Joint Meeting.

A joint meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, Produce Exchange and Board of Trade was held at the rooms of the Produce Exchange at noon today and was organized by calling Hon. A. H. Vau Bokkelen to the chair and Mebane to act as secretaries.

Colonel F. W. Kerchner offered the following preambles and resolutions, which were adopted unanimously:

Wifereas, This meeting is fully im pressed with the importance of the Revenue Marine, and the efficient and yaluable service it has rendered to the government, and to the ocean, lake and river commerce of country, as well as saving the lives and property of hundreds of those engaged therein. and

WHEREAS, There is no provision of law whereby those who may become disabled by age, injuries or other cause, ranged as to keep up an unflagging in the service, may be retired, as is the interest throughout, all the principal case in the naval and military service of the government, which, in the opinion of this meeting, should be remedied,

Resolved. As the sense of this meeting. that the bill [H. R. 4,483] now before Congress, entitled, "A bill to promote the efficiency of the Revenue it from monotony. Miss Viola Rose-Marine Service," is one which com- borough, as Bess Marks, captured the mends itself to us as a wise and just measure, and one which we would be glad to see the Senators and Representatives from this State support.

resolution be forwarded to the Senators and Representatives in Congress from North Carolina.

Mr J. H. Currie offered the following resolutions which were adopted unanimously:

Resolved, By the Chamber of Commerce, Produce Exchange and Board of ly performed his difficult part to the en-Trade of the city of Wilmington, as tire satisfaction of every one. Mr. J. C. sembled in joint convention, that, in their opinion, the exigencies of the public service demand the erection in this city of such a building, for the use of the several departments of the administration, as shall be commensurate with the dignity of the Federal government and in keeping with the large and growing commerce and population of our city.

Resolved, That a copy of these resoutions be sent to each Senator and Representative in Congress from this is first class, the play one of deep and State, with the request that they indi vidually and collectively give all the aid in their power to securing such appropriations and legislation as may be necessary to effect the object desired.

F. W. Kerchner and James Sprunt are hereby appointed a committee to take this matter in charge and push it to a successful conclusion by such measures as to them may seem best.

Hon. A. H. VanBokkelen was authorzed to appoint a committee of his own selection to visit Washington, D. C. at such time as he may judge best to urge and aid in the prosecution of the improvements on the River and Harbor, the Upper Cape Fear being included. Col. F. W. Kerchner was appointed a committee to raise the necessary funds to pay the expenses of the above com-

Mr. Wm. Calder introduced the following resolution, which was carried unanimously:

Resolved. By the Chamber of Commerce and Produce Exchange of the continued obligatory coinage of silver by the General Government is a standing and daily increasing menace to the best commercial and industrial interests, of our country, and should be suspended as soon as possible.

Resolved That a copy of these reso lutions be sent to each of the Senators and Representatives in Congress from this State.

Mr. J. H. Currie introduced the following resolution, which was carried unanimously:

Resolved That it is the sense of this meeting that it is extremely desirable that this city should be made the eastern terminus of the Cape Fear & Yadcompltion of this road in this direction, and we will use every possible effort to bring it here. Adjourned.

The "Dawson Railroad."

We are happy to inform the News Railroad in this State, and that it has been in existence and operation about 15 years. It starts from "Dawson's Landing," on the Cape Fear river, in Bladen county, and extends into the country several miles, on what is known as the "Isaac Wright" tract of timber. Mr. A. Y. Wilson, of this city is now the owner of this railroad, and it is operated by him. In consequence of these facts it will not be necessary for our News and Observer friend to take the trip to the moon in quest of the "Dawson Railroad," as we suggested a few days since.

If you need a real good first class cooking stove, don't fail to see the Ex celsior Penn., Zeb. Vance and New Emerald, besides others. They are to be found at factory prices at JACOBI'S, who is the manufacturers' agent. †

Remarkable Longevity.

There are six members of the First Baptist Church in this city whose united ages amount to 504 years, or an average of 84 years. Their ages are 75, 80, 83, 84, 89 and 90 years respectively. There are quite a number of Col. J L. Cantwell and Mr. C. P. other very aged people in the church, but the above are all of whose ages we have authentic information.

Lights o' London.

The audience at the Opera House last night to witness the above named drama was not large, but those who were present had the pleasure of wit nessing one of the finest entertainments ever put upon our stage. The play was full of forceful dramatic incident, the plot was so well conceived and archaracters were excellently welt imper sonated and the scenery was superb. It | MADISON was a production in which deep pathos SQUARE was the leading characteristic, with just THEATRE enough of the mirthful to relieve hearts of the audience at once by the naturalness of her acting, and as she was followed through her long years Resolved. That a copy of the foregoing of suffering, her wounds, wifely devotion to her outraged husband until her hour of triumph came in his complete windication, she had the sympathy of every one present. Mr. William Lee, Harold Armytage, the son, was an able support Sky. With Her Alone, Padgette, as Seth Prune, was excellent in all that related to his part, and his North country dialect was faultless. Mr. Samuel Hemple, as Joseph Jarvis, and Mrs. W. A. Sands, Mrs. Jarvis, were simply superb. There were other excellent characters, but our space will not permit us to specify all of them. It is enough to state that the company thrilling interest, the scenery beautiful beyond power of description, and the whole deserving of an audience that should pack the house to its utmost Resolved. That Messrs D. G. Worth, capacity and such as we trust will greet them to night.

> As the doctor turned sadly away from the patient whom he found using Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, he said: "It beats me every time."
