim, Pastor of the Church, officiating. The candidates were examined on Sunday last, and deemed to be sufficiently informed in holy writ to receive the rite.

Stanley's Patents.
The floating compass was at work a few days ago and squeezed several bales of cotton to the entire satisfaction of all concerned. Capt. Stanley proposes in a few days to run his compass near the foot of Chestnut street. The band tightener, which is also one of his patents, has proven a complete success and he is now engaged in making some for the Hydraulic Compress of this city.

Dark as Erebus.
A painful fit of economy seems to have seized hold of the parties having in charge the lighting of the city, jumps. Last night, up to 8 o'clock and after, the streets or a majority of them were in total darkness. The night at that time was dark and cloudy, which rendered it anything but pleasant for pedestrians who have to leave the main thoroughfares and travel unfrequented streets in order to reach their homes.

Annual Meeting of the stockholders of the Wilmington Cotton Mills.
The Second Annual Meeting of the stockholders of the Wilmington Cotton Mills was held this morning at 11 o'clock followed immediately by a meeting of Directors.

The old Board was unanimously re-elected as follows: Donald MacRae, Wm. A. French, Edward Kidder, Jas. K. Chadbourn, Jas. W. Atkinson, F. W. Kerchner, B. G. Worth.
Donald MacRae was elected President and Walter G. MacRae Secretary and Treasurer for the ensuing year.

Election of Officers of the Produce Exchange.

The regular annual election for officers of the Produce Exchange was held at the Exchange Rooms this forenoon with the following result:
President—C. H. Robinson.
Vice-President—R. E. Calder.
Board of Managers—G. W. William E. Lilly, John T. Rankin, Jas. Sprunt, D. G. Worth.
Inspectors of Election—S. R. Birdsey, R. E. Heide, Oscar Pearsall.
The different Committees and also the Secretary and Treasurer will be appointed at the next regular meeting of the Board of Managers which occur on Tuesday next the 15th inst.

Broken Open and Robbed.
Some time during last night the store of Mr. Charles Wessel on Water, between Chestnut and Mulberry streets, was entered and robbed of $18, one gold watch, two silver watches, three revolvers, some shirts, tobacco and other goods. The thief or thieves effected an entrance through the back window by prizing off the large iron bar and bolt which was used in securing the blind. A crow bar was used by a strong hand and after prizing off the bar and opening the window a very small man or boy crawled in through the iron grating on the inside of the window. The thief dropped some of the tobacco on the floor near the window in making his exit and no doubt was frightened off by passing footsteps. Mr. Wessel estimates his loss at something over one hundred dollars.

A Souvenir of the Past.
We saw at the City Clerk and Treasurer's office this morning a record of the accounts of the old town government under the then commissioners of the town of Wilmington, in the shape of a city Ledger, in which appear the names of many old and highly esteemed citizens who have long since disappeared from the busy scenes of life; their mortal remains having returned to their mother earth while their spirits, let us hope, having been gathered to their fathers are "where the wicked cease from troubling and the weary are at rest." The earliest date of the Ledger begins with the year 1806, and among the names that appear in its pages which at one time were familiar to the citizens of Wilmington, we noticed Gabriel Holmes, Jas. F. McRee, Arch. MacRae, Thomas Cowan, Jas. C. Dumbabin, R. E. Cowan, M. Walker, John Walker and A. J. DeRosset, all of whom have descendants now living in our midst.

Annual Meeting of the Produce Exchange.

The members of the Produce Exchange held their annual meeting at 11 o'clock this forenoon, and were called to order by C. H. Robinson, Esq., the President of the Board.

The report of the Secretary and Treasurer was read and ordered spread upon the minutes.

The President's report was received, and, upon motion, it was ordered to be spread on the minutes, and that the Secretary furnish the daily newspapers in the city with copies for publication.

On motion of Capt. W. R. Kenan the thanks of the Exchange were tendered to the retiring officers of the Board.

On motion it was ordered that on Good Friday, (the 11th inst.) the Exchange will be closed, and no business transacted by the Board on that day.

PRE-IDENTS REPORT.

Gentlemen of the Wilmington Produce Exchange:
It has been customary for the President on behalf of the Board of Managers of the Exchange to present an annual communication giving the statistics for the past year and presenting such considerations for the welfare of your body as may seem timely and pertinent. I will at once proceed to a resume of the business of this port for the twelve months ending March 31st:

Receipts of cotton from September 1st, 1878.....	105,841 bales
Receipts of cotton for same time last year.....	117,417 "
Falling off.....	11,566 "
Receipts of spirits turpentine from April 1st, 1878 to April 1st, 1879.....	109,574 casks
Receipts of spirits turpentine from April 1st, 1877 to April 1st, 1878.....	109,707 "
Falling off.....	132 "
Receipts of Rosin from April 1st, 1878, to April 1st, 1879.....	581,739 bbls
Receipts of Rosin from April 1st, 1877, to April 1st, 1878.....	78,538,259 "
Decrease.....	43,480 "
Receipts of Tar from April 1st, 1878 to April 1st, 1879.....	78,116 bbls
Receipts of Tar from April 1st, 1877 to April 1st, 1878.....	61,442 "
Increase.....	16,674 "
Receipts of Crude Turpentine from April 1st, 1878, to April 1st, 1879.....	164,985 bls
Receipts of Crude Turpentine from April 1st, 1877, to April 1st, 1878.....	142,360 "
Increase.....	22,625 "

Exports cotton foreign for year ending March 31st, 1879, 64,431 bales. Do for year ending March 31st, 1878, 64,823 bales. Increase, 19,608 bales.

Exports cotton domestic for year ending March 31st, 1879, 38,856 bales. Do, for year ending March 31st, 1878, 60,297 bales. Decrease, 21,441 bales.

Exports spirits turpentine foreign, for year ending March 31st, 1879, 95,397 barrels. Do for year ending March 31st, 1878, 87,675 barrels. Increase, 7,722 barrels.

Exports spirits turpentine, domestic, for year ending March 31st, 1879, 12,861 barrels. Do, for year ending March 31st, 1878, 821 barrels. Increase, 64,516 barrels.

Exports rosin domestic for year ending March 31st, 1879, 70,495 barrels. Do domestic for year ending March 31st, 1878, 77,486 barrels. Decrease 6,991 barrels.

Exports tar foreign for year ending March 31st, 1879, 35,055 barrels. Do for year ending March 31st, 1878, 30,862 barrels. Increase, 4,193 barrels.

Exports tar domestic for year ending March 31st, 1879, 35,186 barrels. Do for year ending March 31st, 1878, 31,733 barrels. Increase, 3,453 barrels.

From these statistics it will be seen that the receipts of cotton and spirits turpentine are less than those of the previous year while the receipts of rosin, tar and crude turpentine are greater; the novel store receipts, as a whole, being fully equal to the previous year. With increased facilities for compressing cotton it was reasonably supposed that the receipts must be increased, but some change in the control of the railroad from Columbia to Augusta will probably account for the falling off.

In our foreign exports there is an increase in cotton, spirits, turpentine, rosin and tar and a decrease in domestic exports in all but tar, showing a steadily increasing direct trade, while the diminution of domestic shipments is accounted for by the immense production of naval stores to the South of us dividing the trade.

The merchants of Wilmington have a well-deserved reputation for energy, industry and intelligence and they should direct their attention more unitedly, and persistently, to the furthering of all schemes that will promote the interests of our city and increase our general business. Private business interests should not so absorb their minds as to cause them to lose sight of public interests of vital importance. In this connection I wish to call the attention of the merchants to the importance of sustaining this Exchange; there is entirely too much indifference manifested and the burden of the work and expense has to be borne by a few while the benefits are shared by all.

The rules and regulations established have proved so beneficial—and while doing their work so silently that they seem to be unappreciated, they do so effectually that all enjoy the benefit—as the rain from Heaven "falls alike on the just and the unjust"—so the workings of this Exchange benefit the entire business community, members and non-members.

There has been no case before the Arbitration Committee during the year—a remarkable fact. Showing the great benefit of the Exchange in perfecting a system which prevents litigation and expense.

There is a want of attention on the part of the Committee of Quotations as it frequently happens that only one of each Committee is present, representing only one interest. This should be corrected in some way.

I call your attention to the prompt and correct work of the Secretary, in all matters of stock statistics and duties pertaining to his office and commend his faithfulness.

The report of the Treasurer will show you the financial condition of the Exchange and what will be required for the ensuing year.
Death has removed from our midst and councils one of our noblest and best—one we could not spare but in obedience to the mandate of our Heavenly Father, "who sees the end from the beginning and knows what is best." The resolutions on our record book testify our appreciation of the worth and character of ISAAC B. GRAINGER in fitter terms than I can use. In conclusion I have to thank you for the consideration shown to the Board of Managers and myself during our term of office, for the pleasant intercourse and good fellowship, and wishing for the Exchange continued prosperity and usefulness,

Respectively submitted,
C. H. ROBINSON,
President.

Fire at Magnolia.

Yesterday, about 11 o'clock, a. m., the dwelling house belonging to the estate of the late Rev. D. B. Nicholson, at Magnolia, Duplin county, caught fire and, together with the kitchen, was entirely consumed. The report that the storehouse and office belonging to the same property were also consumed was an error, as they received no material injury, although in such close proximity as to make their escape from destruction almost miraculous.

The Orator on Memorial Day.

Captain John N. Maffitt, late of the Confederate Navy and Commander of the privateer Florida, has been invited by the Ladies' Memorial Association of this city to deliver the annual address on the 10th day of May next—Memorial Day—which invitation this gallant old salt and brave Confederate has accepted. We congratulate the ladies of the Memorial Association upon their happy selection; for since the days of the brave Nelson who, on that ever memorable occasion at Trafalgar, reminded the officers and men of his fleet that "this day England expects every man to do his duty," no braver spirit has ever trod the quarter-deck of a man-of-war. Captain Maffitt has not only a reputation as a brave and efficient officer, but he is something of a historian as well, and knows how to put syllables and sentences together in a manner to charm and please the intellectual faculties of his readers.

H. M. S. Pinafore.

Well, we have had the Pinafore again in our city. We had it last night, if it did rain. No postponement on account of the weather, you know. In many respects it was much better than the performance of the Holman troupe; in some respects it was merely the equal and in one or two features it was inferior. It was better in the performance and the vocal excellence of its ladies; in having a better Buttercup, in having a very superior basso profundo and in having its music under a director who was painstaking, careful and efficient. It was the equal in its Captain Corcoran and Sir Joseph Porter and Dick Deadeye; and it was certainly inferior in its Ralph Rackstraw; inferior both in gesture and voice. As a whole, the performance was much better than the former, and as such it was appreciated by the audience. Mr. J. M. Brown, the Captain Corcoran, is a Wilmingtonian, and he has reason to be proud of the enthusiastic reception given him by his acquaintances and friends last night. His stage presence was good, his impersonation correct and his rich and resonant baritone voice displayed the care and culture of the thorough musician.

The Produce Exchange will be closed on Friday next (Good Friday), the 11th inst.

PLEASE NOTICE.

We will be glad to receive communications from our friends on any and all subjects of general interest but:

The name of the writer must always be furnished to the Editor.

Communications must be written on only one side of the paper.

Personalities must be avoided.

And it is especially and particularly understood that the Editor does not always endorse the views of correspondents, unless so stated in the editorial columns.

County Commissioners.

The following proceedings of the Board were transacted after our close yesterday, and could not, therefore, be included in the report published by us then:

The Board appointed Oscar G. Parsley and Dallas M. Fennell the Assessors at large for New Hanover county.

In case of a vacancy on the Board of Assessors, by refusal or inability to serve, the Finance Committee were authorized to fill such vacancy.

A petition was received from sundry citizens of Harnett and Cape Fear Townships for laying out a public road from the seven mile post to Frank's Landing, on the Sound, and the Clerk was ordered to notify the owners of land through which the road would pass to appear before the first Monday in May and show cause, if they have any, why said road should not be laid out.

The following were ordered to be notified: A. R. Black, John Loftis, James Grant, Wm. Winters, Tobias Carney, John McNeill, Jordan Lemons, heirs of D. K. Futch.

Petition of J. F. Garrell, for the erection of a building at his own expense, on his premises, for the additional comfort and security of prisoners under his charge, was granted.

Petition from citizens of Masonboro and Federal Point Townships, for authority to lay off a public road, was granted, and the Sheriff was directed to summon a jury of five freeholders to lay off said road.

License to retail spirituous liquors was granted to D. Stelges.

The Board then proceeded to make the levy on Schedule B. and C. tax for the ensuing year, and the Clerk was instructed to notify the newly-appointed Assessors to meet at the Commissioner's room on the first Monday in May, at 11 o'clock A. M., for consultation, agreeable to section 2 of the Machinery Act.
