

CAROLINA.

Raleigh got 2,694 bales of cotton last week. Hickory Carolinian: Wilmington should be proud of her press. Few cities in the South of its size have so strong a press.

Lenoir Topic: Mr Enoch Coffey, the oldest bear hunter and trapper in the county, caught a large black bear last Monday. It was sold here at 10 cents a pound.

Raleigh News: The colored people's Fair begins to-morrow. It is expected to be a grand success. Over two hundred entries have been made and more are expected to-morrow.

Durham Plant: At St. Matthews Church, Hillsboro, on the 6th inst., Captain W B Shepard was married to Miss Pauline C Cameron, the Right Rev Thomas Atkinson, assisted by Rev C J Curtis, officiating.

Raleigh Observer: Mr Turner Allen planted turnips and manured one part of the land with ashes and hen manure, the other with stable manure. The former produced worthless, the latter splendid turnips. Wanted, an explanation.

Lenoir Topic: The Adventists Conference has been in session at John's River Store for several days. The Rev Mr Anderson, of Henderson, and other ministers were present. We learn that the attendance was large, and several additions were made to the church.

Concord Register: On Wednesday James Harris, son of I N Harris, of Harrisburg, aged about fourteen years, had his right arm so terribly lacerated in his father's cotton gin that it had to be amputated at the elbow. The operation was successfully performed by Drs Blair and Wilson.

Henderson Review: On Monday night last, three of the convicts quartered near town, escaped by cutting an opening through the stockade. One escaped last week and among the four is Adam Lewis, well known in the Western part of the county, and who was captured there only a few months ago and returned to Raleigh.

Raleigh Observer: A correspondent writing us from Halifax county gives us the details of the loss sustained by Capt J M Grizzard in the burning of his cotton gin and its contents. He represents the crops as very short, not averaging more than a half crop, and closes with the cry that is coming up from all sections, the drought.

Durham Plant: For a number of weeks Mr J M Smith, one of Durham's most successful tobaccoists, has suffered with fever, and at one time his friends were very hopeful about his condition, but death had marked him for her own, and on Thursday night about ten o'clock his spirit took its everlasting flight. On the 25th of last December he was married to Miss Addie Reams.

Greensboro special to Raleigh Observer: The appropriation of twenty thousand dollars to the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railroad was carried by an overwhelming majority. The vote of Morehead township was three hundred and eighty-five for, and twenty-one against. Gilmer township four hundred and ninety-five for, and thirty-six against. Hurrah for Greensboro!

Nowbern Nut Shell: A few days since Mr Stauy Smithwick, of Broad Creek, in company with two other men, went out into the woods to catch wild hogs. The party soon encountered a fine porker, and two of the gentlemen were proceeding to secure him, when looking around for Mr Smithwick, they found him down on the ground. On examination, a portion of his body was found to be cold, and being still conscious he complained of swimming in the head, and acute pains. The two gentlemen did all in their power to relieve him of his sufferings, but he continued to grow worse and was carried home, where he died the same afternoon about 4 o'clock.

King Alfonso's Marriage. LONDON, Nov 13.—King Alfonso's marriage seems to be definitely fixed for the 27th inst. The Archduchess Marie Christine will reach Paris on the 19th inst, whence she will start for Madrid on the 21st inst, and arrive in the latter place on the 24th. Admiral Jaures, French Ambassador in Madrid, will represent President Grevy at the marriage. This disposes of the apprehension that France would not be represented owing to rivalry among French officers who desired to represent France on this occasion.

Political Disputes in Maine. AUGUSTA, Nov 14.—Rumors in regard to the Governor and Council intending to count out the republican majority in the Legislature are exciting general attention. Messrs Baker and Baker filed a notice with the government to-day to be heard in the disputed cases in Franklin, Lincoln, and Penobscot counties, and H M Heath did likewise in regard to the cases in Washington county. It is reported that no hearings will be allowed in disputed cases, but that certificates will be issued on Monday, as has already been determined. A carefully compiled list of the Legislature shows that the republicans have eighty-nine members in the House, and one vacancy by death, while the democrats have sixty one in the same branch. In the Senate the republicans have nineteen members and the democrats twelve.

Humbugged again. I saw so much said about the merits of Hop Bitters, and my wife who was always doctoring, and never well, teased me so urgently to get her some I concluded to be humbugged again; and I am glad I did, for in less than two months' use of the Bitters my wife was cured and she has remained so for eighteen months since. I like such humbugging.—H T, St. Paul.

LOCAL NEWS.

The receipts of cotton at this port to day foot up 365 bales.

Save your money by buying your Building Supplies from Adair & Price.

Years and years ago it used to be said that a girl might be willing to be kissed when she voluntarily puts a boy's hat on her head. This cannot be true, for hundreds of pretty girls are now wearing the little round Derby hats, and looking well under them.

Green oak wood, fresh from the river swamps, was retailing from flats to-day at 65 cents a load. Buy a load, pay 25 cents to haul it and 25 cents to cut it up, and then you'll wish that you had gone to a woolyard and got a load of good black oak for less money.

For New York.

Mr. Victor D. Goodman, of the firm of Hahn & Goodman, left for New York Saturday to purchase a new stock of goods. He is said to be the good-looking half of the firm and it is thought some body will anxiously await his return.

On a Big Hunt.

Hon. Alfred M. Waddell and Dr. Wm Henry Green left here last Saturday morning for a week's hunting in Onslow county. They expect to return to the city on Friday next and their friends will meet them beyond the city limits with a view to a division of the spoils.

They will surely have a good time of it as they are both expert Nimrods and the woods are said to be full of game. The weather, too, is decidedly in their favor.

Removal.

Mr. John M Robinson has leased the commodious store just South of the Purcell House, known for so long as Brock's Exchange, and will have it handsomely fitted up for the reception of his stock of hats and caps &c., which will be removed there as soon as the place is thoroughly renovated and repaired. In addition to a large stock of hats, caps and umbrellas, Mr Robinson will lay in a full line of trunks, satchels and traveling bags, and a full stock of gents' and youths' underwear.

Change of Steamers.

The steamship Gulf Stream, an old friend in our waters, will sail from New York on Saturday next, in place of the Regulator, which is to run between Morehead City and New York. How long the arrangement is to continue we are unadvised. Capt. Doane, of the Regulator, is a thorough seaman, a good, clever gentleman, and a very successful commander and we wish him good luck, wherever and whenever he may sail.

Fight Among the Samaritans.

The good Samaritans of this city had an excursion a short time ago to the Wests which did not terminate very pleasantly or satisfactorily to all concerned. Ned Gause, of kicking mule fame, was a committeeman and seemed to run the excursion party very pleasantly until they struck Charlotte on the down trip. The water or corn juice did not seem to agree with Ned and he imagined himself Sherman's Army on the march to the sea. He whipped out two or three of the excursionists, was going to make mince meat out of one or two more and was finally ejected from the car in order that he might satisfy his proclivities on the gaarled oaks of the forest. Upon Ned's return to this city he accused one Richard Farmer of larceny. The case was tried this morning and Farmer was discharged. Gause was then arrested on two peace warrants sworn out by the female colored exhorter, Rev. Mrs. Williams, and Robert Johnson.

Gause then crossed fired and swore out peace warrants against Henry Brewington, Robert Jackson and Stephen Washington. There seems to be considerable interest taken in these suits by the members of the Good Samaritans and no doubt that before they are adjudicated other warrants will be issued as the "family quarrel" is evidently fierce.

A Sensible Innovation.

In the latest fashion notes we observe the following, which, considering that it is an innovation upon the old custom, seems to us very sensible:

"Instead of the bridesmaids' fashion prescribes two tiny pages, who are chosen from the prettiest of the boy relatives. These are dressed in velvet of the bride's favorite color, made in a style of a court dress. They perform the usual role of the bridesmaid, carry the bride's bouquet and gloves, and in addition meet and assist her from and to the carriage steps."

Now the next thing in order will be, we hope, to abolish the senseless habit that custom forces upon newly married folks of taking an advertising trip, more familiarly known as a bridal one. When this shall have been done and marriage be looked upon from a more practical standpoint there will be fewer bachelors in the land.

The unusually warm spell operates against the interest of the oyster dealer. Those who ought to know, however, inform us that an oyster is always good in season, whether warm or cold—that is, provided it is properly kept.

The Two Courts.

The Criminal Court of New Hanover county, His Honor Judge Meares presiding, convenes in special session one week from to-day. This is to anticipate the regular term of the Court, which convenes the first week in December, which is also the regular term for the Superior Court for this county to be held. It is to obviate the possibilities of the two Courts meeting at the same time that this special session is called or convened.

The Benevolent Society.

The annual meeting of the Ladies' Benevolent Society will be held at Hook and Ladder Hall, Thursday, Nov. 20th, at 11 o'clock A. M. The President of the Society says: "The contribution of $1.00 constitutes a membership for one year. We urge all, and especially the German ladies, to aid us by their contributions in our good work. The treasury is empty and bills due for provisions and medicines which must be paid."

SI SLOCUM.

A really enjoyable performance will be offered at the Opera House this evening, the occasion being the first and only appearance here of the Frayne-Tiffany Combination. They come to us strongly recommended and the piece which they present is one which has met with remarkable success everywhere. Its scenes are laid in the wilds of the West and it is replete with thrilling and dramatic situations. The accessories to the piece, such as the wonderful dog and the bear and the remarkable rifle-shots, will add greatly to its interest. We believe that Si Slocum will prove the most attractive performance we have had this season and we look for a rousing house.

Don't Believe One Word of It.

"Ex Congressman Waddell of North Carolina, who is an extreme Democrat and was a member of the last Congress, and a candidate for the Secretaryship of the Senate last March, says that the best thing the Southern Democrats can do in 1880 is to refuse to go into the National Democratic Convention and nominate General Grant. He thinks that the South would really fare better under Grant than it would under a Northern Democrat, and he says that he and many other Southern men have come to the conclusion that the solid Democracy of the South must be broken up in some way in the interests of public order and national prosperity."

We copy the above from the Henderson Review. It is an extract from some Northern paper (name not mentioned) sent to Capt. Anis by a friend. As Col. Waddell is not in the city, and will not be here for several days, we take the liberty of entering an emphatic denial to the assertions contained in the extract. Col. Waddell never said any such thing! We know him and his sentiments too well to admit, for a moment, that there is one word of truth in the statement. We believe it to be a Radical campaign lie. Col. Waddell will return here this week and will doubtless immediately enter his own disclaimer.

City Court.

William Holloway, charged with disorderly conduct, was the first case called. It being the first offense, judgment was suspended and prisoner discharged.

N. Salvoy, a sailorman, charged with rescuing a prisoner from the police was fined $10 in default of which he was sent below for fifteen days.

Wm Ware, charged with disorderly conduct, was released in consideration of its being his first offense. But the investigation of this case developed the fact that Violet Henry, colored, one of the witnesses for the prosecution in the case, was guilty of very disorderly conduct, loud cursing and swearing and almost breaking the peace on yesterday (Sunday). The Mayor very properly then ordered a sentence of $5 or ten days in the city prison to be entered against this loud mouthed witness, in default of which she was escorted below, where she will repose in the solitude of a cell for the next ten days.

Maria Hall, one of the Paddy's Hollow's dark skinned damsels, was arraigned for loud cursing and swearing and disorderly conduct on the streets. Ten dollars or twenty days, remarked the Mayor, and not having the $10 defendant very meekly took the alternative of twenty days and went below.
