A STRUGGLE WITH A SHIRT.

Three hundred and sixty-five times each year every mother's son of us has a struggle getting into his shirt.

If a shirt is worth getting into, if it is strong and well made, sure not to rip or tear, perfect fitting, then there is some compensation for spending so much of our existence in such a struggle. You may wrestle with the DIAMOND, but with its everlasting-stay-attached and reinforced bosom, you will come out head first every time, covered with glory and with the best shirt in the land.

ECHOES.

Oftimes when Even's scarlet flag Floats from the crest of distant woods, And over moorland waste and crag A weary, voiceless sorrow broods; Around me hover to and fro The ghosts of songs heard long ago.

And often midst the rush of wheels, Of passing and repassing feet, When half a headlong city reels Triumphant down the noontide street, Above the tumult of the throngs I hear again the same old songs.

Rest and Unrest—'tis strange that ye, Who lie apart as pole from pole, Should sway with one strong sovereignty.

The secret issues of the soul; Strange that ye both should hold the keys Of prisoned tender memories.

It may be when the landscape's rim Is red and slumbers round the West, The spirit too grows still and dim, And turns in half-unconscious quest To those forgotten lullabies That whilom closed the infant's eyes.

And maybe, when the city mart Roars with fullest, loudest tide, The spirit loses helm and chart, And on an instant, terrified, Has fled across the space of years To notes that banished childhood's fears.

We know not—but 'tis sweet to know Dead hours still haunt the living day, And sweet to hope that, when the slow Sure message beckons us away, The past may send some tuneful breath To echo round the bed of death.

—Chambers' Journal.

A Monster Dredger.

A monster dredger is at work on the Cape Cod Ship Canal. The dredger was excavating, during an inspection, about 600 cubic yards per hour, its full capacity being 20,000 cubic yards per day. The deposit by the force of the filtration is carried some 800 feet from the point of excavation, forming by its distribution an additional embankment to the width of 100 feet. The dredger, it is said, is the largest in the world, and can do the work of from 175 to 200 men. By the new survey and other changes proposed, the work will require at least four years for its completion, at an estimated expense of $1,000,000 per mile. The channel will be eight miles long, 240 feet wide, and deep enough to float the largest vessels. Under the proposed change of location, the entrance at Buzzard's Bay will be between Masbee and Tobey's Island instead of Agamam Point. Over $400,000 have been expended in deposits for prospective damages, the payment for right of way and expenses for labor and material. The working of the dredger was satisfactory.

Great Tree Plantations.

The London World says: The Seafield estates comprise 160,000 acres in Invernesshire, 50,000 acres in Banffshire and 97,000 acres in Morayshire, the rental amounting to about £75,000 a year. Castle Grant, in Strathspey, is the seat of the family, and around it are some of the best grouse moors in the Highlands. Cullen House, Banffshire, the favorite residence of Lady Seafield, is a very pleasant place, and close to the sea. Balmacraan, in Glen Urquhart, is a large shooting lodge, and lies amid an excellent deer forest, which is let to Sir Henry Allsopp, who has sublet it to Mr. Bradley-Martin, of New York. Tulchan and Advie, the well-known shooters of Mr. Bass, are on the Seafield property, and so are the noted forests of Abernethy and Kinveachie, let respectively to Lady Stamford and to Sir Greville Smyth.

The encumbrances on the Seafield estate amount to nearly £800,000, but the Strathspey woods will, in the course of a few years, enormously increase the income. It was estimated recently that in thirty years they will realize £50,000 a year, not merely for one year, but regularly year after year. There are a hundred square miles under timber in the district, on the estates of Lady Seafield and the Duke of Richmond, principally the former. The grandfather of the late Earl commenced planting about 1820, and since 1855 the work has been done in a thoroughly systematic manner. In two plantings near Carr Bridge there are 35,000,000 trees on 25,000 acres. The trees are principally larches, spruce and firs; but 150 varieties are grown on the estates, and there are large nurseries near Abernethy. Over 200 persons are employed in the forests, which are well worth a visit from any one interested in the subject.

The Handy Housewife.

A new way of decorating doorways has come into fashion. The door is taken away, and in its place a portiere curtain is put up on a rod. The curtain is made of some gauze-like material, and may cost considerable or little. Over the door is placed a Japanese fan in colors to harmonize with the furnishings of the room. The fan is opened to a half-circle, and is sufficient in large to extend across the top of the door. Fans that have become broken and are otherwise unfit for use may be made ornamental in this way. Two smaller fans placed over the door in two half circles, with a third one in the centre above them, will give a very pretty effect.

Small pictures are now hung by a single cord, which comes from the centre, while larger ones are hung with two cords passing straight up and fastened to two nails that are the same distance apart as the picture is wide. The cord is composed of crimson or old gold silk, but often invisible wire is used in preference.

An old-fashioned little wooden rocker that had seen hard service for a score or more years, was recently converted into a most fashionable piece of furniture by a young Brooklyn lady. The rocker had a stiff back with plain bars. The young lady first painted it black and then applied a coat of varnish, which made it look like ebony. She then padded the seat and covered the padding with a piece of unbleached muslin, tacking it down neatly. A pretty cushion was made out of crazy patch work and fastened by olive and crimson satin ribbons, while a large bow of the latter was fastened to one corner of the back.

Remarkable Escape.

John Kuhn, of Lafayette, Ind., had a very narrow escape from death. This is his own story: "One year ago I was in the last stages of Consumption. Our best physicians gave me case up. I finally got so low that our doctor said I could not live twenty-four hours. My friends then purchased a bottle of Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs, which benefited me. I continued until I took nine bottles. I am now in perfect health having used no other medicine.

Cincinnati had 150 miles of street under water during the flood.

Petroleum V. Nasby.

D. R. Locke, Petroleum V. Nasby, editor Toldo Blade, writes: "I had on a forefinger of my right hand one of those pleasant pets, a 'run-round.' The finger became inflamed to a degree unbearable and swollen to nearly twice its natural size. A friend gave me HENRY'S CARBOLIC SALVE, and in twenty minutes the pain had so much subsided as to give me a fair night's rest, which I had not had before for a week. The inflammation left the finger in a day. I consider it a most valuable article."

The property destroyed by fire in the United States in 1883 was $100,000,000.

Cure of Asthma and Spinal Weakness.

1, 239 WEST 23RD STREET, NEW YORK, May 17, 1883.

Though it may be irregular for a physician to give a certificate in favor of a proprietary medicine, still, in the cause of humanity, I venture to say a word in favor of ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS, which I esteem the most remarkable external remedy of this century.

I have known these Plasters to cure Spinal Weakness where the patient had been confined for months to his bed. A blacksmith of my acquaintance was severely injured in the back by the kick of a horse; four ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS quickly relieved him of excruciating agony and cured him in a week. Another patient, suffering with Neuralgia of the Heart, was completely cured in four hours.

In Asthma, I know of a case where they were worn for three months and fully restored the health. In another case, where a patient had Sporadic Cholera, nothing relieved him until he put on three ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS; in twelve hours all pains in his chest and stomach disappeared. I know that these Plasters, applied on the pit of the stomach, are a sovereign remedy for Dyspepsia and Constipation.

Finally, if persons once use ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS they will never use any other; they are so pleasant, quick and painless—nature's balmy assistant.

H. C. VAN NORMAN, M. D.

"Allcock's" is the only Genuine Porous Plaster.

A Fair Offer.

THE VOLTAIC BELT CO., Marshall, Mich., offer to send Dr. Dye's Voltaic Belt and Appliances on trial, for thirty days, to men, young or old, afflicted with nervous debility, lost vitality, and kindred troubles.

See advertisement in this paper, 11th & 12th eowd

The whole thing when finished produced a dainty and comfortable effect. Housewives who are about to put away their heavy winter clothing, should select one closet in the house in which to hang the dresses, overcoats and heavy jackets. The clothes should be hung on a line in the yard on a sunny day and well aired and beaten. The closet should be thoroughly washed and sprinkled with good black pepper and insect powder. Then hang the garments up and close the door. They will keep all the summer, but more pepper should be put in every month. Furs should have the same treatment, and after being thoroughly sprinkled with the black pepper should be put up in newspapers, so that no air may get at them. Every opening in the paper must be sealed. This process of wrapping in newspapers is said to insure safety against moths, as they cannot cut through the printer's ink without dying; but it is wise to sprinkle the garment with pepper, unless one intends to take it out during the warm weather.—N. Y. Journal.

SAILORS ON THE SEA AND LABORERS ON THE LAND—HELP FOR THE LABOUR WATCH.

"There is no telling the force of the wind; and the height and rush of the sea was simply appalling. When Corlish, the boatswain, and myself came down from aloft, after furling the main royal we were wet through and half dead from the hard toil and the exposure."

So said the mate of the "Grosvener," when relating the incidents of an Atlantic cyclone, after nearly all the crew had mutinied and left the ship in boats to escape punishment.

Mechanics who labor upon lofty buildings; carpenters, masons, painters and bricklayers, may be called a kind of shore sailors, and that their numbers are not more largely decimated by accident and disease is a marvel. Mr. Jabez Rogers, tuck pointer, house painter, etc., of No. 608 Madison street, Chicago, over a pipe and autumn rig, said to your correspondent:

"No, I am only a young man yet—thirty-five, that's all; but the kind of work I do tells on a man's looks and constitution. Last Spring I was about run down with over work and exposure. I had to give up doing any work my self and just made out to oversee my men in the way of my business. I thought I was played out for good and all. I was racked with a cough, stuffed with a cold, and torn and disabled with Rheumatism. Do? I took PARKER'S TONIC, and it cured me. Those three bottles tell the story—it cured me."

To all persons subject to risk from exposure, PARKER'S TONIC will commend itself. It purifies the blood, restores the torpid liver to a healthy activity, and opens the pores of the skin. This is the season of out-door perils to health. Keep the Tonic near you. Prices, 50 cents and $1.00. HENSON & Co., Chemists, New York. may 10 d&w in arm

White Meal Yeast.

A VERY VALUABLE PURE YEAST POWDER. Having been thoroughly tested by a great many of the ladies of Wilmington feel no hesitation in commending it to the public. It is elegant for bread, rolls or biscuits. It is made by Miss Hodges, of this city, of pure vegetable matter, and she refers to

Mrs. A. A. Willard,

Mrs. Gen. Whiting,

Mrs. Samuel Northrop,

or the correctness of her statement

PARKER'S HAIR BALMSAM.

This preparation is prepared by those who have spent years of study and research in the study of the hair, and is the only one that will restore the hair to its natural color and texture, and prevent it from falling out. It is the only one that will cure the itching and burning of the scalp and hair.
