Unmailables.

The following unmailable postal matter remains at the Postoffice in this city:

John Williams, no address; Jane Tyler, no address.

Change of Letter Box.

For the better convenience of the public, the street letter box hitherto on the corner of Seventh and Mulberry streets was yesterday removed to the corner of Red Cross and Sixth streets.

New Hat Store.

Mr. John M. Robinson gives notice in this issue of the REVIEW that he has opened a first class hat and cap emporium at No. 6 North Front street. He has the latest styles of goods and invites the public to examine them.

The Performance To-Night.

The indications are that Mr. Stevens will be greeted by a good house at the Opera House this evening. He comes here warmly endorsed by the press and we can assure our readers that the entertainment to be presented to them this evening will be an unusually attractive and meritorious one.

Bonitz's New Hotel.

Mr. William Bonitz opened his new hotel in Goldsboro last Monday. It is a new three-story brick building and contains 34 well ventilated rooms; every room has windows, all of which are handsomely furnished. Mr. Bonitz is an old hand at the bellows and certainly "knows how to keep a hotel." We commend his house to the traveling public.

Base Ball.

A match game of base ball was played this afternoon at the Athletic grounds, in the First Ward, between the Chamption and Home Base Ball Clubs of this city. We understand that two of the crack players of the Chamption Club did not participate in the game this afternoon on account of sickness and business engagements.

Up to the hour of our going to press we could hear nothing from the field of battle.

The Buzzing Cousin.

A wash of fifteen or twenty drops of common carbolic acid in a half pint of water will immediately relieve the smart of mosquito bites, hives, prickly heat, and all irritations of the skin common to summer. As the strength of carbolic acid commonly sold varies, the dilutions should be tested before using by wetting a small spot of skin. If it causes any burning in a moment or so it is too strong, and more water must be added. The lotion was recommended by a city physician as in use at Bellevue hospital, and years of experience prove its benefit. Many restless nights and much suffering of children might be avoided by this simple cure, which has been safely used on very young children.

City Court.

Willis Drake, colored, the distinguished boot and shoe maker of Paddy's Hollow, was up before the Mayor this morning charged with being drunk and disorderly. The defendant was arrested at the instigation of his wife, who in her evidence before the Court this morning stated that the prisoner at the bar, who was her husband, threatened her with violence and raised an empty bottle to strike her with. She also testified that the affectionate father of her child was about to beat their offspring. To all of which the defendant replied by saying he wanted to go home, which remark he repeated several times for the edification of the Court and the Chief of Police, looking all the time pretty wild out of his eyes. He was either affecting a temporary aberration of mind, or the Paddy's Hollow "pisen" that he had been drinking left him in a very unsettled delirious state. He further stated that somebody had been feeding his wife on cakes and candy to take her away from him. The Mayor said he would give him a home for sixty days, thirty of which he could charge to the assault and battery case, and the remaining thirty for the resistance offered the police, while carrying him to the Guard House.

The next case on docket was a truly rural individual who was found drunk and down on the streets. Being the first offence, he was admonished about a repetition of the same, and then permitted to depart in peace.

John McCarthy, a young sailor lad of about 18 summers, appeared at the bar as the next case on docket, with an eye that was pretty badly bruised, being black-and-blue and nearly closed. He was charged with fighting last night in front of Bryson's near the Hollow. When asked where he hailed from, he said he was all the way from Cork, Ireland. The Mayor told him $2—or three days in the C. P. The defendant went below, and this finished the business for the day.

LATEST FROM OHIO.

FOSTER'S MAJORITY CLAIMED TO BE 20,000.

The Republicans Claim the Legislature.

John G. Thompson says held on awhile.

(Special to Daily Review.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 15.

The latest dispatches received here relative to the election in Ohio place Foster's majority as high as 20,000 and give the Republicans both branches of the Legislature.

On the contrary John G. Thompson, the Democratic Executive Committeeman, telegraphed at noon to-day advising the Democrats here to give up nothing. He has hopes that full returns from the several districts may completely change the aspect of everything. JACOBI'S.

A Bold Thief and a Lively Chase.

A bold robbery was committed on Front street in the crockery store of Mr. A. A. Hartsfield, about 11 o'clock this morning, under the following circumstances: Mr. Hartsfield was in the back part of his store waiting on a customer when he heard the rollers of a glass door which encloses his plated silverware in the front part of the store moved back. Attracted by the noise he turned quickly around, but only in time to see a colored individual dart out of the door with a box in his hand. Dropping everything at the instant, Mr. Hartsfield gave chase immediately, calling out lustily, however, "Stop thief!" the pursued and pursuer ran up Front street to the corner of Princess, where the individual with the thieving proclivities darted diagonally across Princess street to the vacant lot just West of Evans' block and proceeded at full speed, scaling fences as he went, until he reached the stables of Messrs. P. L. Bridgers & Co., just South of the Postoffice; here as he was in the act of scaling the fence in the rear of the latter named building, or just as he landed on the other side of the fence at the back door of the Postoffice, he was grabbed by a son of Mr. Hartsfield together with another young man who had joined in the chase and escorted safely to the Guard House where he was made to disgorge his ill-gotten goods, which consisted of half a dozen plated silver knives, half a dozen silver forks, half a dozen table spoons, besides other articles amounting in value to the sum of ten or twelve dollars. After reaching the guard room the prisoner was noticed to tear in pieces a bit of paper which he had taken from his pocket and cram the same into his mouth, which he commenced masticating and endeavored to swallow, but Janitor Poisson was a little too quick for him, and succeeded with the assistance of others in throwing the prisoner to the floor and then forcing him to eject the bits of paper from his mouth, which upon being put together were found to be a discharge from the South Carolina penitentiary, which the prisoner had received from the Superintendent after serving a term of two years upon the charge of grand larceny. The fellow gave his name as Melvin Moore. He is about 25 years of age and claims to be originally from Augusta, Georgia. He was locked up in a cell and will await an interview with the Mayor at half-past 9 o'clock to-morrow morning, after which we will tell our readers something more about it.

Strangers in the city should not fail to visit the S sh Factory, foot of Walnut street.

Death of a Wilmington Lady.

Mrs. Jessie W. Noyes, a native and for many years a resident of this city, died very suddenly in New York on the 9th inst., while on a visit to friends there. Mrs. Noyes was a sister of the late J. A. McAusland, a few years prior to the war special Magistrate in this city, and the mother of Rev. Victor Noyes, Rector of St. Alban's Church in New York. She died at quite an advanced age. When a young lady Mrs. Noyes, then Miss McAusland, was celebrated for her beauty and accomplishments, a fact which more than one of the old residents of the city will remember.

The first "hop" will take place on Wednesday evening, the 22d inst.

John A. Stevens.

This distinguished actor will make his initial bow before a Wilmington audience at the Opera House to-night, in his original melodrama entitled "Unknown." Mr. Stevens is ably supported by the well-known actress, Miss Lottie Church, assisted by a corps of artists selected for the individual merit. The Company have been with Mr. Stevens for two seasons, and the press pronounce it one of the finest organizations now traveling.

The play is one of great interest, abounding in situations of the most thrilling kind; the language is pure and beautiful, full of sentiments well interspersed with comedy. Mr. Stevens ran this play for five weeks in New York City and the Herald states the following:

"The plot of 'Unknown,' conceived by Mr. Stevens, is entirely original and powerful, the language exquisite, the character-painting masterly, the many incidents follow each other quickly and naturally, and the climaxes are of intense interest. * * * It at once places Mr. Stevens in the front rank of American authors—a position he has long held as an actor."

The Company are now on the way to New Orleans where they open at the Academy of Music, Oct. 26. Seats are selling rapidly, and we trust Mr. Stevens and his company will be greeted with a crowded house to-night.

Bishop Atkinson in Charlotte.

The Charlotte Observer speaks as follows of the visit to St. Peter's Church in that city, on Sunday last, of the venerable Bishop Atkinson, of this city:

As usual on occasions when Bishop Atkinson makes his visitations to the Episcopal congregation in Charlotte, St. Peter's church was filled Sunday by an assemblage in which all Protestant denominations in the city were represented. The distinguished preacher who has so endeared himself to the people of North Carolina by his broad Christian charity, simple eloquence and winning manners, does not appear to have lost one jot or tittle of the vigor of earlier years, although old age now creeping upon him has begun to leave a few marks on his benignant face. His sermons Sunday morning and evening were of that practical and suggestive sort, which applying to every day life cannot fail to make men better. It is not the members of his Church alone who sincerely wish that his life may be spared many years for the continuance of the work in which none have been more faithful and few more efficient.

A meeting is to be held this evening at Fifth Street M. E. Church for the purpose of organizing Young Men's Prayer Meeting.
