The Fun of It Is THAT THE RUSH FOR Gents', Youths, and Boys' Clothing and Furnishing Goods, still continues at our two stores, notwithstanding the immense amount of Goods we have already sold this season. The reason is plain.
Nobody ever bought a bad bargain at SHRIER'S, while our goods, although low in price, are always just as represented. So it is the best and cheapest Shirts in the city, laundried and unlaundried, at SHRIER'S TWO STORES,
nov 8 Market St.

Munson - We are selling.
A. & I. S. BARKER - The Fun of It Is.

The fish market was well supplied with trout this morning.

Eggs have advanced in price and are now selling at 25 cents per dozen.

The barque Howard sailed from Bil boa on the 1st inst. for this port.

The steamship Regulator hence, arrived at New York on Tuesday.

The brig Antlee, (Nor.) - hence, arrived at London on the 17th inst.

The off shore signal is flying to-day and the Northwest wind is fresh and cool.

The barque Knut Alfssen, Pedersen, sailed from Trieste on the 21st ult. for this port.

The brig Busy Bee, (Br.) Graham, hence, arrived at Queenstown on the 17th inst.

Yesterday it was Euroclydon, but today it is Boreas that has hold of the bellows.

There are thirty-one vessels now in port, twenty-two square riggers and nine schooners.

You can buy a No. 1 Heating or Cook Stove at almost any price at JACOBI'S, No.
10 South Front street.

The barque Reter Steen, Aleberg, from London for this port, was anchored at Deals on the 7th inst.

We utterly failed to grind out a single item from any of those friends who the ocals in Magistrate's Row to-day.

The Linkaw-Hartman case has been postponed until Monday next. The State objected to the jury in consequence of their being separated while out of Court, causing a mistrial.

The Champion Base Ball Club returned to this city this morning. There was no other base ball club in attendance at the Wadesboro Fair and no prospects of any being present.

The brig Signal, (Br.) Williams, hence arrived at Belfast on the 17th inst., with bulwarks and stanchions damaged.

River and steamboatmen say there are many indications of a 'fresh' in the river and that in a few days there will be good boating water.

The foundation of the fish market has been laid and the frame of the building made. As soon as the weather settles it will be put together.

The constantly increasing popularity of Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup is a guarantee of its usefulness and effectiveness for children suffering from Wind Colic, Diarrhoea or Dysentery. Price 25 cents a bottle.

It is seldom we have seen the waters of the Cape Fear in a more turbulent condition than they are to-day. The white caps of the waves are chasing each other before the stiff Northwest breeze in mad glee.

Have you thought of the good you can do by contributing a mite towards the relief of the destitute poor of this city?
There are many, no doubt, who shivered themselves to sleep last night to awake this morning to cheerless hearth and a comfortless day.

Prices of lumber.
We are informed by H. McE. Gezero Esq., timber agent, that the following grades of timber will readily bring the following prices, to wit:
Common split from $5 to $6 Fair " " 6 1/2 " 7
Prime " " 7 " 8 1/2
Good " " 9 " 11

Unavailables.
The following unavailable postal matter remains at the Post Office in this city Nov. 18-19:

C. McMillan, St. Pauls; Everett Veed, McCalla Co, Chesnut Depot, N. C.; B. H.
Britton, Pender county, N. C.; George F.
Grace, Doverstar, N. C.; Clara Richerson, Calhoun St. 74; Dave Fryar, Abbotsburg, N. C.; Mary Holt, Henry Station; Rev. T. H. Tenber, Cane Cande, N. C.

Charged with Perjury.
Elisha Merrick, colored, was bound over to the Criminal Court this morning by a trail Justice to answer to the charge of perjury. The perjury case grew out of the Good Samaritan cases in which Ned Gause took an active part during the earlier part of the week.

Pretty General.
The disagreeable weather of yesterday and the snow which followed, seem to have been pretty general throughout the country. Yesterday was as disagreeable a day as ever fell to the lot of the inhabitant of this district. The rain poured in torrents and last night about 7 o'clock it changed to sleet which continued until midnight. The trains which came in this morning were all white with the beautiful flakes the storm having extended from Augusta to Weldon, and from this place to Charlotte and perhaps still farther North and South and West. At this writing, 1 P. M., nearly every trace of it hereabouts has disappeared.

Postal Rulings.
Among others of the recent decisions of the Post Office Department, the following may be interesting to our readers: Books - single volumes - may be sent by mail no matter what their weight.
Other third class matter is limited to four
(4) pounds.
Writing on the address side of postal cards is no longer forbidden. It does not now render them unmailable, but correspondents are cautioned that such writing may confuse the direction of the cards and prevent their prompt delivery.
Mail matter of any class may be forwarded from one office to another without additional charge for such forwarding.
Formerly first class matter only was accrued this privilege; now it is held to apply also to second, third or fourth class matter, provided the postage shall have been fully prepaid in the first instance.

The Timber Market.
Our friends in the country will probably take advantage of the froshet which we think they are sure to have next week, to send in all of the timber now cut and which can be rafted in time. This will probably not exceed a few million feet.
In view of this fact some remarks about the market here are in order. From a timber agent in this city, one of long experience, we learn that the market is at this time absolutely bare of good timber, prices having advanced, in consequence of the advance in lumber abroad, to from $1 to $1 50 for all classes, except inferior, short-leaf. This the producers are advised not to bring to this market at all as there is no demand for it here. In fact, there are several rafts of this quality now on hand which are only disposed of with much difficulty and that at prices which are not remunerative. All other quotations will sell readily at the advances we have quoted, as the demand here now is active and this week there is none on market. It is probable, unless there is a sudden decline abroad, which does not seem at all likely, that all of the good timber which is brought here within the next two weeks will sell readily at the advance.

A Feminine Frolic.
A boy of beautiful young ladies when their eyes opened this morning upon the first snow of the season, organized for a frolic. Clad in the warmest garments they could find in their wardrobes and closely hooded and thickly shod, they sallied forth to seek for victims. At first they thought of building a snow man to pelt but just at that time a corpulent ice man, who is, by the way, a great favorite with the girls, happened along and thinking that he would answer as well for with snow balls fell about his ears. The defeat was utter and overwhelming and, shall it be confessed? This ice man (who is also a nice man) incontinently fled. Elated with their first victory and having once tasted, blood the young ladies proceeded on their triumphant way to Market street driving all before them. On Mark between Front and Second, their victory culminated in the igoomin is defeat of a leading dry goods dealer's ad a clothing merchant, whose gray hair's formed no resistance to the onslaught of the beautiful Amazons, flushed as they were with victory. The fun was not suspended until the snow on the street had so melted that it was found impossible any more to procure the necessary munitions of war when the fair maidens were themselves compelled to sound a graceful retreat.

City Court.
Charlotte Beach, alias Henrietta Brady was arraigned before the Mayor this morning upon the charge of larceny of a cloak and a quantity of braid from a Market street dry goods store. The evidence against the defendant was pretty strong and she was bound over in the sum of $100 to the Criminal Court in default of which she was committed to jail.

ing Supplies from Altaffer & Price.

The Beautiful Snow.
Oh, the snow, the beautiful snow! It was a magnificent night which met the view of our people as they looked out for the first time this morning. The air was clear and bracing and the sun rose in all of his beauty, thus adding much to the scene. It lay upon the ground in open places to a depth of between two and three inches and in some places had drifted as deep as five inches. It was the first snow we have had here in eight years and the sight was as novel as it was beautiful.

New Cigar Store.
Captain Walter Coney has just returned from Baltimore whither he has been for the past ten days purchasing a first class stock of fine cigars, tobacco, snuff, and so forth, which he intends offering to the public at the lowest cash prices in the store one door West of Nor-throp's confectionery store, on Market street. Captain Coney is a deservedly popular gentleman and we trust that his many friends who wish him well, will prove their sincere desire for his success by walking up to the Captain's office and making their purchases in that line from Captain C's stock. In this way Captain Coney will have an ocular demonstration of his friends' well wishes as well as a tangible evidence of the same.

Change of Management.
We regret very much to learn that Mr.
L. A. Angel, for many years past the efficient Manager here of the Western Union Telegraph office, has seen fit to resign that position, with a view to a removal to Richmond, where he will continue in the service of the Company. His successor here, Mr. F. D. Cudlipp, has arrived and taken charge, everything having been turned over to him on Tuesday.
Mr. Angel has been a resident of this city for the past fourteen years. He entered into service here as operator when he was but 16 years old, and when 23 was appointed Manager, a position which he has filled very acceptably for the past seven years. The position has been one of arduous labor and of great responsibility. Mr. Angel will remain here about ten days longer when he expects to leave for Richmond. He has made many warm personal friends in Wilmington during his long residence among us and his departure will cause a feeling of universal regret.

Another Charge of Larceny.
Charlotte Beach, alias Henretta Brady the colored woman arrested for larceny yesterday, was sent on to the Criminal Court by the Mayor this morning upon the charge of larceny. On the matter of the forged order, the paper was turned over to Mr. Solicitor Moore for his consideration at the next term of the Criminal Court.
Shortly after the above named defendant was given into the custody of the Sheriff, a couple of colored women put in their appearance at the City Hall, one of whom claimed that the prisoner who had just been tried by the City Court had her shawl, and that this very same defendant, Charlotte Beach alias Henrietta Brady, had stolen the same from her premises. It seems, therefore, from all accounts that a somewhat notorious thief has been caught at last.
