Jarvis Station; Haverley's Mastodon Minstrels; Buffa'o Bill and Combination; the famous Hanlon Family, who make their first appearance in America after a number of years' absence—they have a performance similar to the Vokes Family; Kiralfy's 'Black Crook,' and Gilbert & Sullivan's new opera, the name of which has not been announced as yet Mr. Ford producep this opera at the Fifth Avenue Theatre, New York, the 1st ef December. Negotiations are pending with Carl Rosa for an engagement of his opera tronpe, and also with H. J. Sergeant and H. O. Jarrett for a number of the attractions they expect to import this season. Mr. Ford will have besides his opera company two dramatic companies—one to support his stars when they play at the Opera House here, ard one engaged especially to support Booth on his Southern tour. The first company start with Jefferson September 1st, and is composed of Miss Henrietta Vaders, Miss Eugenia Paul, Miss Lilian Spencer, Messra. C. Waverly, Samuel Phillips, E J. Moroso, James Galloway and Henry Taylor. The troupe start from Rich- mond, travel South, then West, also playing in New York, Philadelphia and De line armatice to paramises to be	forgotten us of late, or is it that the blue- eyed, yaller ringed dove of peace has failed to span any of the bloodly chasm which erstwhile divided us? It is a sad fact that we don't know personally more than a baker's doz n of newspaper men in the State and the Convention at Bean- fort would offer an excellent opportunity for a clever set of fellows (we are all clever, you kncw) to become acquainted with each other.
