At Springfield, Illinois, a copious rain fell on Sunday, the first shower in that section for nine weeks.

The Democratic primaries in Baltimore resulted favorably to R. McLane for Governor of Maryland.

In ten years the white illiterate vote of Kentucky increased 11,000, and the illiterate colored vote 6,000.

A Fifth Avenue New Yorker has paid his next door neighbor $5,000 not to lease his house for business purposes.

The latest returns from the agricultural districts of England show a large increase in the foot and mouth disease among the cattle.

The New Orleans Cotton Exchange has instructed its president to appoint a committee of ten to direct the cotton exhibition in the Exposition of 1883.

The United States naval station at Valle Franche in the Mediterranean has been abolished, and the last of the naval stores were removed on Sunday.

Seventy-nine geographical societies, distributed throughout the world, were in existence at the beginning of the year, with a total membership of 38,000.

A mass was sung in Milwaukee on Saturday last for the souls of the 300 persons who perished in the Lady Elgin, on Lake Michigan, twenty-three years ago.

The Boston Globe notes as a curious fact that when there is a railroad accident the man who does not at once call for brandy is either among the killed or unconscious.

The investigation of the recent Riverdale disaster, in New York harbor, disclosed the fact that the inspector had never inspected the boiler of the boat. He had, he said, merely looked into that boiler.

The comet discovered by Prof. Swift, director of the Warner Observatory, at Rochester, N. Y., is moving almost directly toward the earth, and hence it was impossible to verify it until Sunday morning, although it was first seen by him on the previous Tuesday.

William D. Howells, the novelist, is a young-looking man, of middle height; his hair is cropped short and parted in the centre; he wears a short gray mustache, and his aspect is that of a student. He shrinks from society and is of quiet and domestic tastes.

Lord Beaconsfield tried to read Romola and could not; yet it is George Eliot's masterpiece. The Augusta Chronicle says that Mr. Stephens was in the same fix with Lorna Doone, the finest production of that remarkable genius, R. D. Blackmore. Tastes differ.

A syndicate in Galveston proposes to build wharves out to deep water in the Gulf of Mexico. To do this they will try to borrow $5,000,000 of the State's surplus, which will exceed $5,000,000 two years hence, and will be $10,000,000 within five years, if the State sells the school lands.

Oseola, the great Seminole chieftain, does not lie in a neglected grave in Fort Moultrie's ruins, as some sentimentalists have been wailing. His bones were long since removed to a Charleston cemetery and a monument rises over them, while only the tombstone remains in the fort.

The Chattanooga Times, citing Atlanta as a port of entry, says: "The enormous sum of $91 was collected there in the form of duties on imports for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1883, and it cost the government $1,068 to take in that much or $52 and a fraction for every dollar collected."

The King of Dahomey is one of those sable potentates who recognize clearly enough the Gladstonian distinctness between a suzerain and a sovereign. Hearing that the Portuguese garrison of Whydah intended to cede the place to the English, he promptly imprisoned them all until they promised not to do so.

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VII. WILMINGTON, N. C., THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 20, 1883. NO. 224

Shortly before her departure for Europe Mrs. Langtry stated that she held extensive mortgages on property in Fifth avenue and other streets. Recently the truth of the statement was confirmed by the filing at the registrar's office of an assignment of several mortgages to Mrs. Langtry by William Boswell on property in New York, the consideration being $81,000.

Jno M. Langston, the American minister to Hayti, himself a colored man, the other day spoke to a St. Louis reporter of Frederick Douglass thus: "I must say that he is the most impracticable man that ever assumed a leading position in the affairs of his race. He has actually, with all his splendid ability, accomplished nothing in all his years of labor."

Alluding to the New Jersey platform the World says: "This is the voice of a Democratic State whose electoral vote is almost certain to be given to the Democratic candidates. It probably settles the policy of the party on the tariff question in its National Convention and disposes of the hopes of the visionaries who are dreaming of a different result."

New York's howl about the new postal money order, as voiced by a correspondent of the Sun, is that they are "mean looking pieces of yellow paper," like "a circular of some new soap or advertisement of some quack medicine," that the place of payment is "up three long flights of stairs," and that "the holder has to take his place in one long line to sign his name, and in another long line to get the order cashed."

The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 234 bales.

There was nothing to report at the City Court Room this morning.

The tides continue to be unusually high, which is indicative of Easterly gales at sea.

The sewer at the foot of Dock street has been repaired and the crossing is now in good condition.

Capt. R. P. Paddison says that in the country in the Point Caswell section is about all under water, in consequence of the recent heavy and long continued rains.

A fine assortment of Guns and Pistols at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

The Br. steamship Woodlark, which arrived this morning, was the largest vessel that was ever brought through Snow's Marsh Channel. Capt. A. M. Guthrie, of Smithfield, was her pilot.

Capt. James McGowan, at the North Carolina Saloon, keeps cigars which are a luxury to smoke and cheap at the price. If you are thirsty and in need of a stimulant he can concoct a beverage worthy a prince.

From the quantity of goods arriving in the city it would appear that the various merchants look for a prosperous season and are bound that their clerks and salesmen shall have plenty to do for the next few months.

Mr. E. H. Freeman, has fitted up his photographic rooms very neatly and they are as cosy as need be desired. In this issue he invites the ladies to visit the rooms, when they are shopping, where they can rest themselves.

Black River and the streams tributary to it are reported as being higher than has ever been known before. The bridges on many of the streams have been washed away and the country is inundated in every direction, and a large portion of the crops are under water.

"When the night wind bewailieth the Fall of the year," as it did last night, "And sweeps from the forest the leaves that are here," as it has been doing for sometime past, it begins to be time to lay in a stock of Winter fuel, before the price gets above the reach of ordinary mortals.

Knights and Ladies of Honor. Regular meeting this (Thursday) evening. Full attendance desired. It

The celebrated 'Fish Brand Gills Twine is sold only at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

Renting the Stalls.

The unoccupied stores, stalls and spaces under the control of the Committee on Markets and Fees, of the Board of Aldermen, were offered for sale at public auction at 1 o'clock this afternoon, with Mr. Seth Davis as the auctioneer. The sale took place at the New Market House, the first being for premiums for choice of stalls 1, 3 and 5 in the Fifth Ward Market House, the rent of which is fixed at $5 per month. Mr. Solomon Reeves bid $16 for the first choice and selected stall No. 1. Mr. O. H. Kennedy took stall No. 3 at a premium of $10, and Mr. Solomon Reeves took stall No. 5 at a premium of $7.50.

Vegetable stalls 2, 4 and 6, the rental of which is fixed at $2.50 per month, were then offered for premium for choice, when Mr. O. H. Kennedy took stall No. 2 at a premium of $2.50 and stall No. 4 at a premium of $1. Stall No. 6 was sold to Mr. George Pearson at a premium of $1.

The premium for vegetable stall No. 1, of the Fourth Street Market, the rent of which is fixed at $5 per month, was then offered and was sold to G. E. Sampson for $1.25. The privilege of spaces 3 and 4 in the yard of Fourth Street Market was then offered and both were sold to Mr. T. A. Watson for 50 cents each per month.

Beef stalls Nos. 13, 15 and 16, in the New Market, the rental of which is fixed at $8 per month, were then offered for the premium for choice. S. Merrick secured No. 13, for which he paid a premium of $2. The other two were not sold. Vegetable stalls 2, 3 and 4, the rental of which is fixed at $6 per month each, were then offered and No. 2 was sold to S. Allen for a premium of $1; No. 3 to A. J. Blackman for 50 cents and No. 4 to J. D. Davis for 25 cents. The drug store, on Front street, occupied by Mr. J. H. Hardin, was rented to him again at $15 per month, who also rented the room he now occupies on the second floor at $1 per month. The store on Front street, occupied by Adam Brown, was again rented to him for $16 per month. The store occupied by Capt. J. L. Boatwright was again rented to him at $17 per month. The room in the Southwest corner of the building, on Water street, was rented to Mr. J. R. Melton for $7 per month; the centre room on Water street was rented to Mr. W. J. Mott, for $5.25 per month; the Northwest room, occupied by Mrs. Rhoda Carter as a restaurant, was again rented to her at $17 per month. A room on the second floor, on the East end of the building, was rented to Mr. K. L. Winner, its present occupant, at $1 per month. Vegetable stalls 5, 6, 7 and 8, the rent of which is fixed at $4 per month, were then offered for the premium, but there were no bidders and consequently no sale.

The Three Cent Stamps.

As the new postal law reducing the rate of postage on letters to all parts of the United States to two cents goes into operation October 1, there is unnecessary discussion about the "redemption" of three-cent stamps and stamped envelopes, which are not used before that date. The three-cent stamp will be useful in a variety of ways after it ceases to be required for the usual single-weight letter. It will be convenient to use where three ounces are required, or where triple postage is needed on a letter, or with a two-cent stamp on a foreign letter. Instead of needing to be redeemed as useless, the three-cent is likely to be missed as a convenient denomination with which to make higher combinations in value.

The Association.

The Eastern Baptist Association will convene at Bethlehem Church, in Caintuck township, Pender county, on the Tuesday after the first Sunday in October, which will be October 9th. The people of that section, with the hospitality for which they have ever been noted, are making ample preparations for the comfort and accommodation of visitors. During the meetings, which will probably be continued until the following Sunday, the steamer John Dawson will make daily trips from this city for the accommodation of those who may desire to attend, and the fare will be materially reduced, as may be seen by advertisement which will appear in due season in the REVIEW.

Capt. R. S. Radcliffe and wife returned from their trip to the Western part of the State last night, much improved in health.

Exports Foreign.

Ger. brig Diana, Capt. Schroeder, cleared to day for Falmouth, Eng. for orders, with 1,600 casks spirits turpentine and 396 barrels rosin, valued at $29,606.80, shipped by Messrs. Alex. Sprunt & Son.

All Right.

Messrs Kirkwood and Hewes, United States Inspectors of Steamboats for this district, are in the city, and this morning inspected the steam yacht Minniehaha, which we are glad to learn, they found all right, she having successfully withstood all the tests applied.—They will leave to-morrow.

Not Sustained.

One of our policemen was arrested yesterday and carried before Justice Millis on a charge of assault and battery preferred against him by a colored man whom he had arrested the day before. After investigating the case the Magistrate found that the policeman was acting simply in the discharge of his duty under the law and he was discharged, while the prosecutor was mulcted in the costs.

Direct Trade.

The British steamship Woodlark, Capt. Jenkins, arrived here this morning from Philadelphia, consigned to Mr. C. P. Mebane. The Woodlark is a brigantine rigged iron screw steamship of 1,771 tons burden, and is, we believe, the largest vessel that ever visited this port. She will load with cotton at the wharf of the Wilmington Compress Co., and will be followed by others if freights offer in sufficient quantities to warrant.

The New Hotel.

Capt R. P. Paddison has just completed at Point Caswell a hotel for the accommodation of visitors to that thriving town. There are several parties negotiating for its lease, but it is not yet determined who will be the first landlord to open a hotel there. It will be a great convenience to the traveling public, aside from tending to give dignity and character to the place. Point Caswell is bound to boom.

For Offices.

We learn that the Carolina Central Railroad Company have bought the property on North Front street now occupied by Mrs. Morrison, as a boarding house, and will convert the same into offices for their use. We could not learn the price paid nor any other particulars regarding the purchase. It is a desirable location and can be arranged with a very little trouble so as to make comfortable and convenient offices.
