BROWN & RODDICK.
 We would also take this opportunity of stating that we are offering some Special Bargains at 45 Market Street, in our Dry Goods Department.
 Being short of space can only quote a short price list, but can safely say that at no time have we been better prepared or had greater inducements than at this particular moment.

Men drink whiskey and imagine that they are strong and great, but it is all in their eye.

The revolution in Paraguay ought to afford a good opportunity for the Paraguayans.

A few bales of cotton are occasionally seen upon our wharves, and such was the case on the wharf in front of our office today.

The mails on the C. C. Railway, which have been delayed for the past two days on account of washouts on the road, are arriving at the regular hours.

That must have been a terribly afflicted woman who awoke her husband one night during a severe storm, and said, "I do wish you would quit snoring, I want to hear it thunder."

The turnpike has been shelled for about four miles and the good work is being rapidly pushed. In a few years Wilmington can boast of as fine a shell road as there is in the country.

It is one of those rare, good remedies which used once will be always kept in the house. Dr. Bull's Baltimore Pills we refer to. Price 25 cents.

Steamboatmen report a rise of about 18 to 20 feet of water on the shoals near Fayetteville. When our informant left, the river was still rising, with a prospect of a big freshet.

The Cape Fear Light Infantry (col) left this city this noon for Fayetteville on the steamer Isis for the purpose of taking part in the celebration of the anniversary of one of the Fayetteville companies.

There is a plenty of water in the Cape Fear, whereof the steamboat men are glad. The steamers are now making regular time between this city and Fayetteville, and are carrying large freights both ways.

Indications.
WAR DEPARTMENT,
 Office of the Chief Signal Officer,
 Washington, D. C., Aug. 1, 1879.
 For the South Atlantic States northeast to southeast winds, partly cloudy weather and areas of rain with slight changes in temperature and pressure.

Tub Race on the Sound.
 We understand that a tub race is to be had on the bay at Masonboro Sound on Tuesday, the 12th inst. There will be five contestants, but we have not learned the distance to be paddled, or the prize offered for the victor. Those who are to participate are now in active preparation, and are gearing up the bottom of their tubs.

Worth Knowing.
 For damp closets and cupboards which generate mildew, a trayful of quicklime will be found to absorb the moisture and render the air pure, but of course it is necessary to renew the lime from time to time, as it becomes fully slaked. This remedy will be found useful in safes and strong rooms, the damp air of which acts frequently most injuriously on the valuable deeds and documents which they contain.

Chamomile.
 A decoction of the leaves of common chamomile will destroy every species of insects, and nothing contributes so much to the health of a garden as a number of chamomile plants dispersed through it. No green-house or hot-house should ever be without it, in a green or dried state; either the stalks or flowers will answer. It is a singular fact that if a plant is drooping and apparently dying, in nine cases out of ten it will recover if you plant chamomile near it.

No good Preaching.
 No man can do a good job of work, preach a good sermon, try a lawsuit well, doctor a patient, or write a good article when he feels miserable and dull, with sluggish brain and unsteady nerves, and none should make the attempt in such a condition when it can be so easily and cheaply removed by a little Hop Bitters. See other column.

Sacramental Wines.
 Spear's Port Grape Wine is a pure, un-intoxicating wine, from the finest native grown Port Grapes, especially for the use of Christian Churches, and guaranteed to retain its grateful flavor and essential qualities for any period. Much used for evening parties and by invalids. For sale by J. C. Mundy, Green & Flanner, and P. L. Bridgers & Co.

A Shame!

The beautiful windows in the steeple of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church have been completely perforated with small stones, hurled against them by sling-shots. Persons who wantonly deface a church edifice or otherwise destroy its beauty, should be apprehended and dealt with rather summarily.

Not to be Smeared At.

Just before the steamer Isis left her wharf to-day for Fayetteville an "Old country darkey" and a "town nigger" had a set too, caused by the "town nigger" trying to ridicule the old man. The old man said if he was an "old country darkey" and didn't weigh more than 120 pounds he could lick any 290 pounds of "town niggers," and proceeded to show how quick he could do it. A crowd gathered around the combatants and after a pass or two from the old man, young pugilist was satisfied and sneaked off.

Arrest of a Seaman.

A seaman belonging to one of the vessels at the quarantine station was arrested this morning at the Market dock and sent back to his vessel. The man is supposed to be a deserter, but he claims that he is not. He said that he had a fight with the first mate and subsequently went ashore with the Captain and while there he concluded to come to this city to see the Consul. He walked to town, and as he came across the ferry, a policeman nabbed him and turned him over to the Secretary of the Board of Health, who sent him down the river and telegraphed Dr. Curtis. There is no sickness on board the vessel which he left, and which is at quarantine only as a precautionary measure, she being from one of the interdicted ports. The man had not been in the city thirty minutes before he was sent off. With such prompt action on the part of those who have charge of the sanitary condition of the city, it is hardly probable that the dreaded fever can be brought to this city.

Spring Guns and Melons.

One of our most successful truck gardeners has been very much annoyed by garden thieves who visited his watermelon patch every night and despoiled it of its choicest fruit. He at last resorted to the dreaded trap guns, as his only means of protection, and accordingly placed them in position and stuck up around his land "Beware of spring guns." A beautiful moonlight night he sat in his house, where he could overlook his patch, and soon saw the figure of a man walking about selecting the best melons. He waited with bated breath for the guns to discharge, and then he would swoop down on his victim and capture him. He waited long and patiently and saw the thief go off and then went out to see what was the matter with the guns, when lo, he discovered that, besides the finest melons they also had been stolen. He now sits with a double-barrel shot gun across his lap, and it won't be safe for any one to go close to that melon patch.

The Farmers' Annual Dinner in Sampson.

The annual dinner, given by the farmers of Sampson county, was partaken of at Clinton, yesterday, the 21st ult. We learn that there was a large concourse of people in attendance. There was a splendid dinner, prepared and spread by the splendid housewives of the good people of Sampson, and every one partook of the bounties of the feast with a zest that told an appreciation of the good things of this world. The people of that noble county never do things in a stingy, niggardly way, and this occasion was one of their best and happiest efforts.

It was not merely an occasion where the physical wants of man were to be satisfied by a dinner of good things; the mental were also considered and a rich intellectual feast was prepared in which the mind was fed by rich thoughts from the storehouse of one of North Carolina's most gifted and polished orators. Col. D. K. McRae, of this city, was the orator of the occasion, and his subject was "The Lost Rights of the People." It was an especially fine production of this peculiarly gifted speaker, and was listened to with the profound attention which the subject deserved and the speaker commanded.

After the pleasures and duties of the day had terminated, the younger portion of the people of Clinton and the surrounding country, engaged in the pleasures of the dance, where the beautiful daughters and many sons of Sampson kept joyous time to the merry cadence of soul-inspiring music.

Routed Them.

The buckster stands on the Southwest corner of Second and Market streets were routed this morning by order of the Mayor. Now that the good work has begun let it be pushed until the sidewalks are rid of such garbage stands that are a disgrace to the city.

City Court.

The only cases before His Honor this morning were those of two marketmen, charged with violation of the market laws, in refusing to remove their carts, when ordered so to do by the Clerk of the Market after market hours. After hearing the evidence and being admonished they were discharged.

Death to Cockroaches.

Equal parts of powdered borax, Persian insect powder, and powdered colchynth, well mixed together, and thrown about such spots as are infested with cockroaches will prove an effectual means of getting rid of the scourge. This powder, in all cases where its use has been persistent, has by long experience been found an infallible remedy.

Excursions.

A good many of our citizens are improving the opportunities offered for making excursions to Beaufort, the mountains, to Charleston, down the river, up the river and to the various Sounds which line our coast. We wish them all manner of good enjoyment, but as we "excort" round the city in the sweltering sun, in search for items of news for our readers, we confess to a feeling of envy at the pleasures they enjoy, but which are denied to us.

Death of Mr. T. W. Player.

Mr. Thos. W. Player, an old and respected citizen of this city, died at his residence on the corner of Third and Church streets about 3 o'clock this morning after a lingering illness. Mr. Player was 65 years of age and at the time of his death was a member of the Board of Audit and Finance of this city. He was born and raised in what was then New Hanover, but now Pender county, and when quite a young man moved to this city where he embarked in business and has resided the greater portion of his life. He was an honored and beloved member of the community and many of our citizens will be pained to hear of his death. He was a gentleman of unobtrusive manners, affable and courteous in his intercourse with others, of sterling integrity and unblemished morals. Peace to his ashes.

A great many persons contend that insects cannot reason, but we would like to have them (the persons, not the insects) explain why a mosquito will always pick out the man who wears low shoes in a congregation of three hundred.

Canoe Race.

The youthful yachtsmen of Masonboro Sound are getting in readiness for their annual canoe race. Their races are governed by no recognized yachting rules but each canoe Captain improvises such rules as will best meet the demands of his craft. They are independent "sportsmen" and are truly the autocrats of the Sound.

Telephones are a great invention, but they have not yet reached that state of perfection which will be demanded of them before they are looked upon with favor by young lovers. Young spoony's, greatest objection to them is that he cannot kiss his sweetheart through the telephone and receive the same electric shock that he does when the kiss is not transmitted over a wire. His dulcinea does not veto the objection.

One Week in Wall Street.

October 7th 1878, Western Union Telegraph stock sold at the New York Stock Exchange for 96.1-8 per share; October 14th, 1878, it sold at 86.3-4, a fluctuation of 9.3-8 per cent in seven days; 12,500 shares sold on a margin of one per cent, required an actual capital of $12,500. The same stock delivered at 86.3-4 gave a profit of 9.3-8 per cent, on the stock or $97.50 per 100 shares. On the whole 12,500 the actual profit was $117,187.50, or 9.3-8 times the capital used, in one week. This is a single case taken from the official record of the Stock Exchange, and shows how money is made so rapidly in stocks. Few people, however, have the necessary cash to put up in order to realize such immense profits as these, but capital in any amount from $10 to $50,000, can be used with equal success by the new combination system of operating stocks which Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, New York, have established. By this method of pooling thousands of orders in various sums and operating them as one immense capital, shareholders realize large profits which are divided pro rata monthly. New circular contains two unerring rules for success, and full information, so that any one can operate profitably. Stocks and Bonds wanted. Government Bonds supplied. Apply to Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange Place, N. Y. City.
