The Daily Review has the largest circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

Lord Beaconsfield's favorite reading was the Revue des Deux Mondes.

Ex-President Seney is declared to have lost so nearly everything, that, after settling up with his creditors, he won't have $10,000.

Lord Teunyon's wife has been an invalid for the past twenty years, and never mixes in general society, as she is unable to leave her sofa.

The thirty-second annual session of the international typographical union opened in New Orleans Monday, M. L.
Crawford, of Chicago, presiding.

The only thing about the Penn Bank that its trusted officers did not get away with was the building and the ground it stood on. Moral—Put your money in reality.

Lotta, rather disgusted with her reception in England, leaves for home in a short time. Her first engagement here will be placed in Washington in September.

A Dakota clergyman has become popular because he is a tremendous batter in baseball and can run like a deer. He takes no part, however, in Sunday games.

Ex-Governor Daniel H. Chamberlain, late of South Carolina, is to deliver the Phi-Beta Kappa address at the coming commencement of the University of Vermont.

The London Caterer says that bills of fare in American hotels are too bloated.
It thinks that if the dishes were fewer and better served and cooked it would be an advantage.

Dr. Mary Walker has created a panic in Washington by declaring that she will wear breeches or nothing. Even Congressmen declare that they can't stand the alternative.

Ten cents a word is now the highest rate paid for telegraphing from one point to another in this country. That price is paid between Portland, Me., and Portland, Oregon.

A doctor, writing to a New York paper, deprecates the publishing by the press of cases of hydrophobia, as, he says, in nine cases out of ten, the fear of the disease brings it on.

In order to impart dignity to the town of Maroa, Ill., forty of the merchants have signed a pledge to wear high silk hats, instead of the wide-brimmed stouches that have been in fashion there.

A London letter says that Henry Irving's profits from his six months' performances here were very near $90,000, and that he thinks that his next tour will net him at least $300,000, because his expenses will be less, and he will not have to share with any one.

The old ticket is on the boomiest boom now that has been heard of in many days. Connecticut, Vermont, and Maryland spoke yesterday and there was no doubt in either State that Tilden is now the favorite, by a long odds. We would like to see Rutherford B. Hayes pitted against him once more.

This is a materialistic age. The Convent of St. Catharine, on Mount Sinai, has instituted regular postal service with the port of Tor, and the good monks will now be able to get their letters and papers like other folks. The Bedouin Arabs say they will allow the service to go on as long as they get plenty of backsheesh.

Gen. Loring, recently a pasha in the Egyptian service, has a cane, the large ivory head of which was brought from the Soudan by Miss Mildred Lee, daughter of Gen. Robt. E. Lee, and presented by her to Gen. Loring. The head is richly carved in Egyptian style, and the cane itself was cut from a piece of malacca brought from Singapore by another friend of the pasha.

Alexander Sullivan, of Chicago, president of the Irish national league of America, on Monday received a letter from Charles Stewart Parnell, president of the Irish national league of Ireland, thanking the Irish-Americans on behalf of himself and colleagues for their generous donations to assist Irish candidates for parliamentary seats in the election which Mr. Parnell says must soon occur. He says he cannot be present at the national convention in August.

Now is the time to give Smith's Worm Oil.

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VIII.

WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY, JUNE 6, 1884.

NO. 135

The platform adopted by the Republicans yesterday in Chicago is the most self-condemnatory paper that has been read in this country in a quarter of a century. More than half of its planking has been stolen en masse from the Democratic timber pile.

The Washington Capital thus speaks of Hon. A. M. Waddell, of this city, so long the Representative in Congress from the old Third District:

Colonel Alfred M. Waddell, of North Carolina, has announced himself as a candidate for Congress in the Wilmington district. He made a brilliant reputation while a member here from 1870 to 1878 as an able and liberal representative.

The Seaside Base Ball Club will hold an important meeting this evening.

last night bound for the Hotel Brunswick, at Smithville, for which point they departed to-day.

Thanks for an invitation from the Principal to attend the Commencement Exercises of the Statesville Female College, to take place on the 11th and 12th

As we go to press the fourth ballot is being taken at the Chicago Convention with every indication that Blaine will receive the nomination. He is making large gains in the States as they are being called. The latest indications point certainly to his nomination on this ballot.

We would urge upon our friends in Onslow and Pender counties, along the line of the proposed Onslow R.R. to send their representative men here on Thursday next to attend the meeting to be held at the Produce Exchange on that day. This meeting is for business and the citizens of Wilmington who will meet there then mean business. Let the friends of the road in our sister counties be on hand.

Superior Court.
The only case before the Court to-day was that of W. B. McKoy, administrator, vs. Tob Porter et als, which is to be left to a referee. Mr. John D.
Bellamy, Jr., appeared for the plaintiff and Messrs. Russell & Ricard and Mc-Rae & Strange for the defendants.

This Morning's Fire.
At about half past 3 o'clock this morning fire was discovered in a small, unoccupied cottage on Price's Alley, between Castle and Church and Sixth and Seventh streets. The alarm was promptly given, but owing to the time of night, when everybody was in profound slumber, the flames had got such headway by the time the fire department reached the scene it was impossible to save the house and it was consumed. The locality is thickly settled and the firemen directed their efforts to the saving of the other houses in the vicinity, in which they were successful. The fire was the work of an incendiary. The house belonged to George W. Price, Jr., and was fully covered by insurance.

State Exposition.
The Committee having the matter in charge in this city to prepare our products for the approaching State Exposition, are working energetically to make the display from Wilmington such as to reflect credit upon our people. They need, however, the cooperation and help of every citizen in order to make the exhibit what it should be and as full and complete as they wish to have it. In the preparation of our native leaves and plants much assistance could be rendered by those who feel disposed to aid in the good work. The committee have the facilities for preparing these products of our forests and will give every information and assistance necessary with the utmost cheerfulness. If you have the time and inclination to assist, go at once to either of the committee and you will be instructed as to how and what to do.

City Court.

There was but one case for the Mayor's consideration this morning, but five persons were involved. Martha Wescott and Annie McNeil, two colored girls, and Gustave Berg, Bernhard Schoon and Chuck Bencken, three German sailors, were brought up for disorderly conduct on Front and Princess streets and for an assault and battery on a sailor belonging to the Benefactor. The girls were sent below for two days and the sailors were fined $3 each.

Another large consignment of Sash, Doors & Blinds at Factory prices, just received at JACOB'S Hardware Depot.

Cum Grano Salis.

A gentleman of this city, whose family is absent, went home a night or two since with a strong desire for a cup of good coffee, and went to work at once and made it, nice and strong. He poured in the cream and put in two spoonsful of sugar (as he thought) and stirred it up nicely. The aroma was delightful and he felt amply rewarded for the care he had taken in the anticipated delight of the fragrant and delicious beverage. He slowly raised the cup to his lips to taste the nectar, when—horror of horrors—he had put salt into the cup instead of sugar! We are not bound to tell what he thought or what he said when he found out his mistake.

We invite the attention of our citizens to the fact that first quality shirts are being made to order at one dollar at the Wilmington Shirt Factory.

Almost a Nonagenarian.

Mr. John F. Pridden died at the residence of his son-in-law, Mr. John West, in Caintuck township, on Monday morning last. The deceased was born within a short distance of where he died, and where he had lived all his life, in 1795, and was, consequently, 89 years of age. He had been a member of the Baptist church for about 60 years, and died calmly, peacefully and with unshaken devotion to that faith. He was the oldest person in the county and was the oldest that was ever interred in Bethlehem churchyard. Mr. Pridden had been an active and hard-working man throughout his long life and retained his mental and physical faculties to the last in a remarkable degree. He had been twice married. By his first wife he had one child and by his last wife fourteen, some of whom are now living.

Board of Aldermen.

The Board of Aldermen met in called session yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock; present, His Honor Mayor Hall and Aldermen DeRosset, Boney, Bear, Fishplate and Sweat.

Mayor Hall explained the object of the meeting and read the declaration of R. J. Jones, Esq., to act as arbitrator in the matter of the removal of the steps of the First National Bank.

On motion of Alderman Fishplate, the resolution passed at the last meeting of the Board, appointing Mr. Jones, was repealed, and the substitute, as offered by Alderman DeRosset, and amended by Alderman Fishplate, making the amount appropriated by the city towards the removal of the said steps $250, instead of $325, as in the original resolution, was adopted. Following is the resolution referred to, as amended:

WHEREAS, A proposition has been made to the Board by Mrs. Missouri Dawson, the owner of the bank portico encroaching on Front street, to settle the matter in dispute between her and the city as to the removal of the same, upon the city paying one-half the cost of taking down the said portico and constructing an entrance off the street;

Now, be it Resolved, While the city concedes no right in the said Missouri Dawson to retain the said portico upon the street, but on account of the great length of time, alleged to be about 70 years, since the erection of the said obstruction, and the desire of the city to remove the said obstruction without further delay, the Board of Aldermen accept the said proposition, provided the costs shall not exceed on the part of the city the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars.

Alderman DeRosset drew the attention of the Board to the fact that the listing would commence on next Monday, and that no provision had been made for the same; whereupon Alderman Fishplate moved that the matter be referred to the Finance Committee with power to act.

The Board then adjourned.

The Concert.

There was considerable of a rush at Dyer's this morning to secure the choicest seats for the Concert which is to be given in the Opera House on Monday evening, for the benefit of the Organ Fund of the First Baptist Church, and many have already been secured. Still there are a number of excellent seats left, and these will probably be taken soon. It promises to be one of the largest and most intelligent musical audiences ever assembled in Wilmington.

At Rest.

Mr. Robert W. Chadwick, whose obituary appears in the appropriate column of this issue, was born at the Straits, in Carteret county, on the 31st of January, 1826, and was, consequently, 58 years, 4 months and 5 days old.
His youth was passed in Hyde and Carteret counties, in this State, and on the coast of South Carolina. He was a fine classical scholar, having been educated at Emory and Henry College, in Virginia. After graduating, he spent several years as a teacher, the most of the time as principal of the male academy at Beaufort, a position he surrendered when the place was occupied by the Federal army, in 1862. Since that time he has been almost continually in public office, first as Deputy Postmaster at Beaufort, then as Collector of Customs at Ocracoke and Portsmouth, whence he removed to Wilmington and accepted the office of Deputy Collector under Collector D. Rumley, a position which he retained until Mr.
W. P. Canaday was appointed collector.
He removed again to Beaufort in 1881 and became associated with Mr. Potter in the publication of the Telephone. In the Fall of 1883, Judge A. A. McKoy appointed the deceased Clerk of the Superior Court of Carteret county, a position which had thrice been made vacant by death within three years.
The deceased was for many years a consistent member of the M. E. Church and an earnest worker in the cause of the Master, much of the time in an official capacity. His leaves a wife and two daughters to mourn his loss. One of the daughters is the wife of Mr. W.
W. Shaw, clerk of the Board of Commissioners of New Hanover county.
The other is unmarried.

Postoffice Secrets.

There is a law of the postoffice department that requires absolute secrecy upon the part of the employes as to the business of the office. If a stranger comes to inquire for a letter, or concerning letters sent, they can give no information unless he is the party directly interested. It is the same in the money order department. The employes are not authorized to make known amount of money sent or received. In fact, they cannot "give away" any of the business secrets, and this order is of long standing. As letter carriers have special opportunity to get hold of information of a private character concerning persons on their routes they rigidly guard themselves against repeating any of it, or in any way intimating that they have facts which would prove injurious to the persons interested. They are for-bidden to give any information as to letters sent or received by persons on their routes, this latter provision going so far as to include even members of the same family, whether they do or do not live in the same house. This order to forget secrets that come in the way of business is enforced in banking establishments, and no infractions are tolerated. The postoffice department is likewise emphatic in demanding that its gule shall be obeyed.

Every Farmer ought to get a "Boy Clipper Plow," greatest invention of the age. JACOB is the Agent.
