MRS. JOE PERSON'S REMEDY FOR SCROFULA NEVER FAILS.

It Will Cure if Fairly Tested.

It gives me much pleasure to be able to state that I have derived an effectual cure of Scrofula from the use of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy for that disease. I had suffered from Scrofula for more than three years, and had despaired of ever getting well. I was treated during that time by three very eminent physicians, without any good result. I then went to the National Surgical Institute, at Atlanta, Ga., and was treated there more than two months, with no better result than that obtained by the Institute. I was persuaded to try Mrs. Person's remedy, and I had not used it more than a week before I discovered its curative and healing properties. My sores soon began to heal, and the color of my skin changed as fast as the sores healed. I had not thought of ever getting well again, but my hopes increased, my low spirits returned, and before the remedy, and I am now enjoying splendid health and am in good spirits. The remedy is mild as a purgative, and a strong tonic; it will heal the most stubborn sores in three weeks if taken regularly. It is my opinion that it should be taken some time after the sore is healed, to remove the cause of its effects. It should be taken regularly by all means, for I have sometimes neglected it, from the pressure of business, and in all cases found that the cure already made would commence to retrograde, and for this alone it should be taken regularly until an effectual cure is completed. Nothing should prevent regularity in the use of the remedy and it should be taken at the proper time. I would recommend to all who are suffering from Scrofula to try it. It will surely cure you if you give it a fair test. I speak from experience, and not from hearsay. I am a grateful recipient of a cure from the use of it and am under many and lasting obligations to Mrs. Person for the great relief I have obtained from its use. Sufferers, try it and be cured, is my advice. I am, respectfully,
Kittrell, N. C. JAMES A. MORRIS.

Consumption of the lung tissue must steadily increase by the retention of foul corruption. Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup promotes gentle expectoration, and gives great relief to those suffering with Consumption.

On Tuesday next Messrs. Cronly & Morris will sell at store on West side of Front street, between Market and Dock, a large lot of handsome and valuable furniture, recently used in the Commercial Hotel. The articles will be ready for examination on Monday next.

We are requested to state that the "Fred Hill," who was before a magistrate a few days since, charged with the larceny of a pair of pants, is not John Fred Hill, commonly called "Fred Hill," who was once in the employ of Mr. H. C. Brock, at his bar, and is now in the employ of Mr. J. D. Steljes.

A while ago, said Mrs. Dr. A. A. Jordan, 51 Lincoln street, Worcester, Mass., one of my friends from the South spoke to me very highly of St. Jacobs Oil. I resolved to try it on my patients, and I must confess that I was surprised at the results. It has never failed to cure all that it claims to, and I prescribe it willingly and confidently to those of my patients who suffer with rheumatism, sprains and all bodily pains. It is certainly a wonderful remedy, and I can highly recommend it to the public.

Market Hours.
L. M. Williams, Esq., Clerk of the Market, informs us that on and after October 1st, next Saturday, the breakfast bell will ring at 8 o'clock in the morning and the turnout bell at 9 o'clock. Beginning at the same date the market hours will be from daylight to 11 o'clock in the forenoon and from 3 o'clock in the afternoon until 8 o'clock at night.

The First New Rice.
The first new rice of the season was brought here by Mr. W. J. Ennett from the neighborhood of Snead's Ferry, Onslow county, on Tuesday and sold to Messrs. Norwood Giles & Co., of the Carolina Rice Mills in this city, at $1.00 per bushel. It was upland rice but the quality was not the best even of that grade. The quantity was 20 bushels.

Death of an Old Citizen.
At 4 o'clock this morning one of our oldest, and in times past one of the most influential business men in this community, breathed his last at the advanced age of 79 years. The deceased person of whom we write was John Dawson, Esq., a man who has filled many places of public trust and honor in this city both in public and private corporations. Long before Wilmington was an incorporated city Mr. Dawson held the position of Magistrate of Police which was to the town what the office of Mayor is to the city. This position he filled on more than one occasion, or rather at different times, and for different terms. A few years prior to the war the affairs of the old Bank of the State, which had a branch in this city, were wound up, and from its ashes, so to speak, sprang the Bank of North Carolina with the mother bank located in this city. Of this institution Mr. Dawson was the President. During the war, in the Summer and Fall of 1862, Wilmington was visited with that terrible scourge, the yellow fever. Mr. Dawson was Mayor of the city at the time, and acting President of the Howard Relief Association and remained at his post undaunted, going through the whole of the epidemic and contributing largely of his own private means towards the relief of those who were struggling with the fell destroyer. Mr. Dawson was still Mayor of the city when it was surrendered to the Federals on the 22d of February, 1865. Since the war the deceased has been twice elected Mayor.

Long years ago, before the writer of these lines had ever seen the light of day, about the year 1821, Mr. John Dawson came to this city from the county of Londonderry, Ireland, where he was born. He and the great merchant prince, A. T. Stewart, crossed the water and came to this country together, Mr. Stewart locating in New York and Mr. Dawson in Wilmington. But between the two there always existed a strong friendship, and even intimacy, up to the day of Mr. Stewart's death. Mr. Dawson told us in conversation on one occasion that he always dined with Mr. Stewart at least one time whenever he went to New York city. When the war terminated our venerable ex-Mayor went to New York City and was furnished with ready cash and a plenty of it, by his great millionaire friend, to start the world afresh. By this means he was enabled to recover, in a measure, what he had lost by the war, repay his friend and have a fortune left besides.

Mr. Dawson was twice married. He was born, as has been already stated, in the County of Londonderry, Ireland, and we hear about the year 1802, which makes him in the 80th year of his age. Mr. Dawson was a director in the Bank of New Hanover at the time of his death and was at one time Vice President of the Dawson Bank, an institution over which his brother, Mr. James Dawson, presided at the time. His death was quite sudden; the immediate cause was neuralgia of the heart. Mr. Dawson was quite wealthy and died, we understand, intestate.

The funeral services will take place on Saturday morning at 9:30 o'clock from St. James' Church, thence to Oakdale. Mr. James Dawson, who is now in New York, will leave that city to-night and is expected to arrive here to-morrow night.

Spectumens for Atlanta.

Daniel Shaw, Esq., the Commissioner appointed to this Senatorial district to collect articles to be forwarded to Atlanta, arrived here yesterday afternoon with a collection which is to be expressed to-day to Raleigh, from whence they will be forwarded to Atlanta, along with other products of the State. Mr. Shaw has among other things, 13 specimens of wood, peanuts, peanut vines, rice, upland and lowland, commonly known as white and yellow rice, and corn. The woods consist of sour-wood, horsebeam, blackhaw, persimmon, hickory, holly and mulberry, varieties which are in much demand for the manufacture of shingles, and white-oak, willow, white-ash, sink-wood, magnolia and red-oak. The sink-wood is something unknown to us heretofore, and the willow, which we have never heard of previously in manufacture, has a beautiful grain and is fully equal, in appearance, to the bird-eye maple, which it somewhat resembles. These are only a portion of the woods found in this section, there being about seventy-five in all.

Mr. Shaw has also prepared a beautiful specimen of peanuts and a package of the vines, with the peanuts clinging to them, to show how they grow. There are also two beautiful specimens of rice, one, the upland, or white rice, gathered from Mr. Shaw's own crop, and the other the lowland, or yellow rice, furnished by Mr. Jno. F. Garrell, from his plantation near this city. But the most remarkable thing of all is a stalk of corn with three ears on it, which is twelve feet from the roots to the first ear. This corn was raised by a farmer in the eastern part of Pender county, who says that he has twenty acres just like it.
