Day's length 12 hours and 32 minutes.
To-morrow is known as the Fifth Sunday in Lent.
Sunset to-morrow afternoon at 90 minutes past 6 o'clock.

The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 193 bales.

There were no interments in Bellevue Cemetery this week.

Congress has voted an appropriation of $100,000 for public buildings in Wilmington.

There were two interments in Oakdale Cemetery this week, one adult and one child.

There has been a stiff breeze blowing today and the dust has been almost intolerable.

There were five interments in Pine Forest Cemetery this week: one adult and four children.

The Register of Deeds issued only one marriage license this week, and that was for a colored couple.

Mr. L. J. Priest, of Durham, N. H., was afflicted with rheumatism for nearly twenty years. He tried St. Jacobs Oil, the great conqueror of pain, and was completely cured.

Our merchants are returning from the North and new Spring and Summer goods are arriving by every train and steamer.

Mr. Gus Moulton, advance agent of Thacher, Primrose and West's minstrels, is in the city and registered at the Purcell House.

Ger. barque Vereen, Jachnke, cleared today for Hamburg with 4,991 barrels of rosin, valued at $6,075, shipped by Messrs. Paterson, Downing & Co.

George Hall, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was brought before the Mayor this morning and was fined $5 for the offense, with the alternative of going below for 20 days. He paid.

The largest and best stock of Windows, Doors, Blinds &c., and at Factory prices is at N. Jacobi's Hardware Depot.

The Concord Times says: Rev. Mr. Payne filled the Presbyterian church pulpit last Sabbath morning and evening. His efforts were delivered with Christian sincerity to a large and appreciative audience.

Interesting to Fishermen: The celebrated "Fish" Brand Gilling thread is sold only at JACOBI'S. He is the Importer's Agent.

Farmers from the country are of the opinion that the fruit prospect, thus far, has not been injured. Peach trees have bloomed freely, pear trees are blooming finely and the appearances indicate that apple trees will do the same.

One white tramp applied for lodging at police headquarters last night. He was accommodated and was notified this morning to obtain employment or leave the city at once. Employment was not in his line, and he left, taking the regular schedule crosstie train for the North.

Musical.
Messrs. Scoville & Co., the well known and popular hotel keepers of the South, have leased the Seaside Park Hotel and will throw its doors open to the public at an early date. These gentlemen have been negotiating for hotel property in this vicinity for several weeks and finally pitched upon the Seaside, at Wrightsville, and consummated a bargain with the proprietors for its occupancy. There will be several important additions and alterations made to the hotel, in order to accommodate the large number of expected Summer guests, and every appliance used for their comfort and convenience. In addition to the hotel proper there will be more cottages erected contiguous to it, for the accommodation of families who would prefer to live secluded rather than in the bustle of a large and crowded public house.

"Rough on Coughs."
Ask for "Rough on Coughs," for Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Hoarseness, Tracheitis, etc. Liquid, 50c. cod

Now is the time to give Smith's Worm Oil.

A Little Stranger.
The steam propeller yacht Haulover, Capt. Fisher, from New York for Fernandina, Fla., put into the river yesterday and came up to the city this morning. She is now lying at Messrs. Fowler & Morrison's wharf taking in a supply of coal, the need of which was the cause of her stopping here. She is of 13 tons burthen and is a neat and tidy little craft.

Religious Revival.
There is a revival of religion in progress in the First Baptist Church (colored) in this city, corner Fifth and Campbell streets, conducted by the Pastor, Rev. A. M. Conway, assisted by Rev. L. W. Moyer, from Newbern. There have already been several professions of religion and the meetings will be continued during the week.

Personal.
Capt. R. M. McIntire returned to the city on Thursday night after a week's absence in the Northern markets, and Mr. John Taylor returned last night, having been absent about three weeks, during which time he went as far West as Chicago.

Mr. B. F. Penny returned on Wednesday night from New York, where he had been for the purchase of new goods.

Sheriff Taylor, of Brunswick county, did us the pleasure of a call late yesterday evening. He was en route for Raleigh with four prisoners for the penitentiary, and left with them this morning.

The Late H. F. Northrop.
The Laurinburg Exchange, in speaking of the recent death in that town of Mr. H. F. Northrop, formerly of this city, says:

Mr. H. F. Northrop, one of our leading business men and one of our town commissioners, died about 8 o'clock last Wednesday night.

His life was insured for $5,000, $2,000 in the U. B. M. A. S., of Pa., $3,000 in the Knights and Ladies of Honor.

After fit and touching remarks on the words of verses 27 and 28, chapter 9, Hebrews, by Rev. J. H. Coble, he was buried by the Knights and Ladies of Honor and the Knights of Pythias in the Cemetery, at 10 o'clock yesterday. He was very popular, and leaves many friends to mourn his death.

Brunswick Court.
This tribunal completed the labors of the term on Thursday night. The principal cases on the State docket disposed of were as follows:

Ed. Green, Ned Benders and Jim Green, all colored and all convicted of larceny, were sentenced to five years each in the penitentiary. These were a portion of what is known as the infamous Snowfield crowd, whose depredations have been carried on for several years with utter fearlessness of the law.

Gabriel Hill, colored, convicted of larceny, was sentenced to a term of four years at hard labor in the penitentiary.

Incendiary Attempt.
Between 10 o'clock and 11 o'clock last night fire was discovered on the back piazza of the residence of Mr. J. Weil, on North Second, between Chestnut and Mulberry streets. The family was absent at the time, and the fire was discovered by a colored woman living near by who promptly gave the alarm. A few neighbors were at once at the scene, when it was discovered that some scoundrel had attempted to burn the house by saturating a bundle of lightwood with kerosene and then igniting it. This was promptly removed and extinguished and the danger was over. No general alarm was given and no danger was done. Mr. Weil is a very quiet citizen and he is at a loss to know who can have such a spite towards him as to wish to destroy his property.

Seaside Park Hotel.
Messrs. Scoville & Co., the well known and popular hotel keepers of the South, have leased the Seaside Park Hotel and will throw its doors open to the public at an early date. These gentlemen have been negotiating for hotel property in this vicinity for several weeks and finally pitched upon the Seaside, at Wrightsville, and consummated a bargain with the proprietors for its occupancy. There will be several important additions and alterations made to the hotel, in order to accommodate the large number of expected Summer guests, and every appliance used for their comfort and convenience. In addition to the hotel proper there will be more cottages erected contiguous to it, for the accommodation of families who would prefer to live secluded rather than in the bustle of a large and crowded public house.

A Suggestion.
Would it not be a good plan to change the hours of calling off the night police and putting on the day force from 4 o'clock in the morning, as is now the rule, to sometime nearer daylight? Nearly all of the robberies which have been committed recently have been between three o'clock and five o'clock, in the morning, the thieves taking advantage of the confusion and necessary absence of the police, during those hours, to do their deeds of mischief, in which they are also favored by the darkness.

It is certain that the longer a speech, the weaker it is, but not so with a cold, the longer it runs the weaker it becomes. A cold, be it ever so slight, is no trifle, it should be checked in its early stages. Dr. Bull's Cough is the "Balm of Gilead" that millions say is divine in its origin.

Burglars Again.
About half past three o'clock this morning Mr. George W. Huggins, who lives on Seventh, between Chestnut and Mulberry streets, was awoke by hearing the door to his sleeping apartment open and seeing a light. He supposed that it was his son, who slept in an adjoining room, and asked what was the matter, when all became still. He at once concluded that a burglar was in the house, and jumped out of bed and ran down stairs just in season to see the thief run out of the back door. A search showed that the clothing of Mr. Huggins' son had been taken into the passage and searched, but the thief found nothing, and his next move was to the door of Mr. Huggins' room, where he was discovered. An entrance was made from a rear window, and the thief, after gaining an entrance, unlocked the rear door by which to make a speedy exit should occasion require. The thief got nothing, but it was unfortunate that he didn't get caught.

The Art Amateur
For April gives attractive designs of passion flowers for screen embroidery and blackberries for panel painting, some interesting pages of Oriental diaper ornaments, a curious old German alphabet, and some striking designs for furniture panels after Goujon. Notable features are the numerous and excellent illustrations of objects in the famous Castellani collection now being sold at Rome, the clever sketches of pictures in the exhibitions of the French Water Color Society and the Boston Paint and Clay Club, and the interesting notice and examples of the work of J. A. Habert-Dys, one of the principal designers for L'Art. The practical departments are well filled; Montezuma's Note Book and the Dramatic Feuilleton are as sparkling as ever, and in all respects the number is fully up to the high standard of this admirable magazine. Price 25 cents; $4 a year. Montague Marks, Publisher, 23 Union Square N. Y.

Silver Plated Spoons, Forks and Knives of best quality, and at manufacturer's prices, can be found at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

Young Men's Hebrew Association.
This association held one of its regular entertainments at Germania Hall last night, but in point of excellence and variety it exceeded any of its predecessors. The programme for the occasion was well selected and carried out in a manner which reflected the highest credit upon all the participants. It consisted of the following: Overture—Undine—Prof. Smithdeal's Orchestra; Recitation—The Tramp, Mr. L. J. Otterbourg; Vocal Solo, Mrs. Kahnweiler, accompanied by Mrs. M. P. Taylor; Address, Rev. S. Mendelsohn; Lawn Tennis Quadrille, Smithdeal's Orchestra; Reading, (selected), Mr. J. I. Macks; Sketch, Mr. D. J. Aaron; Valse, Smithdeal's Orchestra. All of these were rendered superbly and to the exquisite delight of the large audience present. After the regular programme had been fully carried out the party indulged in the pleasures of a hop, which was continued until about midnight. The entire entertainment was under the management of Mr. Joe H. Hart, who deserves much credit for his skill and energy in making the affair a brilliant success.

If you need a real good first class cooking stove, don't fail to see the Excelsior Penn., Zeb. Vance and New Emerald, besides others. They are to be found at factory prices at JACOBI'S, who is the manufacturers' agent.

Something to your Interest!
Mott's Fire and Water-Proof Roofing Paint!
C. L. WRIGHT, AGT. FOR NORTH CAROLINA.
ELEVEN GOOD REASONS FOR USING OUR PAINT.
1. It is guaranteed Fire Proof.
2. It is guaranteed Water Proof.
3. It is a preservative of wood or metals.
4. It costs less than ordinary paint.
5. It contains no oil or resin.
6. It is an ornament to any building.
7. It will stop an ordinary roof from leaking.
8. It will not wash off or stain water.
9. It will not crack or scale off.
10. It is durable, and will last longer than any other paint.
Why do we paint the sides of our buildings and leave the most exposed part, the roof, unpainted?
If a tin or shingle roof is leaky, do not go to the expense of newly covering, but use MOTT'S FIRE AND WATER PROOF PAINT.
PETERSBURG TESTIMONIALS.
We, the undersigned, having had shingle and tin roofs painted with Mott's Patent Water and Fire Proof Paint, find no hesitation in saying that so far it has given entire satisfaction, stopping leaks where nothing else did any good.
C. H. WARWICK, (shingle).
Mrs. V. J. TAYLOR, (tin).
Mr. L. D. Mott, Jr., Esq.,
Dear Sir.—This is to certify that I have used your Water and Fire Proof Paint on several leaky roofs, and since they were painted with your Paint they have not leaked at all. I cheerfully recommend the "Mott's Patent" as the best roof paint I ever saw.
DANIEL RAHILY.
L. D. Mott, Jr., Esq.,
Dear Sir.—Your Water Proof Paint, used on my kitchen and stable roofs, gives entire satisfaction. Both of these roofs leaked badly, and since you applied your paint I find no leaks, and we have had, since the work was done, some heavy rains. I take it I am but doing you justice, as well as your Paint, to say that I consider a first-class Roofing Paint. This Paint was, by my direction as Chairman of the Public Property Committee of this City, applied to a part of one of the Market Houses, and it gave entire satisfaction.
Mr. L. D. Mott, Jr.—It is with pleasure that I add to the testimony of the excellence of your Fire and Water Proof Paint. The tin roof of my private residence, which had been since you applied your Roofing Paint, it has not leaked at all, notwithstanding some heavy rains have fallen. I cheerfully recommend your Paint to all who have leaky roofs.
J. M. B. BEECHER, Merchant.
(From Petersburg INDEX-APPEAL, Jan. 24th, 1884.)
THIRD AND NOE FOUND WANTING.—The test of the fire-proof qualities of Mr. Mott's roofing paint was made on Courthouse avenue last evening, in the presence of a large number of spectators, and the result satisfactorily established all that was claimed for the paint. A small house made of dry pine covered with a thin coat of paint, was placed under a pile of shavings upon which six gallons of kerosene oil was poured and ignited. The flames leaped high into the air and burned furiously for forty minutes. Finally the house was raised from the debris and drenched with kerosene oil which burned off clean, leaving the wood unscorched, as any one may see who has the curiosity to call at the Walthall hotel, where it is on exhibition to-day. The object of the test, which on account of the caution of the authorities was not so severe as usual, was not to prove the impossibility of destroying the box by fire; but to show that the paint is an effective protection against the ordinary accidents which cause fire. This was made so plain to our mind that it has been determined to treat the roof of the INDEX-APPEAL building to a coat of it as soon as the house is remodeled. Another, and in our opinion, more valuable quality of the paint is its imperviousness to water, making it a sure remedy for leaks in old shingled and tin roofs. As a test of this, two paper boxes were painted on the inside and kerosene oil poured into one and water into the other without the slightest effect upon the paper. The boxes with their contents can also be seen at the Walthall hotel to-day. Persons who may have leaky roofs, or who may wish to guard against fire should give Mr. Mott a call and learn from him about the matter. We have no hesitation in saying that he has a good article which is worthy of the attention of property owners.
Orders respectfully solicited. Mr. C. L. Wright, the General Agent for the State, is at the Purcell House, and will be pleased to receive orders and give all information required. A public test, same as that referred to in the extract above, as had in Petersburg, will be made in this city. Notice of time and place to be given hereafter.
