VOL. IV. WILMINGTON, N. C., THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 4, 1879. NO. 179

LOCAL NEWS.

New Advertisements.
 P. HEINBERGER'S—Another Lot.

Window Glass of all sizes at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

Spoiled meats and fish were sent out of market yesterday.

Rice birds are getting fat and are held at 25 cents per dozen.

The water on the shoals near Fayetteville was about two inches higher yesterday, caused by local rains.

A colored boy was committed to jail by Justice Gardner to-day in default of payment of $4 05 fine and costs—for assault and battery.

If functional Torpor of the Liver exists, the element of the Bile will remain in the blood, vitiating that fluid and inducing many Skin Diseases. Dr. Bull's Baltimore Pills are a most reliable Liver Regulator. Sold everywhere. Price 25 cents.

After to-day no grapes can be sold on the sidewalks on Market, from Water to Second streets. The penalty for violation of this ordinance is ten dollars fine.
 Hereafter the grape carts and stands will be found on Second, between Market and Dock streets.

September Regatta.
 The September regatta of the Carolina Yacht Club will be sailed over the Wrightsville course on Monday next.
 The usual yachts will be entered for the race, which bids fair to be closely contested and interesting.

The Regular Excursion.
 The regular weekly family excursion will take place to-morrow on the steamer Passport. As the season is so rapidly drawing to a close and as the price on these excursions is only 50 cents for the round trip, we shouldn't be surprised if a large number goes down to-morrow.

SIGNAL SERVICE, U. S. A., Station Wilmington, N. C., Sep 4, 1879 —10:30 a. m.
 The following order has been received at this station:
 Signals are ordered up at Boston, Section Eight, Portland, Section Seven and Eastport. The storm centre is North of Lake Ontario.

J. M. WATSON,
 Sergt. Signal Corps, U. S. A.

No Court.
 There was no City Court this morning in consequence of the indisposition of Mayor Fishplate. Two cases only await trial, one the little vagrant Mike Peden, for disorderly conduct and the other, the case of a colored man who was arrested for being drunk and down on the street.

In Brief.
 We invite attention to a new departure in the REVIEW, inaugurated yesterday on the fourth page, under the head of "In Brief," will generally be found a column or more of news, condensed to a brief statement of facts, which presents, day by day, a complete epitome of events of interest occurring in every part of the world, both at home and abroad.

And Still Another.
 The base ball fever seems to be progressing, with no abatement in the intensity of the disease. Below we give the names of a new club just formed under the name and style of "The Wilmington Stand-By Base Ball Club." The following are the members: George Harriss, J. M. Grant, Harry McHenry, Walter R. Kingsbury, John Hartsfield, Richard Kelley, Jesse Shelly, James Meares, and James Hall.
 The club meet to-night at the Messrs. Mc-Koys' office, on Market street, at 8 o'clock for the purpose of electing officers.

You can get the best White Lead, Paints and Oils, and lowest prices at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

Pedestrian Match.
 There have been several attempts made by enterprising colored men in this city to get up a grand pedestrian match, but so far all efforts have proved to be fruitless. A match is announced to take place on Monday evening next; the prizes offered are to be two large cakes. The projects seem to be far-seeing men and the pedestrian match will no doubt be a success, because if anything will make a "cullud brudder" walk it is "de provisions."

Highest Prize Port Wine.
 The best wine in the country, that took the highest premium at the Centennial, is Speer's Port Grape Wine, which has become so celebrated. This wine and his P. J. Brandy are now being used by physicians everywhere, who rely upon them as being the purest and best sold by Druggists. For sale by P. L. Bridgers & Co., J. C. Munds and Green & Flanner

Matters of Interest.

G. D. (and everybody knows who that is) writes a very interesting letter from this city to the Raleigh Observer, which we find in Tuesday's issue of that paper.
 We copy it entire as it is all good reading matter. G. D. says:

The cotton business of Wilmington for the crop year ending to-day, compared with that of either of the two years last preceding, shows a falling off in the items both of receipts and of domestic exports.
 In the quantity exported to foreign countries, on the other hand, there has been a large increase, and in this direction there has been a steady gain for many years past, as may be learned from a comparative statement elsewhere. Compared with the crop year 1875-'76, the cotton business of the port has increased in every department, and the same is true of a comparison with any year previous thereto.

No attempt will be made to account for the decrease as compared with the last two years but it may be attributed partly to the fact that the Charlotte, Columbia & Augusta Railroad, formerly tributary to Wilmington, and from which much cotton came here for shipment, has within the time mentioned passed under the control of a corporation whose interests are thought not to be subserved by allowing produce to leave its line for this city.
 The following statement gives the movement of cotton at this port for the three years named:

COTTON STATISTICS FOR THE CROP YEARS ENDED AUGUST 31ST, 1877, 1878, AND 1879.

	1876-'77	1877-'78	1878-'79
Stock—Bales,	396	21	57
Receipts for year,	113,461	123,373	108,518
Exports—Domestic,	76,685	66,361	44,661
Foreign,	36,480	56,677	64,431
Total Exports,	113,165	123,638	108,492

The lowest price at which sales were made during the year was 8 1/2 cents, the highest 12 1/2 cents per pound.

The table below shows the regular increase from year to year in the quantity of cotton exported for the past five years, from Wilmington to foreign ports:

Crop Years.	No. of bales exported.
1874-'75	12,205
1875-'76	27,275
1876-'77	36,480
1877-'78	56,677
1878-'79	64,431

That September 1 is the proper date upon which to begin the cotton crop year is abundantly evidenced by the fact that as yet only six bales of the new crop have been received here, while the entire receipts for the month of August foot up only 108 bales. The receipts for September will be about 10,000 bales.

No American craft were engaged in the foreign cotton trade of the port during the year just closed. It was carried on in foreign bottoms entirely. In all fifty-five (55) vessels, loaded in whole or in part with cotton, cleared for points abroad during the year. Their tonnage amounted to 19 080 tons, and the nationalities were as follows: British, 16; German, 16; Norwegian, 21; Spanish, 1; Swedish, 1.
 Barques of an average capacity of 350 tons are the kind of craft principally employed; these bearing a ratio of about four to one to all other vessels in the trade.
 The largest cargo of cotton taken out during the season was by the German barque Sirene, which was cleared on the 17th of February, for Cork, for orders, with 2 250 bales. All the vessels enumerated, however, did not load exclusively with cotton. The British barque North Carolina, of 570 tons, cleared on February 10th for Liverpool with the following assorted cargo: Cotton, 411 bales; spirits turpentine, 900 barrels; rosin, 656 barrels; staves, 600,000; lumber, 2,000 feet; timber 16 pieces. This fine vessel has probably had her career cut short. Not long ago she came into the river from Bermuda, or the West Indies, and was placed in quarantine for fear of yellow fever. Putting to sea again, she was driven ashore in the fearful storm of August 18th, so destructive on this coast, near Life Saving Station No. 4, and when last heard from lay embedded in the sand to a depth of about seven feet.

The largest vessel that left the port for foreign parts during the year was the British barque George Davis, of 643 tons burthen, (named in honor of our distinguished townsman), which was cleared on the 13th of January for Liverpool with a cargo of 1,010 bales of cotton, 2,490 barrels of rosin, 550 barrels of spirits turpentine, 13,223 staves and 5,186 feet of lumber.

The cotton received at this place is brought mainly by the several lines of railway centering here, the proportion coming in that way being about four-fifths the business of the whole receipts.
 We have no "wagon trade," which is so important a feature of Raleigh and Charlotte. All cotton comes by rail or river and goes directly to the compress or into warehouse.

Last year Raleigh sent us much cotton for foreign shipment, and it is hoped the quantity will be increased the coming year.

A LETTER FROM GEN. LEE.

Anything from Gen. Lee's pen will always be read with interest by North Carolinians. Especially so, when what is written is commendatory of the bravery of our friends and acquaintances, as in the case with the following letter, which is sent that the gallant action therein mentioned may be made known and the record preserved:

HEADQUARTERS ARMY N. VA }
 11th May, 1864. }
 Hon. Secretary of War, Richmond Va: SIR:—Yesterday evening the enemy penetrated a part of our line and planted his colors upon the temporary breastworks erected by our troops. He was immediately repulsed, and among the brave men who met him, the 20th North Carolina Regiment, Col Thomas F Toon, of the brigade commanded by Brigadier-General R D Johnston, captured his flag. It was brought to me by Major John S Brookes, who received his promotion for gallantry in the battle of Chancellorsville, with the request that it be given to Gov Vance. I take great pleasure in complying with the wish of the gallant captors, and respectfully ask that it be granted, and that the colors be presented to the State of North Carolina as another evidence of their valor and devotion that have made her name eminent in the armies of the Confederacy.

Very respectfully, your ob't serv't,
 R. E. LEE, Gen'l.

Major John S Brookes, who presented the captured flag to Gen Lee, himself wrested it from the color-bearer, the latter surrendering it only after a hard struggle. Maj. Brookes was a native of our neighboring county of Brunswick, and was at one time captain of a company of infantry—"E," of the 20th Regiment—recruited in that county. The word "was" is, alas! not incorrectly used in speaking of the brave fellow, for but a day or two after he captured the flag, he was killed in action near Spotsylvania Court House. G. D.

Some of our people seem doomed to misfortune. Last evening, at Wrightsville Sound, a gangway fell through and four of the unfortunate who were at the Atlantic Hotel in Beaufort during the storm were precipitated into the water, getting a thorough ducking.

Arrested and Locked Up.

Mike Peden, colored, the notorious little rascal who has figured so conspicuously and so frequently at the Mayor's Court for the past two or three years, charged with disorderly conduct, theft and numerous other petty crimes too numerous to mention, was arrested and locked up this morning for invading the premises of Mr.
 Sol. Bear, jerking the door bell and behaving otherwise disorderly. He will be interviewed by the Mayor in the morning.

Some Statistics.

Inasmuch as Charleston, Savannah and Mobile are all claiming to be markets for the sale of naval stores, we give below the receipts of turpentine at the different ports above mentioned, as taken from their last yearly reports published, to show the difference in the receipts of these naval ports, separately or collectively, as compared with the port of Wilmington:

Receipts of spirits turpentine at Mobile as per last yearly report published.....(casks).....	21,118
Receipts of spirits turpentine at Savannah as per last yearly re- port published.....(casks).....	34,368
Receipts of spirits turpentine at Charleston as per last yearly re- port published.....(casks).....	53,870
Total.....(casks).....	109,356
Receipts of spirits turpentine at Wilmington as per last yearly report.....(casks).....	109,574

Difference in favor of Wilmington 218 casks over the sum total received at the three ports of Mobile, Savannah and Charleston, combined.

We Respectfully Suggest.

We have heard several names mentioned in connection with the proposed fund to be raised in this city by the ex-Confederates in behalf of the orphan children of the lamented General Hood. But as yet no one has been determined upon to take charge of the proposed contributions.
 We therefore take the liberty of suggesting a name which we feel assured from the well-known and deserved popularity of the gentleman in question, will meet with universal approval among the friends of the move. If Colonel Roger Moore would consent to take charge of this matter, we believe that he could create more enthusiasm and secure a larger donation from the old ex-Confederates than almost any one else in our midst. Col. Moore is himself a gallant soldier of the late war and was the commanding officer of the 3d N. C. Cavalry in Northern Virginia and again in Eastern Carolina and can therefore bring to the undertaking, not only the necessary qualifications of energy and zeal, but the sympathy which all who grieved under the lost stars and bars must feel for the poor unfortunate orphans of the dead hero.

Important to the Afflicted.

We would advise all who may need the advice of a physician, to either call or write to Dr. Robertson, 19. So. Eutaw St., Baltimore, Md., who from 15 years experience in Hospital and Special Practice, guarantees a cure in all diseases of the Urinary Organs and of the Nervous System, Organic and Seminal Weakness, Impotency (loss of sexual power), Nervous Debility and trembling, Palpitation of the Heart, dimness of sight or giddiness, Nocturnal Emissions, &c., all resulting from abuses in youth, or excesses in manhood; also all skin and blood diseases quickly cured. Dr. R. is a graduate of one of the oldest and best medical schools in this country (University of Maryland), and refers to the leading physicians in his city, and all consulting him can rely upon honorable and confidential treatment. In writing enclose stamp for reply. Special attention given to all female complaints. Good accommodations for all wishing to call and see him. Medicine sent to any address. †

Is it Possible

That a remedy made of such common, simple plants as Hops, Buchu, Mandrake, Dandelion, &c., make so many and such marvelous and wonderful cures, as Hop Bitters do? It must be, for when old and young, rich and poor, Pastor and Doctor, Lawyer and Editor, all testify to having been cured by them, we must believe and doubt no longer. See other column.
