Ex Queen Isabella, of Spain, still holds her little court in a quiet way in republican Paris.

Queen Victoria drinks tea out of a saucer. As this is the right and sensible way to drink it, it is to be hoped that she will persevere and set a wholesome example.

Edward S. Stokes is dabbling in the mining business on the Pacific coast. He is mentioned in a Montana City (Nev.) newspaper as selling his interest in one mine for $65,000.

Somebody stole $500 from Mrs. Lynn of Dalton, Mass. She suspected her youthful son, and whipped him until he declared that he was the thief; but investigation proved him innocent.

A Greenback orator in Iowa tells his audience that Communism in France means the same thing as Socialism in Germany, and Socialism in Germany the same thing as Nihilism in Russia, and Nihilism in Russia the same thing as Greenbackism in the United States.

Mrs. Gladstone says that the mournful look on Mr. Gladstone's face depicted in Millais's portrait is due to his intense grief at the condition to which the Conservative party have brought the country.

Mrs. Lawrence makes speeches in the streets of Norwich, Conn., abusing the clergy and violently assailing Christianity. Her tongue is long and active, and she can always command large audiences.

The public baths in New York have already been opened for the season. During the bathing season of last year 2,457,657 bathers were registered, the expense of maintenance being $18,302. The baths are free.

Quite a number of Americans have found employment within the last year on the London newspapers, and have succeeded in infusing a little of the brightness and vivacity of American journals into those prosy sheets.

Senator McDonald, of Indiana, says that the Ohio campaign will be fought on the issues of State control of elections, without the interference of the President by means of the army, and a bi-metallic standard for the paper currency of the country.

The last story told of Prince Bismarck is marked with his usual condensed and caustic humor. Prince Battenberg, the newly-elected ruler of Bulgaria, paid a visit to the chancellor of the German Empire, and asked his advice about accepting the post offered him.

The boot and shoe trade of Boston shows the same improvement that almost every branch of industry exhibits this spring. The shipment of boots and shoes from the Hub last week footed up 20,214 cases, or over 7,000 more than for the corresponding week last year, and the shipments for the first five months of the year aggregate 681,573 cases, against 581,253 in the corresponding period of 1878.

A young man who saw a fellow fall prostrate on the sidewalk in a Western city drunk and insensible, concluded to make some observations. He accordingly stepped into a dark corner from which point he could see without being seen. He declares that inside of fifteen minutes six different men passing along and seeing the drunken man lying on the sidewalk, scooped over him and went through his pockets.

The Fulton (N. Y.) Patriot prints a note from Mr. T. A. Edison, dated May 20, in which he says: "I have nothing new at present to communicate regarding the electric light, but the whole subject will go through the press mill ere long, as I am just now rounding up the corners, and expect in a short time to show the unbelievers something that will make them doubt no longer. As soon as I am ready to make an exhibition of the light here I shall open my laboratory."

The Philadelphia Walnut Street Theatre is the oldest theatre in the United States. The owner is J. S. Clarke, the actor, who lives in London most of the time. Clarke bought the Broad Street Theatre, in Philadelphia, a few years ago, and played there on his last visit to this country, instead of going to the Walnut, as usual. Manager Goodwin, the lessee of the Walnut, retaliated by hiring the Park Theatre, and transferring his best engagements to that house, leaving only second rate stars to the Walnut. The latest blow at the Walnut was the production of an absurd drama from the pen of a Philadelphia court interpreter. Nearly all the lawyers of the city made the occasion one of great hilarity, jibing the author, commenting loudly on the play, and hectoring the unfortunate performers.

SELL AND GIVE.

It is fashionable—quite fashionable—to quote Scripture, but not so fashionable to practice it. Now and then a rare instance occurs, but the rule is for the preaching and not for the practice. We find the following in an exchange. Some people who quote Scripture most freely would say that the man was mad, while but a few would allow their thoughts to linger on the injunction to lay up for yourselves treasures in Heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt and where thieves do not break through nor steal."

Edward Alexander Guy, of Cincinnati, was in 1862 possessor of $40,000. He was a well educated, intelligent young man, and particularly pious. Convinced that the scriptural text, "sell all that ye have and give unto the poor," was a binding injunction, he began to dispose of his property and give the money to the poor. He bestowed the gifts slowly and carefully, and it was not until 1870 that the last dollar was gone. He is now a religious missionary in Cincinnati, penniless, but completely absorbed in his work.

EARLY ADVENT OF THE COTTON WORM.

Prof. C. V. Riley says that he has had authentic reports of the appearance of the cotton worm at different points in the South. He has just received a letter from Judge James E. Bailey, of Marion, Ala., showing that the worm has been found in a full-grown condition thus early in the season, just south of his locality.

Prof. E. A. Smith, of Tuscaloosa, Ala., reports the same thing. The past winter was very severe, and this early appearance of the worm, taken in connection with the fact that Judge Bailey found the moths abundantly coming from winter quarters early in the spring, would seem to effectually settle in the affirmative the mooted question as to the possibility of the insect's hibernating in the United States.

Prof. Riley, who had charge of the cotton worm investigation while entomologist of the Department of Agriculture, is now vigorously pursuing the same inquiry on behalf of the United States Entomological Commission, which is now required by law to do so, and notwithstanding the uncertainty about the passage of the pending legislative bill, he has engaged sufficient observers in Alabama and Georgia, and has sent to Southern Texas a special agent, who will make his headquarters for the summer at Columbus. Prof. Riley will go South himself just as soon as an opportunity for practical experiment offers.

ANOTHER VICTORY FOR THE CONFEDERATE BRIGADIERS.

In our local columns of this issue will be found an account of a new, and we trust, effective method for the administration of justice. There is only one element lacking to make the affair a first-class sensation for the Northern outrage mill.

Had the parades who administered the punishment been white men, or had any whites advised or encouraged the proceedings, there would have arisen a howl of indignation which would have been heard from Maine to Minnesota, and Senators Blaine, Edmunds, Anthony, Conkling, Windom, Logan and others would have had plenty of new material for their old chronic texts. The colored people, however, had the entire control of the matter from beginning to end, and thus robbed the stalwarts of the North of a golden opportunity to malign our people. In this instance there were no whites present to curtain the colored men of their rights, and, although the proceedings were "extra-judicial," we think they were "rights" which the majority of the whites are bound to respect.

There is another feature in this act, however, entirely outside of politics, which must commend itself to intelligent people, as manifesting an advance in the character, aims and ambitions of the colored race. For a number of years since the war, when a colored man had served out his sentence for a punishment incurred for any violation of the law, and had been discharged from prison, he was hailed with a sort of ovation, and received in some colored circles as an equal and an associate of whom there was no reason to feel disgraced.

Within the past few years, however, there has been a decided tendency on the part of the more respectable colored people to ignore and taboo those who had been convicted for crime, and to teach the offenders of the law that they could expect but little mercy from the race which they were helping to continue in disgrace and odium. This is right, and, while we are opposed, on general principles, to the manner in which punishment was administered at Halifax, we are confident that the result will prove beneficial to the colored people of the State.

The act was very unkind towards the stalwarts of the North. It has said to them virtually, "We need none of you officers intermeddling in the affairs of the colored race in North Carolina, for we are perfectly competent and willing to take care of our own interests." It is an absolute repudiation of any interference from those resources, and we are at a loss to know what they will do about it.

"Yes, Agnes, I'm going to have a cream-colored summer silk, provided pa doesn't veto the appropriation ma has passed."—Waterloo Observer.

The inventor of shoes for walking on the water gave an exhibition at Memphis. He stepped boldly off the levee, but the buoyancy of the shoes was not equal to expectation, and he immediately sank in to the river. He was so nearly drowned when rescue that they rolled him on a barrel. No more successful was the trial of a flying machine at San Francisco. The inventor started from a housetop, fluttered briefly in the air, and fell into a stream, where the apparatus nearly caused his death by sinking him.

It is said that the suite of the German Empress (who is no friend of Bismarck's) during their recent stay in England made unpleasant remarks about the great Chancellor. They described him as declining in reputation and rapidly decaying in physique. Corpulence is rendering his huge form more unwieldy than ever, puffy and unhealthy is the look of his flesh; no Kissingen can avail against that enormous appetite, which consumes largely of everything, but especially of bread and cheese and beer. His incompetence in domestic policy is beginning to alarm the best of his previous admirers!

It doesn't do any good to veto a butcher's bill. Boggsby tried it, and the butcher, in defiance of all law and constitutional precedent, absolutely refused to vote any more supplies until the bill passed. Boggsby says the country is on the verge of a new revolution, and in face the new revolution has come, for he now walks clear around the block to avoid that butcher's shop.—Burrington Hawk-eye.

Deal Gently with the Stomach. If it proves refractory, mild discipline is the thing to set it right. Not all the nauseous draughts and boluses ever invented can do half as much to remedy its disorders as a few wingless flies—say, three a day—of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which will afford it speedy relief, and eventually banish every dyspeptic and bilious symptom. Sick headache, nervousness, sallowness of complexion, fur upon the tongue, vertigo, and those many indescribable and disagreeable sensations caused by indigestion, are too often perpetuated by invidious using. An immediate abandonment of such random and ill advised experiments should be the first step in the direction of a cure; the next step the use of this standard tonic alternative, which has received the highest medical sanction and won unprecedented popularity.

DISLIKING TO ENTER INTO A NEWSPAPER CONTROVERSY. P. L. BRIDGERS & CO. Have heretofore refrained from saying anything on the subject of Duff Gordon Sherries. AND W. T. WALTERS & Co.'s Baker Whiskey, Both of which they have kept since opening, although some of their friends and competitors CLAIM to be Sole Agents.

W. T. WALTERS & CO. Refuse to make any one their Agent, reserving the right to sell to whom they please.

By Business Men. It is well known that such articles as the DUFF GORDON SHERRIES, MUM'S CHAMPAGNE, etc., have no Local Agents throughout the country, as they can always be bought much cheaper, in small quantities, from second hands, than the Agents can sell at, they being compelled to protect the trade of those who buy hundreds of packages at a time.

WE ARE SURPRISED. That our friends, with their long Business Experience, should have brought forward such a weak point as this, but can now understand, paying package rates to the Agents, why they supposed, on account of the low price at which we were selling the goods, that ours was not the genuine article. LIFE IN A BOTTLE. The Most Valuable Medical Discovery Ever Known to the World—No More Use for Quinine, Calomel or Mineral Poisons—Life for the Blood, Strength for the Nerves, and Health for All.

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE PUBLIC. Believing that by cleansing the blood and building up the constitution was the only way of banishing disease and being free from weakness of the lungs, catarrhs, and much broken down constitutions, and after trying the best physicians and paying out my money for many kinds of medicines advertised without finding a permanent cure, I began doctoring myself, using medicine made from roots and herbs. I fortunately discovered a wonderful Bitters of Blood Cleanser, the first bottle of which gave me new life and vigor, and in time effected a permanent cure. I was free from catarrhs, my lungs became strong and sound, being able to stand the most severe cold and exposure, and I had gained over thirty pounds in weight. A trying incident that I had made a wonderful discovery in medicine, I prepared a quantity of the Root Bitters, and was in the habit of giving them away to sick friends and neighbors. I found the medicine effected the most wonderful cures of all I had ever seen. I had humors or scurf in the blood, impurities in the stomach, Weakness, Kidney disease, torpid Liver, &c., &c. The news of my discovery to this way spread from one person to another until I found myself called upon to supply patients with medicinal bark and wide, and I was induced to establish a laboratory for large quantities and bottling the Root Bitters in large quantities, and I now do it all my time to this business.

I was a first-class work in presenting this system of purification to the public, not being a patent medicine, and with small capital, but I am getting on well. Since I first advertised this medicine, I have been crowded with orders from druggists and country dealers, and the hundreds of letters I have received from persons cured, prove the fact that no remedy ever did so much good in purification and nourishment as the Root Bitters. In fact, I am convinced that they will soon take the place of all other medicines in use. Early one hundred retail druggists, right here at home in Cleveland, now sell Root Bitters, some of whom have already sold over one thousand bottles.

Root Bitters are strictly a medical preparation, such as was used in the good old days of our forefathers, when people were cured by some simple root or plant, and whose calomel and other poisons of the mineral kingdom were unknown.

Strongly acting on the liver and kidneys, keep the bowels regular and build up the nervous system. They penetrate every part of the body, searching out every tort, bone and tissue from the head to the feet, cleansing and strengthening the fountain springs of life, hence they must reach all diseased parts, and be able to reach all diseased parts. No matter what your feelings or symptoms are, what the disease or ailment is, use Root Bitters. Don't wait until you are sick, but if you only feel bad or miserable, use the Bitters at once. It may save your life!

Thousands of persons in all parts of the country are already using Root Bitters. They have saved many lives of consumptive who had been given up by friends and physicians to die, and have permanently cured many old chronic cases of Catarrh, "Croup," Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, and Skin Diseases, where all other treatments had failed. Any person troubled with indigestion, constipation, dizziness, weakness, bad taste in the mouth, nervousness, and broken down in constitution! You will be cured if you take Root Bitters. Have your humors and pimples on your face or skin? Nothing will give you such good health, strength, and beauty as Root Bitters.

I know that you physicians will say I am humbug because my discovery cures so many of their patients, but I care not for my own desire and determination to please my Root Bitters as fast as possible with the reach of all those suffering throughout the world. Sold by wholesale and retail druggists and country merchants, or sent by express on receipt of price, $1.00 per bottle, or six bottles $5.00. For certificates of wonderful cures, see my large circular around each bottle of medicine. I had judged for myself.

Ask your druggist or merchant for FRAZIER'S ROOT BITTERS, the great Blood-Cleanser, and take no substitute. It is recommended because he makes a large profit. G. W. FRAZIER, Discoverer. 338 Superior St., Cleveland O. For sale by J. C. Munds and T. S. Barnhart, Druggists, march 26th east-d&w
