JOSH. T. JAMES, Editor & Prop.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 15, 1879.

[ENTERED AT THE POSTOFFICE AT WILMINGTON, N. C., AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER.]

We are very sorry to see that General Mart Gary, in an interview with a New York Herald correspondent, has said some things in regard to General Wade Hampton and about the election of 1876 in South Carolina...

If General Hampton did make the proposition which General Gary charges in effect that he did not care who the Republican leaders, Judges Mackey and Cook elected President...

General Gary was a gallant soldier in Hampton's command during the war and during all the dark days of carpet-bag rule in our sister State, Gary remained true to the cause of honesty and good government...

Has General Gary, nay, has any other citizen in the Southern States contributed as much towards the peace and prosperity of this impoverished Southern land since the days of reconstruction commenced as Senator Wade Hampton?

RUFFIANLY READJUSTER. The ranks of the Readjusters in some portions of Virginia, and in especially in Norfolk, seem to have been recruited from the very worst elements of rotten radicalism...

ardly perpetrators of these outrages, but have so far been baffled in our efforts to detect them, though we have our suspicions as to who they are.

WASHINGTON LETTER. Washington, D. C., Dec. 15, 1879. Though the House of Representatives has introduced a bill...

A bill was yesterday introduced in the House authorizing the appointment of a commission of government engineers to examine surveys of the Isthmus Canal route.

If the House Printing Committee's recommendation is followed, and it probably will be, the public printing will hereafter be done by an officer to be elected by the Senate.

MOONSHINE. 'Never leave what you undertake until you can reach your arms around it and clench your hand on the other side,' says a recently published book for young men.

Now, if all hands are quiet and everything is settled down, we would be under many obligations to Mr. Hayes if he would kindly tell us what his message is all about.

A Lady's Wish. 'Oh, how I do wish my skin was a clear and soft as yours,' said a lady to her friend. 'You can easily make it so,' answered the friend.

Lillington River. For the Journal. As the people of Pender and the surrounding country are much interested in the Lillington River improvement scheme...

Important to the Afflicted. We would advise all who may need the advice of a physician, to call or write to Dr. Roverson, 19, So. Eutaw St., Baltimore, Md., who from 15 years experience in Hospital and Special Practice...

Dr. Mott's Endorsement of Speer's Port Grape Wine. The following, from the celebrated Dr. Mott of New York, speaks wonders for Mr. Speer's efforts to raise the Oporto Grape in New Jersey.
