The Daily Review has the largest circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

John Russell Young, minister to China, writes that he is now able to speak Chinese readily.

Archbishop Feohan, who is going to Rome, has been presented with a purse of $5,000 by the priests of his diocese.

Work on the new Cotton Exchange in New York was begun Tuesday. The building will be seven stories high and will cost $600,000.

Rich Mr. Flood, of San Francisco, is transporting brownstone clear across the continent for the purpose of building a palace on Nob Hill.

Mr. Mackay, the bonanza man, is said to have taken a fancy to Col. Tom Ochiltree, and they are seeing the elephant together in Paris.

The entire number of pupils who are now studying German in the public schools of St. Louis is over 20,000, or more than half of the whole number of pupils.

Samuel J. Randall is the author of the best essay on civil service reform that has yet appeared. It consists of less than a dozen words: "An honest Democrat is better in office than a dishonest Republican."

The cigarette-smoking nuisance has reached such proportions in New York that many prohibitory notices appear in business places, and merchants and business men largely refuse to employ youths who use that form of tobacco.

Paper is now made in Sweden from the bleached and bleached remains of mosses that lived centuries ago, and is now found in enormous quantities. The paper is turned out in all degrees of excellence from tissue to sheets three-fourths of an inch thick.

Nashville has passed a city ordinance against fortune telling. An astrologist told an alderman that he was to marry a widow worth $50,000. He married one that was in debt to the tune of $6,000, and he doesn't want to see any one else basely deceived.

The infant born to the Chinese minister in Washington, during the summer, being a girl, has been allowed to leave the house but once since its birth. It is carried into the yard adjoining the legation, but gets no fresh air in any other way. Her little feet are already being bandaged to keep them small.

Ismail Pacha has purchased one of the finest old palaces in Florence, the Ghiesardisa, the gardens of which—opposite the English cemetery, where Mrs. Browning was buried—are the most beautiful in that city. He will make the place a home for his seven wives, and set up there a petty court.

Early marriages are the rule in China. Parents deem it a religious duty to provide matches for their children as soon as they are of marriageable years, and the young people go to the altar in much the same way as they go to school in other lands. This accounts for the dense population of the empire.

Great surprise and irritation have been caused in all parts of England by the announcement that the Queen intends to erect a full length statue of John Brown at Balmoral, and further, to put in the Royal Mausoleum at Frogmore, and in St. George's Chapel at Windsor, marble tablets to his memory. The statue to Brown will be unveiled next week. It will be in view of the windows of the royal apartments.

The result of the election in Ohio and Iowa are at length positively known and it is now sure that Ohio has gone Democratic by 12,000 for Hoadly and that the Legislature is also Democratic by a handsome majority. This result was known and announced in the New York papers yesterday morning but it seems that it took the enterprising press dispatches twenty-four hours longer to get the news disseminated in the country. Iowa has, of course, gone Republican. We clip the following sketch of Judge Hoadly, the Governor-elect of Ohio, from the columns of the New York World:

Judge Hoadly was born at New Haven, Conn., July 31, 1826, of which city his father was at one time Mayor. He received his elementary education at Cleveland, O., and was graduated from the Western Reserve College at Hudson, O., in 1844. After a year of study at the Cambridge Law School he entered the office of Chase & Ball, in Cincinnati, and was admitted to the bar in August, 1847. In 1849 he was admitted as a partner in the firm. He was elected in 1851 as Judge of the Superior Court of Cincinnati, and was City Solicitor in 1855. Two years later he succeeded Judge Gholson on the bench of the new Superior Court.

Interesting Services.

The Eastern Baptist Association of North Carolina began its annual session at Bethlehem Church, in Caintuck township, Pender county, on Tuesday, the 9th inst., and concluded its labors at quite a late hour last evening. In consequence of the high water in many places, and the distance many had to travel the proceeding of the first day were considerably delayed, and but little was accomplished save to effect an organization and get ready for the real business of the meeting.

Rev. J. L. Stewart, of Clinton, Sampson county, was elected Moderator; Rev. L. T. Carroll, Esq., of Pender county, was elected Clerk, and Col. A. M. Faison, of Duplin county, was elected Treasurer. The meeting being thus duly organized the Rev. W. M. Kennedy, of Duplin county, preached the introductory sermon. This and the transaction of routine business relative to missions, consumed the hours of the first day's session.

The people of that section had made ample preparations for the accommodation of visitors from abroad and after the meeting was dismissed every stranger was sought out by the citizens and provided with a hospitable home while the meeting continued. Some of the citizens took 10, some 15, some 40, some 50, some 75, and we heard of one who furnished accommodation for 84 persons, besides for a large number of horses and mules. Everything that the people could do was done for the comfort of the guests, and this without ostentation or any pompous display of hospitality. To make people feel happy, contented and perfectly at home seemed to be the object aimed at and with entire success. We heard a good, venerable lady of our own city, in speaking of the occasion, remark that she "felt some diffidence in coming among a people who were entire strangers; but," she continued, "they would not let me be a stranger, and I feel now, as if I had always known them."

On Wednesday morning the real work of the meeting began in earnest and continued with but a brief intermission at noon, until night. The church was crowded almost to suffocation, while there were hundreds upon the grounds who were unable to gain admittance. The weather was calm and delightful; a magnificent forest afforded excellent shade; there was an abundance to eat in every wagon, to which all were welcome, and a spring of limpid and pure water bubbled up conveniently near to assuage the thirst. During the afternoon of the second day's proceedings Rev. F. A. Reid, of Beaufort, N. C., who occupied the pulpit of the First Baptist church in this city on Sunday last, preached from a rustic stand which had been erected near to the church, and was listened to with interest by the throng who could not gain admittance to the crowded building.

Rev. Dr. Whitfield, of Goldsboro, preached from the out-door stand yesterday morning to large a audience; otherwise the proceedings of yesterday were unimportant to the general public though rightly necessary for denominational strength and efficiency. We should except, however, the selection of the place for holding the next annual meeting of the Association, which was Pollocksville, Jones county. Soon after this was determined upon the meeting adjourned, and in half an hour the place was as still and silent as the sleepers in the adjacent cemetery.

Quite a number of the clergymen, delegates and visitors left yesterday noon and came to the city on the steamer John Dawson, while the remainder will come down to night. The meeting was entirely harmonious, earnest and energetic and there were no outside disturbances to mar the happiness of the occasion.

Resolution of Thanks.

While coming down the river on the steamer John Dawson yesterday, at the suggestion of Rev. George S. Best, of Duplin county, the following proceedings were had:

In an informal meeting on board the steamer John Dawson, the undersigned ministers passed the following resolution:

WHEREAS we have received signal courtesies at the hands of Capt. Paddison, in conveying us without charge to and from the Eastern Baptist Association.

Therefore be it resolved, that our thanks be extended to Capt. Paddison, and a copy of this resolution be published in the Wilmington papers.

To-day has been real fickle April weather.

Clarendon Council, No. 67, A. L. of Honor, will meet to-night, at 8 o'clock.

Yesterday's News and Observer was not received here this morning.

For Toys and Tinware, go to the new 5 and 10 cents store, No. 16, South Second street, between Market and Dock streets.

The storm signal was raised last evening, and has continued to float to-day but as yet there has been no serious disturbance of the atmosphere.

We are sorry to hear that Capt. D. O'Connor has been quite sick for a few days past, but hope to see him abroad again soon.

Rev. W. M. Kennedy and Mr. H. Carroll, of Duplin county, did us the pleasure of a short visit this morning. The former was on his way to Masonboro, where he will preach next Sunday morning and again at night.

The Independent Order of Good Samaritans and Daughters of Samaria, colored, held a festival at the City Hall last night at which, it is stated, there was the largest gathering ever assembled there at any one time. It was an entire success.

We are informed that Capt. Jacob S. Allen, of Raleigh, an earnest Sunday School worker, will address the Baptist Sunday School at Masonboro, at 9:30 o'clock, next Sunday morning. The public are cordially invited and it is hoped there may be a large attendance.

There was an error in the proof yesterday of the local columns which was marked for correction but which had better been left alone. In speaking of the crops in Holly Shelter we wrote "Messrs Jno. H. Mashburn, Gibson James and D. J. Powell" and so it should have appeared.

A fine assortment of Guns and Pistols at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

Knights Templar.

We are indebted to the Journal-Observer for the following report of the second day's proceedings of the Grand Commandery of the Knights Templar, in session at Charlotte:

The Knights Templar held two business sessions during the day and attended a fine banquet at night. The morning session of the Grand Commandery met at 10 o'clock, all the grand officers and representatives in their posts. D. W. Bain, the Grand Senior Warden, having arrived, was assigned to his station. On motion of Sir Knight Cox, the Grand Recorder was instructed to send fraternal greetings to the Grand Commanderies of Virginia and Ohio, now in session. The reports of the Grand Treasurer and Grand Recorder were referred to the finance committee. The election of officers was made the special order for the 3 o'clock session. Sir Knight Charles R. Jones invited the Grand Commandery and visiting Knights to attend a banquet to be given at the Chamber of Commerce rooms at 9 o'clock, which invitation was accepted. The committee on the Grand Commander's address made their report and the session adjourned to 3 p. m.

At 3 o'clock the Grand Commandery met according to adjournment, and the election of officers was proceeded with, the following being the result:

P E Grand Commander—Eugene Grissom, of Raleigh.
V E W Grand Commander—Geo H. King, of Charlotte.
E Grand Generalissimo—A J Blair, of Asheville.
E Grand Captain General—W R Cox, of Raleigh.
E Grand Prelate—Rev O F Gregory, of Charlotte.
E Grand Junior Warden—F H Glover, of Charlotte.
E Grand Senior Warden—J W Blackwell, of Durham.
E Grand Treasurer—Wm Simpson, of Raleigh.
E Grand Recorder—J C Munds, of Wilmington.
The Grand Commander announced the following appointments:
E Grand Standard Bearer—J McD French, of Wilmington.
E Grand Sword Bearer—J A Porter, of Asheville.
E Grand Warden—D G Maxwell, of Charlotte.
Grand Sentinel—R H Bradley, of Raleigh.
The newly elected officers were then duly installed by Past Grand Commander H. H. Munson.

The Grand Commander announced committees as follows:
Fraternal Correspondence—Chas R Jones.
Jurisprudence—D W Bain, H H Munson, James Southgate.
Raleigh was selected as the place for the next annual meeting of the Grand Commandery.

Reports were received from the committees on charters, dispensations, grievances and appeals.

The Grand Commandery received a telegram bearing fraternal greetings from the Grand Commandery of Virginia, in session at Danville.

Minnie Hawk.

The fashionable event of the season will certainly be the appearance in our city on Thursday, Oct. 18th, of the great prima donna, Minnie Hawk, who is now on her farewell tour through the United States, having made a number of engagements the coming spring in the principal European cities, such as Berlin, Madrid, Rome and others. The great artist will make her appearance here as Margarita, in Gounod's "Faust," a part in which it is said she has no equal, as both her fine voice and intense acting are peculiarly adapted for this part. The performance will consist first of a concert part and will conclude with the complete 3rd act of Gounod's "Faust," containing the gems of the opera, such as the renowned "Jewel Aria," and others.

Mme. Hawk's company, this season, is said to be of rare excellence, comprising a number of well known artists, such as Mme. Sali, contralto, Sig. Montegriffio, tenor, Sig. De Pasqualis, who made an immense hit in Havana last season, Signor Guarro, organist, and the eminent pianist and composer, Mr. Constantine Sternberg. We may certainly expect one of the most interesting performances of the season.

A colored woman in the Northern section of the city became the mother of three children—two girls and a boy—on Tuesday last. The boy lived only about half an hour, but the others are doing well.

An Appeal.

The Ladies Memorial Association, of Raleigh, made an appeal through Col. W. L. DeRosset, of this city, for aid in defraying the expense of the removal of the dead North Carolina Confederates from Arlington to Raleigh. Col. DeRosset will take charge of any subscriptions which may be made and will forward the same to the President of the Association at Raleigh.

The Clinton Telegraph.

Mr. W. A. Johnson, President of the Wilmington, Warsaw & Clinton Telegraph Company, was in the city to-day. He says that the wires of the line are all up and that the office at Clinton has been equipped and ready for work for some little time, but that there is no instrument as yet at Warsaw. He expects everything, however, to be in full working order next week.

River Improvements.

Col. Wharton J. Green, our Representative elect, went to Point Caswell on the steamer John Dawson, last Tuesday, and thence he visited Betty's Bridge, Black River Chapel, Robinson's Bridge, Kerr's Landing and Newkirk's Bridge with a view to the improvement of the navigation of Black and South rivers. During his trip Col. Green met with the citizens at all the points indicated and conferred with them freely upon the subject and made himself acquainted with everything of importance relating to the matter. Representative men of Bladen, Sampson and Pender counties were present and gave their views and it was concluded to draw up petitions and have them signed by all the prominent citizens and forward them, through our Representative, for Congressional consideration. Col. Green manifested quite an interest in the matter and will do all in his power to aid in securing an appropriation for improvement of these important feeders to the commerce of Wilmington.

Col. Wharton J. Green was a passenger on the steamer John Dawson yesterday, coming down the river, until she met the steamer North State, for Fayetteville, a few miles up the river, when he got on board the latter boat, where he met his family and proceeded with them to their home up the Cape Fear.

Capt. Manning and Mr. Fletcher Manning have made arrangements for large supplies of Myrtle Grove oysters at their place on Wrightsville Sound this season and they will be served in any manner desired. The pavilion to the grounds has been enclosed and arranged for those who may call for a roast.

Mr. J. G. Voss has removed to 123 Princess street, between Front and Second, in the office recently occupied by Mr. John L. Holmes, where is prepared to do all work in his line which may offer. See advertisement.
