There were six interments in Pine Forest (colored) Cemetery this week—one adult and five children.

Ru sell is with them.

The Ordinance of Baptism will be administered, at the First Baptist Church, to-morrow night, after the sermon.

'Whatever is, is right,' never bought a pair of gloves or got left by a train.

The labor question has been an issue long enough. Statesmen are wanted who can grapple with the issue.

the age when a girl begins to need one.

The Register of Deeds has issued eight marriage licenses during the week—three of which were for white and five for colored couples.

The weakest living creature, by concentrating his powers upon a single object, can accomplish something—a mosquito on a man's nose, for instance.

We saw a lovely family party taking the a plump, happy twenty-pound youngster and the husband carried the youngster's

Rev. Dr. J. S. Burkhead, P. E., will preach at Front Street Church to-morrow morrow night, alternating at each church with Rev. Daniel McPherson.

The weakest living creature, by concentrastrongest, by dispersing his over many, may fail to accomplish anything.

A man who fails enthusiastically to recognize the distinction, with a differ-

The Yorkville (S. C.) Enquirer gives utterance to a rumor that a Republican paper is to be started soon in Charlotte and that a Republican is to be sent up there from Wilmington to run it. Who is he?

Abbott this matter we Rice to say that whoever thinks of Manning such an undertaking or attempts to Foster such an enterprise will find himself on the Brink of a catastrophe from which only a modern Sampson could rescue him. Canaday bring forth more?

Unmailables.

The following unmailable matter remains at the Postoffice in this city:
Mr. Jerad Tuckheben, (German) New York, N. Y.; Elizabeth Reding, Hardin, Ga.; Sarah Halsey, New York, N. Y.

The Storm Signal.
The storm signal was run up on the flagstaff over the signal officer about noon to-day, but at this hour 3:15 p. m. the sun has broken through the clouds and shines as bright and almost as warm as on a Summer's day. But the wind is still to the eastward.

Going North Again.
Capt R. M. McIntire will leave here on Monday on his second trip to the North this Fall. He promises to gather in all of the pretty styles he left behind him a few weeks ago and the ladies will look anxiously for his return with them. This looks like a practical business revival.

The Cape Fear.
Capt. Green, of the North State, reports that he left Fayetteville on Wednesday last, but owing to the low stage of the water he was unable to reach here until to-day. He states that there have been light rains since he left Fayetteville, and a reported rise in the river of about 3 inches.

Quarterly Meetings.
The Fourth Quarterly Session of Front Street M. E. Church, Rev. Dr. Burkhead presiding, commenced to-day, and the Quarterly Conference of Fifth Street Church, which was unavoidably postponed last week, will be held to-night.

Watchmaker and Jeweler.
We invite attention to the advertisement of Mr. J. L. Winner, watchmaker and jeweler, as it appears in this issue. Mr.
Winner has located at No. 3 South Front street and is prepared to attend promptly and skillfully to all work entrusted to him. He comes to this city well recommended as one who has had an experience of twenty years in the business.

Criminal Court.
The following cases were called and disposed of up to the present writing, 3 p. m.: State vs. Abo McKintzie, charged with larceny, verdict guilty.
State vs. A. B. Lind, charged with assault, verdict guilty.
State vs. J. C. Borneman, retailing without a license, verdict guilty.
State vs. Daniel Wright, charged with perjury, jury out.

Music at Burgaw.
The good people of Burgaw were treated to another excellent musical entertainment last night, under the direction of Mrs. Lindsay, a popular teacher and a lady of fine musical ability. The populace turned out en masse to listen to the enjoyable efforts of the pupils, and were truly delighted with the result. The pupils all acquitted themselves with credit, and it would seem, where all did so well, invidious to particularize any special pupil, but we must state that the organ playing by little Miss Lindsay, aged 9 years, and the singing of Miss Nellie Williams, aged 8 years were noticeable conspicuously events in the exhibition.
We congratulate Mrs. Lindsay and also the citizens of Burgaw upon the success which has attended her efforts as an instructor in this delightful and humanizing science.

We Back Down.
Nearly three years ago we announced through these columns that the Spirit of the South had ceased to be a Republican paper, assigning our reasons for such change of base. Hence, Bro. James, you had no more right to regard the Spirit as a Republican paper than we had to look upon your paper as an opponent of the Democracy. With this explanation we trust that you will be able to discern how the difference(?) between Dr. Harlee and the Spirit on political questions can be reconciled.

We very cheerfully give the Spirit the benefit of its correction, and trust that before long it will be able to go a little farther and state that it has not only 'ceased to be a Republican paper' but that it has enrolled itself in the Democratic ranks. We had no desire to do our neighbor an injustice and in the absence of information merely judged it in the present by that which it had been in the past. It has a safe and reliable man at its political helm now. Let him still continue to guide its doctrines and it will not go wrong again.

The schooner Inogene Divorcy, Reide' from this port, arrived at Georgetown, S. C., on the 3rd inst.

At the City Hall

Horace McRae and Mike Peden, colored, two notorious little vagrants, were arrested at 2 o'clock this morning under the depot shed at the W. & W. Railroad and taken to the Guard House.

James McPherson, colored, was found asleep under the shed at the Passport's wharf last night and carried to the lock up. The Mayor ordered all three of the prisoners to be kept under lock and key until to night and then to be released.

Capt. of Police Brock this morning received a postal from A. Fred Rhett, Chief of Police in Charleston, notifying him that B. R. Caldwell, the young man for whom a reward was offered in August last of $500 and who was afterwards reported captured in Cincinnati, is still at large, and that the same reward is still offered for his capture. The crime he is alleged to have committed is swindling or defrauding J. H. Parker & Co., of Charleston, out of the snug little sum of $20,000. A full description of the individual, wanted by the authorities in Charleston, together with his photograph can be seen at the City Hall.

The best Windows, Doors and Blinds and Lowest Prices can be got at JACOB'S Hardware Depot.

To Tobacco Dealers.
Some tobacco dealers need to be reminded of the law in regard to tobacco stamps, which is now being enforced.
The law requires that after the last cigar or piece of tobacco is taken from a box, the stamp shall be destroyed, either by scraping or tearing off a part or the whole thereof. The penalty for each offense is a fine of $50 and imprisonment; but the collector may, at his discretion, recommend to the head of his department, at Washington, the remitting of the whole or any portion of the penalty.
This is very frequently done, when it is clearly shown that the evasion or breaking of the law is entirely the result of ignorance or accident, and when no attempt to defraud the government is shown. It is better, however, by a strict compliance, to be on the safe side.
Deputy collectors are required to be on the lookout for empty tobacco and cigar boxes, and there is no telling when they may call upon any dealer to show up.

Mr. Editor:
I have noticed recently in the Charlotte Observer a statement copied by the Reviewer and other papers, that satisfactory arrangements have just been made between the Western N. C. R. and the Carolina Central for freights to and from Wilmington. I am very glad to chronicle that fact, first because it must prove beneficial to Wilmington, and not only to Wilmington but to our Western brethren also, and secondly because I hope it will put a stop to any further complaints against Gov. Jarvis for his supposed hostility to the interests of our city. A supposition that does him great injustice, for I feel very sure that there never has been a moment when he contemplated allowing any interest in which he could exercise control, to be used in any way disrespectful to Wilmington or the interests of her people. Time will show how uncalled for and how unjust have been the complaints made against him on that score, and will show also, that so far from being inimical to our section, the very reverse has been the case and will continue to be. CATO.
