THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VIII. WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY, APRIL 25, 1884. NO. 99

The Daily Review has the largest bona fide circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

Chicago people have organized a coaching club.

The Prince of Pless, Germany, is on a tour through this country.

Seashore cottages are in less demand in New York than for many seasons.

Over 5,000 alligator hides were shipped from one port in Florida last week.

The Republican Conventions being held are declaring against the coinage of silver.

A Church of England divine has just published an autobiography of Judas Iscariot, intended as an apology for the famous traitor.

Frank Hurd says that, as among qualified Democrats, he cares not who is nominated for President, so the platform faces towards free trade.

A delegation of Irish prelates will visit Rome in May, and confer with the Pope in the same manner that the American Bishops did recently.

Mrs. Catherine Baker of Taylorsville, Va., who has just entered her one hundredth year, attributes her longevity to her life-long persistence in the use of strong coffee.

The New York Herald classifies the delegates already chosen to the Republican National Convention as follows: Arthur, 217; Blaine, 94; Logan, 46; Edmunds, 15; Sherman, 2; Fairchild, 1; unknown, 12.

It is said that a general exodus of Gentiles from Utah is contemplated unless Congress takes some immediate steps for their relief. The courts are in the hands of the Mormons, and even the Legislature and all the machinery of government is under their control.

Signor Salvini said to an interviewer in London one day last week: "Irving is extremely clever in a certain sense. I admire him in the first act of 'Hamlet,' but he does not sustain the part. I do not consider him great—that is 'avee sea jambes.' No man could play 'Othello' with such legs."

A company has been formed for establishing a school for boys at Rugby, Tenn., in connection with the University of the South, at Sewanee, for the Southern and Central States of the Union. It is intended to give the boys such an education as is offered by the English public schools.

The Charlotte Observer feels authorized to say that Gen. Alfred M. Seales, of Greensboro, will accept the nomination for Governor, if tendered him by the Democratic Convention which assembles in Raleigh on the 25th of June. And we feel authorized to say that there are two or three thousand others who would accept the nomination if they could get it.

The success of the town of Pullman, near Chicago, has led to the building of another similar industrial suburb. It will be known as Hegewisch, being named after the president of the United States Rolling Stock Company, the chief manufacturing corporation interested in the new enterprise. The works now in course of construction are expected to give employment for a town of 10,000 inhabitants.

The Queen will remain at Darmstadt until after she has had a conference with Emperor William regarding the settlement for Princess Alice's family. She is desirous of raising a fund of £150,000 to £200,000, it is reported, to relieve the debts of the Grand Duke Louis, and to establish a permanent fund for the benefit of the family, and she wishes the Emperor to join her in contributing this amount. It is stated, however, that the Emperor is indisposed to open his pockets to this extent.

We notice that the name of Col. John N. Staples has been presented by his friends as a candidate for Congress in the Fifth district and we feel impelled to say that the Democracy of the district could not honor themselves more highly than by nominating this gallant gentleman and true loyal son of North Carolina for the position. Col. Staples made a hard fight for his party in the last election and among other places he visited Wilmington where he secured many warm endorsements. We do not wish to interfere with or dictate to our friends in the Fifth, but yet we have a very warm place in our heart for John N. Staples and cannot but feel that in honoring him the party will honor itself.

The results of recent State Conventions are this briefly summarized by the New York Herald:

In our news columns our readers will find reports of what was done yesterday at republican conventions in Ohio, Connecticut and Virginia, and an account of the gathering in Iowa of the democrats of that State, who will hold a convention to-day. The Ohio delegates as counted in the despatch took up for Blaine, with Senator Sherman in the minority; but this kind of counting may be of little value when the Convention meets, and even before that period the results at Utica yesterday will be heard throughout the republican camp. Connecticut wisely declared for "the nominee of the Convention," and mentioned that if this should happen to be Hawley she would be entirely satisfied. Arthur, the Connecticut republican says, "has strengthened his party, honored himself, benefited the country and earned the respect and gratitude of the whole people." Virginia sent an Arthur delegation. In Iowa the democrats are said to be unanimous for Tilden.

MADIS N. WISCONSIN.—The Democrat of this place says: A young man getting mad over his raging tooth, last night, rushed off for a drug-store, applied St. Jacobs Oil, and in ten minutes the tooth-ache was gone.

Overcoats, blankets and fires are popular yet.

New moon this morning at 43 minutes past 9 o'clock.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day total up 9 bales.

Clarendon Council, No. 67, A. L. of Honor, will meet to-night, at 7 1/2 o'clock.

The series of meetings which have been held for the last three weeks at the First Baptist Church will probably terminate to-night.

The sun has at last succeeded in dispelling the clouds by which it had been obscured during the week, and it was a welcome sight. The air, however, was quite chilly this morning.

Mr. Junius Davis has been unanimously elected by the Ladies' Memorial Association as Chief Marshal for the memorial services on the 10th of May, and has accepted the appointment.

A series of meetings will be commenced next Monday night at the Front Street Methodist Church, to be conducted by Rev. Dr. Yates, the pastor. The meetings will be continued during the week.

The stockholders of Bellevue Cemetery Company meet this evening, at 8 o'clock, in the office of Mr. J. D. Bellamy, Jr., on Princess street, instead of Rankin Hall, as previously advertised.

The weather this morning indicated a day favorable to the baby show, but it soon became cloudy and too cold and raw for a large turnout of the little creatures. They will be out in force on the first pleasant day.

The Concert Concert Club now has two rehearsals a week, has had a number of additions to its membership, and is making favorable progress in proficiency under the skillful direction of Prof. Munson.

Sheriff Taylor, of Brunswick county, was in the city to-day and reports that the farmers of his section have been put to great inconvenience and delay in consequence of the late cold and unfavorable weather.

The Southern Baptist Convention will hold its annual session in Baltimore, Md., beginning Wednesday, May 7th. Round trip tickets will be put on sale about the 1st of May, good for twenty days from date of sale.

There are some indications of an improvement in the weather and it will, we think, be warm enough in a few days to satisfy the most fastidious in this respect, and when it does turn warm it will be warm all over. See if it isn't.

We saw to-day on exhibition at Heinsberger's Live Book and Music Stores a beautiful wall pocket which was made of mica from the mica mines of Mitchell county, in this State. It was a splendid piece of work, and glistened like silver.

The largest and best stock of Windows, Doors, Blinds &c., and at Factory prices is at N. Jacobs' Hardware Depot.

Commencement Exercises.

Rev. Dr. Pritchard, of this city, will deliver the address before the Literary Societies of Warsaw High School, at the annual commencement on the 15th of May next, at 11 o'clock a. m. The school, we are glad to learn, is in a flourishing condition, and under its present management is doing noble service for the cause of education.

Personal.

Mr. R. K. Bryan, Jr., of the Fayetteville Sun, is in the city to-day. He has been to his old home at Scott's Hill and having sold out everything he owned there is on the way to Fayetteville with his family. They left here by steamer this afternoon.

We regret to learn that Mr. A. A. Hartsfield continues very sick at his residence in this city.

An Aged Couple.

Mr. and Mrs. John Durham Carroll, of Duplin county, celebrated the 52nd anniversary of their wedding day on the 19th inst., having been united in marriage on the 19th day of April, 1832. Mr. Carroll has been a member of the Baptist Church 49 years and his wife became a member of the same church two years later, giving her a membership of 47 years. He has been a regular paying subscriber to the Biblical Recorder 48 years. They have raised a family of eight children, seven of whom are now living and married. Mr. Carroll is now afflicted with heart disease and is liable to be taken away at any moment, but he is prepared and quietly, patiently and resignedly waiting for the summons to cross over the river, where by the course of nature his loyal wife must soon join him.

We invite the attention of our citizens to the fact that first quality shirts are being made to order at one dollar at the Wilmington Shirt Factory.

They Say.

Some unknown correspondent to the New York Journalist, writing from Wilmington, says:

There are two dailies here. The Star, published in the morning, and the Review, in the evening. The managing and field editor of the Star is W. H. Bernard, who also supervises the business departments. T. B. Kingsbury is the editorial writer, exchange, literary, religious editor and book reviewer. H. Smith is telegraphic and night editor, and Captain Muse, reporter. Its chief characteristics are politics and two-column editorials in advocacy of free-trade and it is an ardent friend of the Internal Revenue system, so far as whiskey and tobacco are concerned. The Review is owned and edited by Josh James, who is as independent as a wood sawyer, and writes as he thinks about everything. He is a hardened sinner of the Democratic type, and don't care a d—n who his party nominates at Chicago, whether he is a high tariff or free trade man. The local editor is Major Foster, formerly of New England, and the little paper has had such a boom of late, that the proprietor's well-stuffed pocket book is liable to burst.

Satisfied with a Little.

No, my friend, we are not a nihilist, socialist nor communist; nor do we believe in their methods of distributing property and revolutionizing society. We may take occasion to blow up, metaphorically, some of the customs of society, but not with dynamite. That is too effective and realistic, and our fun would be all gone before we had hardly commenced. We may occasionally grumble and growl at the unequal distribution of property and complain because Vanderbilt is worth $200,000,000, while we are not worth half of that sum. Yet we have the blessed consolation of knowing that we have him at a decided disadvantage, for while he may say, "the public be d—d," if the public, of which we are, should return the compliment and say "Vanderbilt be d—d," he would be in a bad fix.—The public are in the majority, and if they should speak, his puny voice could not be heard. It would be but a whisper beside the mighty roar of Niagara. We do not believe that great riches are generally productive of good. At least, they have never done us any good to brag about. We would like a certain amount of wealth, but that there with we might do good to our neighbors and ourselves, especially ourselves. A million would be a plenty for us, and if any one desires to donate that sum to a real good man who would make the best possible use of the money, we have no doubt that we would fill the bill.

Interesting to Fishermen: The celebrated "Fish" Brand Gilling Thread is sold only at Jacobs'. He is the Importer's Agent.

Now is the time to give Smith's Worm Oil.

Not Decided.

The Howard Relief Fire Engine Co., No. 1, have received an invitation to visit Charlotte on the 20th of May next, to attend the anniversary celebration of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence, but have not yet decided whether they will attend or not. The matter is under consideration and will be decided at their next regular meeting, which will be on the night of the first Monday in May. This is written in response to a notice in the Charlotte Observer, stating that this company had promised to attend the celebration.

City Court.

The number of involuntary visitors at the Mayor's levee this morning was unusually large, and the offenses for which they were assembled were various. There were nine who had failed to comply with the ordinance relating to license taxes, and they were disposed of by settling for the taxes for which they stood charged as delinquents.

John Hansen, Michael Johnson and K. N. Leannou, three sailors, were charged with disorderly conduct and were fined $5 each, which was paid.

E. R. Banbert, drunk and down, was fined $2, which he paid.

Anthony Hill, an old colored man tottering along on the very verge of the grave, charged with malicious mischief, was bound over in the sum of $50 for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court.

One case of drunk was discharged, and one tramp was sent on his travels.

If you need a real good first class cooking stove, don't fail to see the Excelsior Penn., Zeb. Vance and New Emerald, besides others. They are to be found at factory prices at JACOBI'S, who is the manufacturers' agent.

By the Way.

The fire has been lighted in the New Hanover Republican camp, and the political pot is boiling and bubbling at a great rate. Nearly every man and voter is awake and howling on the importance of the subject, and many of the street corners, and especially those with a grocery attachment, have become the theatre of grave political discussions by eminent Radical orators. Yesterday we were passing a place where several colored men were engaged in earnest discussion upon political topics, when we heard a hard working old colored man, who was at work at a little distance, exclaim, with more force than regard for the deacon:—"Hear dem d—n fool niggers. What de debbel dey know 'bout politics?—What good it do dem, I wants ter know? Better 'nuff sight go to work, lazy debbils, and arn some money to buy meat and greens to put in de pot." We were a good deal of his opinion but thought that, as a loyal Republican, he needed talking to.

In Summer Apparel.

The steam yacht Louise has been hauled off for a few days from her regular trips, while she is being prepared for her Summer service. Many improvements for the convenience and comfort of her passengers will be added and she will be ready to resume her trips some time next week.

In this connection we are led to state that the conveniences of travel to and from Smithville the coming season will far surpass those of any preceding year. The Passport, Capt. Harper, will leave here every morning and return at night, while the Louise, Capt. Weeks, will leave Smithville every morning and return there at night, thereby giving both places and almost every one ample accommodations. Both boats will be under the charge of experienced and skillful commanders, who will do everything possible for the safety and convenience of their passengers; they deserve the confidence and patronage of the people; the means of enjoyment at Smithville will be better than in any previous year, and we hope that both may have the patronage they deserve.

A match game of base ball, a bat being the prize contested for, was played yesterday afternoon on the Ninth street field between the Electrics, Capt. T. Craft, and the Hanover Boys, Capt. John Wright, which resulted in victory for the latter by a score of 26 against 11 by the Electrics.

At a recent convocation of Charlotte Commandery No. 2, Knights Templar, it was decided to join as a commandery in the public parade to take place at Charlotte on the coming 30th of May. Representatives from Raleigh, Wilmington, Durham, Winston and Asheville will be invited, and are expected to participate in the ceremonies of the occasion.

The News and Courier says that strawberries were hawked about the streets of Charleston on Wednesday at 5 cents a quart.

The sixty-seventh anniversary of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows in America will be celebrated by the lodges in this city at the Lodge Room on next Saturday evening.

We regret to learn that Chief of Police Brock is quite sick and confined to his room. He was about his duties this morning although feeling unwell.

Twelve new and handsome refrigerator cars have just been turned out of the shops at Florence for the use of the Atlantic Coast Line in the transportation of fruit and vegetables. They were built out of native woods and are fine specimens of first class work.

It is doubtful, we think, if Bishop Watson will be able to reach Fayetteville in time to keep his appointment there for next Sunday, in consequence of having been called to New York to attend the Episcopal Council. To get there in time he will have to leave New York this afternoon.

Exports Foreign.

Br barque Hattie H., Cochran, cleared to-day for Hull, Eng., with 2,300 barrels tar and 1,900 barrels rosin, valued at $5,740, shipped by Messrs Alex Sprunt & Son. Schr. Wm. H. Boardman, Richardson, cleared for Port Castories, St. Lucie, with 120,946 feet of lumber, valued at $1,680.52, shipped by Mr. J. W. Taylor.

Ewen's Cotton Chart.

We have received from Messrs. Ewen Bros. cotton brokers, 31 and 33 Broad street, New York, a copy of the beautiful cotton chart issued by them. It is on a more extended scale than that issued last year.

This chart gives the number of plantations and their acreage, the yield of the various States, the consumption of farmers in various countries, the port receipts and exports with their value, also the overland and interstate movement, the comparison of stocks in the United States, Great Britain and the continent, cotton in transit, visible supply and prices of middling uplands in New York during each week since 1870 to date. The amounts of the East India and Egyptian crops are also shown.

Full statistics are given of the cotton manufacture of the world, the facts given having been collected from official and reliable sources.

Supreme Court.

In this Court, on Wednesday, the consideration of appeals at the end of the docket was resumed and causes were disposed of as follows:

A. D. Waddell, administrator, vs. Fred. J. Swann, from Moore; continued by consent.

J. A. Worth vs. H. B. Shields, guardian, from Moore; argued by McIver & Black for the plaintiff, and M. S. Robins and W. E. Murchison for the defendant.

A. D. Waddell, administrator, vs. Fred. J. Swann, from Moore; continued by consent.

VanBuren Bryant et al. vs. Albert Malloy et al., from Richmond; argued by Strong & Smedes for the plaintiffs, and R. T. Bennett (by brief), J. D. Shaw and George Davis for the defendants.

Pending the argument in the last named case, the Court adjourned until 10 o'clock yesterday (Thursday) morning, when the argument was to have been resumed.

Silver Plated Spoons, Forks and Knives of best quality, and at manufacturer's prices, can be found at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.
