Another Fire.

At 3 o'clock this morning the eastern end of the Whitfield house, near the corner of Front and Castle streets, was discovered to be or fire. The fire alarm was sounded and the fire department was soon on the spot. The flames spread very rapidly and the bouse was very badly damage, in fact almost a total loss, before the flames could be extinguished. The building was occupied by a colored woman and has long been an eye sore to respectable persons living in that vicinity and a place of anything but a n enviable reputation. There was an insurance of $1,000 on the property which will not cover the loss. It was owned by Mr Jos. Kirkpatrick, whom we believe resides in the interior of this State.

A Narrow Escape.

A gentleman who resides on Market street, near Fifth, met with a dangerous experience a few nights ago. He was on his premises and heard something which sounded to him like the noise made by the katy-did. Listening more intently it struck him as the rattle of that venomous reptile, the rattlesnake. As this idea occurred to him he sprang forward just in time to escape a deadly bite, for the snake struck at the same time and fastened his fangs in the bottom of his pantaloons, just over the heel of the shoe. By a glimmer of light which came from the house he then saw the reptile glide towards the fence, through which it pass ed. A neighbor had stored some wood in his yard on the previous day and it is supposed that the snake was concealed in the wood. It certainly was a narrow es-

Attempted Robbery.

On Saturday night, about 8 o'clock, a copper colored individual with kinky bair s'epped iuto Mr. H. A. Glameyer' grocery store near the corner of Market and North Water streets, for the ostensible purpose of making a purchase, but with the deliberate intent, as the sequel will show, of committing a theft. The copper colored gent had a basket with him, and his movements were so suspicious that Mr. Glameyer kept his eye fistened upon him, and soon discovered a bag of flour, which had neither been purchased nor paid for, slipped into the basket. whereupon Mr. G. rushed around and seized the light fingered individual, and at the same time sung out ustily for the police. The thief darted out at the door, dragging the proprietor of the store with him, and succeeded after getting into the street in freeing himself, and escaping altogether, but he failed to carry his spoils with him, and in his haste left both his hat and basket.

Collisi nat Sea.

The Norwegian barquentine Viking, Rasmussen, which cleared from this port on the 15th inst., for Porto Rico, W. I. with a cargo of 218,247 feet of lumber, when just outside the Frying Pan Shoals, at 12 o'clock on the morning of the 20th, 'Fertile da!liance' is when a young discovered a schooner about five points off the port bow bearing down before the wind upon her. The Viking was close hauled upon the wind, which was E. N. E., and in about 15 minutes after the discovery of the schooner the two vessels collided, starting the stem of the barquen-The barque Kate Bonsfield, Williams, tine and carrying away her jibboom and spring alcak. The schooner then swung around alongside the Viking, thumping and scraping her badly besides strating some of her bolts. Capt Rasmus. sen states that he Lailed the schooner, but received no answer. Heard, however, an order given to put out the lights in the cabin. The schooner then dropped astern. Sounded the pumps and found three feet of water in the hold, but after a day and a half of constant pumping managed to get her free of water. After the collison, bore away for the nearest in tow by the steam tug Blanche and brought into Smithville, and, subsequently, to this city.

City Court.

One case of drunk and disorderlysubmitted and paid the costs of the court -and was released.

Caroline Franks, colored, was arrested vesterday by officer Biddle for being drunk and disorderly-and this morning arraigned before the Mayor upon the foregoing charge. Officer Biddle testified that during a twenty years experience as an officer, he had never met with such a refractory prisoner before, that the defendant continued her abusive epithets and demonstrations of contempt for the policeman's authority even after she had been placed in the cell, and before the door could be closed and the key turned upon her. The Mayor salted her down with a sentence of $10 fine or fifteen days in the city prison. She went below.

Mary Anderson, not the actress, but a degraded white woman from the Whitfield or Long House locality, in the southern part of the city, was the next culprit arraigned, the charge being disorderly conduct, cursing and swearing and so forth. Her sentence was a fine of $10 or fifteen days in the C. P. This finished the docket and the Court adjourned.
