GENERAL JAMES SHIELDS.

James Shields was poor, A. wealth now counts, he had not much Nor did he put his trust in banks, And bonds, and syndicates, and such; For it was still his simple plan to serve his country, and be a man.

H s life was clean. H & me was clean, from place to place, Distinguished both in war and peace, with strong, swift limbs he ran the race, Nor turned aside from any toil to gather gain or search for spoil,

A bold, bright man, A bold, bright pent his life and gold," And itsed within the present time, As it he never might grow old; But we may rest assured his God hes not with him beneath the sod, Yel he was rich. In spite of all the blows of fate, In spite of poverty and years, The hero owned agrand estate. belier than any broad domain-A integand conscience free from stain.

Neglected much, A mere scene shifter on the stage where he had played heroic parts. And still a toller in his age; The heart that breaks but never yields heat bravely in the breast of shields.

lames shields was poor. Tis true, in these, our sordid days, That honest poverty is not A common cause of general praise; But shields will be a memory yet, while pocket patriots we forget. ' W.
