News and Observer.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

SENATE.

TWENTY-NINTH DAY.

SATURDAY, February 3, 1883.

Mr. Black, bill to require bargainers in conditional sales and delivery of personal property where title is retained to record notice of such condition sales. Bill to incorporate the town of "Kill Quick in Edgecombe county." Passed third reading.

Mr. Cahoe asked the suspension of the rules, on the bill to prevent the erection of artificial islands in the navigable streams of the State. A substitute for the bill, as recommended by the committee, passed third reading.

Mr. Cahoe offered an amendment, "East of the Wilmington and Weldon and Petersburg and Weldon Railroad," which was adopted in the bill.

Bill to validate the registration of certain deeds for land, passed third reading.

Bill to punish the seduction of women under promise of marriage, making it a crime and penitentiary offence. (Mr. Dortch's bill.) Passed second reading.

Mr. King and S. B.—to amend bill in regard to the salary of clerk for the city of Wilmington, passed its third reading.

Mr. Scott, of New Hanover, moved a reconsideration of the vote by which the bill in regard to the salary of the clerk for the city of Wilmington passed the third reading. It was reconsidered. He moved to postpone the further consideration of the bill. The Senate agreed.

House bill and Senate bill to incorporate the town of Pireway, in the county of Columbus, passed second reading.

A response from the Treasurer to the Senate's inquiry as to the money paid for the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley road, stated that, first $30,000 have been paid as part of the appropriation made; second, the State has issued $600,000 of the coupon bonds on account of that road; third, the value of the work by contracts on the road, to January 1st, 1883, aggregated to the amount of $107,027.48, this amount not payable in money, but the first mortgage bonds of the company.

Resolution of request to our Senators and representatives in Congress as to soapstone in the State.

Mr. King of Cherokee, explained his grounds for introducing the resolution. The veins of soapstone in Western North Carolina have assumed commercial importance; it is worth in New York $40 to $50 a ton; it enters into manufacture of paper, of perfumed soaps, of candles, &c., &c. These are miners, teamsters and owners of mines and quarries asking protection. They would not ask it if they had railroad facilities.

Mr. Dortch offered an amendment, "That our Senators are instructed and our Representatives are requested to use their efforts to abolish the tariff on the necessities of life or reduce the same to the lowest point necessary for the support of the government." It was all referred to the committee on internal improvements.

Bill for the protection of Buoys and Lighthouses, by Mr. Cahoe—a substitute as offered by Mr. Pemberton for the committee, passed third reading.

Bill for protection to aids in navigation, passed third reading.

Bill for the protection of shipping, by Mr. Scott, of New Hanover, preventing the use of spikes in the end of poles for piling flats. Referred.

Bill to revise and consolidate the public school law. Mr. Pemberton explained that the law as its stands now requires the laying off of township lines, and this amends that they can consult the convenience of neighborhoods without regard to township lines. Passed its third reading.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Mr. Williamson, petition from the pilots of the port of Wilmington, N. C. Sunday committee reported on various bills as follows: To prohibit the sale of liquor within three miles of Bethesda. To more effectually prevent the wrongful removal of joint fences. To punish the offence of destroying, or breaking, or tearing down bridges. An act for the better protection of the estates of deceased persons. To extend the time to redeem land sold for taxes, and bought by the State. To incorporate the Raleigh Mail Printing and Publishing Company Bills introduced, passed their first reading and were referred as follows:

Mr. McCotter, to prevent fraud in packing cotton.

Mr. Bullock, amend section 28 article 2, of the constitution. Judiciary.

Mr. McCurry, to amend the law relating to the working of public roads. Judiciary.

Mr. McLoud, to create a board of license in each and every county, and to regulate the manner in which license to retail liquor dealers shall be granted. Judiciary.

Mr. Williamson, to fix and regulate the time of granting license for retailing liquors. Finance.

Mr. Bunn, to establish graded schools in Rocky Mount. Education.

Mr. Bailey, of Mecklenburg, to incorporate the Southern Mining, Smelting and Manufacturing Company. Corporations.

Mr. Myers moved to reconsider the vote by which the bill to punish contractors for not paying employees was tabled, and refer it to the committee on judiciary. So done.

Resolution of instruction to members of Congress relative to money obtained from citizens of this State by direct taxation. Passed third reading.

Bill to amend chapter 216, laws 1876-77, relative to official advertising. Passed third reading.

Bill to abolish the fees of justices of the peace. Tabled.

Substitute for an act to repeal chapter 117, laws of 1879, relative to abolishing the Board of Health of the State. The bill was ordered to be printed, and was made the special order for the 15th inst.

To allow the Virginia and Carolina Railroad to construct their line in this State. Passed third reading.

Bill to provide for the completion of the Midland North Carolina Railroad. Made the special order for Tuesday week.

STATE NEWS.

News and Observer: Last week we received 800 bales of cotton.—This season there have been received here 37,847 bales of cotton.—Some of our back lots and back yards of the city are in such a disgraceful condition that their owners deserve condemnation.

Mr. A. W. Pool died on the 31st ult. in Granville county, after a lingering illness, aged 70 years. He was born in Person county, and was a brother of Mr. William Pool.

Stonewall Enterprise: Rev. Jeremiah Johnson, an old minister of the M. E. Church, died at Pantego recently.—On Monday while Mrs. Bright ham Lincoln was at work cooking supper she suddenly fell dead. Mrs. Lincoln is quite an old lady and has enjoyed fine health and her death was supposed to be caused from heart disease.

Mr. S. B. Lane of Pamlico, met with a painful accident on Tuesday. He slipped and fell while working, and in endeavoring to break the force of the fall his hand struck a broken reed which went diagonally through his wrist and hand.

Charlotte Journal: A tract of land containing 23 acres situated in Mallard Creek township was sold at the court house door yesterday for $29,722 per acre. Capt. Geo. W. Garrison, the oldest engineer on the Carolina Central Railroad has been for nearly two months confined to his room by rheumatism. He is now able to be out on the streets, and for the purpose of exterminating the affection will start for Hot Springs, Arkansas, next week.

Miss Delia Robinson, daughter of Mr. James B. Robinson, of Providence township, very narrowly escaped being shot by a rifle-ball yesterday one week ago. She was sitting at a window of her father's house when the report of a gun was heard from a piece of woodland nearly 300 yards distant. In an instant the bullet broke the glass one foot from Miss Robinson's head and passed through both sides of a wardrobe on the opposite side of the room.
