BROWN & RODDICK.

We would also take this opportunity of stating that we are offering some Special Bargains at 45 Market Street, in our Dry Goods Department.

We are to have a new moon next Sunday.

Silver combs are alleged to be in "full feather."

The polonaise is a favorite style of lace overdresses.

Doctors are divided as to the effects of the alicantus tree.

Waving the train is much in vogue at watering places this summer.

A great experience transforms. We must be ever more or less than our old selves.

Silk gloves are no cooler than Lisle thread, but some ladies much prefer them.

The most stylish traveling hats are now fully trimmed with a gauze scarf wrapped around the crown.

Garnet dresses have velvet collars, cuffs, belt and chataleine bag, if it be desirable to make them look wintry.

The hats decorated with berries are called "chapeaux desert" in Paris, because they are intended for Sa-hair-a.

It is rumored that parties in Wilmington are to put in a bid this Fall for the lease of the Eagle Hotel at Asheville.

Eggs are scarce and are retailed at 20 cents per dozen. Now is the time for our country -fends to hurry in their hen -cult.

The river is again getting quite low. There were only three feet of water on the shoals at Fayetteville yesterday morning.

Good temper is like a sunny day: it sheds a brightness over everything; it is the sweetener of toil and soother of disquietude.

The tomato crop seems to be about exhausted; very few in market this morning. Hucksters charged 10 cents per quart for them.

The wholesalers are getting in their first installments of Fall and Winter goods. The new styles of calicoes are as ugly as blazes.

The water in the river at the city is still colored with yellow mud from the interior although the recent freshet seems to have all run off.

Never promise more than can be done. Dr. Bull's Baltimore Pill have been successfully run on this principle. For sale by druggists. Price 25 cents.

"Give me your hand," said the schoolmaster sternly. "And my heart too," she replied meekly. Being pretty, her soft answer turned away his wrath.

A man's idea of a good time is almost inseparably connected with the wearing of his old clothes—a woman's with the display of her last new gown.

Sharks won't bite a swimmer, who keeps his legs in motion. If you can keep kicking longer than a shark can keep waiting you'll be all right.

Keep your own secrets; for if you disclose them to another, and he reveals them, you should pardon him for it, since he is only treacherous by your example.

The scaffolding around the spire of the First Presbyterian Church is completed, and the work of placing the lightning-rod and repairing the slating will be begun at once.

There is no situation that cannot discover a lower depth. Here is a newspaper comforting a man who has lost both legs with the information that he can never hereafter be a sufferer from corns or bunions.

Indications.

WAR DEPARTMENT,

Office of the Chief Signal Officer,
 Washington, D. C., Aug. 15, 1879.

For the South Atlantic States, easterly to southerly winds, threatening weather with slight changes of temperature and stationary or slowly rising barometer.

Wine and Cake for Evenings.

Alfred Speer of New Jersey, it should be known, is one of the most extensive producers and dealers in Pure Wines and Brandy in the United States. He makes a Superior Port Wine, which took the highest premium at the Centennial, known as Speer's Port Grape Wine. It is sold by J. C. Munds, P. L. Bridges & Co. and Green & Flanner. Aug-15

Personal.

Mr. Thos. E. Bond, Superintendent here of the New York and Wilmington Steamship Line, returned to the city this morning after an absence two weeks in New York, on a business trip.

On the Benefactor.

The steamship Benefactor, which sailed today for New York, carried out as passengers Mr. John Neilson and his sister Mrs. J. Francis King, together with her three children. Dr King left here a few days ago for New York and Mrs. King and Mr. Neilson expect to join him there on Monday.

Magistrate's Court.

Before Justice Gardner, Bettie Wells, white, and Ella and Ann Sheperd, colored, were arraigned for keeping a disorderly house. The defendants were bound over in the sum of $50 for their appearance at 10 a. m. to-morrow before the above named Justice's court. The first named defendant was committed to jail in default of surety and the last two furnished the requisite amount of bail and were released.

Petition Granted.

The petition of Col. John W. Atkinson, to build a one-story tin-roofed building on the wharf in rear of Messrs. Newbury & Chasten's, on North Water street, which was presented at the last meeting of the Board of Aldermen, and was referred to committee on Fire Department, has been granted, and the building is being rapidly urged to completion. It will be used by Messrs. Newbury & Chasten as an addition to their store and to accommodate the increasing demands of their customers.

Pender Items.

Col. John D. Powers, of Leesburg, Pender county, was in the city, yesterday but unfortunately we did not have the pleasure of seeing him until just after going to press. For the benefit of the readers of the REVIEW and JOURNAL we subjected him to a brief interviewing process, whereby we learned that crops in his vicinity are generally good. The corn, he thinks, has not suffered materially on account of the dry weather, and where good stands were secured in the spring, which, however, was not universally the case, the crop will be above the average. He states that cotton has not looked so well in many years, in his neighborhood, as it does now, and with no untoward "set back" there will be a splendid harvest. Good! Better!! Best!!!

Littell's Living Age.

The numbers of the Living Age for the weeks ending August 9th and 16th respectively, contain the following articles: [Wordsworth, by Matthew Arnold, and the Mirabeau, Macmillan; Food and Feeding, by Sir Henry Thompson, and Moose Hunting in Canada, Nineteenth Century; The Last Jewish Revolt, and Choral and other Narcotics, Contemporary; The Evangelical Movement, its Parentage, Progress and Issue, by Mr. Gladstone, British Quarterly; The Birth Life and Death of a Storm, Popular Science Review; How to Popularize Wordsworth, The Journey of Colonel Pjavalsky towards Tibet, The Influence of India on China, and the Lessons of Prince Napoleon's Funeral, Spectator; Egyptian Exiles, Saturday Review; The Chances of War, Natal Mercury; and in the way of fiction, The Ghost of Morcar's Tower, The Grey, and instalments of Jean Ingelow's 'Sarah de Berenger'; and Sarah Tytler's 'The Bride's Pass'; and the usual amount of poetry.

The Cattle Ordinance.

Ed Review: Permit me space in your valuable columns to express the gratitude of cattle owners for the prompt abrogation, through those champions of the people, Aldermen Hill and King, of the obnoxious cattle law, which requires the penning of the thousand cattle upon the hills, now almost entirely supported by the grass which grows so luxuriantly upon our streets. I understand that from a sanitary point of view one eminent medical authority has stated that there is grass enough on our streets for at least five hundred cattle, and that it is advisable to permit them to run at large, and yet a few malcontents, whose guilty consciences will not allow them to sleep at night, would let the fine pasturage run to waste and cut off the milk supply. Let the heathen rage and the ows, and the goats, and the horses, and the dogs run at their own sweet will, bells or no bells.

VOX POPULI.

Persons desiring a good yacht have now a capital opportunity to purchase one at an unprecedented low figure. Capt. A. D. Lippitt advertises for sale in another column his yacht Gypsie, which is in perfect order and sold for fault.

Out Again.

We are glad to see our worthy townsman, Alex. Sprunt, Esq., on duty and at his post once more, though looking slightly emaciated from his recent attack of sickness.

The South Atlantic

For July has been for some days upon our table. It presents its usual amount of good miscellany, the most attractive of which, to our view, is "Early Times in the Carolinas," by Hon. Edward Cantwell, of this city.

Relief for the Sufferers.

At a meeting of Carolina Lodge, Knights of Honor, of this city, held a few evenings ago, the sum of fifty dollars was donated to their suffering brethren in Memphis. The above amount is intended to assist those of the order to leave the plague stricken city who are unable of themselves so to do.

Good Samaritans.

A Lodge of the Independent Order of Good Samaritans and Daughters of Samaria, a closed benevolent organization, has been established at Kenansville, and another in Warsaw, Duplin county, by the Supreme Grand Lodge Deputy, Elisha Merritt, of this city.

Schedule of the Elizabeth.

The schedule of the yacht Elizabeth is published elsewhere in this issue. She will carry the mails and will leave the wharf foot of Market street every afternoon at 3 1/2 o'clock. Returning will leave Smithville every morning at 7 1/2 o'clock. This schedule holds good every day except Sunday.

The Atmosphere.

The highest figure the thermometer attained in this office to-day was 90, and that was at 3 o'clock. About half past 3 it became very cloudy and at 4 o'clock it had fallen two degrees in an hour. At 9 o'clock this morning it was at 85; at 12 o'clock at 87; at 1 o'clock at 88; at 2 o'clock at 89; at 3 o'clock at 90 and at 4 o'clock at 88.

Twelfth Excursion.

An unusually large crowd were in attendance upon the family excursion down the river on the Passport to day under the auspices of Professor Agostini. The Professor knows how to get up an excursion, always does all in his power to please, and the public are showing their appreciation of his efforts in a tangible way.

City Court.

Alderman Bowden, Mayor pro tem, presiding.

Wm. Dahmer, charged with fast driving, sentenced to pay the costs.

John Watson, charged with disorderly conduct and resisting police. Submitted Order to pay $100 fine.

Geo. Cavey, charged with disorderly conduct, was ordered to pay the costs in the case or be imprisoned ten days. Defendant not having the necessary spouducks went below.

Curiosities of Life.

Half of all who live die before they are seventeen years old. Only one person in ten thousand lives to be a hundred years old, and but one in a hundred reaches sixty. The married live longer than the single. Out of every thousand persons born, only ninety-five weddings take place. Lay your finger on your pulse, and know at every stroke some immortal soul passes to its Maker—some fellow-being crosses the river death; and if we think of it, we may well wonder that it should be so long before our turn comes.

Knights of Honor Endowment.

This morning the Trustees and Reporter of Carolina Lodge No. 434, Knights of Honor of this city, paid over to Mrs. Joseph N. Hinton the amount endowed upon the life of the late J. N. Hinton by the Order of Knights of Honor of which he was a member. The endowment would have been received by Carolina Lodge at a much earlier period, but for the fact that there had been some changes in the blank forms of death notices used in the Order, of which the Lodge was not cognizant. Mr. Hinton being the first of its members who had died. The change in the blank forms delayed the payment of the money at least thirty days, and it is thought by those who are posted that the amount would have been received here within three weeks of the notification of the death. The check was deposited in one of the city banks.

The Crops Again.

From a subscriber who lives on the Northeast river, five miles above Bannerman's Bridge in Pender county, we learn that the crops of cotton and corn along the line of the river are in excellent condition and bid fair to be considerably above the average. Potatoes do not look flourishing and there are fears of a short crop of that esculent, but all other crops are looking remarkably favorable for the farmer.

What $200 Did in Wall Street.

August 16th, 1878, a customer wrote Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, N. Y. "Dear Sirs: Yours containing remittance for $1,113 25, as profits on my 200 shares, is received. Accept my thanks, for I am very well satisfied. You may use this letter. I would recommend every one who feels disposed to speculate to send for your circular. This is but one instance out of thousands, by which the new COMBINATION SYSTEM of operating stocks enables people with large or small capital to make similar profits. By this excellent plan, the orders of thousands of customers from city and country are pooled into ONE IMMENSE SUM and co-operated as a MIGHTY INDIVIDUAL ACCOUNT. Each member of the combination secures all the advantages of the largest capital united with experienced skill. Profits divided monthly; $10 invested returns $50, or 5 per cent. on the stock, $75 will make $450, and so on, according to the market. Messrs. Lawrence & Co.'s new circular (mailed free) has "two unerring rules for success," and explains everything, so that any one can operate profitably. All kinds of Stocks and bonds wanted. New Government loan supplied. Apply to Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange Place, N. Y. City.

No good Preaching.

No man can do a good job of work, preach a good sermon, try a lawsuit well, doctor a patient, or write a good article when he feels miserable and dull, with sluggish brain and unsteady nerves, and none should make the attempt in such a condition when it can be so easily and cheaply removed by a little Hop Bitters. See other column.
