Fall moon at 33 minutes past noon to-day
This the warmest day of the season thus far.
Schooner Samuel C. Hart, hence, was reported below at New York March 31.

The almanac predicts very rainy weather for to-day, which is a slight mistake.

Norwegian barque Gazellon, Werbye, cleared at London, March 31st, for this port.

British barque Aspirant, Stonehouse, cleared at Boston, March 31st, for this port.

Schooner David Pierson, Summer, sailed from Baltimore, March 31st, for this port.

Steamship Benefactor, Capt. Tribon, sailed from New York April 1st, for this port.

All passions are good when one masters them: all are bad when one is a slave to them.

Services to be rendered—reconcile friends whom services rendered have estranged.

There is many a man whose tongue might govern multitudes, if he could but govern his tongue.

Barque Candace, Johansen, from Silliland for this port, put into Portland, Eng., March 20th.

Beautify your homes by using the N. Y. Enamel Paint, ready mixed and warranted. Sold only at JACOBS'S.

The cat is the great American prima donna. If bootjacks were bouquets, her nine lives would be strewn with roses.

To Builders and others—Go to JACOBS'S for Sash, Blinds and Doors, Glass, &c. You can get all sizes and at the lowest prices.

The Dan. barque Elene, Olsen, cleared to-day for Hamburg, with 4,280 barrels rosin, shipped by Messrs. E. G. Barker & Co.

The farmers in the country are improving this fine weather to the uttermost, and the plantations have become beehives of industry.

Miss E. Karrer has returned from New York with a large assortment of millinery and fancy goods which she will have ready for exhibition in a very few days.

A man who wants his wife to love and respect him will never make the mistake of putting his feet into her slippers. Years of devotion will not wipe out the insult.

We can no more have back old times by gathering the same people in the same place than we could have back a dead friend by seating his skeleton in his accustomed place.

We are requested to state that the Thursday night meetings, at the First Presbyterian Church, will, until further notice, be held at 8 o'clock, instead of at 7:30, as heretofore.

When a dark and gloomy crisis in your life is reached, and destruction seems to overwhelm you—only remember that the blackest, fiercest storm passes quickest, and the earth is always the brighter after it.

Our lives should be like the days, more beautiful in the evening, or like the spring, aglow with promise, and like autumn, rich with golden sheaves when good works and deeds have ripened on the field.

As will be seen by reference to our advertising columns, trains Nos. 42 and 43 on the Wilmington, Columbia & Augusta Railroad, and trains Nos. 45 and 42 on the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad, have been discontinued.

York (Pa.) Daily
Our fellow townsman Mr. Adam Cromer, East College Avenue, York, Pa., states the following: I had an attack of Rheumatism so severe that I was unable to move, unless by assistance. After using different remedies, I purchased a bottle of St. Jacobs Oil, which gave me great relief, and after using the third bottle, I was able to do my work.

The iron out of which true manhood is forged is the power to resist.
She cooed; he wooed; the old man said they could if they would. No cards.

Quite a number of strangers are in the city in attendance upon the Criminal Court.

A philosopher observes that there are two periods in a man's life when he looks to see if his hair is coming out—at twenty, when he inspects his upper lip at forty, when he inspects the top of his head.

The best armor is discretion; the best adviser, justice; the best act, that prompted by charity; the best companion, the frank friend, who is not afraid to tell us of our faults; but the truest friend is the gold earned and saved by one's self, the sight of which brings neither blush of shame nor twinge of conscience. This is the friend who ever gives to man unflinching obedience.

In every house there should be a little nook in which a few simple remedies are kept. Among them should be extracts of ginger, peppermint, chloride of potash, bicarbonate of soda, sweet oil, paregoric, camphor, arnica, cotton, old muslin for bandages, some sticking plaster, a box of ground mustard and some ready-made mustard plasters. Always strike a light when you go to get any of these in the dark, and be sure you have the right one.

Flies & Mosquitoes.
A 15c. box of "Rough on Rats" will keep a house free from flies, mosquitoes, rats and mice, the entire season. Drug-gists.

City Court.
The case of the party who was the principal in the shooting affair of yesterday, was postponed until the 13th inst., on account of the inability of the young man who was shot to be present.

One young man was up charged with disorderly conduct, for which he was fined $5. We suppress name by request.
Two others were charged with being drunk and down, but they were discharged. They will not have the pleasure of seeing their names in print this time.

Rite of Baptism.
As one of the results of the series of meetings now being held at the First Baptist Church, eight persons, three of whom were males and five females, were baptized and admitted to membership in the Church yesterday morning. We learn that the meetings will be conducted regularly until further notice, and will not probably be concluded before the close of the week.

A cold in the head is one of the best things that can happen to a lady with a lace handkerchief, and Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is decidedly the best remedy to cure the cold.

A Sad Affair.
A shooting scrape occurred yesterday about mid-day at a private residence in this city. The parties are young men, both natives, and are of families of the highest respectability. The cause of the altercation was a matter of great delicacy, in consequence of which we suppress the names. The shooting was the result of a demand made for reparation of a foul injury done to a relative of one of the parties which reparation being refused, hence the shooting. The wounded party is not dangerously injured. Unfortunately the aggrieved party was the person who was shot.
