The above does not embrace all the SPECIAL BARGAINS we have secured during the four weeks passed in the markets, having spared neither trouble or time in order to accomplish our object. It affords us even more pleasure than it does our patrons to put desirable goods on this market below their actual value as it increases our business and is really the cheapest system of advertising as well as the true policy of extending any business.
We are also offering great inducements in all our regular purchases and can with safety add that at no time have our facilities been equal to the present season, and we are determined to put our regular stock of General Dry Goods on this market at a lower rate of percentage than ever before. See advertisement in Star.

LOCAL NEWS.

New Advertisements.
T. B. HENDERSON & Co.—Another Excellent.
See ad "Correspondence."
P. HENDERSON—Destruction and Reconstruction.
J. C. MUNDY, Druggist—Pond's Extract.
A. SHRIER—All In! Call In!
No City Court to-day.

Nothing doing in Magisterial circle to-day.
The new moon puts in an appearance this evening.
The Guard House is full to overflowing, but the City Court Room was empty at the usual court hour this morning.

Tomatoes were offered for sale in this market this morning at twenty cents per quart. They were brought from Charles ton.
The U. S. District Court, His Honor Judge Brooks presiding, will convene in this city on the first Monday in May, the 6th prox.

Stylish.—A seal skin jacket is no doubt very stylish, but is a perfect trap for catching cold. We would advise all ladies wearing the same to keep Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup handy. Price 25 cents.
Messrs T. B. Henderson & Co have for sale the finest Cochon China chickens we have ever seen in this market. They were raised by a Wilmington lady and would take the prize at any fair.

The next Hop of the Comus Club will be given on Friday evening next the 25th inst. We thank Messrs. Jno. D. Von-Glahn, L. J. Otterbourg and W. H. Muse, the Floor Managers, for an invitation to attend.

The lovers of good music will be gratified to learn that a rare musical treat is in preparation for them, a complimentary concert having been tendered to Mrs. Kahrweiler and accepted by her. The day selected, and full particulars, will be made known soon.

Fixing 'Em.
We are glad to see that the city authorities are straightening the rows of trees which were sometime ago planted in the middle of Market street. The work was done at the suggestion of the REVIEW and we will now suggest that others be set out in the place of the dead ones.

Prohibit It.
The scavengers were about in the land last evening about half past ten o'clock much to the annoyance, inconvenience and disgust of every body. It is now getting too warm for them to ply their vocation and it would be well for the authorities to prohibit it until a later hour.

Interred at Oakdale.
The last sad rites that departed friendship could offer were accorded this morning to the remains of George D. McMillan. The funeral procession was from the house to St. John's Church, and thence to Oakdale. Besides the relatives and friends of the deceased, nearly every printer in the city followed the mortal casket to its last resting-place in the quiet city of the dead.

Hon. Kemp P. Battle's Lecture.
We hope our citizens will not forget the lecture of this gentleman on to-morrow evening. We know whereof we speak when we promise them an evening of great pleasure and instruction. As before stated the lecture will be given at the Session Room of the First Presbyterian Church, free of charge, and we look for a crowded house to greet the President of our University on his first public appearance before a Wilmington audience.
Mr. Battle is expected to arrive in our city by this evening's train and will be the guest of Mr. Edward Kidder during his stay here.

Elevated Railroads, Lines of Stages, Places of Amusement, Depots and Steamers—all these radiate from, or are situated in, the immediate neighborhood of the Grand Central Hotel, on Broadway, New York, which is now kept on both plans, the American $2.50 or $3.00, and the European plan, $1.00 per day, and upwards. An elegant Restaurant, at moderate prices, is conducted by the Grand Central.

A Card.
To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood &c., I will send a recipe that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the Rev. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, New York City.

Watch Recovered.

Some three months ago an open face gold watch was stolen from the house of Sarah Mitchell, colored, situated in Brooklyn, and on yesterday Oliver Strode succeeded in getting it. The watch has changed hands three times since it was stolen and it has been traced back to Mingo Marshall, colored, who is "missing and wanted."

Unmailable

The following is a list of unmailable articles remaining at the Postoffice in this city:
Daniel Kelly, Charlotte, N. C.; Daniel S. Burch, Federal Point, N. C.; John Ryan, Bulu Bula, Australia; Wiley Leach, (postal card) Laurinburg, N. C.; Bessie Wooten, (postal card) Laurinburg, N. C.

The New Freight Tariff.

Sunday's Charlotte Observer says: Messrs. Pope, Clark and Haas, of the Wilmington & Weldon, Carolina Central, and the Richmond & Danville Railroads, respectively, have been appointed for the purpose, have drafted tariffs intended to meet the new railroad freight laws, and will submit them to an adjourned meeting of railroad managers, to be held in Raleigh next Thursday.

Lost his Hat.

A day or two ago a rustic looking man borrowed Master Bennie Cobb's hat to step out for a few minutes. The minutes lengthened into hours and hours into days and yet the man or hat has not been seen. Bennie was on the street yesterday with a double-barrel shot gun and a pointer dog hunting for the man who stepped out for a few minutes and who was not as green as he seemed to be.

Boysish.

Boys will be boys and boys of the present age are no worse than boys were forty years ago, but yet boys are not always right in what they do. Boys are in the habit of bending down the young trees on Market street, placing their hats on them and giving them a nail through the air for other boys to catch; and the boy who catches it then gives his hat a nail through the air in like manner. No doubt the game is an amusing one but what is fun to the boys is death to the trees.

Appleton's Journal.

The contents of Appleton's Journal or May are as follows: 'A Seal in the Chair of Destiny,' being the read a traditional history of the Stone of Scone placed in the Coronation Chair in Westminster Abbey; 'The Golden Mesh,' a story by M. E. W. S.; 'The Position and Influence of Women in Ancient Athens'; 'A Comedy of Superstition,' being a description of a remarkable play by the Spanish dramatist Calderon; 'On the Choice of Books,' by Frederic Harrison; the beginning of a new novel by Walter Besant and James Rice, entitled 'The Seamy Side'; 'Apples: A Comedy,' by Julian Sturgis; 'A Night with the Sardines,' an adventure in the bay of Biscay. Then follow the editorial departments. The editor writes of the Academy Exhibition, the success of 'Pinafore,' and 'The Discipline of Education.' There are a number of book criticisms, Dr. Busch's 'Bismarck' and H. Merton's 'Life of Turner' being reviewed at considerable length. Single Number, 25 Cents. Yearly Subscription, $3 00.

A Board of Health.

Those who are at all afraid of epidemic disease may feel comforted on hearing that one of the best protective measures they can resort to is a very simple one—the use of soap and water. An eminent physician says: "It is worth while for common people to learn that 50,000 typhus germs will thrive in the circumference of a pin head or a visible globule. It is worth while for them to note that these germs may be desiccated and borne like triaste seeds, everywhere, and like demoniacal possessions, may jump noiselessly down the throat. But there are certain things spores cannot stand according to the latest ascertained results of science. A water temperature of 120 degrees boils them to death, and soap chemically poisons them. Here sanitary and microscopic science come together. Spores thrive in low ground and under, low conditions of life. For redemption, fly to hot water and soap, ye who live in danger of malarial poisoning. Hot water is sanitary. Soap is more sanitary." Fight typhus, smallpox, yellow fever and ague with soap. Soap is a board of health.
Strawberries were selling this morning at 15 and 20 cents per quart.

Fort Caswell.

The finishing touches to the wharf at Fort Caswell have been made and persons who wish to land at the old fort can now do so. The wharf has been built at a considerable expense to Mr. Geo. Myers, agent of the steam yacht Passport, but no doubt he will be amply repaid by the pleasure seekers of this vicinity when surf bathing is in order.

Governor Jarvis Expected.

To night, His Excellency, Governor Jarvis, accompanied by the Secretary of State, Col. W. L. Saunders and Major Gilliam will arrive in the city on the 9:53 train from the North. They will to-morrow take a trip to either Smithville or the Sound, and to-morrow night they will attend a ball given in their honor by the Lotus Club of this city.

On Thursday morning the party will go to Flemington and pass the day in the enjoyment of a fishing excursion on Waccamaw Lake. During their stay in Flemington the distinguished visitors will be the guests of Col. H. B. Short, than whom no man is a nobler or more genial-hearted host. We learn that, after catching all the fish in Waccamaw, they will return and stop a couple of days in Wilmington before returning to the Capital, and will, probably, make an excursion down the river to the government works at New Inlet, besides visiting other places of historic or general interest.

We learn that the Governor and his friends will be met at the Front street depot to-night by the Cape Fear Light Artillery, who will act as an escort to his hotel, and a serenade by the Cornet Concert Club is among the things in contemplation in honor of the arrival of our distinguished visitors.

The Picnic at Croom's Bridge.

Through the politeness of Capt. Bisby, of the steamer Clinton, we learn that the picnic, at Croom's Bridge, in Pender county, on Saturday, the 19th inst., was quite an enjoyable and successful affair. It is estimated that there were between 400 and 500 people, of both sexes, and of all ages and conditions of life, present during the day. The very best of feeling was manifested and the best order maintained without any of the unpleasant episodes, such as fighting and drunkenness, to mar the harmony of the festivities of the occasion. The tables were spread with a bountiful supply of everything that could please the appetite or satisfy the hunger of those in attendance. Speeches were made by W. T. Bannerman, Esq., Clerk of the Superior Court of Pender, and others, all of which were appropriate to the occasion, and which were highly appreciated by the listeners.

Capt. Bisby made two excursion trips with the Clinton from Ormsby's Bluff to the picnic grounds, during the day, which were free to all who desired to attend. In this connection we desire to tender our thanks to Captain Bisby for the courtesy of the offer of a free ride on the Clinton whenever business or inclination should tempt us to brave the perils of the deep on the waters of the raging Northeast river, a courtesy which we appreciate and of which we shall avail ourselves whenever opportunity will permit.

The Raleigh Observer.

It is with great regret that we learn of the distress which has overtaken the Raleigh Observer, its editor and proprietor, Mr. Hale, having been compelled to make an assignment for the benefit of the creditors of his paper. The transfer was made yesterday. Mr. T. J. Robinson is named as the assignee and he will continue the publication of the paper for thirty days, in hopes of effecting a private sale during that time, failing in which he will offer it at public auction. The assignment covers everything except Mr. Hale's half interest in the public printing. Montford McGehee, Esq., is a preferred creditor to the amount of $4,000, and the balance to be realized, if anything, is to be divided among the other creditors, pro rata.

We do not know the extent of the Observer's liabilities but they are probably very large. We heard some months ago that they were not less than $20,000 but this may have been mere surmise. We do know, however, that one of the very best newspapers ever published in the Southern States, and a strong and earnest and unwavering champion of the interests of the people of North Carolina has been compelled to yield to the stringency of the times. In the death of Major Engelhard and in the suspension of the Raleigh Observer the people of North Carolina have suffered a terrible loss.

Personal Experiences of the Late War.

PERSONAL EXPERIENCES OF THE LATE WAR. By RICHARD TAYLOR, Lieutenant-General in the Confederate Army. 1 vol., 8 vo. Cloth, 274 pages. Price $2.
"These reminiscences of secession, war and reconstruction it has seemed to me a duty to record. An actor therein, accident of fortune afforded me exceptional advantages for an interior view." From Preface.
