WILMINGTON. N. C. TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1879.

VEIWS AND REVIEWS.

A Paris correspondent writes that formerly families among the upper ten, who held Government appointments, returned to Paris with the fall of the leaf, but now they remain at their country seats, ignoring politics and enjoying sport.

A German wine-lover says: 'Wine is a kind of standing army against the burden of life. Rhine wine, the infantry; champagne, the cavalry; Burgundy, the artillery; sweet wine, the adjutants; Tokay, the old generals. If nations fought only with these, the peace of the world would never be disturbed; its balance, however, might be.'

The tusk sent by Cetywayo as a herald of peace was brought over from Zululand by Sir Evelyn Wood, and, at the command of the Queen, was immediately sent to Balmoral, at great expense and inconvenience, for her curlous inspection. It has now come back, and is being exhibited, as were King Theodore's umbrel.a and the King of Dahomey's throne. The tusk is said to be the largest ever seen in Europe, being seven teet in length and over a half yard in circumference.

In Fraser's Magazine Count Oris, ip an account of Louis Mapoleon's attempt at Boulogne, in 1840, entirely exonerates him from the charge of having taken an eagle over with him, and says that he did not even know that such a bird was on board. It happened that while awaiting the Prince at Gravesend some of the officers went ashore for cigars, when one of them bought a tame eagle and took aboard; but it was guileless of all connection with politics.

A Bulgarian correspondent of the London Economist writes that 'not only is there now no restriction, civil or social, on the Jews, but they are even distinctly in high favor. The Chief Rabbi has received a formal confirmation of his authority and rights from the Government. Jews sit in the Municipal Council, and some will certainly be elected to the Assembly.' A great Jewish school, with French and English professors, and Bul' garian and Hebrew teachers, was about to be opened by the Prince in person.

A young schoolmistress who peeped has lest her certificate and the Supreme Court of Iowa will give her no redress. She had applied for a certificate and during the examination was caught glancing over the shoulder of another applicant and getting answers to questions propounded in arithmetic. The superintendent refused to issue the certificate, and the young lady brought suit in the Circuit Court to compel him to do so. She car ried her point in the lower court, but the decision has been reversed by the Supreme Court.

The Lord Chief Baron of the Exchequer, Sir Fitzrey Kelly, attained his 83 I year this month. He is a remarkable man, can walk twelve miles a day and sit any number of hours on the bench. Some forty years ago he was os:racised for having committed some corrupt act at an election at Ipswich and being accused of having committed perjury to palliate it. Sir Robert Peel passed him over repeatedly, but he outlived the imputations through his great ability. Like the Lord Chancellor, Lord St. Leonards, he married his cook.

Five and a half millions of dollars are spent every year by the Russian Government upon the military schools. There are twenty sergeants' schools, twenty-two military gymnasiums, two military teachers' seminaries, seven efficers' schools, the Institute of the Imperial Pages, the military Topographical School, the Naval School, the Naval Academy, the Naval Artillery School, the Naval Engineer School, the military General Acad. emy, four military veterinary schools, the Law School and Academy; in short, there is only wanting a military Theological Academy.

In Prof. Eckhart, who died suddenly a few weeks since in a cab in London while returning home from a round of lesson giving, the Wagner school of musicians has lost one of its most shining lights. Born of humble parentage in Potsdam sixty years ago, before he completed his tenth year he mastered all the technical difficulties of the pianoforte and violin. and had composed an opera. He was a pupil of Mendelssohn and Rungenhegen. composed an oratorio, filled important musical posts in Vienna. Paris, and Wartemberg, and finally became chief orchestral director of the Royal Opera House, Berlin. Many of his songs are familar to every musical household in the Fatherland.

Prince Leopold, Queen Victoria's youngest son, has been opening a collegiate establishment at Sheffield bearing his name. On the banners preceding him he was styled the "Scholar Prince." While war claims the interests of the other Princes, Leopold devotes his intellect to works of Lord Houghton has written to the 'Fnglish press, expressing his gratification that a petition is being got up, to which the signatures of women only are to be attached, for the legalization of marriage with a deceased wife's sister. His lord ship says that ecclesiastical opposition is the only serious obstacle to the proposed

Simon Burlingame has taken a fifth wife to his home at Ripon, Wis. Three of her predecessors died at yearly intervals, and were buried side by side, with to sones to match. The fourth fled, affin hed by the first attack of illness. and would not return, thus giving her husband legal ground for divorce. The fifth is as yet undismayed.

Prince Bismarck's second son, Count Wilhelm, who was recently appointed to a post in the Government of Elsass-Lothringen, is about to contract an alliance with a fair young maiden attached to the Imperial Court. As he is a godson of the Emperor, his wedding will, of course, take place in Berlin, so that the nuptial ceremony may be honored by the presence of his illustrious sponsor, and the Chancellor will be compelled to forego his repose at Varzin in order to receive the Emperor as a wedding guest in the Radziwill Palace.

THE GREENBACK PARTY.

This party his evidently had its day as an important factor in American politics, and may be reckoned as a thing of the past. The recent elections, if they subserve no better purpose, have been useful and important as showing the power which that party may wield in the future. In only one State-has there been any gain over its vote of last year, and in nearly all the decrease has been such as to surprise every. one. The increase was in Maine, which last year polled 41,000 votes, and this year increased the number to 56,000, making a gain of 15,000.

On the other hand, Connecticut last year polled 8,314 Greenback votes, while this year that party has not polled a single vote. In New York, last year, that party polled 75,000, and this year less than 10,000 votes Ohio, last year, polled 38,000, and this year only about 11,000. Pennsylvania last year polled 81,000, but this year only about 15,000 votes. Wisconsin last year polled 30,000, but this year none at all. In other States the ratio of decrease has been equally as large, although it would be impossible in the isolated case of Massachusetts, owing to the many complications which have existed there, to state with any degree of accuracy what the status of the party may be in that State. It is very evident that the Greenback party has fulfilled its mission, if it ever had any, and has been reabsorbed by the parties from whose ranks it sprang.

A NEW DIRECTION TO THE

COLORED EXODUS. The latest movement on foot among radical leaders is to direct the exodus of colored people, which has been tending towards Kansas, where they are not needed to create a Republican majority, to Indiana, where they may be made to swell the Republican vote to such an extent as to insure a victory in that Sta'e. It is conceded that the South is solidly Democratic and will so declare itself at the next presidential election. It is also known that Indiana is decidedly a Democratic State, and knowing also that New York will prove herself true to Demo cratic principles in the all important trial of 1880, they see the certainty of the election of a Democratic President. By making a Republican State of Indiana, in that contest, with the other States they are reasonably sure of, they see their only chance of retention of power. The colored race is all that is left to them upon which to work successfully, and that credulous and easily deluded race is to be worked upon to carry out party designs. They can be made useful to the party in no other way than by causing their migra tion to other States, where their votes will change the result.

The people of Indiana do not want them nor need them as laborers and they certainly do not want them simply as voters. military Medical Academy, the military It is an absolute cruelty to the colored people to induce them to leave the more congenial climate and manner of life, to which they have always been accustomed. and migrate to the rigorons atmosphere of the North, but what do the inhuman taskmasters, the Republican leaders and wire pullers, care for the suffering they inflict? The poor colored man is a vassal, a slave, and an actual piece of political property in the hands of the unprincipled and heartless leaders of the Republican party, and he must be made available whenever and whereever his service is the most needed. The sympathetic howl for the welfare of the 'poor, despised, down-trodden colored men,' is all 'bosh' and the fact has been demonstrated by every act of their so. called friends, from the day of their emancipation until now. They were made voters only that they might be used to Mich.

perpetu te Republican power, and wh n they ceased to control the politics of the South other fields of service are sought for them, and they are hustled off regardless of the inconvenience and suffering which must inevitably follow.

MOUNSHINE.

They don't call them 'soft' young men now; the distressfully polite thing is to say, 'They are the down of society.'

Lucy Stone says that she has never ratified the constitution of the United States, and cannot therefore be governed by any of its principles. Where are the trupes?

Skirts are to be gathered to the waist this winter say the fashion journals. Hevings! are we going to have mud waist deep!-Miss Addie Boyd.

'Isn't that your friend, Mme S, who is dancing there?' 'Yes.' 'That's frightfully ill-made dress she has on. Yes; but if it wasn't it wouldn't fit

'Martha,' said a new-made granger to his wife, 'we'll have lots of pumpkins next year. I planted about forty; had to dig awful big holes to put 'em in, though.

'What is heaven's, best gift to mat?

asked a young lady on unday night, smiling sweetly on her male comman, with prudence.

A West Hill man invented a fire extinguisher, but was unable to get a patent on it However, he changed the name of his invention, and got a patent on it as a courn. This answered his purpose quite as well, and it would amaze you to see how the county rights are going off.

Get out Doors!

The close confinement of all factory work, gives the operatives pallid faces, poor appetite, languid miserable feelings. poor blood, inactive liver, kidneys and urinary troubles, and all the physicians and medicine in the world cannot help them unless they get out of doors or use Hop Bitters, the purest and best remedy, especially for such cases, having abundance of health, sunshine and rosy cheeks in them. They cost but a trifle. See anoth er column.

Dr. Mott's Endorsement of Speer's Port Grape Wine.

The following, from the celebrated Dr Mott of New York, speaks wonders for Mr. Speer's efforts to raise the Oporto Grape in New Jersey:

62 MADISON AVENUE. NEW YORK, April 11, 1878. visit which I made last year to your Vineyards, wine presses and vaults at Passaic, N. J., satisfied me thoroughly Boatwright & McKoy that the wales manufactured by you are pure and unadulterated, and the very best that can be offered to the public for medicinal uses.

Acting upon my favorable impressions at the time, I have since recommended the Port Wine more particularly in my practice, and am satisfied, with marked benefit, to my patients.

There can be no better proof to the doubting mind, as to the Wine being made of the finest Oporto Grape, than a visit to the acres of land covered with the vine bearing the luxuriant fruit. Wishing you success in your praiseworthy enter-
