THE TROUBLE IN WALL STREET.

The New York Herald, in commenting on the financial troubles in that city, says that when compared with other troubles which have at various times agitated the money market...

We repeat that we do not see reason for a repetition of the scenes of yesterday. A panic is never governed by reason; it is one mad rush to realize, and the consequences are always more disastrous than are justified by the cause.

The causes were of a special character. The circumstances attending the pricking of the Grant-Ward-Fish bubble revealed a situation that taken in connection with previous occurrences, such as the Keene failure, gave a severe shock to the market and to the general public.

Fortunately there was a large conservative element that did not lose confidence, and before night a much easier condition intervened. The banks determined to stand by one another, as they did in 1873, and as this decision will allow the Metropolitan Bank to again open its doors, it did much to restore a better feeling.

Unfortunate they have been. The recent developments have shown a startling weakness in our banking system, and it will be strange if they do not result in some radical changes in methods.

given for reasonable doubts, however strong the institution may be, or however trusted the officials. There should be a wholesome absence of such connections, as the recent occurrences show how far complications may arise without forcing discovery.

The troubles among the stock brokers yesterday were largely due to a refusal by the banks to certify checks without being properly secured by deposits. In this they merely obeyed the law and protected their own interests.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Durham's historic. It was neutral ground during the armistice between Sherman and Johnson. Soldiers of both armies filled the Durham with the tobacco stored there, and, after the surrender, marched homeward. Soon ordnance came from East, West, North and South, for "more of that elegant tobacco." Then, ten men from an unknown factory, now it contains 800 men, used the pink and pick of the Golden Belt, and the Durham Bull is the trademark of this the best tobacco in the world. Blackwell's mill Durham Smoking Tobacco has the largest sale of any smoking tobacco in the world. Why? Simply because it is the best. All dealers have it. Trade-mark of the Bull.

LOOK OUT! DURHAM BULL. If he'd come for a pack of Blackwell's Bull Durham Smoking Tobacco, as he was told he wouldn't have been concerned by the bull.

THE SUN.

NEW YORK, 1884. About sixty million copies of THE SUN have gone out of our establishment during the past twelve months.

If you were to paste end to end all the columns of all THE SUNS printed and sold last year you would get a continuous strip of interesting information, common sense, wisdom, sound doctrine, and sane wit, long enough to reach from Printing House square to the top of Mount Copernicus in the moon, then back to Printing House square, and then three-quarters of the way back to the moon again.

But THE SUN is written for the inhabitants of the earth; this same strip of intelligence would give the globe twenty-seven or twenty-eight times.

If every buyer of a copy of THE SUN during the past year has spent only one hour over it, and if his wife or his grandfather has spent another hour, this newspaper in 1884 has afforded the human race thirteen thousand years of steady reading, night and day.

It is only by little calculations like these that you can form any idea of the circulation of the most popular of American newspapers, or of its influence on the opinions and actions of American men and women.

THE SUN is, and will continue to be, a newspaper which tells the truth without fear of consequences, which gets at the facts no matter how much the process costs, which presents the news of all the world without waste of words and in the most readable shape, which is working with all its heart for the cause of honest government, and which therefore believes that the Republic for every man, and must go in this coming year of our Lord, 1884.

TERMS TO MAIL SUBSCRIBERS. The several editions of THE SUN are sent by DAILY—50 cents a month, $6 a year; with Sunday edition, $7. SUNDAY—Eight pages. This edition furnishes the current news of the world, special articles of exceptional interest to everybody, and literary reviews of new books of the highest merit. $1 a year. WEEKLY—41 a year. Eight pages of the best matter of the daily issues; an Agricultural Department of unequalled value, special market reports, and literary, scientific, and miscellaneous intelligence make THE WEEKLY SUN the nearest approach to a household. To clubs of $10, an extra copy free. Address W. W. ENGLAND, Publisher, THE SUN, N. Y. City.
