The Daily Review has the largest bona fide circulation, of any newspaper published, in the city of Wilmington.

Senator Mahone's ill-health may prevent his family's intended tour abroad.

Mr. Shakespeare, a member of Parliament, is the leading agitator against the Chinese in British Columbia.

William Black, the novelist, sometimes smokes as many as forty pipes a day while writing. His copy is so bad, however, that his daughter's time is occupied in translating it for the printers.

Dom Pedro, the Emperor of Brazil, has reigned, it is said, longer than any other living monarch. He succeeded to the throne in 1831 when he was but six years old, but he was not crowned until 1841.

Pope Pius IX has no intention of removing to Monaco, or any other place, writes a Rome correspondent, either now or in the future. He does not expect to live to see the day when he will have to leave Rome.

An old willow tree in Bristol, Conn., for many years an old landmark, has been cut down. In 1827 the late Lord S. Hills stuck in the ground his willow riding-stick, which grew to the massive tree that has just been laid low.

Mrs. Langtry writes to a friend in London, speaking of her success this season without the help of any manager, which has given her courage. She returns to England in July to play sixteen weeks in the provinces.

Washington is to have three new theatres. A casino, after the Newport pattern, to be built by a stock company; an armory with theatre attached, by the Washington Light Infantry; the third is the project of some Chicago capitalists.

At a meeting of the Johns Hopkins Literary Society in Baltimore, last Friday night, poems in fifteen different languages, including Chinese, Japanese, modern Greek, Danish and Norwegian were recited and translations were given.

Representative Luke P. Poland, of Vermont, is mainly distinguished as the only man in the House who persistently appears in the old-time blue swallow-tail with brass buttons. The costume makes him suspicious to country visitors who crowd in to look at Luke.

Particular friends of President Arthur claim that he will receive 435 votes on the first ballot at Chicago, thus securing his nomination. Their estimate gives Blaine only 188 votes, which includes 10 from New York and 48 from Pennsylvania, while Logan is allowed 40, and the field 127.

The man who has a good cattle ranch is on the high road to fortune. There is no doubt that the population of the country is increasing much faster than the meat supply. While for almost everything else the prices undergo great fluctuations, the prices for beef are uniformly strong in every domestic and foreign market.

At Cour D'Alene, says a traveller who recently arrived at Denver, everything is very dear. It costs twenty-five cents to get a paper by mail, and fifty cents for a letter. Nothing is considered less than a quarter. Shaving is a quarter, hair cutting fifty cents, any kind of a meal costs $1, and eggs fifty cents extra. You can't get a place to sleep for less than $1, even though you bunk on the floor.

Congressman Reagan, of Texas, the ex-Postmaster General of the Confederacy, is never at his best unless he has a short string, with the ends tied together, with which he may employ his hands, pulling and twisting, and working it after the "cat's cradle" fashion. If he does not have the string his next choice is some loose pieces of paper, which he tears into bits, scattering them about him until the floor in his vicinity looks as though a sort of blizzard had struck it.

Queen Pomare, of Tahiti, is on her way across the Continent, on her return home. Her real name is Marau, and she is the daughter of an English colonist and the Queen of Papara. She married the King of Tahiti and afterwards separated from him. France now governs Tahiti, while the ex-King has a pension of 60,000 francs a year, and the ex-Queen 6,000 francs. The object of the long voyage of the latter was to get her pension increased. Whether she was successful or not is a matter yet to be learned.

There were no tramps in the guard house last night.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 9 bales.

Bishop Watson is expected to preach in St. John's Church, Fayetteville, next Sunday morning and night and at St. Joseph's (colored) in the afternoon.—He will confirm at St. John's at night.

The measles are prevailing quite extensively in the towns along the line of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad. At magnolia there are several cases reported, some of which are quite severe.

The Champion's Friend.
England's champion bicyclist, Mr. John Rolfe, says, that in the championship contest, riding eight hours each day for six days, and one hundred miles against time just after, he is positive that St. Jacobs Oil by its wonderful effects in training and racing, enabled him to win both races. He calls it a boon companion and recommends it to all athletes, and would not be without it. Fifty cents.

To Convention.
The following delegates to the Diocesan Convention have been elected by the Vestry of St. James' Church:
Delegates—Dr. A. J. DeRosset, Col. W. L. DeRosset, Col. Jno. W. Atkinson, Wm. Calder. Alternates—Col. James G. Burr, Clayton Giles, R. E. Calder, Capt. Jno. L. Boatwright.

Musical.
Quite a number of our citizens were favored with a very pleasant musical entertainment at Heinsberger's Live Book and Music Stores this morning. Messrs Smithdeal, on the violin, and Greenwald, on the piano, were enjoying a practice and their fine music attracted quite a crowd. We heard them play the Golden Fleece Overture, by Rippey, which is a brilliant composition and was finely executed.

Interesting to Fishermen. The celebrated "Fish" Brand Gillnet thread is sold only at JACOBI'S. He is the Importer's Agent.

The Ball.
The ball of the Howard Relief Fire Engine Co., No. 1, at Germania Hall last night was well attended, the dancing was kept up to a late hour, the best of order prevailed, the music was good, and there was a first-rate time generally. This was just as might have been expected, for when the Howard Reliefs set themselves to work for a good time, a success is a foregone conclusion.

Personal.
We are sorry to hear that Col. R. R. Bridgers, of this city, is quite sick in Baltimore. Mrs. Bridgers has gone on to be with him, but we are glad to learn that his illness is not considered of a serious nature.

Dr. E. Porter, of Rocky Point, was in the city yesterday and favored us with a call.

Mr. A. G. McGirt, of the Upshur Guano Co., of Norfolk, who has been for months past travelling the State in the interest of his house, is here with his family, and hopes to remain for a week or ten days.

Mr. Geo. S. LeGrand and his bride, Miss Johnnie Quince, that was, returned on Tuesday night from their tour to the North.

Another Merry Peal.
Mr. Thomas B. Harriss and Miss Eliza L. Anderson, youngest daughter of Dr. E. A. Anderson, of this city, were united in marriage last night at the residence of the bride's father, the Rev. Dr. Carmichael, of St. John's Church, officiating. The house was thronged with the friends and acquaintances of the family and the invitations to the reception were extended to all who desired to attend with open-hearted hospitality. The high esteem in which Mr. Harriss and his accomplished and winsome bride are held was evidenced by the display of bridal presents which were both numerous and costly. The happy couple left last night for an extended bridal tour to the North during which they will visit Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia and other places of note. They are expected to be absent about two weeks.

Now is the time to give Smith's Worm Oil.

Exports Foreign.

Nor. barque Albatross, Olsen, cleared to-day for London with 5,059 barrels rosin, valued at $6 325.75, shipped by Messrs. D. R. Murchison & Co. Br. barquentine Brazil, Davison, cleared for St. Jago-di-Cuba with 8,578 railroad ties and 47,509 feet lumber, valued at $3,890.40, shipped by Mr. A. R. Campbell, making a total of exports foreign amounting to $10,216.15.

City Court.

Two young men indulged in an affray last night, for which they were brought before the Mayor this morning who imposed a fine of $3 upon one and $2 upon the other.

Two other parties got into a little fracas last night, but as there was no serious disturbance, they were discharged.

Ned Gause, a colored drayman, charged with disorderly conduct yesterday forenoon by trying to drive into the firemen's procession and then abusing the firemen, was sentenced to pay a fine of $10 or be confined in the City Prison 10 days.

The Yachtsmen.

Mr. F. M. King, purser of the Carolina Yacht Club of this city, has received a letter from the Secretary of the Carolina Yacht Club, of Charleston S. C., inviting the former club to join the latter in their annual cruise. The Savannah Yacht Club has also been invited to join in the cruise, and have accepted. The cruise will be to Beaufort, S. C. and the Charleston Club will leave that city June 7th, while the Savannah club will start June 9th. If the club from this city should accept the invitation, the yachts would have to leave here by June 4th, or 5th, at the latest, in order to accompany the Charleston fleet. The matter will be laid before the club, for its consideration, in a day or two, when it will probably be determined what action shall be taken in the matter. The cruise will take place at a pleasant time of the year and if our yachtsmen should conclude to accept the invitation they would undoubtedly have an enjoyable trip.

Mrs. Green's Remains.

A correspondent at Fayetteville writes us that the remains of Mrs. Adeline E. Green, relict of the late General T. J. Green, of Mexican fame, and the stepmother, as well as mother-in-law, of Hon. Wharton J. Green, arrived in that town last Saturday night from Springfield, Ill., where she died at the residence of Senator David Davis.

Col. Green and daughter and Mrs. Davis accompanied the remains, and the funeral took place last Sunday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, from St. John's Church. The impressive services were read by the Rector of that church, Rev. Dr. Huske, assisted by Rev. Dr. Marshall, of Christ Church, Raleigh, who accompanied the remains from Raleigh as it was doubtful if Dr. Huske would return from this city, where he had been in attendance on the consecration of Bishop Watson, in time to conduct the services.

The church was crowded to its utmost capacity, showing the high esteem in which the venerable lady was held in Fayetteville. Mrs. Green was 82 years of age and was greatly beloved by all who knew her, for her pure Christian character.

Supreme Court.

In this Court, on Tuesday, the consideration of appeals at the end of the docket was resumed and causes were disposed of as follows:

J. A. Campbell, and wife vs. E. L. McCormac, from Robeson; argued by French & Norment (by brief) for the plaintiff and J. D. Shaw for the defendant.

J. C. McLean, administrator, vs. A. A. McLean, administrator, from Robeson; argued by John D. Shaw for the plaintiff; no counsel for defendant.

Mary A. Alford vs. E. L. McCormac, from Robeson; argued by John D. Shaw for the defendant; no counsel for the plaintiff.

Harnett Republicans.

The Republicans of Harnett township held a meeting at Macomber's store (the regular voting place) yesterday. The attendance was large and the crowd was about equally divided between Manning and Hewlett on the Shrievally question; but after a good deal of loud talking and confusion the latter element prevailed and secured the election of a Hewlett man as chairman of the meeting, and after this had been accomplished the latter party had plain sailing and elected an entire Hewlett delegation from that township.—Subsequently the Manning faction held a meeting and it is reported that they also elected a set of delegates.

Ancient Remains.

Mr. F. V. B. Yopp, who has been engaged for some days past in laying some pipes on Fourth street, discovered yesterday near the corner of Chestnut a human skeleton and to-day he unearthed four others, directly in front of the residence of the late A. L. Price. These remains will receive proper interment elsewhere. The old folks tell us that many years ago a graveyard, perhaps the first in Wilmington, was in existence in the locality in which the bones were found to-day.
