The Store on the Southwest corner of Second and Market streets. We purpose devoting this entire store to the sale of articles at

5 and 10 Cents.

We cannot enumerate the different articles at this time but our patrons may rest assured that no effort will be spared to develop this

New Enterprise.

We certainly will offer the greatest inducements that have ever been shown in this section of the country, as no house in the country has better facilities for the purchase of such articles.

BROWN & RODDICK.

We would also take this opportunity of stating that we are offering some Special Bargains at 45 Market Street, in our Dry Goods Department.

Being short of space can only quote a short price list, but can safely say that at no time have we been better prepared or had greater inducements than at this particular moment.

We have just received another small lot of those at 15c. Call early.

No City Court to-day.

The police were paid off yesterday.

The day's length are now 13 hours and 52 minutes.

Full moon this morning at one o'clock and fifty-eight minutes.

It has been said that the poorest toper in the city occasionally has a lien on a beer counter.

There were some very fine peaches in market to-day which were grown near this city.

The Boards of Audit and Finance, Aldermen, and County Commissioners will meet Monday.

The water melon crop is improving. The melons now coming in are of much larger size and better quality than heretofore.

There is a method by which an ear of green corn may be held gracefully and conveniently but we charge $25 to teach any one the art.

Nothing doing in magistrate's circle to-day. Business in this quarter is exceedingly dull, which speaks well for the good order of this city.

The Rev. Mr. Windley, of Smithville, will officiate at St. Paul's (Episcopal) church to-morrow in the absence of the Rector, the Rev. Mr. Ambler.

A small bridge near Hewlett's Creek, on the Masonboro branch of the turnpike was so badly damaged by the recent rains that it is now impassable.

Actresses are continually losing valuable diamonds, while editors' wives go straight along and never bother the world by announcing that they have been robbed.

It is estimated that the people of the United States consume 3,000 barrels of liver pills a year, and yet there is occasionally a man left to reach his end by a railroad collision.

There are some persons in this world such a cheerful nature that if you tell them you have the toothache, they will immediately sit down and enumerate all the persons they know who have died in convulsions from that terrible and dangerous disease.

The Steamer A. P. Hurt is undergoing some repairs at her wharf, at the foot of Chestnut street. The buckets of her wheel, which were broken on her downward trip, are being replaced by new ones.

Fine Shower.

There was a very heavy shower of rain just east of the city this morning about half-past nine o'clock. Those who were caught in it think that it was one of the heaviest they ever saw. The roads were flooded and the water in the ditches ran like a mill tail.

Harbor Master's Monthly Report.

From Capt. Joseph Price, Harbor Master, we have the following report of the arrival of vessels at this port, &c., for the month of July:

American—Schooners 9, steamers 5; total 14. Tonnage 5,947.
Foreign—Barques 7; brigs 8; total 15. Tonnage 4,807.
Total arrivals 29. Total tonnage 10,754.

Lookout that your nurses do not drug your little ones with laudanum, paregoric or other soothing remedies! Give them Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup, which innocent remedy is warranted not to contain opiates.

No good Preaching.

No man can do a good job of work, preach a good sermon, try a lawsuit well, doctor a patient, or write a good article when he feels miserable and dull, with sluggish brain and unsteady nerves, and none should make the attempt in such a condition when it can be so easily and cheaply removed by a little Hop Bitters. See other columns.

Sacramental Wines.

Speer's Port Grape Wine is a pure, un-intoxicating wine, from the finest native grown Port Grapes, especially for the use of Christian Churches, and guaranteed to retain its grateful flavor and essential qualities for any period. Much used for evening parties and by invalids. For sale by J. C. Muuds, Green & Flanner, and P. L. Bridgers & Co.

The Criminal Court convenes in this city on Monday.

The Elizabeth.

The steam yacht Elizabeth, which has just been rebuilt and refitted by her owner Capt. R. P. Paddison, made her first trip yesterday. She took the place of the steamer Isis, which carried the Cape Fear Light Infantry to Fayetteville. The Elizabeth is to run regularly between this city and Smithville as a passenger boat and will commence her trips on Monday the 4th inst.

Meeting of the Magistrates.

Section 5, chapter 141 of laws of 1876-77, reads as follows:

"The Justices of the Peace of the county will meet on the 1st Monday in August with the Board of Commissioners to assist in levy of taxes and discharge other duties, that may be necessary as are required by law."

We suppose the newly elected Magistrates, will "step in" and the old ones who were appointed for two years, will "step out" and retire to private life. See advertisement published elsewhere.

Unmailable.

The following unmailable postal matter remains in the Postoffice in this city:

Postal card beginning with "Dear Lillie." No address. Postal card signed "F"—direct letters care J. F. A.—No address. J. W. Andrews, Timmensville, S. C. No stamp. J. E. Figford. No stamp. Andrews, 1-615 Olive St., St. Louis, Mo. No stamp. T. M. Blodgett, Atlanta, Ga., Paper. No stamp.

The Signal Service.

The labors at the Signal Office in this city are onerous and responsible. We have received the report of the Chief Signal Officer and we find that the instructions to those in charge of the different stations require an amount of labor, care and watchfulness which we had not before imagined. Mr. Watson, who has charge of the station in this city, although aided by his assistant, Mr. Smith, has duties to perform so arduous in their character, that another assistant, Mr. W. S. Dulin, has been sent to make them lighter. We have been under repeated obligations to the signal service officials in this city for courtesies rendered, which are fully appreciated.

Richmond vs. Wilmington.

A short time ago the Richmond Dispatch favored its readers with a gushing description of the celebration of the completion of the railroad to Hendersonville, N. C. It foretold for Richmond great benefits to arise from the development of a section heretofore beyond the reach of railways. Not content with this, which was all very well, the Dispatch attempted, apparently, to belittle the claims of other seaports upon the business of the region in question. Towards Wilmington it was very patronizing, and took on lofty airs, intimating that the capacity of our harbor and bar were not such as to justify our very laudable ambition to become a place of commercial importance—the inference being that as a "seaport," Richmond was greatly our superior. For the information of our usually accurate contemporary we will furnish it with some of Mr. Gradgrind's hard "facts," in face of which neither its rhetoric or its arguments are of much avail.

For the six months ended June 30th, 1878, the tonnage employed in carrying our exports to foreign ports is reported by the Bureau of Statistics to have been:

For Richmond 15,666 tons
For Norfolk and Portsmouth, 47,413 tons
For Wilmington 44,187 tons

Arguing from this showing, we would suggest this port to our Richmond friends as one through which their limited foreign commerce may be conducted with advantage.

The funeral of Mr. T. W. Player.
The last sad rites were performed this morning over the body of our lamented friend and fellow citizen, Thos. W. Player. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Wilson in his usual impressive manner. The cortege proceeded from the First Presbyterian Church to Oakdale Cemetery, where were deposited the remains of our friend—earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust.

Annual Pic Nic.

The colored people of Duplin county, celebrated their annual picnic at Williams' Cross Roads, about three miles from Warsaw, on Thursday last. There was a large gathering of people, who after feasting on the eatables prepared for them, listening attentively to the address delivered by Geo. L. Mabson, of this city. The theme of the discussion was "The Condition of the Country; the Colored People, Their Rights, Privileges and Duties." There was nothing political in the address, but was one of good, sound advice to the colored race. It is spoken of in commendable terms by those who heard it, and will no doubt be conducive of good to those who stand so much in need of training as to their duties.

Major Jones's Courtship.

From Heinsberger's Love Book and Music store we have received an illustrated copy of the above named book, issued by T. B. Peterson & Co., Philadelphia.

This work first made its appearance in book form, about 25 years ago, when it was read with delight by thousands of young people of both sexes who have now become grave men and matrons with children grown up to be delighted with the quaint mirth of its pages. The present is a reprint of the original with some very few alterations such as experience have suggested. A perusal of its pages will compel a merry laugh from the reader at almost every page. It is printed in clear type on tinted paper, and the price is only 75 cents.

Burglary.

Some time between the hours of three and four o'clock this morning, a burglar entered the residence of Mr. Geo. R. Bates, on Fifth, between Walnut and Red Cross streets. An entrance was effected through a back window by the means of prizing off a strip which held the sash in. The thief searched the pockets of Mr. Bates' clothing, but failing to find money left them in the dining room where he carried them for the search. He was evidently after money and nothing else, as the clothing and other articles were undisturbed or dropped on the floor after the fruitless search.

A free luncheon is free to acknowledge that he can procure as much food now for five cents as formerly cost him a half dollar, and the beauty of the joke is, he drinks a glass of good beer besides.

A man may know all the sciences and have thirty languages at command, but when he drowns and goes in swimming in a country mill pond, the small boy can give him points and beat him without half trying.

Two interments in Bellevue Cemetery, one adult and one child during the past week.

There were three adults and one child interred in Oakdale Cemetery during the week.

Marriage licenses were issued to one white and one colored couple during the past week.
