MRS. JOE PERSON'S

REMEDY FOR SCROFULA

NEVER FAILS.

It will cure it fairly tested. I give no much pleasure to be able to state that I have derived an effectual cure of Scrofula from the use of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy for that disease. I had suffered from Scrofula for more than three years, and had despaired of ever getting well. I was treated during that time by three very eminent physicians, without any good result. I then went to the National Surgical Institute, at Atlanta, Ga., and was treated there for more than two months, with no better result than my family physicians met with. After returning from the Institute, I was persuaded to try Mrs. Person's Remedy, and I had not used it more than a week before I discovered its curative and healing properties. My sores soon began to heal, and the color of my skin changed as fast as the sores healed. My appetite improved, my low spirits increased, and my hopes increased, my low spirits increased, and my hopes increased, and I am now enjoying splendid health and am in good spirits. The remedy is mild as a purgative, and a strong tonic; it will heal the most stubborn sores in three weeks if taken regularly. It is my opinion that it should be taken some time after the sores are healed, to remove the cause of its effects; it should be taken regularly by all means, for I have sometimes neglected it, from the pressure of business, and in all cases found that the cure already made would commence to retrograde, and for this alone it should be taken regularly until an effectual cure is completed. Nothing should prevent regularity in the use of the remedy, and I would recommend to all who are suffering from Scrofula to try it. It will surely cure you if you give it a fair test. I speak from experience and not from hearsay. I am a grateful recipient of a cure from the use of it, and am under many and lasting obligations to Mrs. Person for the great relief I have obtained from its use. Sufferers, try it and be cured, as I am, respectfully,

Kittredge, N. C. JAMES A. MORRIS.

The Duplin Rifles expect to go to Yorktown forty strong.

The popular prejudice against proprie tary remedies has long since been con quered by the marvelous success of such a remedy as Dr. Ball's Cough Syrup. Used everywhere by everybody. Price 25c.

Third street in front of the City Hall is being nicely ballasted from Princess to Chestnut streets.

One arrested by the police this morning, that of Julius Wilson, colored, charged with disorderly conduct.

Mayor Smith expects to call the mem orial meeting on Monday at the hour the funeral services of the lamented Presi dent are being held.

Steamship Gulf Stream, Captain In gram, sailed from New York on Wednesday for this port, and will probably be found at her wharf early to-morrow morning.

Col. John C. Whitner, of Atlanta, Ga., says he owes his life to Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure.

There seems to be a dearth of news everywhere. The City Hall is dull. The Court House is too and Magistrate's Row furnishes absolutely nothing in the way of items to-day.

Coup's circus will be in Wilmington on Thursday, Oct. 13th. The show will only visit Tarboro, Wilson, Goldsboro and Wilmington. The biggest sort of a big crowd awaits Mr. Coup.

Our sprightly neighbor, the Morning Star, appears this morning in an entire new dress. There is a new head and new type but it is the same Star, no one of the features of the paper being altered or amended. It is the beginning of its fifteenth year and its twenty-ninth vol ume. Long may it twinkle.

The Philadelphia Inquirer of Decem ber 20th refers to the case of Major T. A. Hillier, No. 2,235 Master street, that city, who suffered so terribly with rheu matism that he was confined to his bed for weeks at a time, absolutely helpless, and unable to obtain relief even from the best physicians. After the failure of every means, he happened to hear of St. Jacobs Oil, tried it and was cured.

We were shown yesterday an ambro type, as it was then called, taken years ago by one Crowe, a daguerrean, of the City Hall just before its completion, with the dormer windows on the roof, giving it the appearance very much of a large sized factory. Luckily for the sake of beauty and symetry the architect was enabled to prevail upon the building committee to have them removed.

To Fire Minute Guns.

Mayor Smith this morning requested Collector Casaday to have the U. S. steam revenue cutter brought to the city, that she might fire minute guns during the progress of the meeting of the citizens here on Monday, the day of the funeral obsequies of the late President Garfield. The Collector telegraphed to Smithville to ascertain the whereabouts of the cutter; we understand, but we are not informed at this present writing whether any reply has been received.

We also understand that the Cape Fear Light Artillery will probably offer their services for the same purpose and we suppose, as a matter of course, that they will be accepted.

Rosh Hashanah.

This evening begins the celebration of the Hebrew holiday of Rosh Hashanah (New Year), also called Day of Memo rial, which will usher in the year 5642. This is regarded by all Hebrews as the most solemn and important holiday next to the Day of the Atonement. The new year, according to the Jewish cal endar, begins on the evening before the first day of the seventh month (Tishri), in accordance with the 23d chapter of Leviticus, 23d verse. Until the present generation all Israelites observed two days, but now the more reformed keep but the first, taking the ground that in ancient times the coming of a holiday, was generally announced by heralds who went from town to town notifying the children of Israel that the time had arrived. In many instances it is claimed it was impossible to reach the more dis tant towns until too late for the first day, and in order that all should celebrate the one day together the rabbis are said to have ordained the keeping of two days. The devout or orthodox Israelites, however, still cling to the earlier cus toms, and observe the second day with the same solemnity as they do the first. Services will be held this evening at 6 o'clock, and to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock in the Temple, corner of Fourth and Market streets.

Call at JACOBI'S for Garden Hoes and Rakes, Shovels, Spades, Axes, &c. There you have the lowest prices.

To Accommodate the Public.

The proprietors of that immensely popular remedy, Kidney-Wort, in recog nition of the claims of the public which has so liberally patronized them, have prepared a liquid preparation of those who from any reason dislike to prepare for themselves. It is very concentrated and, as the dose is small, it is more easily taken by many. It has the same ef fectual action in all diseases of the kid neys, liver or bowels.—Home and Farm.

Sovereign Grand Lodge.

The Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows met in its 56th annual session in Cincinnati last Monday morning. Mr. R. J. Jones was the representative in attendance from Cape Fear Lodge, No. 2, in this city.

The members of the Lodge were wel comed to the city by Gen. Hickenlooper, Hon. Benj. Eggleston, and Grand Mas ter Hewlett and the response was made by the Grand Sire, Luther J. Glenn, of Georgia.

The first regular business was the adoption of a resolution, offered by Mr. Babbee, of North Carolina, which was seconded by Mr. Pearce of Florida, and which, on motion of Representative Herring, of Texas, was ordered sent to Mrs. Garfield and Secretary Blaine, North Carolina, it will thus be seen, took the lead. The resolution is as follows:

Resolved, That the officers and mem bers of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the I. O. O. F., speaking for themselves and the half million members of the Order, desire to place upon record as the first act of their annual session this ex pression of their loving sympathy for the President, James A. Garfield, the suffer ing victim of a cowardly crime, and fur ther to express their admiration for the sublime faith and courage of the patient invalid in his brave fight for life, and their prayerful hope that the dark shad ow of death which now hangs over him may be dissipated, and his valuable life spared to his family, the American peo ple and the world.

This, be it remembered, was on Mon day, the day previous to the death of the President. The next day was set apart for a Grand display and parade but this was postponed because of the sad news which was received that night. On Tuesday, however, a monument which had been erected in Spring Grove Ceme tery was unveiled. We publish here its description, as we find it in the proceed ings published in the Cincinnati Com mercial:

It consists of a six-cornered, massive base, supporting triple columns combin ed, all of superb Quincy granite, the three columns being surmounted by a grand bronze statue. The base is 7 feet in height, the columns 17½ feet, and the surmounting statue 10½ feet, making the entire monument thirty-five feet in height. On the granite base are three faces, in which are chiseled: "Relieve the Distressed," "Visit the Sick" and "Bury the Dead." Between these faces, and sunk in the stone, are three bronze tablets or panels four feet and three quarters in length by twenty-one inches in width, bearing in bas relief allegorical designs representing the three branches of the Order—"The Subordinate," "The Rebekah," and "The Encampment." The first is illustrative of David and Jonathan; the second, Rebekah at the well, and the third, a hospitable patri arch welcoming an old and weary pil grim to his tent.

Above these, sitting at each corner of the pedestal supporting the Corinthian columns, are three bronze statues of beautiful women, representing "Friend ship, Love and Truth," the three magical words being chiseled in the granite at their feet. The figures, in their sitting posture, measure six feet two-and-a-half inches in height. Friendship extends the right hand of fellowship. In her left she holds a bundle of rods, indica tive of the fact that "in union there is strength." Love has her hands folded over her bosom, and her face beaming with gentleness and affection. Truth holds aloft in her hand the lamp that throws light into the dark places of the earth. These figures are well worthy of study.

Aloft, ten and-a-half feet in stature, with flowing beard and robes, is the proud old hero Moses, bearing in his right hand his rod, and supporting with his left against his thigh the tables of the law. This bronze figure alone weighs 3,000 pounds. At his feet, on the round pediment, is inscribed the date of the monument: "A. D. MDCCCXXX." Among the ornamentation below this are chiseled, in two places, the three links and the all-seeing eye.

The monument, as it stands, cost in the neighborhood of $20,000.
