We lose this month 35 minutes of daylight.

Embrace every opportunity that offers, but only one woman.

The State Dental Association were to have met in Raleigh yesterday.

This month has five Tuesdays, five Wednesdays and five Thursdays.

A stationary engine is a common sight, but did you ever see a rolling mill, or a walking beam?

No elderly maiden should be without a sewing machine, now that a feller accompanies each one.

The earth is flattened at the poles, and likewise the same is frequently the case with aspiring politicians.

The steamship Benefactor, of the Clyde Line, from New York, arrived at her wharf in this city at about 8 o'clock this morning.

The "foreigners" are arriving quite freely now, although it is very early in the season for them. They all come in over Main Bar, and are all square riggers.

There are several noted improvements in progress at Smithville. A number of new buildings, stores and dwellings, are going up and the boarding houses are being filled rapidly.

Food greatly benefits when given properly at the right periods, but to overfeed the baby is to sicken it, and induce a degree of suffering. Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup is the best remedy for the discomfort arising from overfeeding the baby. Price 25 cents.

Indications.
WAR DEPARTMENT,
Office of the Chief Signal Officer
Washington, D. C., July 2, 1879.

For the South Atlantic States, increasing easterly winds, partly cloudy weather, stationary temperature and pressure.

Acknowledgment.
The Editor desires to acknowledge courtesies and hospitalities yesterday at Smithville at the hands of Mr. G. L. Baxter. Mr. Baxter has a large and commodious house, situated near the water and within a stone's throw of the Garrison, and accommodates boarders on very reasonable terms. His house is open to the sea breeze and in a truly delightful location.

The Excursion Last Night.
There was a rather small crowd last night on the Passport on the excursion to Fort Fisher, but what was lacking in numbers was made up in enjoyment. With one of the most beautiful and most pleasant nights ever known in this latitude, and with good music, youth and health and cool waters all around them, it is not strange if all who were on board confessed to-day to a very good time.

Postal Notes.
Under a recent ruling of the Postoffice Department, a bill partly printed and partly written, when unaccompanied by personal correspondence, is entitled to pass through the mails, unsealed, at the rate of one cent for every two ounces.

On and after the first day of July all letters short of postage delivered at letter-carrier offices, will have special stamps affixed to them when received, representing the amount of unpaid postage. A other postoffices these stamps will be affixed when the letters are delivered.

Decisions of the Supreme Court.
The following decisions, all of which are of interest to the people of this city and vicinity, were filed by the Justice of the Supreme Court, now in session at Raleigh, on Monday, the 30th ult:

State vs Richard Williamson, from New Harover. Affirmed.

Henry VonGlahn, et al, vs A J DeRosset, et al, from Brunswick. Affirmed.

State vs James Heaton, from New Harover. Reversed.

State vs John W Alphin, from Wayne. Appeal dismissed.

By Dillard, J.:
Mary W Hall vs H B Short, from Halifax. Affirmed.

State vs Lewis Spencer, from New Harover. Affirmed.

Correction.

We were a little in error yesterday in stating that the wires for the fire alarm were to be erected in the middle of the streets. We are informed that only on Market, above Fourth, and on Fifth street will they be put in the centre of the thoroughfare.

Removal of the Sick.

The establishment known as the City Hospital, under the charge of Dr. W. W. Lane, has been closed, and all the patients who have been receiving medical attendance there were removed yesterday to the County Hospital at the Poor House, which is under the supervision of Mr. John F. Garrell. The sick at the County Hospital will be under the charge of Dr. J. C. Walker, the county physician.

The Colored Excursion.

Edward S. Gause, the projector of the colored excursion which is to take place on the steamer Wacama, to Smithville next week, requests us to say, in response to the article which appeared yesterday in regard to the matter, that he has not advertised the excursion as under the auspices of the I. O. G. S. and D. S., but simply as having been gotten up by himself, a member of the order. He will be glad to receive the patronage of the colored public in general as well as of the order of which he is a member.

Custom House Statistics—Exports and Imports.

From the Custom House in this city we have obtained the following statistics showing the exports and imports at this port during the month of June, 1879, and also the receipts and exports for the same year ending June 30th:

There was exported 66,554 barrels of rosin, valued at $89,489 and 506,500 gallons of spirits turpentine, valued at $127,781, during the month of June. Total valuation of exports $226,128. Import duties collected for the same period amounted to $1,262 19. Total receipts of customs on foreign exports and imports during the month of June, $3,845.83.

For the year ending June 30, 332 foreign trade vessels and 223 coastwise vessels were entered, making a total of 555 arrivals. Coastwise vessels under 100 tons burthen are not included in the above. Receipts for the year $48,852.23. Total exports for year $4,671,331.

A New Exodus.

The dog exodus from this city to the country since the dog catchers have been going the rounds, equals, if not surpasses, i. e. in proportion to population, the tremendous exodus chaperoned by Senator Windom, of Minnesota, of the plantation hands from the cotton fields of Mississippi and Louisiana, the difference being, however, that the canines who are now migrating to the country from this city are kindly and humanely cared for and are carried away to save their poor doggie lives, while the poor colored man of the far west is enticed away in a dogged mean manner, and left in a most inhuman way to suffer and starve to death to serve the ends of a few malignant malicious political haters of the Southern people who love the colored man with about the same devotion that the devil does holy water.

Departed this Life.

He served his company faithfully and was always prompt to respond to any and all calls that were made upon him. It mattered not whether in the dead hour of a cold, frosty night in mid-winter or under the burning heat of a noontday sun in mid summer, old Bob always responded with alacrity to the fire alarm and was promptly on hand with the hose reel of the Little Giant Engine Company, going willingly and speedily, no matter how far or how short the distance, in whatever course he was directed. But, alas that it is so and that we are compelled, in chronicling important current events to record the fact that the subject of this notice, the fine gray stud known as Old Bob departed this life on last Monday night, at the Sound, where he had been sent to recuperate his health, but which he had never recovered since, the night he met with the serious accident at the fire on April 12, where the shaft of the hose reel was run through his left fore leg, breaking the same and otherwise seriously injuring this noble and faithful animal. We feel assured that if there is a horse heaven anywhere beyond the portals of this mundane sphere Old Bob has surely gone there.

Magistrate's Court.

Charles Peterson, a seafaring man, was arraigned before Justice Scott upon the charge of obtaining goods under false pretences. The prosecutor in the case who is a sailor boarding-house keeper, swore that at the defendant obtained board and lodging under promise to ship the first opportunity, and with the advance wages to pay his bill. Instead of doing this, the prosecutor testifies that defendant refused to ship, hence the arrest. The Justice reserved his decision until to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock. Meantime defendant was committed to jail in default of surety for his appearance at that time.

A Wilmington Boy.

The many friends here of Mr. John B. Lord will be pleased to learn that he has recently passed a successful examination and has been duly admitted to the practice of law in the Courts in New York City. Mr. Lord is now the legal attorney for one of the most extensive grocery houses in New York, that of the well-known firm of Francis H. Loggett & Co., on Roade street, and in addition to this will practice in the Courts. We rejoice with him in his success and trust that he will rise to eminence and distinction in the pursuit of his profession.

Those Sleeping Cars.

A day or two since we stated, in speaking of the new sleeping cars to be used on the W. C. & A. Railroad, which had been changed from parlor cars, that we believed the change had been effected by the mechanics at the shops of the W. & W. railroad in this city. In this we were in error as they were refitted as sleepers at the shops of the W. C. & A. Railroad at Florence, S. C. The style and quality of work in both places are so very similar that you can hardly "tell 'tother from which," and at either place the mechanical skill displayed may safely challenge a comparison with any in the country.

A Worthy Publication.

We have received the June number of "St. Mary's Muse," a monthly magazine edited by the Pierian Club of St. Mary's school, at Raleigh, N. C. It is handsomely gotten up, with clear type, on fine paper, and, as its name would imply, is the labor of the female pupils of the school whose name it bears. The articles in English are far above mediocrity and are every way worthy to be classed with the efforts of more mature years, and upon the principle that omne ignotum pro magnifico, we are induced to say the same relative to the articles written in French. It is an excellent number and we wish its fair conductors an abundant success.

A Motherly Rooster.

We learn that a lady in this city is the possessor of eight hens and a rooster. Some time since one of the hens commenced setting in a very determined manner, only leaving her nest long enough to eat, drink and raise a big fuss in the garden. This arrangement not being in accordance with the lady's programme, she threw cold water on the hen in order to cool off her maternal instinct, which proved effectual, and she forsook the nest. No sooner had this been done, however, than the rooster took the nest in a motherly way, and commenced clucking in the most approved fashion, and devoting his entire time to setting. With considerable anxiety we await the result.

The Condemned Man.

While at Smithville yesterday, the Editor accompanied one or two friends to the jail where John Davis, the condemned murderer, awaits the day when he is to expiate his crime on the gallows. He has been aware of the efforts made by Judge Watts and others to procure a commutation of his sentence to imprisonment or life, and that the Governor has refused to interfere, a communication to this effect having been received from the Executive office on Friday last. Davis seems resigned to his fate and professes to have already made his place with God. He has been visited regularly by the resident Episcopalians, Baptists and Methodist ministers, and has recently been baptised into the Baptist Church and has received the communion. He is only about 23 years old and is a very likely looking fellow, about 5 feet 7 inches in height, and only one shade removed from the full-blooded African. He confesses to the deed, but his confessions points much more to self-defense than does the testimony at the trial.

But one trifling case before the Mayor this morning, which was dismissed upon the defendant's making good promises for the future.

To Avoid the Rush.

To avoid the rush on the Fourth, Professor Agostini will give the sixth family excursion of the season on to-morrow. The Passport has recently been beautified and Prof. Agostini offers comfort and ease to his patrons. The boat will touch at Fort Fisher, and Smithville, Caswell and the Pagoda is the objective point where dancing can be indulged in.

Body Recovered.

The body of E. L. Smith, colored, who was drowned on Monday evening while attempting to escape from Officer Watkins by swimming across the Cape Fear, an account of which we gave yesterday, was found floating on the surface about 4 o'clock this afternoon but a few rods from where he sank. The Coroner has been notified and will empanel a jury of inquest this evening.

River It-ns.

The steamer D. Murphison, due here from Fayetteville last night, did not put in an appearance until this afternoon at 5 o'clock. This is owing, we apprehend, to the very low stage of the river, which boaten say is almost dry on the shoals.

The schooner J. F. H. Langrall, Captain Flowers, just arrived from Baltimore, got her anchor foul on the submarine cable this side of Market Dock this morning and at last accounts the anchor was still tangled with the cable or something else.

By the Light of the Moon.

The Cornet Concert Club give their second moonlight excursion of the season on the steam yacht Passport to night. The steamer will leave her wharf at the foot of Market street, at 7.30 p. m., for Federal Point, and return to the city at 12.30 a. m. The Italian string band has been engaged for the occasion, and those who may desire to dance will have an abundant opportunity. Fare for the round trip 50 cents.

The Concert Last Night.

The second of the series of open air concerts, by the Cornet Concert Club, was given in the City Hall Park last night. The music was excellent, and a large crowd of delighted listeners was in attendance, though we regret to state that a large proportion of the audience preferred to remain outside the gate, by which means they could enjoy all the delight afforded by the music, and at the same time avoid all expense. As the proceeds derived from the small fee of ten cents as gate money were to be for the benefit of the Ladies' Benevolent Association (a worthy object) this meagre attendance inside the Park is to be regretted.
