

THE TARIFF.

From present indications the tariff is to become one of the leading questions for discussion during the present session of Congress and the approaching Presidential campaign, in consequence of which we submit the following figures of the tariff on cotton goods now in operation under the laws of 1883. They have been compiled with care and we publish them as a matter of much importance to the general public as well as to those engaged in the manufacture of cotton goods:

Postmaster Leonard J. Thomas, of Eden, Me., has resigned, after more than fifty years' service.

Cardinal McCabe writes to the Dublin branch of the Peace Society that he has no hope of the success of its aims.

Judge C. E. Fenner will deliver the oration at the unveiling of the monument to General Lee, in New Orleans, February 23.

Mr. Maxey Tabor, son of the Colorado ex-Senator, was married the other day to Miss Babcock, one of the prettiest and most sensible young ladies of Denver.

Father Ryan has been invited to write an ode to be read at the celebration of the two hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the settlement of Maryland, on March 25.

Archbishop Williams, of Boston, is to be tendered a reception January 31 by the Catholic Union of that city, on which occasion he will be presented with a purse of $1,500.

L. Q. C. Lamar is said by his Mississippi friends to be one of the few poor men in the United States Senate. Of late years most of his salary has gone to pay old debts, obligations of a nature that only a man of scrupulous integrity would think of paying.

A Case not Beyond Help.

Dr. M. H. Hissdale, Kenesaw, Ill., advises us of a remarkable cure of consumption. He says: "A neighbor's wife was attacked with lung disease, and pronounced beyond help from Quick Consumption. As a last resort the family was persuaded to try DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. To the astonishment of all, by the time she had used one half dozen bottles she was about the house doing her own work. I saw her at her worst and had no idea she could recover."

MOONSHINE.

Who was the straight man in the Bible? "Joseph." "Why?" "Because Pharaoh made a ruler of him."

"Eh!" said the teacher, "whom do the ancients say supported the world on his shoulder?" "Atlas, sir." "You're quite right," said the teacher. "Atlas supported the world. Now, who supported Atlas?" "I suppose," said Ebel, softly, "I suppose he married a rich wife."

"Why is a young lady's age after she has reached 25 like a floral wedding bell?" asked an outsider. And he says it is "because it is never told;" but that is a libel.

What relation does a woman want to bear to cold weather? Sealskin.

Jones asked his wife, "Why is a husband like dough?" He expected she would give it up, and he was going to tell her because a woman needs him; but she said because he was hard to get off her hands."

When is a door not a door? When it is a jar. O, no; that answer belongs to the first decade of the last century. Nowadays a door is not a door when it is a negro--an'gress.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 15th, 1880.

Having been a sufferer for a long time from nervous prostration and general debility, I was advised to try Hop Bitters. I have taken one bottle, and I have rapidly getting better ever since, and I think it the best medicine I ever used. I am now gaining strength and appetite, which was all gone, and I was in despair until I tried your Bitters. I am now well, able to go about and do my own work. Before taking it, I was completely prostrated.

Food that is Poisoned by unclean teeth breeds dyspepsia. Such, at least, is the declared opinion of medical men. Remedy the evil with purifying, aromatic SOZODONT, which clears away corrosive particles which lodge in the teeth and produce an acid ferment, that in time destroys their enamel and ruins them. It prevents the unspeakable annoyance caused by defective teeth, if it is used while they can yet be saved from the destructive effects of tartar and other impurities.

Women are happier in their illusions than in their most agreeable experiences.

Nervousness, Nervous Debility, Neuralgia, Nervous Shock, St. Vitus Dance, Prostration, and all diseases of Nerve Generative Organs, are all permanently and radically cured by Allen's Brain Food, the great botanical remedy, $1 pkg., 6 for $5.—At druggists, or by mail from J. H. Allen, 315 First Ave., New York City, cod&w.

There are in woman's eyes two sorts of tears, the one of grief, the other of deceit.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Woman at the Wash-Tub.

The man who marries a woman just to make a drudge of her, or to use her as a mere household implement for doing domestic work, has a very low idea of matrimony. He deserves to have to mend his own clothes, to bake his own muffins, to be sick with nobody to nurse him, and, in a word, to be a miserable old bachelor.

The wear-and-tear on the woman who leads the life of a drudge is dreadful. On washing-day she is at the tubs with her hands in soap and suds. On ironing-day she is lifting heavy flat irons, and hurting her back and shoulders. Every day she is lifting a heavy baby, wearing herself all over. Then she is providing for the keeping alive of the man who has sworn to honor, love, and protect her, but who is wearing her out by making a slave of her. If in the country, she varies her exercises by milking the cow, and possibly carrying in wood from the wood-pile. If in the city, she undertakes the variety of lifting heavy scuttles of coal, and perhaps of going to the sewing-society to make trousers for the Pacific Islanders.

It does not kill the woman outright. It enfeebles her, and thins her blood, and upsets her liver, and makes her a martyr, continually suffering grievous torment. If she will take Brown's Iron Bitters before she is utterly prostrated, there is hope for her. The fact that many thousands of weakened women have been built up by this most excellent iron medicine is matter for encouragement to every weary, over-worked, broken-down woman. To the blood, the muscles, the nerves, the liver, and the stomach, this wonderful preparation gives the life and the refreshing that are needed. Ask your druggist, or physician, and they will tell you how the ladies are helped by it.

Mother's Spinning Wheel.

Concerning One Article that was Not For Sale, and Another which is Cheap at Any Price.

"No, sir, I wouldn't sell you that for any money; that spinning-wheel was my mother's. It was one day, when she was stung like a hawk and making this old wheel hum, that my father, then a young medical student, after wards a farmer, fell in love with her—some fifty years ago."

"I spoke the proprietor of a rough bit of farm land in Ulster County, N. Y., to a relic hunter, and 'mother's' spinning wheel remained among her children and grandchildren."

"My mother," writes Rev. J. W. Phelps, pastor of St. Paul's M. E. Church, Chicago, "used PARKER'S TONIC, and wishes me to say that she has found it more effective than anything she ever used for invigorating and strengthening the system debilitated by malaria. She desires me also especially to mention the certainty with which it aids digestion and overcomes exhaustion."

Ever since the first household was established "mother's" opinion has been more potent in this world than that of judge, jurist or physician. Her hand has always cooled the fever and her voice has been filled with hope. With each day's decline, PARKER'S TONIC is becoming more and more popular with the women who guard alike husband and child from the contagion of malaria. It eradicates malarial poison from the blood, from which there is now such widespread suffering.

Please observe: DR. PARKER'S TONIC is not an intoxicant. It is a combination of several ingredients, of which none singly can produce anything like its effect. For kidney, stomach and liver troubles, it is the standard and untailing remedy. In two sizes; 10 cents and $1. The latter the cheaper. HISSOX & Co., Chemists, New York. Jan 11-1884
