Who saw the occultation of Venus by the moon, yesterday morning, about 10 o'clock?
The barque Condor, Hansen, cleared from London, Eng., on the 2nd inst., for this port.
There is an unmailable letter in the Postoffice in this city directed to Lillie Lane, Keyville, S. C.

It is the middle of October, and the weather is so balmy and pleasant as it was in the middle of May.
That cold wave from Manitoba has not yet reached this locality, although it left the former place last Friday.

If speech is silver and silence golden, perhaps the use of the deaf and dumb alphabet is gold, or German silver.
The almanac promises us some fair weather for to-morrow, and we have, therefore, some faint hopes that it will rain and turn cooler.
The "woman's friend" is what Dr. Bull's Baltimore Pills may well be termed, for every woman that has once used them will not be without them.
Sheamship Benefactor, Capt. Jones, from this port, arrived in New York this morning, as we learn from a private dispatch received here to-day.

Judge McKoy, we are sorry to learn, has been suffering with chills and fever up in Durham. He is better, however, and went on to Oxford on Friday, where he was to have opened Court yesterday.
For the accommodation of those who propose attending the Fair at Raleigh, we will state that the train will leave Goldsboro each day for Raleigh during the Fair, at 8 a. m. and returning will leave Raleigh at 5:20 p. m.

Steamboatmen state that there has been a rise of about four inches in the Cape Fear recently, but that it is now subsiding again, making navigation between here and Fayetteville still difficult and slow.
The Norwegian barque Silo, Moiland, from this port for Liverpool, Eng., which put into Halifax, N. S., with her crew nearly all sick with fever and ague, left the latter port on the 8th inst., and proceeded on her voyage.

The Goldsboro Messenger, published last Thursday, arrived here safe and sound yesterday morning and Saturday's Charlotte Observer came to hand this morning. They must have walked every step of the way.

A Generous Act.
President Wilson, of the Western North Carolina Railroad, has made special rates for visitors to the Salisbury re-union on the 23d. From all stations west of Stateville the fare will be but $1 for the round trip, and maimed soldiers will be passed free both ways. This is a grateful and generous act on the part of Major Wilson. Long may he live and prosper.

Window Glass of all sizes at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.
Off for Raleigh but not to the Fair
The following named persons, convicted at the late term of the Criminal Court, will be started Thursday morning by Sheriff Manning for the Penitentiary: Abram McKenzie, larceny, 5 years.
Daniel Richardson, larceny in two cases, 10 years each.
Charles Harper, larceny, 12 months.
Daniel Brown, larceny, 6 years Gould Foy, larceny, 3 years.
Gabe Everett, larceny, 3 years.
Irving Washington, for the larceny of a newspaper, was sentenced to the Work House for ninety days.

For bar steel, iron and carriage goods, go to JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.
Criminal Court.
This tribunal concluded its labors late yesterday afternoon, and adjourned for the term. During the session just closed there were thirty-four jury cases, besides other cases that were disposed by continuance or the entering of a not pros.
In the jury cases Col. Moore, the Solicitor, obtained 23 convictions out of the 34 that were tried. Eight of these were for arsony, the balance being either assault and battery or other misdemeanors of similar import in the eyes of the law. It is not too much to say of this Court that the officers composing it all work with a will in order to clear the docket as soon possible. His Honor Judge Meares frequently continuing in session until 9 o'clock at night in order to expedite business as much as possible, and thereby save as much expense as possible to the county.

City Court.
Harry Jevens, a sailor man, who made a land cruise on Saturday night, was arraigned this morning for assault and battery. He was told to deposit $5 with the Clerk or go below for ten days; not having the necessary wherewith to deposit, the defendant was escorted below.
Sarah Boyd, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was discharged.
Jane Foy, arrested for being drunk and disorderly, was sentenced to pay the costs or be locked up for one day.
Wm. Edwards, a colored youth, yesterday engaged in a game of knocking rocks with a broom that were thrown at him by another sable hued youth and unfortunately for him knocked one through the window glass of Messrs Brown & Roddick's five and ten cents store, corner of Market and Second streets. The Mayor said he must pay a fine of $2 50, besides the cost of the broken window glass, or be locked up in the city prison for five days. This finished the proceedings and the Court took a recess until tomorrow morning at half past nine o'clock.

ing Supplies from Altfer & Price.
Unknown.
The play of "Unknown," which is to be performed in this city on Wednesday evening by Mr. John A. Stevens, is said to be a very fine thing. He is well spoken of wherever he has been. The Company carries three sets of scenery, one of which is New York Bay by moonlight. In this scene a walking beam engine passes forward and backward with its machinery at work. Another showing the Merribrihts' tomb in Greenwood Cemetery, and the third the scenery of Rover's Park in New York. Of this troupe the Buffalo Courier says:
"The new drama entitled 'Unknown,' by Mr. John A. Stevens, who sustains the principal role, was produced at the Academy of Music last evening, and, although but little was known of 'The Unknown,' the audience was of goodly proportion and the play made a tremendous hit.
The play is a capital specimen of the melodrama—the best we have seen in a long time, and in its construction, Mr.
Stevens has displayed much ingenuity, unmistakable literary ability, and a wide and accurate knowledge of stage business.
The dialogue is clean, crisp and epigrammatic; the wit is incisive and telling; the humor is infectious; the situations are all effective and his more stirring climaxes are of such a character as bring down the house in thunderous applause."

In Port and to Arrive.
There are now in this port 18 vessels, of which 12 are barques, 2 are brigs and 4 are schooners. All but the schooners are foreigners and of these the nationalities are, 6 Germans, 1 Swede, 1 British and 4 Norwegians, of the barques, and 1 Russian and 1 Spanish brig.
In addition to these there are 23 foreign vessels up and sailed for this port, 5 of which are brigs and 18 barques.
The nationalities are 11 Norwegians, 6 British, 4 German, 1 Swede and 1 French

Government Inspectors.
Messrs. William Kirkwood and E. E.
Hewes, the former inspector of hulls and the latter of boilers of steamboats, are here on an inspecting tour and have to-day inspected the following named steamers, all of which passed inspection and received certificates, to wit: The steam tugs Blanche, Gladiolus and Alpha. The steamers Wacamac and Clinton were to have been inspected this afternoon, but had not been overhauled up to the time of closing our report.

Fire at Whiteville.
From Col. John W. Gordon, of the firm of J. W. Gordon & Bro., insurance agents in this city, we learn that a fire occurred at Whiteville, Columbus county, on the W. C. & A. R. R. about 2 o'clock this morning, which consumed the store and store of Mr. C. D. Baldwin, together with a building in the rear occupied as a bar room by Mr. E. Kins. The store of Col.
T. B. Memory, next door to Mr. Baldwin, was at one time in great danger, but by the greatest efforts and exertions on the part of the citizens was saved from destruction. The building occupied by Mr. Baldwin as a store was insured in the Virginia Fire and Marine Insurance Company for $1,000 and the stock of goods to the value of $2 500 in the Liverpool, London and Globe Insurance Company, both of which companies are represented by Messrs. J. W. Gordon & Bro. as agents.

The origin of the fire is unknown, but it is thought to be the work of an incendiary as the persons who broke open the store after the alarm was sounded, discovered goods scattered all over the floor, as though the store had been first robbed and pilaged and afterwards set on fire.
We are not informed as to whether Mr.
Elkins was insured or not; the above being all the information that we can obtain at this present writing.

General Hood's Children.
We have received a photograph of the family of orphans left by the gallant General Hood, who recently died of yellow fever in New Orleans. It is a charming picture of a group of ten lovely children whose orphanage makes a tenderly pathetic appeal to the heart of every true hearted son and daughter of the South, for whom their lamented father fought so nobly and so well. There are ten children in the group, the youngest an infant in the cradle, made motherless a few days after its birth, and the two eldest (twins) not yet in their teens.
The photograph is from the studio of T. Lillenthal, of New Orleans, who has donated 200 of them to be disposed of for the benefit of the children, as the following correspondence, which we clip from the New Orleans Democrat, will show:
NEW ORLEANS, October 9, 1879.
Messrs. Frank Herron, Edward Lillenthal, D. Hughes, Committee Association Army of Tennessee, Louisiana Division: Gentlemen—I had you herewith 200 photographic pictures of the late Gen.
Hood and wife and their surviving ten children, which you will please dispose of for the benefit of the orphaned children.
Very respectfully, yours, THEODORE LILLENTHAL.

NEW ORLEANS, October 9, 1879.
Mr. Theo. Lillenthal: Dear Sir—Your generous donation for the benefit of the orphan children of the late Gen. J. B. Hood is gratefully acknowledged. We will offer the photographs for sale at the entertainment Friday evening, October 10, given under the auspices of the Association Army of Tennessee for their benefit, at the Grand Opera House. Please accept the thanks of the committee for your liberal assistance to the cause of charity.
Yours, very respectfully,
FRANK HERRON,
EDWARD LILLENTHAL,
D. HUGHES,
Committee.
