SIGNAL SERVICE, U. S. A.,
Station Wilmington, N. C., Sept. 19, 1879—10:30 a. m.
The following order has been received at this station:
Signals are ordered down at Sandy Hook, Barnegat, Atlantic City, Cape May, Woodshul, Boston, Section eight, Portland, Section seven, Eastport.

J. M. WATSON,
Sergt. Signal Corps, U. S. A.

Arrested and Locked Up.

The Whitfield house sent up another delegation yesterday to the Guard House, under escort of two policemen. The names of the sable-hued individuals are familiar to the police; one answers to the name of Jane Hines and the other moves about under the soubriquet of Tilly Hall. The latter has many other names besides this one, but the last is the title name under which she has appeared before the Mayor recently.

A low, wretched white woman, by the name of Mary Anderson, was among the number arrested, and they all three await the decision of the City Court to-morrow morning upon the charge of disorderly conduct.

Postal Matter.

Postal cards spoiled in printing or otherwise, which have never been used, will be redeemed at any postoffice in stamps, stamped envelopes or new postal cards, at the rate of four cents for every five cards, in whatever quantities presented. Under the old law postal cards spoiled could not be redeemed.

Proprietors of hotels, officers of clubs, etc., should not hold unclaimed letters longer than ten days, except at the request of the person addressed. They should be returned to the postoffice as soon as it is evident that they will not be claimed.

Samples of merchandise are fourth class matter, subject to postage at the rate of one cent for each ounce or fraction thereof, when wrapped so as to admit examination. Such samples may have tickets or tags applied with name, width of goods, etc., printed thereon without subjecting the package to any higher rate of postage.

This is quite an important change, and one that will be of great advantage to our dry goods business men, with whom the plan of sending out samples of goods has become popular.

The Postmaster General has ordered that an actual daily count be made in all the postoffices of the United States from the 1st to the 7th of November of all letters, packages, postal cards, &c., deposited for transmission in the U. S. mails.

The best Windows, Doors and Blinds and Lowest Prices can be got at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

The September Planets.

The planetary interest of the month concentrates on the movements of the brilliant trio—Jupiter, Saturn, and Mars. During the larger portion of the month they will enjoy almost sole possession of the shining field, but as its close draws near, a formidable rival will enter the lists. The peerless harvest moon will dim their bright beams, as approaching the full she shines each night with increasing luster. Jupiter is evening star and reigns supreme among the glittering hosts that on moonless nights make the sky tremulous with brightness. He has passed his opposition with the sun; and during the first part of the month, was arrayed in his most brilliant tints, assuming the regal air that befits the mythic father of gods and men. He rises now about sunset; on the last day of the month he will rise at half-past 4 more than an hour before sunset. He is, therefore, in excellent position for observation during the whole of the month, though, travelling away from us, he will soon show a perceptible diminution in size and brilliancy. He is now a superb object as he comes darting above the eastern horizon in the twilight and rises majestically in the meridian, reaching it about midnight. Venus is evening star during the greatest portion of the month, but her brilliant beauty is almost obscured by her near approach to the sun. On the 23rd a great epoch occurs in her history, for she comes into inferior conjunction with the sun, and reappearing on his western side as morning star. On the last of the month she rises about 5:00, a half hour before the sun, and sharp-eyed observers may get a glance at her as she first takes tangible form in her new role. Saturn is ranked, among the morning stars, though he rises now about 7; at the end of the month he will rise a few minutes after 6. Mars is morning star and rapidly assuming proportions that will make him the observed of all observers. He will rise on the last of the month at 8 o'clock. Mercury is morning star, rising on the last at 5:30. He reached his greatest western elongation on the 9th, and was then in one of the four favorable positions for morning observation that occur during the year.

Sobr. Maggie E. Gray, Bowling, arrived on the 20th ult. at Rio de Janeiro.

Nor barque Christine, Jensen, sailed from Antwerp, for this port, on the 5th inst.

Receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 764 bales.
Nothing worth reporting in Magisterial circles to-day.

The thermometer in this office at 4 o'clock the afternoon reached 86 degrees.
Brig F. H. Todd, Ginie, from this port, arrived at Rio de Janeiro on the 15th inst.

The weather for the past two days has been warm, dry and dusty. A little rain would be most acceptable.

Mr. Joel H. Muse, the venerable City Editor of the Morning Star, returned here last night from his short summering in the Newbern section.

Thus far the earliest date on which the theatrical season will open here is Thursday, October 21, for which day Mr. Jno. T. Ford's Juvenile Opera Troupe is booked.

Squire Williams, Clerk of the Market, gives notice that the stalls in the Market House will be rented out at Public Auction, on FRIDAY, 26th inst., to the highest bidder for one year from October 1st, 1879, at which date possession will be given.

The renting will take place at 12 o'clock, M., in the Market House and will be positive.
By order of the Mayor.
L. M. WILLIAMS,
sept 18-1t Star copy. Clerk of the Market.

Personal.
Mr. W. N. Holt, formerly of this city, but now of Savannah, who has been on a short visit to Wilmington, paid us a brief but pleasant visit yesterday afternoon. He left here last night on his return to Savannah.

Rosh Hashanuah.
There has been a very general suspension of business to-day among the Jewish residents the occasion being Rosh Hashanuah, the first day of the New Year, 5640 from the creation of the world. On this account the Mayor, who is of that nation, very properly decided not to hold court to-day.

Southern Musical Journal.
The September number contains the following music: "Let the Dead and the Beautiful Rest," song and chorus, by S. Wesley Martin; "Sensation Waltz," by Becket; "Three Fishers," song by Hallah. All of which are very pretty without being difficult. Send for this number. Address the publishers, Ludden & Bates, Savannah, Ga.

Death of a Venerable Citizen of Pender.
Mr. John F. Robitczsch, a veteran of the war of 1812, died yesterday at Asheton, in Pender county, at the advanced age of 85 years, having been born in 1794. The heroes of the revolution have all departed, and but a few now remain who took a part in what is familiarly known as the last war with Great Britain.

At McIntire's.
Capt. R. M. McIntire appears in a handsome and attractive advertisement in this issue of the REVIEW. He has recently returned from the North with a very large and handsome stock. He makes a speciality of carpets and he has the latest and prettiest designs in these goods. Capt. McIntire's taste and his excellent judgment in selecting goods are well known facts which commend themselves to the attention of buyers.

The New Grocery.
We invite attention to the advertisement of the new grocery store just opened by Messrs. A. D. Lippitt & Co., on South side of Market street, between Front and Water. These gentlemen are in daily receipt of new and fresh goods and offer to their patrons none but the choicest articles, and that, too, at only reasonable prices. They respectfully invite an examination of stock and prices, confident that they can please the housekeepers.

Worthless Stuff!
Not so fast, my friend; if you could see the strong, healthy, blooming, men, women and children that have been raised from beds of sickness, suffering and almost death, by the use of Hop Bitters, you would say "Glorious and invaluable remedy." See another column.

DIED.
Near Asheton, in Pender county, on the 17th inst., JOHN F. ROBITZSCH, aged 85 years, a soldier of the war of 1812.
