

The Daily Review

JOSH. T. JAMES, Editor & Prop. WILMINGTON, N. C.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 17, 1878.

[ENTERED AT THE POSTOFFICE AT WILMINGTON, N. C., AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER.]

VEWS AND REVIEWS.

Of the 37,000,000 inhabitants in France there are 2,618 men between 95 and 100 years of age, and 194 over 100 years of age.

The uniform of the late Prince Napoleon is stated to have been found at a kraal near Ulundi, the whole front of it having been pierced by assegais.

It is decreed by the Prussian military authorities that any officer who shall be struck by a civilian must forthwith draw upon that civilian, though the latter is unarmed and defenceless, and cut him down upon the spot.

The presence of trichinae in pork can be readily detected with a microscope, and people who like that article of diet would do well to insist on a careful inspection of it before allowing it to appear on the table.

According to official statistics, there were, from 1833 to 1856, no fewer than ninety-four persons buried alive, through accident or ignorance, in various parts of France.

Two murderers in the jail at Monmouth, Ill., are peculiar moralists. They are a man and a woman, and they killed the woman's husband.

John W. Garrett, Esq., has just been re-elected for the twenty-second time President of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad.

London has been startled by the news that Prince Bismarck has written to Lord Beaconsfield to say that he will visit him in the summer of 1880.

John Roach has begun the construction at his Chester yard of a miniature ship, which will be borne in the Grant parade at Philadelphia.

Professor Nordenskiold was oddly complimented at the banquet recently given to him at Tokio.

LET HIM ALONE.

S. J. Tilden can never be considered as politically dead so long as those who are opposed to him will insist upon keeping him alive.

We do not believe that Mr. Tilden has left to him the power to cause any serious disturbance in the Democratic calculations for next year.

THE COTTON MOVEMENT.

For the week ending December 12th the total receipts of cotton have reached 284,876 bales, against 216,167 bales 1st week, 259,152 bales the previous week, and 218,408 bales three weeks since.

The exports for the week ending Friday evening reach a total of 113,012 bales, of which 78,631 were to Great Britain.

The sales of futures for the week were 1,810,500 bales. For immediate delivery the total sales were 3,765 bales, of which 2,188 were for consumption, and 1,577 were for speculation.

The visible supply amounts to 2,228,295 bales, against 2,125,200 bales last year.

The figures indicate an increase in the cotton in sight of 102,697 bales as compared with the same date of 1878.

The receipts from the plantations for the week were 265,235 bales, against 248,140 bales last year.

The crop generally has been about all secured.

COMING HOME TO ROOST.

The remarkable unanimity with which the exodus movement among the colored people in this State is condemned by their white Republican leaders furnishes much food for thought.

A few years ago, when the same condition of affairs as regarding the negroes in this State existed as it exists now, when they had their own schools, their own churches, and their own fairs.

This last saving clause, that he had heard of no cases of oppression "for a year or two" is an inferential lie inserted very cunningly to shield a thousand positive lies.

MOONSHINE.

The only good thing connected with a lottery is, that a man can purchase enough castles in the air for $1 to last him a month.

When the dentists of the country discover a way to pull teeth without making a man wish he had been born a hen, life will have twice as much brightness.

There is probably nothing in this transitory world that yields larger, and quicker, returns on the amount invested than poking a wasp with your finger to see if he feels well.

Another sixty days or so and where the snow bird pranks, A dozen sons of Italy Will kerose their cranks.

And stirring up the innards Of that hardy-ardury thing, Insult the air of Heaven With the lie of "Gentle Spring."

"What is he?" asked a gentle-souled school teacher of a Limestone-tree boy class, last Sabbath.

An exchange in a neighboring town contains an account of a sad affair. It says that a certain man in that town, who has never advertised, was found dead under his counter where he had been lying for two days.

"Well, my son," said a good natured father to an eight year old son, the other night, "What have you done to-day that may be set down as a good deed?"

Dr. Mott's Endorsement of Speer's Port Grape Wine.

The following, from the celebrated Dr. Mott of New York, speaks wonders for Mr. Speer's efforts to raise the Oporto Grape in New Jersey.

62 MADISON AVENUE, NEW YORK, April 11, 1878. MR. ALFRED SPEER.—Dear Sir: The visit which I made last year to your Vineyards, wine-presses and vaults at Passaic, N. J., satisfied me thoroughly that the wines manufactured by you are pure and unadulterated, and the very best that can be offered to the public for medicinal uses.

Acting upon my favorable impressions at the time, I have since recommended the Port Wine more particularly in my practice, and am satisfied, with marked benefit, to my patients.

There can be no better proof to the doubting mind, as to the Wine being made of the finest Oporto Grapes, than a visit to the acres of land covered with the vine bearing the luxuriant fruit.

remain respectfully yours, ALEX. B. MOTT, M. D., Prof. of Surgery, Bellevue Hosp. Med'l College, &c., &c.

A Lady's Wish.

"Oh, how I do wish my skin was as clear and soft as yours," said a lady to her friend. "You can easily make it so," answered the friend.
