Letters have been received in this city announcing the safe arrival of Mr. A.
Shrier, on the 20th of July, at Bremer-haven.

If the Board of Health at Memphis does not hurry up, yellow fever will get the advantage of them and declare itself epidemic before long.

To think clearly and act quickly one must have good health. Indigestion is the foe of health, and should at once be driven from the system by the regular use of Dr. Bull's Baltimore Pills. Price 25 cts

The members of the Fifth Ward Bucket Company are notified to attend a meeting at their truck house to-night. See advertisement in another column.

A large crowd excused down the river this morning on the steam yacht Pass- port, the occasion being the eleventh family excursion under the auspices of Professor Agostini.

Wine for Evening Entertainments.

The Port Grape Wine of Alfred Speer, of Passaic, New Jersey, is generally promised the most reliable wine to be obtained, and is now being used by those fashionables and families who are the most choice in the selection of wines for evening entertainments. For sale by L. Bridgers & Co., J. C. Munds and Green & Planner.

The little steam yacht Elizabeth, which has been recently fitted up by Captain R. P. Paddison, made a trip to Smithville to-day to test her capacity, leaving the wharf about 1 o'clock.

Mr. Henry Nutt, of Wilmington, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Nutt is one of the most enterprising and valuable citizens of our seaport town, and has done more than any other man to improve the Wilmington harbor.—Charlotte Observer.

Personal.

Hon. D. L. Russell, with his family, leaves here to-night for Western North Carolina. He goes via Henderson and will spend a day or two in that pleasant little town, after which he will go on to Asheville. He will be absent from the city about two weeks.

The Regatta To-Day.

We have endeavored to get a telephonic report of the results of the Regatta at the Sound to-day but as late as 5 o'clock it failed to come to hand, probably because no one had returned to the mainland at that hour, and hence we are compelled to go to press without it.

Wine and Cake for Evenings.

Alfred Speer of New Jersey, it should be known, is one of the most extensive producers and dealers in Pure Wines and Brandies in the United States. He makes a Superior Port Wine, which took the biggest premium at the Centennial, known as Speer's Port Grape Wine. It is sold by J. C. Munds, P. L. Bridgers & Co. and Green & Planner. Aug-tf.

Chase and Capture.

Yesterday a large sturgeon was chased in the river by three immense sharks.
The sturgeon was badly mutilated and was run ashore at New Inlet by the sharks.
It was captured and butchered. The sharks played about in the water for some time, when a line was thrown out, baited with a piece of the sturgeon, and persons on shore had the pleasure of hauling in a twelve-foot shark. The other two remained near the Inlet for some time but would not bite at the hook.

No good Preaching

No man can do a good job of work, preach a good sermon, try a lawsuit well, doctor a patient, or write a good article when he feels miserable and dull, with sluggish brain and unsteady nerves, and none should make the attempt in such a condition when it can be so easily and cheaply removed by a little Hop Bitters.

Sun Stroke

A seaman belonged to a vessel in port was overcome by the intense heat yesterday afternoon on the corner of Front and Princess streets. He was carried into Burbank's Pharmacy and medicinal medicines were applied by Dr. Burbank.
The man was conveyed to the hospital later in the afternoon and is doing as well as could be expected.

Another Sun Stroke.

A fine mule hitched to a cart fell near the corner of Second and Princess streets this morning, about 9 o'clock. Veterinary surgeon pronounced it a clear case of sun stroke. The proper remedies were applied and the mule, which was a fine looking animal, soon revived and was led off to the shade of a friendly tree.

Enormous Spider.

A spider of enormous size was caught this morning in Mr. H. G. Glamayer's store, near the corner of Market and Water streets. It is of the species known as spider, and is confined in a tumbler as a curiosity. Its body is fully as large as a bird's egg while its head is about half the size. It is pied and is anything else than pretty.

The River.

We understand that the water in the Cape Fear has fallen nearly 30 feet since the late rise, and that it is now at nearly low water. Boatmen have as yet had no difficulty in passing the shoals, but it is feared that, unless there is a rise, it will be so low as to necessitate the use of lighters across the shoal places.

Committed.

Sheriff Manning this morning received a commitment from Justice O. W. Mc-Clammy, of Pender, for Fuller Hansley, colored, who was tried and found guilty of trespass and sentenced to imprisonment for thirty days.

Officer Biddle, who made the arrest yesterday of this same party, supposed that his crime was burglary and says he was so informed by Mr. Daniel Futch, who gave him the information of the escape of the prisoner. No one has been the lesser by misinformation, however, and least of all the newspapers, for they have made two items by it.

City Court.

Alderman Bowden, Mayor pro tem, presiding:

Fanny Gore was again on the rampage in the "Hollow" last night and was taken to the lock-up. This morning the pro temp. said $1 or five days and the Queen went below.

Jno. Smith, colored, for being drunk and disorderly and making an indecent exposure of his person, was sentenced to pay a fine of $5 or be imprisoned for thirty days, and the namesake of the illustrious man whom Pocahontas saved from Powhatan's club was forced to go below.

The Heavens in August.

An enthusiastic astronomer thus writes of the Heavens during the present month:
"The skies of the soft summer nights will be full of interest for human observation.
Two full moons will shed their rounded radiance over the sleeping earth and flood the landscape and seascape with silvery light. Jupiter will reign supreme in the early eastern sky, and Venus, in the height of her renown, will hang in pensive beauty amid the glowing west. Later in the night, Mars and Saturn will divide the starry honors with Jupiter, the celestials trio gaining in size and brightness as they approach their opposition. The earth will plough her way through the August meteor-zone, and myriad meteors dissolving in fiery tears will give evidence of the annual passage. Besides all this, there will be conjunctions and oppositions, visible and invisible, of the great celestial forces, as well as a rarely beautiful phenomenon in the occultation of the red star Antares, the leading brilliant in Scorpio, by the moon on the evening of the 24th, not far from half-past 10. Observers will have busy work in tracing out the movements here indicated on the glowing map which every starlit night lies open above our heads. If the pleasure-seekers among the mountains, in rural retreats and on the sea-shore, would cultivate a taste for astronomy, how grand and uninterrupted would be the field for nightly observation, and how ennobling and exalting the study of the star-spangled firmament that nightly renews its miracles of beauty to earnest and appreciative eyes."

A Flattering Invitation.

Hon. D. K. McRae, of this city, has received a very cordial invitation from the National Democratic Committee and the State Central Committee of Wisconsin to attend and address a mass meeting to be held at Madison on the 9th of September. Col. McRae, we understand, is as yet uncertain as to whether he will be able to attend on the occasion, but fears that he cannot be spared from his business engagements here at that time.

The Meat.

It is a fact that although this has been a warm day, or, a hot day, if you prefer it, yet it has not been so warm as it was yesterday by several degrees. A fine breeze has prevailed throughout the day and if it will continue during the night it will add greatly to the comfort of all of us.
At 9 o'clock this morning the thermometer stood at 88; at 11 o'clock at 92; at 12 o'clock at 93; at 1 o'clock at 94; at 3 o'clock at 95 and at 4 o'clock at 94.

We clip the following from the Maryland Medical Journal.

A loose red woolen flannel shirt should be worn next to the skin both summer and winter. It should be "loose," so that its moving upon the skin may keep up a good circulation there; "red," because white flannel fills up, becomes stiff and impervious, "woolen," because woolen flannel conveys the perspiration from the under to the outer surface where either the cotton shirt absorbs it or the air dries it without injury to the body.
On account of these properties, sailors wear red woolen flannel even during mid-summer in hot countries. Of course a very thin material should be worn in summer.

Beld Robbery at Smithville.

Yesterday afternoon, between the hours of one and two o'clock, the boarding house of Mr. P. Prioleau, at Smithville, was entered and robbed of considerable money.
The thief entered the house through a window opening into Mrs. Draper's sleeping apartment, and, while she was at dinner.
The window sash was up and the blinds chained in, but the thief succeeded in snapping the links and effecting an entrance. The bureau drawers were found open and from them the money was taken. There is no clue as to the perpetrator of the theft but it is to be hoped that the scoundrel who is bold enough to rob a dwelling in the broad day-light may be caught and dealt with as severely as the law will permit.
