LOCAL NEWS.

New Advertisements.
J. G. WRIGHT, Agt—For Rent.
See ad kept of the Condition of the First National Bank.
P. HINSHBERG—Markof.
J. C. MUNDS, Druggist—Flavoring Ex- tracts.
SMAIK'S—Summer clothing.
Eggs are scarce and high.
Vegetables are cheap and plentiful.
Shrimps sell for ten cents per quart in this market.
Ten little colored boys with ten little guns paraded the streets yesterday after- noon.
A word spoken in due season, how good it is when it strikes the man with the bill just about right.
It doesn't take a school boy long to evince a love for division, provided an- other boy owns the apple.
The steam yacht Passport will bring up a crowd of colored excursionists from Smithville this afternoon.
Cannot a race, tub race, walking match or something of the kind be gotten up in the city for the Fourth of July?
The yachts of the Carolina Yacht Club will be taken to the Sound and gotten in readiness for the race on the Fourth.
The steam yacht Elizabeth is being overhauled and will be run on the river for the benefit of excursion parties, so we hear.
The report of the condition of the First National Bank of Wilmington, at the close of business on the 4th inst., is published in this issue.
Dr. A. E. Wright's delightful Sound residence, on Wrightsville Sound, well known to all of us is offered for rent for the summer on low terms. See advertise- ment published elsewhere.
Dead, low water in the river, is the cry now. The shoals at Fayetteville seem almost out of the water and it is hard work for the steamers at more than one point below there.
About sixty excursionists from along the line of the Carolina Central Railway arrived in this city this morning en route for Beaufort, where they propose making a visit for about a week.
Capt. Paddison will, we understand, give a moonlight excursion on his fine steamer, the Isis, on next Monday night, on which occasion only twenty- five cents for the trip will be charged. Particulars in advertisement in a few days.
All that have once used it pronounce Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup the best medicine known for the complaints of early child- hood. 25 cents a bottle.
At a meeting of Cornelius Harnett Council, No. 231, of the Royal Arcanum, held last evening, the following officers were elected:
Owen Fennell, Jr., Regent; Samuel Northrop, Vice Regent; H. Bruhild, Orator; B. A. Hallett, Secretary; J. Weil, Collector; Wm. Larkins, Treasurer; S. Mendelssohn, Chaplain; H. H. Kas- prowitz, Guide; G. Rosenthal, Warden; E. Levy, Sentinel.
There were twelve applications for mem- bership at this meeting.

The Regatta Yesterday.
The regatta yesterday, by four boats of the Carolina Yacht Club, the last of the season in the river, was concluded too late for a report in our last issue. The four boats which took part were the Rosa, the Lizzie, the Gipsy and the Ripple. They left Market Dock in the following time:
Rosa.....4h 00m 15s
Lizzie.....4h 00m 18s
Gipsy.....4h 01m 13s
Ripple.....4h 01m 45s
During the run to the Dram Tree buoy the Lizzie broke down and was compelled to lay to for repairs and this delay threw her back in the race. On the home stretch the Gipsy withdrew and the other yachts came in on the first course and rounded the home buoy as follows:
Rosa.....4h 58m 40s
Ripple.....4h 58m 48s
Lizzie.....5h 08m 00s
The time between the Rosa and Rip- ple, as will be seen, was very close, the latter being but eight seconds behind her competitor. The race between these two boats on the second course to the lower buoy was very close and elicited an in- tense interest but on the last home course the Rosa forged somewhat ahead. The boats came in and passed the home buoy in the following order and time:
Rosa.....5h 09m 40s
Ripple.....5h 11m 08s
Lizzie.....5h 22m 00s
The Rosa was declared the winner and continues to carry the champion flag.

Cut Your Flowers.
Those having the care of flowers should not forget that every blossom allowed to fully mature upon the stem will injure the bush more than a dozen cut when in the bud or blooming. All blossoms should be cut when fairly blown. If you have more than is needed for home decoration, send them to your friends who have less; or ex- change them with those who have differ- ent varieties. Such exchanges will not only refresh the bushes from which the blossoms are taken, but will refresh the kindly feelings of both donor and recipient and prove the wisdom of that writing which says it is better to give than to re- ceive. Flowers thus bestowed may be made to blossom forever and lend a per- petual fragrance to the lives of those around us.

City Court.
Alderman Flanner, Mayor pro temp., presiding:
Burnett Brown, charged with drunken- ness and disorderly conduct, was the first case on docket this morning. The de- fendant was arrested yesterday afternoon and confined in a cell, but later was bailed out to appear this morning at 9 o'clock for trial. This morning he sent a physician's certificate of his inability to attend and the case was continued.
A white youth from a mighty village who was arrested last night for drunken- ness, was told that he might go this time but was admonished to sin no more.

Gymnastic Club.
A number of German citizens of Wil- mington, have recently organized them- selves into a gymnastic association, to be known as the Wilmington Hanover Club. The following gentlemen have been elect- ed officers:
President—Jno. G. Oldenbutele.
Vice-President—W. H. Koch.
Secretary—W. Van Hensen.
Treasurer—D. H. Klander.
The Club starts with about twenty mem- bers.
A committee was appointed to make the necessary arrangements for carrying into effect the objects of the organization

Endorsing our Suggestion.
We publish elsewhere a communication endorsing the suggestion made by us yesterday that there be a celebration had in commemoration of the closing of New Inlet. The writer is a gentleman of position and influence in our midst and a merchant with a large shipping interest. We would be heartily glad to see the suggestion acted upon and believe that it could be done very easily were the scheme once taken in hand by the right men.

Gone Sheepheading
Quite a number of our German friends went down to New Inlet this morning for the purpose of indulging in a still- hunt for sheephead. They will fish there the balance of the week, bunking it at the Point and expecting a general good time. If the fish bite worth a cent we have been told that some of the biggest will find their way to the REVIEW office, in consequence of which inducement our frying pan shall be kept hot and greasy.

Election of Officers.
At a regular communication of Mount Nebo Lodge, No. 14 of F and A A Y M held last evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing Masonic year:
F S Merrick, W M; W H Waddell, S W; Jas W Pearson, J W; Jno W Moore, Treasurer; Jno H Brown, Secretary
Joshua Green, Tiler.
Appointed—A Maulsby, S D; W H Bradley, J D; C H Ward, S S; J H Lucas, J S; H Reid, Chaplain; Jno A Holt, Mar- shal.

Read it.
Many of those who read the letter to the REVIEW, from Washington City, published elsewhere, will recognize in it the hand of one of Wilmington's old boys who, although for many years past a resident of another city, has never ceas- ed to cast his fondest thoughts to the home of his boyhood and early manhood. The incident he relates in connection with "William," in "Black Eyed Susan," will be remembered by many as an actual occurrence.

Lost At Sea.
The schooner Emma Heather, Capt Hudson, bound from Cardenas, Cuba, to Philadelphia, arrived in below this morn- ing in charge of the mate of a Norwegian barque which is bound for this port. It seems that Capt Hudson had been knocked overboard and drowned during the passage, and that his mate was in- competent to navigate the vessel, and hence the aid of the mate of the barque was necessary to bring the schooner in as above stated. The Norwegian has not yet arrived, but is expected in below to- day.

A Grave Charge.
A white man known to almost every- body here was arrested to-day on a warrant issued by U. S. Commissioner McQuigg, charged with robbing the stamp office in this city of a sum of money amounting to somewhere in the neighborhood of $65. We forbear to give the name at present. He was admitted to bail in the sum of $200 and the case will be heard by Com- missioner McQuigg in a day or two.

The robbery was committed on Decora- tion Day, May 30th, and while the Post- office was closed. It was effected by some one in the corridor breaking the glass and reaching through for the money which had been left on the stamp ledge, just beneath the window. The friends of the accused party claim that he is per- fectly innocent and that this will be made amply manifest at the investigation. The case has already excited considerable interest.

A New Counterfeit.
A new counterfeit $5 legal-tender note has made its appearance in Western New York. It is of the series of 1875, and bears the names of Register Allison and Treasurer Wyman. It is executed on a printed imitation of fibre paper which is lighter than the genuine. The portrait of Jackson is good, but the general ap- pearance of the note is bad. Bankers pronounce it a dangerous counterfeit. A quantity of this spurious money was passed on Saturday at Buffalo, N. Y., and later several of the shovers were ar- rested at Dunkirk. The notes were prob- ably issued from some Canadian point, as the persons arrested were traced from Canada and had in their possession a quantity of small bills on Canadian banks which were genuine—the proceeds prob- ably of operations there with these bad notes.

Arrested and Bound Over.
It will be remembered by our readers that on the 2nd inst, there was a fight in "Paddy's Hollow" in which Hezekiah Atkinson, colored, was seriously cut with a knife by Delsate Towers, also colored, and that the former was sent to the hos- pital for treatment. While an inmate of the hospital no warrant was issued against him for participation in the affray, but it having come to the knowledge of the officers of the law that he was in the habit of visiting his family, who reside on the corner of Market and Twelfth streets, in the night time, a warrant was issued for his arrest and placed in the hands of the police to be executed. Atkinson was arrested at his house early this morning, and after a hearing he was bound over in the sum of $100 with good security for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court. The security was promptly given, but he was immediately ar- rested on a peace warrant sued out by his wife for an alleged assault, upon which he was committed until an invest- igation of the case can be had, which will take place at 5 o'clock this after- noon.

An Endorsement.
To the Editor of the Daily Review:
WILMINGTON, N C, June 24, 1879.
Dear Sir:—Your suggestion that a State celebration of the closing of New Inlet be organized is an admirable one. The times certainly are not in favor of hilarity, but this great event in the history of our river and com- merce ought not to be passed by un- noticed. Let us invite our fellow citi- zens from all parts of the State and give them a welcome, and when they are with us let us by meeting or peti- tion to Congress urge the General Gov- ernment to complete what they have so well begun, and cease not until we shall have eighten feet of water out to sea.

CAFE FEAR.
DIED.
ROBBINS—This morning, near Summerville, Brunswick County, MICHAEL H. ROBBINS, in the 35th year of his age. The funeral will take place at Summerville to- morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. Friend and acquaintances are invited to attend.
