Cazaux's personal supervision and is in every respect a charming and desirable residence.

At Beinsberger's.

Mr P Heinsberger has added largely to his stock of goods for the bo'iday trade His novelties and fancy articles are displayed in large handsome show cases and his store presents a beautiful appearance. It is one of the most at ractive places in the city and the display is superb.

Robbery.

Thieves have again visited the residence of Mr. Thos. Sheppard, on the old plank road, about two miles from this city. An entrance to the house was effected by cutting out a transom on the side of the front door. The theives succeeded in carrying off a few bags of pease and some bedding. Mr. S. has been robbed two or three times in as many weeks.

Board of Aldermen.

The Board of Aldermen met in called session last night, at the City Hall, present, His Honor Mayor Fishblate, and Aldermen Myers, Flanner, Bowden, Vollers, VonGlahn, and Hill.

The Mayor stated that he had had an ordinance prepared by the City Attorney to enforce the collection of the balance of the taxes for 1879, which he desired to submit to the Board. He then read the ORDINANCE PROVIDING FOR THE COLLEC-TION OF TAXES DUE THE CITY OF WILMINGTON FOR THE YEAR 1879.

Whereas the dilatory system heretofore pursued by the city in the collection of its taxes has been the direct cause of a arge accumulation of dilinquent taxes, which have entailed upon the city an justment of the same; therefore be it

Ordered, by the Mayor and Board of Aldermen of said city of Wilmington, and it is hereby ordered by the same, That the Treasurer and Tax Collector be, and he is hereby required, under the turns, on the 15th day of March, 1880, for all and every amount charged to the several taxpayers upon the tax books of
