The most fashionable gold bracelets are very narrow, and have a locket attached as a pendant.

French cut steel is used for ornamenting hats and bonnets; it is used for pipings and ornaments.

We regret to learn that Capt. Geo. H.
Allen has been confined to his bed with rheumatism for a week past.

Rev. J. M. Atkinson, of Raleigh, is expected to preach in the First Presbyterian Church on Sunday next.

Slippers are more fashionable for house wear than sandals. They are trimmed with satin bows, set with crystal buckles.

If you want your baby to look bright do not put it to sleep with laudanum when restless, but use Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup, 25 cents a bottle.

We were pleased to receive a visit yesterday from Mr. J. P. Babington, of the Shelby Aurora, who has been on a short visit to our city.

The price of gas in Paris is $1.70 per thousand. In this country it varies from $2 to $3. In London it is 84 cents, and the dividends are 10 per cent annually.

A section of the Cape Fear Light Artillery will fire a national salute tomorrow afternoon, just as the procession is entering the grounds at the Cemetery.

The Custom House will be closed tomorrow after 10 o'clock, and during the day no other business will be transacted except the entry and clearance of vessels.

Speak of a man's marble brow, and he will glow with conscious pride; but allude to his marble head, and he's mad in a minute. Language is a slippery thing to fool with much.

Capt. John Barry, Roadmaster on the W. & W. Railroad, has in his possession a piece of the first Atlantic Telegraph cable that was laid between the coast of Ireland and Newfoundland.

Persons desirous of spending the summer at or making a visit to Smithville can be accommodated with good board at reasonable prices by Mr. Geo. L. Baxter.

The bell punch is foreshadowed in Shakespeare—wonderful man, that Shakespeare. Macbeth's remarks to an attendant. "Go bid your mistress, when my drink be ready, she strike upon the bell."

Very dressy shoes are of white satin, with lace drawn tightly over the satin.
These are worn with bridal costumes.
Slippers have many straps over the insoles, some having small bows with a pug dog's head in each bow.

At sunset on Tuesday evening the festival known in the Jewish calendar as Shebouth, or the "Feast of Weeks," commenced. It is celebrated in commemoration of the delivery of the Mosaic law to the children of Israel on Mount Sinai.

Some of the long gloves worn for evenings are laced up instead of buttoned.
This allows the wrist and arm of the glove to be fitted to almost any size.
They have a very simple arrangement for lacing without the use of eyelet holes.

We are requested by Col. E. R. Brink, Chairman of the Committee, to state that a special invitation is extended to the Veterans of the Mexican War to participate in the services to-morrow, in the decoration of the graves of the Federal dead.

Kid finished knitted silk gloves are worn in preference to kid gloves in summer. Those of this season are of the most beautiful colors and tints that have ever appeared in this market. There are exquisite silk gloves, with lace tops, that reach almost to the elbows.

Unavailable.

There are unavailable letters in the Postoffice for F. P. Carlile, Port Hamilton, S. C. H. K. & F. B. Thurber, New York, and Boston Blower Co., Boston, Mass.

Criminal Court.

This tribunal has been occupied the most of the day in trying the following cases:

State vs Anthony Howa, charged with malfeasance in office. Mistrial. Jury withdrawn.

State vs Ella Holmes, charged with larceny. Jury out.

The above is a summary of the proceedings up to the time of closing our report.

Sunday School Excursion.

As will be seen by reference to our advertising columns, the Sunday School connected with St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church will make an excursion to the "Hamme Place," which is about 12 miles up the Cape Fear, on the steamer Isis, to-morrow (Friday), the 29th inst.
The fare for the round trip is 50 cents; children and servants half price. Plenty of good things to eat on the boat and on the grounds. None know better how to get up a good time than our German friends, and this promises to be equal to the best.

Wise Words.

John P. Sampson, of this city, was at Augusta, Ga., recently where he delivered the address to the colored people on the occasion of the celebration of the adoption of the Fifteenth Amendment to the Constitution. In the course of his remarks he gave some excellent advice to his people relative to the exodus movement, advising them, by all means, to remain where they are, and to rely upon those among whom they have been raised and upon whom they can always rely for advice and assistance, rather than to remove themselves to a climate which is unfitted for them and to cast their fortunes among a people who have no interest in common with them, who know nothing of their wants and necessities and capacities and who even at the best, receive them with coldness and distrust. His remarks have been extensively copied and commended by the Georgia papers.

Dolly Browning in Raleigh.

Yesterday's Raleigh Observer says:— "We don't know anybody that is more liked than Capt. E. D. Browning, and we don't know of anybody that is more widely known, but the hearty attention that he received yesterday from everyone must have made him feel proud. He sticks so close to his business that nobody expects to see him except at Wilmington or Weldon, or on the line, but when he was discovered in the Yarrowborough House dining room yesterday the Governor had to give him a good hand-shaking, and his friends, the Secretary of State, and Capt. Dudley, and a whole lot of other friends adjourned over to his table. Dr. Blackhall was delighted, and a gentleman remarked, as the Doctor walked down the room to welcome him:
"I never saw him do that for a U. S. Senator." Since 1855 Capt. Browning has been on the Wilmington and Weldon road.
He is a good man who loves his friends, and his friends love him, and they will feel better if he will come this way oftener.

Point Caswell Items.

From an esteemed correspondent we learn that on Thursday last, the 29th inst., at Point Caswell Pender county, the closing exercises of the school taught by Miss L. H. Fry-ser, were held, and that the citizens turned out en masse to witness the progress made by the pupils during the session.
Old and young, of both sexes and of all conditions, forsook for the time the every-day duties and cares of life to do honor to the occasion. It was a sort of scholarly jubilee and literary gala day in which the young lads and lasses of the village were the actors and actresses while their parents, guardians, friends and relatives were delighted spectators.

The school room was tastefully embellished with mottoes bearing the inscriptions "Love," "Hope," "Charity," and "Knowledge." "The Cross," bearing the Latin maxim, Ni nisi cruce, (No dependence but on the cross) was singularly beautiful.
There were many other mottoes and maxims which were all chaste and appropriate, but which we have not space to enumerate.

The recitations, declamations and compositions were very commendable and evinced the patience, perseverance and industry with which the instructor had attended to her arduous and perplexing duties as well as to make manifest the intelligence of the pupils. The entire exercises reflected much credit upon both teacher and pupils and should be a source of pride to the people.

The First Regatta of the Season—The Rosa Wins the Race.

The first of the races of the season by the squadron of the Carolina Yacht Club was sailed on the river this afternoon, over the regular course, from a buoy opposite Market Dock to abreast of Dram Tree, return and repeat, making the distance about eight miles. The caps of wharves, porticos of offices, and sheds, were lined with spectators. The steamers Passport and Isis were gaily decorated in the national colors and followed the yachts through the race. The wind was light from the South. The yachts started on flood tide, and the race was closed on the ebb. The following were entered and start-d:

Frolic	sailed by Capt. Geo. D. Parsley Restless	sailed by Capt. S. P. Cowan.
Bonnie Lassie	sailed by Capt. Walter Coney.
Gipsy	sailed by Capt. W. A. Wright.
Rippled	sailed by Capt. W. L. Parsley.
Rosa	sailed by Capt. Jno. L. Cazaux.
Ripple	sailed by Capt. Norwood Giles.

By rules of the Club, the smallest yachts started first, the true distance being given them on the go. After the necessary arrangements were made the yachts were called to the judges' stand and started by the Fleet Captain at the following time, as recorded by the Judges Messrs. Geo. A.
Peck, J. I. Macks, and Wm. Latimer:
Restless..... 3h 37m
Frolic..... 3h 37m 40s Bonnie Lassie..... 3h 37m 57s Rosa..... 3h 38m 34s Lizzie..... 3h 38m 37s
Gipsy..... 3h 39m 32s Ripple..... 3h 40m 04s

The start was pretty and the boats kept their relative positions until about half way down the course when the Rosa closed the gap and led the fleet with the Restless and Frolic closely pursuing her. The Ripple passed the Lizzie, Bonnie Lassie and Gipsy. The Frolic's rigging gave way and the Ripple passed her to the windward. The lower buoy was rounded in the following order: Rosa, Restless, Ripple, Bonnie Lassie and Lizzie. The Rosa led the Restless by three minutes and the Ripple by four. After rounding the buoy the Ripple ran up a topsail and shortened the gap between her and the Restless. The Market dock buoy was rounded as follows:

Rosa	4h 39m 50 s
Restless	4h 44m 18 s Ripple	4h 44m 46 s Bonnie Lassie	4h 51m 41 s Lizzie	4h 54m 35 s Gipsy	5h 00m 00 s

Quick Dispatch of Business.

It is a fact worthy of note and public mention that the prosecution of business by His Honor Judge Meares, of the Criminal Court, during the sittings of his Court, is utaring in behalf of the publiinterest and as near as is consistent with dignity and justice in behalf of private interests also where it is right so to do, i. e., we mean that the Judge does not keep witnesses from the county and the city in attendance upon any case day after day when there is a possibility of disposing of the case by an energetic effort to bring the case to trial and in this way save the county unnecessary expense. In his efforts in this direction Judge Meares is ably seconded by the officers of the Court.
We mean to write in no fulsome manner upon this subject, for we have no interest at stake further than the public weal.
But we simply deem it a matter of interest to our readers as well as justice to remark upon the rapidity with which business is dispatched by this tribunal.

Decoration Day.

We again publish to day, elsewhere in this issue, the programme to be observed to-morrow in the honors that are to be tendered to the Federal Dead who rest in the National Cemetery, in the Eastern portion of the city. The procession will form in front of the City Hall Square and will move promptly at 3 o'clock.

The Excursion Saturday.

In the midst of the many pleasures offered our people at this time, none present a more prominent claim to public favor than the family excursion which is to be given by Prof. Agostini to Smithville and the Forts on Saturday next.
The Italian String Band will be taken along and if the Beach House at Fort Caswell can be completed in time there will be some delightful dancing on the very margin of old ocean.

Personal.

We were honored yesterday with a visit from His Excellency, Lieutenant-Governor Robinson, and were pleased to welcome him to our sanctorium. The Governor left the city this morning en-route for Raleigh and the West, full of pleasant memories of his short visit to Wilmington.

Capt. Benj. Robinson, of Fayetteville, at one time a citizen of this place, is in the city to-day.

Major Jno. C. Winder, Superintendent Raleigh & Augusta Air-Line R. R., is registered at the Purcell House.

Athalta Last Night.

As previously announced the young lady pupils connected with the Academy of the Incarnation presented Racine's beautiful drama of Athalta last night at the Academy Hall.

The drama was put upon the stage in excellent style and the impersonations of the several characters evinced a decided histrionic talent on the part of the dramatis personae. The drama is religious in its nature and the characters and plot are both taken from the Scriptures. The manner in which the piece was rendered showed not only the thorough training to which the pupils had been subjected, but that the different performers had become imbued with the spirit of the author, thus giving a correct and vivid interpretation the meaning intended to be conveyed.
It was a truly delightful entertainment, and it was highly appreciated by the large audience of refined intelligence which was present on the occasion.

Decoration Day.

We have been furnished with the following programme of the exercises which are to take place here on Friday next.
It will be seen that there is to be this year a procession as well as services at the National Cemetery:

DECORATION DAY, MAY 30TH, 1879.
