But very few of the Summer absentees have yet returned to the city.

As soon as the base ball fever is over dancing clubs will next be in order.

The floral world has just received a dainty novelty in the shape of a blue pond lily.

Canton crape handkerchiefs are a recent addition to the multitude of fancy goods.

Business is looking up and so was the man who slipped on a grape hull this morning.

Shrimps were in abundance in market yesterday and were selling at five cents per quart.

Ten dollars is the modest price asked for brocade ribbons mounted on leather with silver buckles.

The Greenbackers orate to-night again, the occasion being one of their regular weekly meetings.

Old oystermen say that the shell-fish this season will be finer, better, and fatter than for twenty years past.

There is said to be a greater number destitute persons in this community at present than was ever known.

Mr. Julius Hahn, who has been on a visit to the old country for the past two months, is expected home to-night.

There was a sudden shifting of the wind last night about nine o'clock, and a perceptible cooling off of the atmosphere.

Give your neighbor a helping hand by recommending him to keep Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup in his family for all the ill babies are subject to.

We are indebted to Mr. Jas. A. Bradley, formerly of this city, but now of San Francisco, for a copy of the Sunday Chronicle, of that city, of date August 24th.

Some very fine mallets are brought to this market now. The best of them sold this morning for ten cents a bunch, which is only about two cents for each fish.

The Passport carried down the river to-day a good crowd of excursionists, the occasion being the regular weekly family excursion. They have had a fine day for it.

Short dresses are said to be all the rage in Paris. What good news to the American women who have grown left-handed in the back from stooping over to pick up their trunks!

A runaway horse came at break-neck speed down the pavement on Front to Chestnut street, this morning, when he was stopped and carried back to his owner.

Our country friends are bringing in their cattle at a lively rate. The market is well supplied, and among the droves recently brought in are some fine looking young beeves.

Prof. Agostini, who now has dancing classes in Charlotte and Concord, announces in another column that he will return to Wilmington in full season for his Fall and Winter sessions here.

It is not what people eat, but what they digest, that makes them strong. It is not what they gain, but what they save, that makes them rich. It is not what they read, but what they remember, that makes them learned. It is not what they profess, but what they practice, that makes them righteous.

The Tarboro Southerner has some excursion talk and then exclaims, very pathetically, "Oh! Wilmington, why don't you boom?"

You just hold on to your suspender buttons, Bro. Battle, a little while longer and then

When you hear the big drum go boom! boom! boom!

Then you may know that the lager beer has come.

Highest Prize Port Wine.

The best wine in the country, that took the highest premium at the Centennial, is Speer's Port Grape Wine, which has become so celebrated. This wine and his P. J. Brandy are now being used by physicians everywhere, who rely upon them as being the purest and best sold by Druggists. For sale by P. L. Bridgers & Co., J. C. Munds and Green & Flanner

For Repairs.

The schooner Jno. A. Griffin, about which so much anxiety was entertained a week ago, immediately after the disastrous storm which occurred along this coast, having discharged her cargo was, this morning, hauled upon the Marine Railway for repairs.

The Base Batters.

And still another base ball club was organized last night. This time it is the "Tar Heel" Club, a splendid name. The following officers were elected.

President—J. M. Grant.
 Captain and Vice President—George Harris, Jr.
 Secretary and Treasurer—W. R. Kingsbury.

Lost Cattle.

A cattle-drover who was bringing a herd of the bony headed to this market, lost thirty head, about forty miles from this city. He had stopped at a farm house on the route for the night and had penned his cattle up. They broke down the fence and escaped. They were bought in different localities and at different times and the drover has no hopes of recovering them.

You can get the best White Lead, Paints and Oils, and lowest prices at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

Dealers in Pine Straw.

The pine straw business in this city seems to be at a stand-still now. There are two presses here but neither is now at work. The proprietors claim that there is too little margin between the costs and the receipts and that they cannot make anything out of the business as it is. They threaten to stop work altogether unless they can get more from the manufacturers in New York. They are on a "strike" now and are making an effort for increased prices, and we trust that they may prove successful.

Captured at Last.

Officers H. E. Schriver and C. H. Srode succeeded last night in making the capture of Randall Jordan, colored, in Cape Fear township. He was brought to this city and committed to jail to await his trial. It will be remembered that this man escaped from officer Schriver on the 19th of July last, he being then in custody charged with an assault and battery, and that in an attempt to recapture him, the officer accidentally shot and killed William Jones, who had been summoned to assist in making the arrest. Since that time Jordan has eluded pursuit and capture until his arrest yesterday.

Monday's Regatta.

The regatta which is to be sailed on Monday next bids fair to be one of unusual interest, as it is to be the last of the season. The Restless now wears the champion flag and the other yachts of the squadron will endeavor to take it from her. The boats are being well "groomed," and each commander is confident of his yacht's success, if the wind and tide is in the right direction. The following have entered:
Restless—Capt. S. P. Cowan.
Frolic—Capt. Geo. D. Parsley.
Qui Vive—Capt. W. A. Wright.
Rosa—Capt. Jno. M. Cazaux.
Lizzie—Capt. L. Walter Parsley.
Ripple—Capt. Norwood Giles.

The Rice Crop.

We are pleased to learn that at this time the prospects of the rice crop on the Cape Fear are very promising. The crop was injured very little by the storm and the birds, those delicious little pests, are scarcer than usual this season. As to the quality of the rice it will be impossible to tell that fully until it is harvested.

We have been endeavoring, for several days past, to obtain a close estimate as to the size of the crop this year in this section and have ascertained that it will probably reach as high as 30,000 or 35,000 bushels, as against 10,000 to 12,000 bushels last year. We could not get the exact figures.

The large increase of the crop this year, over that from last year, augurs very favorably for a revival of this branch of industry in this section. We understand, too, that an increase has been marked of late in the value of the rice lands and that there has been considerable enquiry for them recently. They are splendid lands and are absolutely inexhaustible in fertility. Previous to the war the rice crops on the Cape Fear averaged some 250,000 bushels yearly and a few favorable seasons, with good prices, would doubtless soon increase the production beyond those figures.

The base-ball star is in the ascendant.

Only Thirty Days.

Mike Peden, the vagrant little scamp spoken of in yesterday's issue as having been arrested and locked up, was this morning ordered by the Mayor to be kept in durance vile for thirty days, which is the full extent of the law. Mike certainly could expect no more than the law allows, and consequently ought to be satisfied. His board and lodging will be furnished free of cost.

Little Straws.

We are not a prominent success as a critic and yet sometimes we find little things in our exchanges which will provoke a wondering smile. For instance, Maj. Creecy, of the Elizabeth City Economist, who is an accomplished writer, speaks in his last issue of "an elegant bottle of syrup," which made us wonder if syrup is ever really put up in elegant bottles, and yesterday's Index-Appeal, which is generally so correct, uses the word "gainsayed" for "gainsaid." These are mere straws and we notice them as much in our own extenuation as for anything else, and they go to show that even the most accomplished writers will sometimes be guilty of very peculiar blunders. Selah!

The Revival in the Second Baptist Church.

We are pleased to learn that the revival of religion in the Second Baptist Church in this city, which has already produced such good results, is still in progress. Rev. J. P. King, the Pastor, has labored for six week past entirely unassisted and as he is nearly exhausted by the continued strain upon his powers, he has telegraphed to his brother, Rev. J. E. King, who is Pastor of the Baptist Church in Monroe, to come to his assistance. That gentleman has responded and is expected here to-morrow. He will preach on Sunday morning and evening and will also labor here throughout the ensuing week. Thus far, during this revival, there have been some eighty conversions, including twenty whom Mr. King expects to baptize in the river at the foot of Queen street, on Sunday afternoon, between 3 and 4 o'clock.

The Barksdales.

James Barksdale, the man who killed Dixon at Yazoo City, is a graduate of Trinity College, in this State. A friend of ours, who was at the College with him, showed us a photograph of him a day or two ago. He is quite a young man and comes from a family renowned for pluck and good looks. It is related of an uncle of his, a Major Barksdale, that as he was lying mortally wounded on a battle-field in Virginia, a Federal officer appeared to him and Masonic signs were exchanged between the two. The Federal then produced a canteen of water and held it to the lips of the dying man who, although consumed with thirst, refused to drink from it, and died reviling and abusing the other, although, as he himself said, he knew that he was a fellow Mason.

How to Care for Canary Birds.

Miss A. M. sends Rural Life these selected "Rules for Care of Canary Birds." They are reasonable, and apparently worthy of heading by those who keep that popular pet, the canary:

1. During the summer season you should have both a drinking cup and a bathing dish in the cage, and should wash them twice a day, and fill with fresh water: The seed cup should be filled every morning.
 2. The room in which the bird is kept should never be warmer than seventy degrees.
 3. Feed plain food. Now and then a lump of sugar does no harm, but as a general rule avoid sweets. Keep the cuttle-fish dry and clean, and feed only fresh and dry seed.
 4. Never place a cage where a draught can strike the bird.
 5. Never smoke in a room where your bird is kept, as the odor of a cigar is fatal to canaries.
 6. As a general rule, never keep the bird in a painted cage; for the birds will peck at the wires, and it will lead to disease.
 7. When your bird is shedding feathers, which is generally styled moulting, avoid draughts of air.
- By obeying these simple directions, you can keep birds in excellent health for years.

The schooner Bessie E. Dickinson, Standish, cleared at Philadelphia on the 3rd inst. for this port.

Plaid neckties are likely to be popular this season.

With the approach of the theatrical season bonnets, of course, grow larger.

The friendships of youth are founded on sentiment; the dissensions of age result from opinion.

Flowers sweeten the air, rejoice the eye, link us with nature and innocence and are something to love.

The business of life is to go forward; he who sees evil in prospect meets it on the way; but he who catches it by retrospection turns back to find it.

Affections, like spring flowers, break through the frozen ground at last, and the heart, which seeks but for another heart to make it happy, will never seek in vain.

Important to the Afflicted.

We would advise all who may need the advice of a physician, to either call or write to Dr. Robertson, 19, So. Eutaw St., Baltimore, Md., who from 15 years experience in Hospital and Special Practice, guarantees a cure in all diseases of the Urinary Organs and of the Nervous System, Organic and Seminal Weakness, Impotency (loss of sexual power), Nervous Debility and trembling, Palpitation of the Heart, dimness of sight or giddiness, Nocturnal Emissions, &c., all resulting from abuses in youth, or excesses in manhood; also all skin and blood diseases quickly cured. Dr. R. is a graduate of one of the oldest and best medical schools in this country (University of Maryland), and refers to the leading physicians in his city, and all consulting him can rely upon honorable and confidential treatment. In writing enclose stamp for reply. Special attention given to all female complaints. Good accommodations for all wishing to call and see him. Medicine sent to any address. †

Is it Possible

That a remedy made of such common, simple plants as Hops, Buchu, Mandrake, Dandelion, &c., make so many and such marvelous and wonderful cures, as Hop Bitters do? It must be, for when old and young, rich and poor, Pastor and Doctor, Lawyer and Editor, all testify to having been cured by them, we must believe and doubt no longer. See other column.
