Magistrate's Court.

Before J. C. Hill, (J. P.) Ludd Johnson colored, was arraigned for wilful abandonment, and judgment rendered against him.

Before the same Justice the same defendant was arraigned for assault and battery, and committed in default of payment of the fines and costs, amounting to $6.39 in both cases.

G. W. Murray, colored, was also brought up for trial before Justice Hill upon the charge of assault and battery with a deadly weapon. The defendant was bound over in the sum of $200 for his appearance to-morrow, the 19th inst., to answer to the above named charge.

To Judge Silks.

There are two ways to judge silks. Note the closeness and evenness of the rib, and hold it to the light to judge the better of this. That shows the texture.

Then crush the material in the hand and release it suddenly. Notice if it springs out quickly; that is the veer, and should leave no creases behind. The quality of the silk is the softest in the world, and often wanting in stiffness in appearance.

The Bengal silk is the poorest, and deficient in veer. And, again, there is a great deal of silk manufactured which is adulterated with a material called jute, which is interwoven in the fibre of the silk. This manufacture will be found very deficient in veer. It is a silk which, if wetted, stiffens almost like paper.

Next Excursion.

Prof. Agostini has advertised another excursion for Friday next. The pagoda on the beach has been completed and since the last excursion a plank walk has been made from the steamer's wharf to it. A pleasant time is promised every one who participates in the excursion.

Seriously Burned.

Little Johnnie Steinken, aged about 10 years, son of Mr. George Steinken, who resides on the corner of New Hanover and Second streets, while at the turpentine distillery of Messrs. Alderman & Brent Point Peter, yesterday afternoon, accidentally fell into the resin bin which was full of hot rosin at the time, and was fearfully burned. The rosin had been drawn from the still some time and was partially cooled on the surface, but it was sufficiently hot to scald him, and both legs, from his knees down, and feet, and both hands were so badly burned that the skin came off in large patches. He was conveyed home and medical attendance at once summoned and every remedy that science could suggest was administered to relieve the sufferer. His condition this morning is as comfortable as could be expected and he bears his suffering with real fortitude.

Pender County Items.

This Superior Court now in session at Burgaw, the county seat of Pender, will probably close its labors to-day. Judge Seymour is certainly one who believes in the dispatch of business, and he has a peculiarly business-like quality of accomplishing a large amount of work in the smallest possible space of time. His course on the bench has won the commendation of the entire bar. The cases thus far which have been tried are as follows:

Moses Jordan, colored, larceny, guilty, 1 year in Penitentiary.

Lewis Murphy, colored, larceny, convicted—not yet sentenced.

Wash. Pickett, colored, larceny, guilty, four months in county jail.

Albert Jessup, colored, larceny, convicted—not yet sentenced.

Richard Hooper, colored, assault and battery, guilty, $1 and costs, in default of which was sent to jail.

Sam. Faison, colored, rape, continued. There were some other cases which will probably be disposed of this morning.

Quite a number of the members of the Wilmington Bar are in attendance, and the counties of Sampson, Duplin and Onslow as well as the local bar of Pender were well and ably represented during the term.

During the afternoon session yesterday Mr. John L. Holmes, of this city, was taken suddenly ill and returned to the hotel where medical assistance was promptly at hand. Mr. Holmes had complained during the morning of feeling unwell, and was advised to keep his room, but he went to the Court room in the afternoon, where in a few moments, owing to his condition, his labors and the extreme heat he was completely prostrated, and was compelled to return to the hotel as above stated. His condition last night was comfortable, although he was very weak and exhausted.

We saw quite a number of people from Onslow, who, now that New Inlet is closed, seem more than ever in earnest that the Burgaw and Onslow Railroad shall be built.

The school which has been taught for several sessions at Burgaw by Mrs. Liddsey, the accomplished daughter of "maine host" Williams, of the "Williams Hotel," closed its spring session on Wednesday the 11th inst., by an interesting entertainment consisting of vocal and instrumental music, chasades, dialogues, &c. Unfortunately we were unable to be present as we intended to have been, but we are pleased to note, from the report of those who were present, that it was a complete success and reflected much credit both upon teacher and pupils.

A Presbyterian church was recently organized in the village, and steps are being taken to have a church edifice erected at an early day.

We are pleased to learn that the crops throughout the counties of Pender and Onslow are growing rapidly. Everything thus far betokens an abundant harvest for the year's labors.

Messrs Westbrooke & Bro, of Rocky Point, have raised and sold, this year from less than one acre of land, radishes and Irish potatoes to the amount of $175, and the ground is now ready for its third crop.

Quite Low.

Boatmen report the river between here and Fayetteville quite low. Scarce two feet of water is now to be found upon the shoals. The Murchison which left here to day had to take a flat lighter her freight over the sand bars.

The Sunken Steamer.

The little steamer Fire Fly has been partially raised. It is feared that she has sustained greater injuries than was at first thought. The piling on which she caught punched a hole about 6 inches square through her bottom. The steamer was turned upside down and it is thought that the engine and boiler have shifted their position.

Open Air Concerts.

Next Wednesday evening we are promised the first of the series to open air concerts by the Cornet Concert Club. The City Hall park is the place selected for the erection of a stand for the Club and in order to prevent an indiscriminate crowd filling the enclosure an admission fee of ten cents will be charged. Seats will be provided for the comfort of those in the enclosure.

Arrival of the Instruments for the City Fire Alarm.

We are informed by Gen. M. P. Taylor, State Agent for the Bell Telephone Co., that the instruments and apparatus for the City Fire Alarm, arrived here last night. He has awarded the contract for poles and cross arms for the same to our townsman, Mr. R. B. Wood, and they will be delivered at once. We are requested by Gen. Taylor to state that the telephones for the Merchant's Exchange will be here in a few days and in season to be put in connection with the Fire Alarm as soon as it is in operation.

Belligerent Characters Awaiting Trial.

Hanson, the colored man who was arrested for an assault upon the colored janitor of the Bank of New Hanover yesterday afternoon, gave bail for his appearance before Mayor Fishblate tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock, at which time he will be called upon to rise and explain why he was so belligerent.

Drake, a limping colored shoe maker, from the Paddy Hollow district, was arrested yesterday afternoon for abusive language towards a health officer and for disorderly conduct generally. He was locked up and will remain locked up until to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock, at which time he will be ushered into the august presence of the Mayor and be required to tell why he acted thusly.

Mr. M. Croley, assessor for Wilmington township gives notice in an advertisement elsewhere published in this afternoon's REVIEW that five and only five more days are left in which to list taxes.

We are glad to learn that Mr. John L. Holmes, who was taken quite sick at Burgaw yesterday while attending Court there, was enabled to return home last night and is considered much better to-day, though he is still confined to the house.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

SIR: With yesterday there passed away a week of pleasure not soon to be forgotten by a party of Wilmington young folks who had taken it upon themselves to convert Wrightsville Sound into a "Brighton Beach." The party was made up of a great portion of the beauty and gallantry of this city, and consequently nothing save a glorious time could have been expected.

Through your columns they desire to express their heart felt thanks to Capt. C. D. Myers, whose beautiful place was the scene of so much happiness to them all.

Truly yours, PARTICIPANT.

A Card.

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a recipe that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the Rev. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, New York City.

"Truth lies in a nut-shell," and "brevity is the soul of wit." To be brief, when the shell is broken, the truth will be discovered that, the Grand Central Hotel, on Broadway, New York, now kept on both plans, the American $2 50 or $3 00 and the European $1 00, and upwards per day, gives more satisfaction for the same money than any other first-class house in Gotham. An elegant Restaurant, at moderate prices, is conducted by the Grand Central.

THE BELL TELEPHONE.

Read the following from the Petersburg Index-Appel and judge for yourself whether the instrument we give you transmits the human voice clearly and distinctly.

MATTHEW P. TAYLOR, State Agent.

THE TRIUMPH OF THE TELEPHONE—A THOROUGH TEST, WITH MOST SATISFACTORY RESULTS.

The triumph of science has been beautifully illustrated in the success of the telephone, and there can no longer be any doubt as to the excellence and value of this invention in the transmission of sounds—even down to those of the most delicate nature. In this city on Sunday the Bell telephone was submitted to a test so thorough and with results so satisfactory as to place its merits beyond all cavil and to clearly establish all that has been claimed for it. As the experiment was made in our presence, we can speak from personal observation and knowledge.

On Saturday last the Bell company placed a Blake transmitter in Grace (Episcopal) church, attaching it to one of the lecterns, and connecting it by wire with one of the simple Bell hand telephones, in the residence of a citizen near the lower end of High street. The transmitter is enclosed in a little box of polished walnut, and occupies so small a space that its presence on the lectern in front of the minister is hardly noticed by the congregation. A small, insulated covered wire runs down the side of the lectern to the carpeted floor, and thence along one of the chancel steps to the wall, and out through a minute gimlet hole in the window frame, where it is connected with the main wire, which crosses the street and runs along from roof to roof of the houses to its terminus—the chamber of an invalid lady who, for ten years, by reason of sickness, has been debarred the blessings and privileges of the services of her church, and the comforts and instructions of her pastor.—One can better imagine than describe the joyous feelings which she experienced after so long a deprivation, at being once more able to hear and take part in the services—even at so great a distance. And yet it was not without some fears, as she took hold of the phone, that her pleasant anticipations might not wholly be realized.

A few minutes before 11 o'clock she placed the phone to her ear. The first sounds were the voices of the one or two hundred children in the Sunday School in the basement of the church as they joined in singing the closing hymn—the air coming clear and distinct. Then came over the wire the deep tones of the church bell, calling the people to worship. A few moments pause and the organ came soft and clear, and then was heard the voice of the minister, Rev. Dr. Gibson, as he read: "The Lord is in His holy Temple—let all the earth keep silence before him"—clear and distinct as though the speaker and listener had been in the same room. And thence on to the close of the service, every thing that was spoken or sung in the church—the prayers, the lessons, the Litany, the hymns, the sermon, the benediction—all were heard with remarkable distinctness and expression. Scarcely a word from the minister or a note from the choir was lost. The lady had her prayer book and bible and hymnal before her and made the responses with the congregation. The success was complete.

Dr. Gibson's text was taken from Psalm xxxii, 8: "I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way thou shalt go; I will guide thee with mine eye." During the delivery of the sermon he made brief reference to the little instrument before him, likening it as it carried his words away to a distant point, to the unseen telephone and transmitter that bear our every thought and word with unerring accuracy to the eye and ear of our Heavenly Father.

The Blake Transmitter is a perfect instrument and wonderful in its capacity. It transmits all sounds in their full volume, and with such clearness and distinctness that the very expression of the voice can be distinguished. During the singing at the church on Sunday every voice in the choir was heard and the part sung by each was easily distinguishable.

The same effect is produced no matter what the length of wire used, where one of these transmitters is attached. It is not a matter of surprise therefore, that the Bell telephone is so rapidly growing into favor.—The manager here—Mr. John J. Campbell, yesterday received six new orders for it.

The gentlemen in charge of the Bell telephone work in this city are active and attentive to the discharge of their duties and push forward their labors with great energy, promptness and rapidity, and do it well. We have rarely met with gentlemen of more courteous and obliging manner than Messrs. Benj. D. DeForest and Robert Gale, who are engaged in laying the wires and placing the telephone in this city.

American Wines.

But few persons are aware of the great amount of grapes raised in New Jersey. Alfred Speer is known to be the largest wine grower east of the Rocky Mountains.

His Port Grape Wine is the best, and is considered by physicians and chemists as the best wine to be procured. It is ordered to London and Paris, where it is becoming very popular among wealthy families. For sale by J. C. Munds, P. L. Bridgers & Co and Green & Planter
