Some of the old folks tell us that it never does rain during the first nine days in October. We will see what we shall see.

An inquisitive young lady asks what is the most popular color for a bride? If we were going to marry, we should prefer a white one.

He had a downcast look, but it wasn't caused by business cares and vexations. His wife had been rusticated and was about returning home.

A careful political economist close'y calculates that the women in this country might save $14,500,000 in ribbons which the men might spend in cigars.

That good old custom of honoring a newly married couple with a lasses candy pull is said to be falling into decay. One by one the things which make life pleasant are fading away.

The young lady who educates herself to speak uniformly kind to her brother will find a reciprocal love in his breast. He will never set the dog on her fellow, nor tar the front steps on a dark Sunday evening.

The rice crop on the Cape Fear is being rapidly harvested. It is an unusually good crop and this fact, coupled with the fair price at which rough rice is now selling, makes glad the hearts of the planters.

Nothing removes an incipient cold more quickly and pleasantly than a reliable cathartic medicine, such as that old and tried remedy, Dr. Bull's Baltimore Pills, used by thousands of families throughout the land. Price only 25 cents.

Mr. W. A. Davis, of the Oxford Torch light, will publish a daily issue of that paper during the approaching session of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention, which meets in that town on November 5th. A distinguished divine will edit the issue, which will be furnished to subscribers at 25 cents.

Bogus Certificates.
It is no vile drugged stuff, pretending to be made of wonderful foreign roots, barks, &c., and puffed up by long bogus certificates of pretended miraculous cures, but a simple, pure, effective medicine, made of well known valuable remedies, that furnishes its own certificates by its cures. We refer to Hop Bitters, the purest and best medicines.—Exchange. See another column.

Messrs Geo. F. Tilley and Herman Hintz have purchased two car loads of beef cattle which have just arrived here from East Tennessee. The first of it has been slaughtered, and will be found tomorrow on Mr. Tilley's stall. It is beautiful beef and will be appreciated for Sunday dinners.

Tim Lee.

Persons contemplating visiting the State Fair would do well to read and profit by Tim Lee's ad in this issue of the Review. He keeps a good house and can accommodate all of his friends. He gives good meals and entire satisfaction to all his patrons.

Full of Years.

Mr. John Everett, father of Dr. S. S. Everett, of this city, died of paralysis at his residence in Goldsboro, on Wednesday last, aged 77 years. He was a lifelong citizen of Wayne county, and carried with him to the tomb the affection and respect of a multitude of people.

Theatrical Notes.

From the Dramatic News we learn that Norcross' Fifth Avenue Pinafore Troupe will show in this city on the 8th and 9th insts. We also learn that Manager Powell, of the Richmond Theatre, is running Gilbert and Professor Wyman through North and South Carolina. The Grover's Boarding House, Ford's Opera Company, Foy Sisters, Berger Family and Sol Smith Russell are heading this way.

Strangers in the city should not fail to visit the Sash Factory, foot of Walnut street.

Annual Session of the Eastern Baptist Association.

The Eastern Baptist Association will hold its annual session at Piney Grove Church, nine miles from Faison's depot, on the W. & W. R. R., commencing on Tuesday next, the 9th inst.

At a called business meeting of the First Baptist Church of this city, held last night, the pastor, Rev. J. B. Taylor, and Mr. Geo. F. Alderman were appointed delegates to the Association.

Accident on the W. C. & A. Rail Road.

As the excursion train of colored people, which arrived here about 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon from South Carolina, was passing Nicholls, S. C., a colored man by the name of Williams, who was on board, jumped off and his forehead struck a cross-tie, killing him instantly. His father-in-law resides at Nicholls, and it was for the purpose of paying him a visit that he made the fatal leap. Williams was identified by his father-in-law at once.

City Court.

The first case on docket this morning was one where a little colored girl by the name of Catharine Myers, had been assaulted by a colored boy named George H. Larkins, in which the latter struck the former on the head with a glass bottle, inflicting a gash about an inch in length. It appeared in the evidence, however, that the two were quarrelling and fighting at the time of the occurrence. The girl was discharged, and the boy sentenced to ten days in the city prison.

A case of drunk and down on the street was dismissed.

Richard Atkinson, colored, arrested on suspicion by officer Tietjen, on the corner of Fourth and Walnut streets, was sent below for a future hearing.

For bar steel, iron and carriage goods go to JACOB'S Hardware Depot.

Ford's Children in "Pinafore."

Ford's Juvenile Opera Troupe played "Pinafore" at the Opera House last evening to a fair audience. The rendition of the different characters by the little ladies and young men were admirable. Too much cannot be said in praise of the youthful performers, as their acting and vocalism were simply superb. Miss Lillie Parlow's Josephine, Miss Wilton's Buttercup and Miss Myer's H. B. were as fine pieces of acting as we have ever seen in these characters. They were well up in their parts, and their childlike grace gave eclat to their performance. The parts of Corcoran, Sir Joseph, Ralph, Dick Deadeye and Botswain were cleverly taken by the male members of the troupe. So much pleased were the community with the performance that had the Company played here to-night, standing room in the Opera House would have been in demand. A gentleman offered Manager Watchall three hundred dollars for the house to-night, if he would give another performance in this city. His engagements were such as to compel him to refuse the offer.

Messrs Geo. F. Tilley and Herman Hintz have purchased two car loads of beef cattle which have just arrived here from East Tennessee. The first of it has been slaughtered, and will be found tomorrow on Mr. Tilley's stall. It is beautiful beef and will be appreciated for Sunday dinners.

Religious Meetings.

We understand that an invitation has been extended to Rev. J. P. King, pastor of the Second Baptist Church, in this city, to hold a series of meetings in Brooklyn Hall, to begin at an early date. It is not yet definitely known if he will accept the invitation, but there is good reason to believe that he will.

Too Small for Him.

Mr. Thos. H. Howey notifies the public in this issue that he will remain at his old stand, finding the store recently occupied by Capt. Jno. H. Allen too small for his stock. He has a fine line of goods and proposes to retain his reputation of selling good goods only. See his advertisement elsewhere.

Good Sport.

A subscriber living in Holly Shelter township, Pender county, was in our office a day or two since, and told us that he worked in the turpentine woods this season ten days and in that time he killed ten deer, besides doing his regular work each day. He did not kill a deer on each day, but the total killed made an average of one per day for the ten days.

Arrested.

Fanny Gore, the Queen of the Hollow, invaded the Secretary of War Kit Huggins' domains, to-day and commenced a war of destruction on the Secretary's property, so it is alleged, and was carrying the war into Africa sure enough with violence, when she was arrested and locked up. The Mayor will interview her to-morrow morning at half past nine o'clock.

The Fire Alarm.

The fire alarm was sounded this afternoon about two o'clock, caused by the sudden burst out of fire among the cotton which had been moved from the Compress yard to the hill east of the Carolina Central depot. Eleven hundred bales of damaged cotton are on the hill and upon the shifting of the wind to the Southwest the smouldering embers were fanned into a blaze. It was soon gotten under control and about sixty watchmen are employed to keep the fire down.

You can get the best White Lead, Paints and Oils, and lowest prices at JACOB'S Hardware Depot.

The Second Baptist Church.

The religious exercises which have been in progress in this Church for some weeks past have resulted thus far in 109 accessions already, and there are others who will probably connect themselves with the Church at an early day. The ordinance of baptism will be administered to about 20 candidates, at 3 o'clock on Sunday afternoon, at the foot of Queen street. The pastor, Rev. J. P. King, will attend the Eastern Baptist Association at Piney Grove Church in Sampson county, the coming week, during which time the regular services at the Church will be suspended, to be renewed upon his return. The regular prayer meetings of the Church, however, will be continued as usual during his absence.

Serious Accident and Marvelous Escape from Death.

A serious accident befell three ladies yesterday while driving out late in the evening. The horse attached to the phaeton in which the ladies were riding became frightened and ran rapidly down Front street, where the vehicle collided with a heavy truck in front of Messrs. Adrian & Voller's store, breaking the straps to the vehicle, which luckily released the horse, which sped rapidly away and the ladies, Mrs. R. H. Grant and her two daughters, Mrs. J. N. Hinton and Mrs. Thos. Shepard, were thrown violently to the ground, Mrs. Grant being badly injured by having her right arm severely sprained and her shoulder dislocated. Mrs. Hinton was very severely bruised. Mrs. Shepard and a little girl who was also in the phaeton escaped injury. Mrs. Grant, the most injured of the party, we are glad to learn in doing very well, and Mrs. Hinton, though severely bruised and cut about the head and face, is not seriously injured. It was quite a miraculous escape from death.

The fish market is overstocked now every day with skip-jack, or blue fish, as they are called elsewhere. You can lay in a week's supply of fish now at a comparatively trifling outlay.

All property on which taxes are unpaid will be advertised on the first of November. See Sheriff Manning's ad.

Personal.

The many warm friends in this city of that courteous gentleman and efficient officer, Maj. J. C. Winder, General Superintendent of the Raleigh & Gaston R. R. and the Raleigh & Augusta Air Line, will be pleased to learn that he has been re-elected to the same position at a meeting held in Raleigh on Wednesday, as we learn from the Raleigh Observer.

Game in the Woods.

Game is said to be very plentiful in the neighboring country. Squirrels and rabbits are abundant and in some sections deer seem unusually plentiful. There is a good stock of acorns and the average is, according to a communicative friend of ours who lives on Topsail, thirteen squirrels to every acorn bearing tree. The same authority represents the squirrels as being so plentiful that he doesn't waste powder and shot on them, but goes out along the fences of his corn field and brings them down very easily with a big brush-thrower and a long drawn bow.

To the Public.

FINDING THE STORE FORMERLY occupied by Capt. John H. Allen entirely too small for my large stock, I will respectfully notify my customers and the public generally, that I will remain at my old stand, No. 47 North Market street, where I propose to keep a fine and well assorted stock of BOOTS and SHOES. My Goods are purchased from Manufacturers who have the reputation for the best goods in this country, and can therefore warrant every pair sold. I have established a reputation for selling GOOD GOODS ONLY, and will endeavor to retain that even at the risk of not selling quite so many goods, but giving more general satisfaction. Soliciting a continuance of past patronage,
I am, Very Respectfully,
oct 3 1t THOMAS H. HOWEY.
