Fourteen car loads of fruit from Florida for Northern markets passed through this city to-day moder the management of the "Atlantic Coast Line." This is only one incident of many in which freight of this kind has passed through this city of late. This line furnishes unsurpassed forwarding facilities, which the heavy advances, reflects much credit upon the energy, business tact and sagacity of the general agent, Col. A. Pope, who has been unceasing and untiring in his efforts to make it subserve the best interests and necessa ities of shippers.

We learn that the Whiteville Wine Company, whose operations have been suspended for the past few years on account of a lack of demand at remunerative prices for their wines, have put up about 200 barrels of that beverage during he past autumn. It is said that they are now having a fair demand at reasonable prices for the products of the vines, with a good prospect that it will continue. We are glad to note these facts, for the wines manufactured by this company are very superior to much that is put upon the market as imported.

Fair and Festival.

The ladies connected with the Front Street M. E. Church will hold a Fair and Festival at the City Hall, on Thursday night, the 18th inst., at which will be spread a table bountifully supplied with the very best of food and tea and coffee will be served to the hungry and thirsty at reasonable rates. There will be also offered for sale a great variety of Christmas goods suitable for presents to relatives and friends and especially such as will make glad the hearts of the little au fait in such matters.

ware Depot.

The people of Pender seem determined to push forward this popular measure. A petition to Congress, asking for a survey with a view to an appropriation from the general government to improve the navigation of this important stream, is now being extensively circulated and everylowing the aroma or smoke to be freely body is signing it. This is as it should be. The enterprise is feasible, practical useful, and every way deserves the fostering aid and patronage of Congress. We trust cur Senators and Representatives at Washington will unite in giving this nonpartisan scheme a successful support. It is calculated to benefit Wilmington and to add to the importance of our harbor improvement measure. Our citizens, one and all, should favor it. Application will be made to our Chamber of Commerce and Board of Trade for endorsement and it will do ibtless be given.

We hope that our readers will not forget the lecture entitled 'A New View of North Carolina History,' which its author, Col A. M. Waddell, will repeat at the Opera House to-morrow (Wednesday) night for the benefit of St. James' Home. It is a very enteresting literary effort, and the cause is a most worthy one, as our readers, who read in the REVIEW of December 4th., an account of the workings of this abstract of Rev. Dr. Watson's sermon on Thanksgiving Day, are well aware. The efforts of this institution in a measure, are to reclaim those who possibly but for the worthy efforts of the founders and workers of the St. James' Home, would remain as outcasts, without the necessary religious in everything in the way of Gent's and instruction to discriminate between right doing and wrong or evil practices; the children of whom might grow up in a Christian community totally ignorant of the duties which they owe to God and their country. Those who contribute the price no doub', that it will be bread cast upon the waters to return to them at some future
