To-morrow morning there will be more smart men in town than has ever been known before. Several will commence to do their marketing before treakfast and others who have no marketing to do wil feel compelled to take a constitutiona walk. They will all neet by chance at 6 o'clock at Heinsberger's where the Rentz Santley diagram will be put on sa'e and the rush for front seats will far surpass the rush on the market carts. Then, strange to say, all the lodges in town will meet at 71 o'clock sharp, on Saturday night.

Jno. A. Stephens plays Unknown in stockho'ders of the W. & W. R. R. was held in this city this morning, at the office of the President, at 11 o'clock.

On motion of Hon. R. R. Bridgers, Col-H. B. Short was called to the chair.

On motion of B. F. Newcomer, Esq., Mr. J. W. Thompson was requested to act as Secretary.

Messrs B. F. Newcomer, Donald McRae, and J. W. Thompson were then appointed a committee to verify proxies and ascertain the number of shares of the cap ital stock of the company represented.

Committee reported 3,290 shares represented in person and 6,048 by proxy, making a total of 9,338 shares, whereupon there being a majority of the stock present in person and by proxy, the meeting was declared duly organized for business. The Presidents Annual Report was presented, which upon motion of W. T. Walters Esq, was read and

On motion of Dr. A. J. DeRosset it was resolved, that the subject of the standing debt falling due in July, 1881, alluded to in the President's report, be referred to the Board of Directors, with power to enter into and conclude arrangements for the payment or renewal of the debt upon such terms and at such rates of interest as they find practicable and advisable for the best interest of the con. pany, and that full power is hereby conferred upon said Board to issue so many of the bonds under the sinking fund mortgage heretofore made, as may be necessary to carry out such arrangements as may be agreed upon. Col. J. W. Atkinson, on behalf of the Auditing Committee appointed at the last annual meeting, submitted their report, which was read, and, upon motion re-

A ballot was then had for the Directors for the ensuing year, which resulted in the re-election of the old Board, as follows: Dr A J DeRosset, Donald Mc-Rue and George Harriss, from Wilmington; Thos C Jenkins and S M Shoemaker, H Willard, cf Raleigh.

On motion of Dr. DeRosset, Col. J W. Atkinson, A. Branch and Col. W. L Smith were appointed Auditing Committee for the ensuing year. It was then resolved that the next annual meeting be held on the first Tuesday after the third Monday in November, 1880.

On motion of B. F. Newcomer, Esq., the thanks of the meeting were tendered to the Chairman for the urbanity, dignity and ability with which he presided over the meeting, which was gracefully acknowledged by the Chair in a few appropriate remarks, after which the meeting was declared adjourned.

DIRECTOR'S MEETING.

Immediately after the adjournment of the Stockho'ders' meeting, the Directors met and reelected Mr. B. F. Newcomer. Vice President and J. W. Thompson, Esq., Secretary and Treasurer.

Helmbold's Buchu has long been known as one of the most valuable medicines attainable in certain classes of diseases, such as dyspepsia, chronic rheumatism, dropsy, cutaneous affections, and especially affections of the urinary organs. As a diuretic, it is superior to almost any other medicine in use, and the great care with which it is prepared, the absolute purity of the preparation, and the diligence used in the selection of the crude materials, have made it known far and wide as a reliable and effective prepara tion, and one that can always be used which are made cheaply and placed upon the market to be sold on the reputation acquired by Helmbold's original preparatien.
