

CAROLINA

Raleigh Visitor: As the passenger train on the N. C. Railroad bound west was near Princeton this morning a negro was discovered lying across the track. Air brakes were put on and the engine reversed. The engine stopped in three feet of the negro.

Monroe Express: Mr. G. W. Flow, while at work clearing out his cotton gin, about 4 miles from town, on last Tuesday, met, with the misfortune of having one of his hands caught in the gin and literally torn to pieces by the saws, two of his fingers being cut off.

Washington Press: Senator Merrimon spoke at Edwinstown on Friday, and on Saturday Merrimon, Ransom, Stickney and others addressed a large gathering at North Creek. The county candidates report everything working smoothly and a promise of a good turnout of the Democrats on election day, which means success for our side.

Rockingham Spirit: We do not remember having seen Pee Dee River so low as it is now. You could almost walk across it on the rocks without getting your feet wet, in some places. The alarm of fire was sounded last Tuesday night about 1 o'clock, caused by the burning of the blacksmith shop of one Harrison, colored, situated near the Post office. The building and contents were entirely destroyed. Loss, not exceeding $50.

Charlotte Observer: Gentlemen just returned from Lincoln court speak highly of speeches made by Gen. Leach and Maj. Montgomery before the Democratic clubs there Tuesday. Mr. R. B. Weddington's barn and gin house, in Providence township, about 10 miles from the city, together with 30 bales of cotton, were totally destroyed by fire Tuesday night. The fire is supposed to be the work of an incendiary. The loss is about $2,500.

Greensboro Patriot: Eighty-five convicts are now at work on the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railroad in the South-Western part of the city. There are about two and a half miles of grading to be done North-West of and in the city in order to make a through connection with the lower end of the road, the grading of which has been recently completed. The whole force will then be put on the Mt. Airy end above Bruce's X Roads.

News and Observer: The receipts of cotton here yesterday were 731 bales. The loss by the fire at Mr. Geo. T. Cooke's barn, Wednesday night, was about $1,500. There were about 17,000 pounds of cotton stored in the barn.

The general meeting of creditors of the Bank of North Carolina, together with the sale of the remaining effects belonging to the estate, has been adjourned to December 7th and 9th respectively, on account of the death of Mr. Chas. Dewey, assignee.

Newbernian: Produce-dealer Hamilton has some Hyde county pumpkins which will turn the scale at 47 pounds and upwards. About 1,500 bushels rough rice were purchased in our market yesterday, by Mr. Wm. H. Oliver, for the Wilmington rice mill at 95 cents per bushel. The young son of Mr. R. A. Russell, who was so dangerously cut on Tuesday night, still remains in a precarious condition. The young gentleman is now lying at his father's residence in the upper portion of the county, about twenty miles distant from this city. Dr. Frank Duffy, who visited him on Wednesday, informs us that the wound is a very serious one, the knife having penetrated the chest bone, and entered the lung cavity.

Winston Sentinel: Without an exception, the Hebrew citizens of Winston are staunch Democrats. Gov. Vance will address the people here next Monday. Rev. James E. Hall has been conducting a series of successful meetings at the Moravian Church, (colored), in Salem, the past week. Sportsmen report game more plentiful this fall than ever before known. It is an easy matter to bag from 40 to 50 partridges in one afternoon. Miss Painter, the well-known revivalist, is here assisting Rev. Mr. Page in a series of protracted services at the Methodist P. Church. Mr. James Shutt, a well-known farmer of this section, disposed of his property on Friday and Saturday of the past week, and will shortly remove to Missouri, in which State he intends to make his future home.

Toisnot Sunny Home: A little son of W. H. R. s., Esq., of Pactolas, Pitt county, hung himself one day last week in attempting to get out of a swing. Rev. J. R. Griffith announced last Sunday that he would commence a series of meetings at the Methodist church in this place next Sunday. He hopes to continue the meetings through the entire week. Mr. W. H. Langley, near this place, informed us a few days ago that he had made this year with two horses, 30 bales of cotton from 30 acres of land. He sowed 11 bushels of wheat and thrashed out 228 bushels. After cutting the wheat, he sowed a part of the field in peas and had gathered about 200 bushels. The lowest estimate on his corn crop is 200 barrels. A horrible fratricide took place near Toisnot on last Tuesday night. Ed. B. Farmer, shot and instantly killed his brother John W. Farmer. Whiskey.

Kinston Journal: D. S. Aman, Esq., of Palo Alto, lost his gin house by fire on the 16th inst., containing about 40,000 pounds of seed cotton. Mr. J. W. Kinsey brought in on Monday some Irish potatoes of a second crop raised this year. He planted in July, and some of the potatoes now harvested weigh over one pound each. On the night of the 19th inst., Mr. Kit Bland, of Pitt county, had the misfortune to lose two of his sons, aged respectively 8 and 10 years. They were attacked with congestive chill and died within an hour of each other. A sad case of bereavement occurred this month in the family of Mrs. Wilson, near Lenoir Institute. One of her oldest sons, Albert H. Wilson, after a long illness from typhoid fever, died on the 1st of October, and only five days later a younger brother, Benjamin P. Wilson, was carried away by the same disease.

Henderson Review: Two of the Republican missionaries from New York spoke here yesterday. The cotton gin of Mr. Thomas Smith, near Bear Pond, and a considerable quantity of cotton was consumed by fire on Wednesday night last. The fire was accidental.

Wilson Advance: Gen. Matt W. Ransom, our senior Senator, and Col. W. F. Greene, of Franklin, will address the democracy of Nash at Nashville to-morrow. Two of North Carolina's most distinguished orators, C. C. Clark, Esq., of Newbern, and Hon. George Davis, of Wilmington, will address the people of Wilson to-morrow, Saturday. Last Friday, near Cedar Rock, Franklin county, a little child of Mr. John J. May came to his death by burning. A friend gives us the following particulars: Mr. May was at a cotton gin about a mile from home, and his little son was hauling cotton to the gin for him. At about 12 o'clock Mr. May sent his son home to bring his dinner, but on reaching home he found that it was not ready. Mrs. May went out leaving the boy by the fire, and pretty soon thereafter heard him scream, and upon running into the house found that he was literally in a blaze. Mrs. May did everything that was possible to extinguish the flames and save her child, but all her efforts were unavailing, though her hands were burned to the bone. The child lived six or eight hours.

L. S. BURKHEAD, Presiding Elder. Magnolia, N. C., Aug 18, 1880. Is it Possible that a remedy made of such common, simple plants as Hops, Buchu, Mandrake, Dandelion, &c, make so many and such marvelous and wonderful cures as Hop Bitters do? It must be, for when old and young, rich and poor, Pastor and Doctor, Lawyer and Editor, all testify to having been cured by them, we must believe and doubt no longer. See other column.—Post.
