We gain this month 62 inches of daylight.
The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 57 bales, and those of rosin 1,181 barrels.

Many a man of forty cold winters has a conscience just as good as new because he never used it.

The Feast of the Passover begun yesterday evening at sunset, and will continue eight days.

This is the loveliest Spring day we have yet had this season, and one can almost see the green things growing.

There is no such thing as independence—each of us depends upon some one else for some little comfort in life.

Beautify your homes by using the N Y. Enamel Paint, ready mixed and warranted. Sold only at JACOBI'S.

The Criminal Court has been engaged all day in the trial of one case, that of a party charged with keeping a disorderly house.

Every man should ask himself this question: Should this turn out to be a false step, shall I be able to get back again?

Eagle Island, opposite the city, is fast donning its beautiful robes of green. It is refreshing to the eye to glance in that direction.

The peach crop hereabouts is looking very promising. If there is no more cold weather there will most likely be a full crop.

Spirits turpentine advanced to and sold for 60 cents a gallon in this market to-day, which is the highest figures reached since 1872.

Some two weeks ago we gave the particulars, in the REVIEW, of the new hotel building which is to be erected at Smithville, and we now hear that work was to be begun to-day.

Mr. Norwood Giles having resigned as a member of the Board of Audit and Finance, Mr. W. R. Kenan was yesterday elected to fill the vacancy occasioned by Mr. Giles' resignation.

Mr. T. R. Pedrick, who lives within a few miles of the city, caught this morning about five miles above the city, in Smith's Creek, a fresh water stream, a large stone-crab. We do not know that we have ever heard of a similar instance.

Mr. Junius Young, a young Wilmingtonian who some years ago migrated to California but who has been recently attending a course of medical lectures in Philadelphia, is here now on a visit to his relatives.

Steamboatmen inform us that there is plenty of water in the Cape Fear and Black rivers, and that there are an unusual number of rafts of timber and naya-l stores in both rivers on their way to this city for a market.

Unavailable
Unavailable matter, addressed as follows, remains in the Postoffice in this city:
Rev. D. Smith, Pender county, N. C.; Clara Smith, No. 6 James St. New York; 1 white stamped envelope, with no address.

Mr. Fred. Barr, Mansfield, Ohio, writes as follows: After suffering with rheumatism for six months and applying a number of remedies without benefit, I procured a bottle of St. Jacobs Oil from my druggist, Mr. C. W. Wagner, and am happy to state that after using one bottle, I can now dress myself, which I had not been able to do for some time.

The rumored enquiry and recent sales of real estate in our city is another evidence of its growing prosperity. We hear of several transactions, and at advanced figures and are glad to note the "boom", which so extensively increased in the Northern and Western markets, is now extending Southward, more perceptible than at any period since the June of 1873.

BI'S for Sash, Blinds and Doors, Glass, &c. You can get all sizes and at the lowest prices.

New Postoffice Wanted.

A petition for a new postoffice in Brunswick county, between Shallotte and Little River, has been received here by Col. Brink, who will forward it to Washington City with his endorsement.
It asks that the office be located at Mr.
D. B. Stanland's house, with Mr. Stephen O. Frink as Postmaster. They will probably get it.

How the hearts of a crowd swell and throb with pitiless hatred against the man who coughs during the performance at a theatre, when they know he is too stingy to invest twenty five cents in a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

New Mill and Railway.

Messrs. Jas. H. Chadbourn & Co., of this city, have established a very prosperous young settlement at a point on the Wilmington, Columbia & Augusta R. R., about midway between Peacock's and Grist's, in Columbus county. The settlement contains about two hundred inhabitants, and has been named Chadbourn. A large steam saw mill is being erected there and there is a railway eight miles long now in operation, which penetrates a rich section of country and not only supplies the mill with timber but has a good freighting business otherwise for points on the Wilmington, Columbia & Augusta R. R., for which through freight bills are given. The incorporators are known as the Chadbourn Mill and Railway Company and they have applied for a postoffice at that point which will almost certainly be accorded them.

Board of Aldermen.

The Board of Aldermen met in regular monthly session at the City Hall last night.

A communication from the Board of Audit and Finance, enclosing the appropriations for the fiscal year ending March 31, 1882, was read and adopted.

Further time was granted the committee on Fire Department on the removal of a steam fire engine to the north side of the W. & W. Railroad.

The committee on Public Buildings were granted further time on a sale of the Ninth street Bucket Company house.

Alderman Northrop moved that the committee on Water Works, in connection with the Chief of the Fire Department, be instructed to locate the thirty-five fire hydrants, as provided for in the appropriation, at a cost not to exceed $1,500, or fifty dollars per year each, and make a contract with the Water Works Co. Adopted.

A petition from the Juvenile Hose Company was referred to the committee on Fire Department.

The resignation of Capt. W. H. Goodman, of the Police Force, was read, and Sergeant D. S. Bender was elected as his successor, and Mr. J. M. Nelson was elected Sergeant of the force.

A motion that the Finance Committee confer with the Board of Audit and Finance for the purpose of making the tax levy for 1882 was adopted.

The contract for attending to the lamps was awarded to George Batson, on his bid of $84 per month—being the lowest.

The contract for printing was awarded to Mr. S. G. Hall; his being the lowest.

The contract for keeping city mules and carts was awarded to Capt. T. J.
Southernland, at $32.50 per month for each team.

The contract for furnishing lumber was awarded to Mr. J. W. Taylor, at $14 per thousand feet.

The contract for feeding prisoners was awarded to W. W. Mints, at 10 cents per meal.

Mr. W. M. Hays was appointed City Scavenger, under rules and regulations of the Board.

On motion, the contract with the Gas Company was continued for the present year, at a price not to exceed the present contract.

The license tax paid by the late Mr.
O. S. Yarborough was ordered to be refunded, on petition of Mrs. M. A. Yarborough, the Board of Audit and Finance concurring.

The report of Chief of the Fire Department for March, and his annual report, were received and ordered on file, and on motion the Board adjourned.

Sales at Auction.

Messrs. Croly & Morris sold at auction to-day, for cash, the two-story brick store on Market street, near Front, belonging to the estate of the late Thomas W. Brown, for $4,650.

Also, 70 shares stock Great Falls Manufacturing Company, of Rockingham, for $105, par value $100.

Also, 11 shares stock Bank of New Hanover, for $26.25, par value $25.

The Fire.

At about 1 o'clock this morning, a small one-story frame dwelling on the corner of Sixth and Wooster streets, the property of Mr. J. Wilder, and occupied by a family of colored people, was discovered to be on fire. The alarm was given, but the flames did their work so rapidly that the building was entirely consumed before the fire department could be made available. We learn that the family lost none of their furniture or personal effects. We were unable to learn whether there was any insurance on the building or not.

A Tramp on His Travels.

Our friend A., writing us from Armour, gives us an interesting account of the capture of a thieving tramp who had been committing depredations in that neighborhood. He says:

"A tramp, giving his name as Alford Melvin, of Little Sugar Loaf, Bladen county, made his appearance in Black Rock neighborhood, Bladen county, on Saturday evening last, and on Sunday broke into and robbed the dwelling of Sam Larkins and J. S. Salter, colored, and later the house of S. B. King. These parties and families were absent at church.
At each place he seemed to have made a thorough search for money, but appropriated a lot of clothing, &c., and succeeded in getting $25 or $30 in money from Mr. King. On Sunday night he was captured by a party of colored men, at Macville, on the Carolina Central R.
R., with a lot of the stolen property in his possession. He made a desperate effort to avoid capture, and consequently was handled pretty rough, receiving a severe and dangerous wound in the head and forty-four shot, four buckshot, and the balance small mixed shot, in the fleshy part of his thigh.

The wound in his forehead is said to have been caused by his falling on a sharp lightwood stump while trying to escape capture. Dr. A. B. Lucas, who dressed his wounds, says the shot wound is not dangerous."

The "Little World," a monument to human patience, skill and ingenuity, is still on exhibition in the Teinken building, on Front street. It is a wonderful combination of automatic figures moving in perfect action, forming a whole which it is delightful to look upon. You can see it in operation at a cost of only 10 cents.

We thank Col. John L. Cantwell for a copy of annual statement of stocks for the year ending March 31st., annual exports, destination of exports, &c., compiled and published by him. It is something of much interest to shippers and others, and can be had in quantities to suit by making application to Col. Cantwell.
