THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. IV. WILMINGTON, N. C., TUESDAY, MAY 20, 1879. NO. 88

PLEASE NOTICE.
 We will be glad to receive communications from our friends on any and all subjects of general interest but:
 The name of the writer must always be funished to the Editor.
 Communications must be written on only one side of the paper.
 Personalities must be avoided.
 And it is especially and particularly undesired that the Editor does not always endorse the views of correspondents, unless so stated in the editorial columns.

Distinguished Citizens Expected.

We understand that Governor Jarvis and Lieut Governor Robinson are expected here some time next week to spend a few days in and around our city. During their stay they will visit Smithville and the Forts and will have as good a time as the hospitality of our people can make for them.

The Whitting Rifles.
 At the regular annual meeting of the Whitting Rifles, held in the Armory last night, the following were elected officers for the ensuing year:

Captain—James I. Metts.
 First Lieutenant—C. M. Brewer.
 Second Lieutenant—J. D. Nutt.
 Junior Second Lieutenant—W. A. Burr.
 Ensign—T. S. Rowell.

There was an unusually large attendance at this meeting.

Another Reunion.

Last evening the members of Stonewall Lodge K. of P. were somewhat surprised by seeing the members of Germania Lodge K. of P. march in the lodge room armed with bundles and baskets.
 It soon leaked out that a supper was to be spread and a good time to be had.
 After the ritualistic work had been gone through with, the boys rallied around the tables and fought nobly. A general good time was had and the Knights dispersed for their homes bearing happy recollections of reunions of Stonewall and Germania Lodges.

Bicarbonate of Soda in Toothache.

Dr. Dyce Duckworth contributes a short memorandum on this subject. He was called on to treat a case of very severe toothache, and tried various ordinary remedies, including chloroform and carbolic acid, without any benefit to the patient. He then remembered having read the pain might be removed by holding in the mouth a solution of bicarbonate of soda. He at once gave the patient half a drachm in an ounce of water, and to his astonishment, the pain ceased immediately, and complete relief was secured.
 He thinks that, as the remedy is so simple, and the disease so distressing and often intractable, this treatment may be worthy of notice and imitation.

The Concert.

As will be seen by the advertisement published elsewhere it has been definitely decided that the testimonial concert which has been tendered to Mrs. Kahnweiler will take place on next Friday evening, at the Opera House. The performance to be presented, sustained as it will be by the participation of some of the very best musical talent in the city, will be an unusually attractive one. Tickets and seats already secured will be good without exchange, and the box sheet is now open at Heinberger's, where those who have not already secured their seats may obtain them.

Prof. VanLaer, Musical Director, has called a rehearsal at the Opera House this evening and a general rehearsal on Thursday evening.

Yachting and Racing.

We learn that Commodore Wiggins, of the Carolina Yacht Club, proposes to order out his fleet on a cruise in a short time, and before the regular races commence. The exact time for the first race has not been definitely settled upon yet, owing to the absence of one member of the committee to whom is allotted the authority by the Club for defining the time and place of sailing the different races. It will not be many days, however, so we are informed, before the white sails of the different yachts will be spread to the breeze upon the broad bosom of the old Cape Fear and then the yachting season will have been duly inaugurated with fun and frolic for the young men of the Club, and maidens fair who may have a preference for a particular boat, or perhaps a boat's crew, will line wharves and encourage the jolly young tars with smiles and waving of hand-chiefs. Oh, ain't there lots of fun in a city by the sea in the summer time?

Next Monday, the 26th inst., the Criminal Court for this county, His Honor Judge Meares presiding, will be convened in special session, and the following Monday, the 2d day of June, the regular June term of the Superior Court for this county, His Honor Judge Seymour presiding, will be held.

Magistrate's Court.

Second Mate Mathias Dunn, of the brig S. J. Strout, was arraigned before Justice Gardner this morning upon complaint of Captain Willie, of the above named vessel, for desertion, and committed to jail to await the Captain's orders or the sailing of the vessel.

Committed.
 Matilda Hall, colored, who was arrested upon a peace warrant sworn out by Jane Outlaw, colored, a few days ago and given until Saturday to pay the fine and costs of the trial, which terminated in favor of the plaintiff, was to-day rearrested and committed to jail for non-payment of the amount. Unfortunately the woman has two little children, who had to go to prison with her.

Excursion to the Lake.

The excursion which has been in projection by the St. John's Sunday Sch. I will take place next Saturday to Waccamau Lake. A special train has been secured which will be run, both going and coming, at convenient hours. It is proposed to leave about half-past 8 o'clock and return about sunset, an arrangement which will commend itself to those who will have children in charge. Full particulars in advertisement in to-morrow's issue.

Excursion to Smithville.

Thursday morning, the 22d, at 9 o'clock, the steamer Passport will leave her wharf for Smithville, at which place the monument erected to the memory of the lost Pilots will be dedicated. Rev. E. A.
 Yates will deliver the address. The proceeds of the excursion are to be given to the widows and orphans of the deceased.
 Fare for round trip 50 cents. Tickets at Parker & Taylor's and at Geo. Myers' store.

Athalia.

The fact that the pupils of the Academy of the Incarnation have now in preparation a beautiful drama for presentation at some early day, has been learned with pleasure by many of our readers. It is a pretty little thing entitled "Athalia" and has been translated from the French of Racine by Miss Conigland, a daughter of the late E. L. Conigland, of Halifax, who was educated in the Academy. It is not ready for production but will be in a few days and due notice of the date fixed upon will be made through our columns.

Carraway's Regenerator.

The attention of our readers is invited to the handsome and attractive advertisement of Carraway's Regenerator for the hair, as it appears in this issue. It has been well tested in this city and there are numbers of gentlemen here who will subscribe to its merits. It promotes the growth and beauty of the hair, removes dandruff and diseases of the scalp and prevents the hair from falling out. As a sure guarantee of its excellence the proprietor agrees to refund the money at any time if it fails to do what is claimed for it, and what could be fairer than that?

Some Pleasant Rumors.

We hear it rumored on the street to-day —and we most sincerely trust that the rumors are true—that several Wilmingtonians now in New York, have realized very handsomely by transactions in cotton futures. Among the names we have heard mentioned are those of Messrs.
 Wm. Blanks, E. S. Nash and J. R. Bloss-som. The former, it is said, have been moderate in their transactions. Mr. Nash having netted about $10,000 and Mr.
 Blanks $17,000, while Mr. Blossom has made, according to some accounts, $150,- 000, and to others, $250,000. We don't know where the authority for the rumor comes from but we can only hope that it is all true.

Commencements.

Thanks to the marshals for an invitation to attend the Wake Forest commencement, set for June 10th, 11th, and 12th, on which occasion the Baccalaureate sermon is to be delivered by Rev. Dr.
 Broadus, of Louisville, the address to the Literary Societies by Senator Matt.
 Ransom and the Alumni Address by Rev.
 B. R. Savage.
 Also, to Messrs. J. M. Walker and L.
 H. Walker, for invitations to the Chapel Hill Commencement Exercises, June 4th and 5th, as well as to the Commencement Ball to be given on the evening of the 5th inst., and of which Hon. A. M. Waddell, of this city, is named as one of the Honorary Managers.
 Also, to Mr. Edward Schuiken, of this city, for an invitation to the Commencement at Vanderbilt University, beginning May 27th, Founders Day, and closing May 30th, with the annual address by Rev. Dr.
 Dody, of Kentucky.

Carraway's Regenerator for the Hair.

To promote the growth and beauty of the Hair; it removes all dandruff and diseases of the scalp, and stops the Hair from falling out. This Regenerator is endorsed by a great many of the leading gentlemen in the city who have used it. We will refund the money at any time if it does not do what is claimed for it. There is no better Hair Dressing made. It keeps the Hair in a healthy condition and it gives it a beautiful gloss.

General R. E. Colston.
 This gentleman, who has been delivering lectures in New York and several others of the large cities is expected here to-morrow. It is Genl Colston's intentrust that he may be induced to deliver one of his lectures in this city. He is highly spoken of as a lecturer and his subjects are always handled in a scholarly manner.

Pic Nic in Pender.
 May 19, 1879.

The young people in the vicinity of the Borough, a landing at the mouth of Moore's Creek, on Bluff River, on Thursday, and held one of the most enjoyable picnics it has ever had. The day was pleasant and the party was large and agreeable and you could not help but wish to mar our happiness for the day and the sun and lady laughing out with their cheering voices you could easily detect the sudden change in the young people's countenances from a melancholy expression to that of delight. The music being announced those wishing to participate in that innocent amusement, dancing, repaired to the house and judging from the number that joined the dance there are a good many in this section who love to trip the light fantastic toe.
 Others whose conscientious scruples won't allow them to participate, formed fishing parties and spent the day with themselves equally as well. At 1 o'clock dinner was spread under the shade of the big old hickory that held the pole and flag in the campaign of Jas. K. Polk, of 1845.
 One of the iron bands of which is still to be seen.

You can imagine the acuteness of our appetites after fishing and dancing. I'll assure you we did ample justice to our most beautiful repast. About 3 o'clock that energetic and generous gentleman, Capt. R. P. Paddison, came up on one of his regular trips from Wilmington to Point Ciswell and took all of our gay party on an excursion. Every one seemed happy as the steamer ploughed the turbid waters of our little river. After we had gone down as far as we wished we returned and were all safely landed again on terra firma, when it was unanimously resolved that we return our most cordial and hearty thanks to Capt.
 Paddison for his kindness on this occasion and thus ended our pleasant picnic.
