A Newspaper Swindler. Reference has been made by us to a swindler who has been going through the country in this section claiming to be an agent of the New York Herald, which has no agents. Some parties from this section have written to the Herald, which says, editorially: Several persons in the State of North Carolina write to us for information about a person signing himself N. P. I. Thomas, who is cheating the people in that part of the country by representing himself as an agent for the Herald. His method is to solicit subscriptions for the weekly Herald; to collect a dollar and give a receipt, and, of course, the people lose their money, as no such person is authorized to act for us. We have no travelling agents. If the swindled people would catch this fellow and duck him in the nearest pond they would do well.

The Curbstones.

The brokers and business men on North Water street have been driven from the sidewalks on account of the repairs going on and for several days were compelled to take the Middle of the street to avoid the deep sand. They now, however, try to walk on the edge of the curb stones which have been put down, and it is quite amusing to see them pick their way along with their arms swinging to assist them in maintaining an upright position.

The Wounded Engineer.

Mr. C. W. Collins, the wounded engineer, is now at the City Hospital, where he will receive every attention and care possible. He was suffering a good deal this morning, in consequence of not being under the influence of morphine, but his condition was considered as favorable as could reasonably be expected. His sister has arrived from Timmonsville, S. C., and will remain at his bedside as long as her services may be needed.

Stereopticon Views.

Mr. Charles M. Caughy, late editor and proprietor of the Baltimore Every Saturday, will visit this city before long with an art exhibition entitled, "Other Lands Than Ours." He will deliver a lecture descriptive of travels in Italy which will be illustrated by stereopticon views of important subjects and places. His advance agent, Mr. S. K. Davis, is in the city to-day making the necessary arrangements for his coming.

Completed.

The school building connected with St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church, on the corner of Sixth and Princess streets, has been completed, and the Sunday School of that church will hold its session there for the first time at the usual hour to-morrow. It is a fine building, well suited to the purpose for which it was built, and is an honor and credit to the Society. The next thing will be to get a good pipe organ for their beautiful church and then they will be as nicely fixed as could be desired.

"'Tis more brave to live than to die." Therefore don't wait until a slight cough develops itself into consumption, but secure a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup at the small outlay of 25 cents, cure your cough, and live on happily.

A Dash for Freedom.

John Fisher, the colored thief mentioned in the City Court report, made a big dash for liberty this morning after having been surrendered to the sheriff. While on the way from the Court House to the jail he started and ran like the wind with the officer and others in hot pursuit, but they did not succeed in capturing the fugitive until he was near the Carolina Central depot. He was brought back and is now safely lodged behind the bolts and bars of the jail.

The Baptist Conference.

Rev. Dr. Pritchard, Pastor of the First Baptist Church in this city, who has been absent this week in attendance on the conference at Henderson of the Baptist ministers, is expected to return to the city to-night and to fill his pulpit to-morrow. He was in Raleigh on Friday and from some notes furnished by him to the News and Observer we gather the following information. There were present at the conference forty ministers and about a hundred visitors. Rev. C. Durham, of Durham, presided. The programme was as follows: Monday night. Sermon by C. A. G. Thomas. Tuesday. Prayer meeting conducted by Wm. Royall, D.D. "The importance of a closer co-operation among pastors in missionary, educational and other work," by C. T. Bailey. Church discipline, by W. B. Gwaltney. Sermon on "Ministerial Faithfulness," by Rev. Mr. Duke. Church fairs and festivals, by C. A. Woodson and M. D. Jeffries. "The pastor, his work, in fluence and reward," W. B. Royall. "How to develop a church," by C. Durham. "The proper attitude of the churches towards popular amusements," by T. E. Skinner.

Wednesday. Prayer meeting, conducted by J. S. Hardaway. "The work of an Evangelist," by A. F. McManaway. Sermon on "Salvation through Christ," by R. T. Vann. "The work of a deacon," by J. H. Mills. "Regenerated church membership," by W. L. Wright. "Distinctive Baptist principles," by T. H. Pritchard. Thursday. "How to make the prayer meeting a success," by C. A. Jenkins. "Our convention; what it has done, how it may do more," by Thos. Carriock. "Ministers' Life Association," C. Durham and C. T. Bailey. "Woman's place in the Foreign Mission Enterprise," by O. F. Gregory.

Palmettos.

Two beautiful palmetto trees were set out in front of the Opera House to-day. They were dug up at Bald Head and transplanted here, and as they are splendid specimens of the palmetto, it is to be hoped that they may thrive in their new home.

Shipwreck.

The signal observer at Fort Macon reports that the schooner Sallie Young, of Philadelphia, is a complete wreck 10 miles South of Portsmouth, N. C. The vessel is broken up and has probably been abandoned. The Sallie Young was bound for one of our Southern ports and as she was long overdue, she had been given up for lost several weeks ago.

City Court.

John Fisher, colored, who says that he came from Newbern, was brought before the Mayor this morning charged with larceny. The evidence was positive and he was required to give a bond in the sum of $50 for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court, in default of which he was committed. It appeared from the evidence that Fisher, with another colored boy, named Judge, went into Mr. A. Shrier's shoe store this morning, where the latter bought a pair of shoes, the price of which was $1.60. He handed the salesman two dollars, and while change was being made was engaged in trying on his purchase. The clerk laid the 40 cents change down and Fisher took it up and walked out. The clerk thought nothing of this, as the two came in together, and it was only when Judge called for his change that they discovered that Fisher was not even an acquaintance. He was followed and caught at the Fourth street bridge, and he at once offered to give up the money, but his captors concluded that he ought to visit the City Court room and took him there with the above-stated result.

Now is the time to give Smith's Worm Oil. ly d w
