THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VIII. WILMINGTON, N. C., THURSDAY, JULY 3, 1884. NO. 158

The Daily Review has the largest bona fide circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET. Election Tuesday, Nov. 4.

FOR GOVERNOR: ALFRED M. SCALES, of Guilford.

FOR LIET. GOVERNOR: CHARLES M. STEDMAN, of New Hanover.

FOR SECRETARY OF STATE: WILLIAM L. SAUNDERS, of Wake.

FOR STATE TREASURER: DONALD W. BAIN, of Wake.

FOR AUDITOR: W. P. ROBERTS, of Gates.

FOR ATTORNEY-GENERAL: THEODORE F. DAVIDSON, of Buncombe.

COMMISSIONER OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION: S. M. FINGER, of Catawba.

ASSOCIATE JUSTICE SUPREME COURT: A. S. MERRIMON, of Wake.

FOR ELECTORS-AT-LARGE: W. H. KITCHEN, JOHN N. STAPLES.

Gov. Cleveland, in denying that he ever belonged to the order of Know Nothings, says: "I cast my first vote in 1858 for the Democratic ticket, and have never voted for any other."

Speaker Carlisle will go to Chicago if Congress adjourns, as will a majority of the Democratic Senators and members. Carlisle favors Bayard as a first choice and McDonald as a second choice.

Gov. Cleveland, of New York, was able to be at his desk in the executive chamber at Albany, on Friday morning, for the first time in two weeks. A temporary illness confined him to his rooms.

Mrs. Frances Hodgson Burnett, the novelist, is familiarly called by her Washington friends "That Lass o' Lowrie's," from the book which has brought her greatest fame. Though English by birth, she has resided so long in this country that she looks upon it almost as her native land.

The Minister of the Interior of the Hawaiian Government offers to furnish immigrants, who, "on arrival will be ready to enter into an engagement, service for three years at $10 per month for males, and $6 for females, with food and lodging for plantation laborers, and $15 per month, and board for domestic servants."

The President yesterday vetoed the bill for the relief of Gen. Fitz John Porter and the House promptly passed the bill over his veto by a two thirds majority. It has gone to the Senate where it is next to impossible to procure the amount of votes necessary to overcome the veto and this will kill the bill. Mr. Arthur's veto is nothing more nor less than making a great question subservient to the littleness of a political prejudice and he will live to regret it.

Mr. R. C. Whitford, Brookline, Mass., says he has used St. Jacobs Oil, the great pain-cure, in rheumatism and neuralgia and found that it is all that is represented to be.

Now is the time to give Smith's Worm Expeller.

The Glorious Fourth will be celebrated in due style to-morrow at the Seaside Park Hotel at Wrightsville. The programme as arranged, and of which we have already written, will be carried out. There are a variety of attractions for the day which cannot fail to please all who may attend.

City Court. Jane Days, colored, was brought before the Mayor this morning charged with disorderly conduct. The charge was sustained and she was fined $5, in default of which she was sent below for 30 days. Mary Eliza Lively, colored, who is a frequent visitor at police headquarters, was arraigned upon the charge of larceny, and the evidence was sufficient to warrant her being bound over to the next term of the Criminal Court in the sum of $100; in default of which she was committed.

LOCAL NEWS.

INDEX TO NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. F. C. MILLER—Conundrum. J. W. HARPER—Fourth of July. T. J. SOUTHERLAND—The Fourth. HEINBERGER—Base Balls and Bats. J. J. HEDRICK, Jr., 1st Serg't—W. L. I. C. W. YATES—Bookseller and Stationer. SCOVILLE & CO.—The Glorious Fourth. Knights and Ladies of Honor—Local ad. A. K. WALKER, Cash'r—Dividend Notice. MUNDS BROS. & DEROSSSET—Timely Notice. Report of the Con. of the First National Bank of Wilmington, N. C.

A few more rain this forenoon, by way of variety. There was only one bale of cotton received at this port to-day.

The Postoffice will be closed to-morrow from 9 a. m. until 5 p. m.

Col. S. B. Taylor, of Catharine Lake Onslow county, was in the city to-day.

Peaches are scarce and high here now. Why don't our country friends relieve the pressure?

The markets will close to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock, a fact which housekeepers should note.

The Wilmington Light Infantry will add to the attractions by being present at Wrightsville to-morrow.

Everybody in want of Paints, White Lead, Glass &c. should go to JACOBI'S to get best qualities and lowest prices.

Capt. T. J. Southerland will run three wagonettes to Wrightsville to-morrow morning, leaving the city at 8 o'clock.

The Board of Directors of the First National Bank of Wilmington have declared a dividend of 3/4 per cent. payable on the 10th inst.

To-morrow being the Fourth of July the usual holiday will be taken and therefore no paper will be issued from this office on that day.

Knights and Ladies of Honor. Regular meeting this (Thursday) evening. Full attendance desired. It is likely that there will be a general suspension of business here to-morrow. The public offices will all be closed, and there will be very few places of business open.

Capt. Harper promises a pleasant time to all who may go down with him to-morrow on the Passport. The boat will stop at the usual points and will in addition make a long trip to sea and there may be some opportunity of fishing outside. The chance is an unusually good one for "a day on the briny deep."

Every Farmer ought to get a "Boy Clipper Plow," greatest invention of the age. JACOBI is the Agent.

Will Not Go. Some of our young people are doomed to disappointment to-morrow. They had made up their minds within the last day or two that they would join the throng and visit Wrightsville, but when they went to secure a team they found that they could not be accommodated as every available horse, mule and vehicle had been engaged several days previously.

Reward of Merit. We saw in the window of Mr. Geo. Honnet's jewelry store this morning the prize medal awarded by Hook and Ladder Co., No. 1, to Mr. Harry Rosenthal, for efficiency and promptness as a fireman. The person belonging to the Company who gets to the Hook and Ladder Hall first for the greatest number of times, in cases of fire alarms, during the year, is entitled to the prize, and it has been worthily won during the last year by Mr. Rosenthal. The medal is of gold, is surmounted by crossed axes, has the fireman's ladder and also the fireman's cap. It is chaste, unique and appropriate in design and reflects credit upon the Company as well as upon its recipient, Mr. Rosenthal.

Orion Lodge. At the regular meeting of Orion Lodge, No. 67, I. O. O. F., held last night, the following officers were installed in due form by Installing Officer, G. M. Altaffer, viz: N. G.—W. J. Penny. V. G.—J. S. Barnes. R. S.—H. O. Craig. F. S.—W. C. Farrow. Treasurer—W. S. Warrock. Warden—W. M. Mintz. Conductor—G. M. Altaffer. I. G.—W. S. Hewlett. O. G.—C. D. Morrill. R. S.—N. G.—S. A. Craig. I. S.—N. G.—B. F. Penny. R. S.—J. F. Maunder. L. S.—A. T. Hewlett. L. S.—V. G.—Geo. Bishop.

Accident at Play. We saw a couple of colored boys this afternoon, aged about ten and twelve years, respectively, engaged in a friendly tussle near the foot of Princess street in which both displayed remarkable strength and activity. After a while the younger and smaller of the two gained an advantage and threw the other violently on to the sidewalk. The latter fell upon the flagging, striking the side of his head and making a gash from which the blood flowed quite freely. The little fellow, when he found what he had done, was very sorry and did everything in his power to console his injured companion. We invite the attention of our citizens to the fact that first quality shirts are being made to order at one dollar at the Wilmington Shirt Factory. li.

Yesterday's Convention.

The Democratic Convention of the Third Congressional District of North Carolina, convened at the Court House at Burgaw, Pender county, at 12.30 p. m., yesterday, and was called to order by Capt. J. B. Smith, of Cumberland, Chairman of the District Executive Committee. The Convention organized by making Capt. J. G. Kewan, of Duplin, Chairman, and Messrs. Cooper, of Sampson, and Evans, of Cumberland, secretaries. Capt. R. P. Paddison, of Pender, put in nomination Col. Wharton J. Green, the present incumbent, as the Democratic candidate for Representative to Congress from the Third District. No other nominations were made and Col. Green was nominated by acclamation. Col. Green, upon being notified of his nomination, appeared upon the stand and addressed the Convention. His reception was as enthusiastic as his nomination had been unanimous. Gov. Jarvis, who was present, Maj. C. W. McClammy and others also addressed the assembly. Maj. C. W. McClammy was made Presidential Elector and Messrs. J. A. Bonitz, of the Goldsboro Messenger, and E. J. Hale, of the Fayetteville Observer, were elected delegates to the Chicago Convention.

The following comprise the District Executive Committee: J. B. Smith, of Cumberland; D. J. Hall, Bladen; J. G. Kenan, Duplin; B. F. Shaw, Harnett; J. A. Worthy, Moore; S. B. Taylor, Onslow; T. J. Armstrong, Pender; D. B. Nicholson, Sampson; Chas. B. Aycock, Wayne. The Convention adjourned at 3:30 o'clock, having been in session just three hours, during which time it had transacted all the business which properly came before it. The meeting was largely attended, the proceedings were harmonious throughout, and the delegates were business men who performed the duties entrusted to them with fidelity and zeal. Many of the delegates from Bladen and Cumberland reached here last night on the 8:35 train and took passage for home on the steamer D. Marchison, which had been kept in waiting here for them.

A Pleasant Party.

The excursion on the steamers Passport and Louise last night to Smithville, and the ball at the pavilion, after reaching there, was one of the most pleasant and agreeable occasions imaginable. There were many who did not dare to venture the trip on account of the unfavorable appearance of the weather, yet there was a large party present. The Cornet Concert Club furnished music on the Passport, going down the river, and Kersey's quadrille band supplied the music for the dancing. The entertainment at the Hotel Brunswick was all that the most fastidious could desire, the dancing was kept up until a late hour, the management spared no pains in achieving a success, and there was neither accident nor disturbance to mar the pleasures of the time.

Union Veterans' Blaine and Logan Club.

A Republican campaign club, composed entirely of colored ex-soldiers and ex-sailors, was organized last night at the Grand Army Hall, with the above title and with the following officers: President—G. L. Mabson. 1st Vice President—James Galley. 2nd Vice President—Lewis Nixon. Secretary—J. S. Eagles. Ass't Secretary—Geo. E. Berden. Treasurer—James A. Green. Serg't-at-Arms—Reuben Carter. Committee of Management—Wm. Taylor, Alfred Hill, Isham Smith, Nelson Davis, J. A. Ashe, Needham Arp, and Sandy Stewart, Chairman.

Angola Pocosin.

Angola Bay, or Angola Pocosin, is the name under which a large tract of wild land in this section has been known for many years. It is located in Pender county and reaches from the banks of the Cape Fear river, opposite old South Washington, across, in an easterly direction, towards White Oak Swamp, with which it communicates. It is a wild, uncultivated, unbroken tract of land, and but very few persons have ever penetrated its recesses. We remember, when a boy, hearing some strange stories relative to an attempt being made once to explore it by a party who clothed themselves in buckskin garments, and were armed with axes, hatchets and guns. This party, it is said, were gone seven days and then returned by the way they had entered, completely nude, having lost every particle of the clothing they wore in their encounters with roots and briars and vines. This was, perhaps, a tradition, but a good many years ago an attempt, which was successful, was made to pierce this wilderness. One of the party, who were all young men, was the late Mr. John D. Love, and from an account written by him at the time, we published some years ago, in the REVIEW, a report of the undertaking. We are now told by the News and Observer that Dr. Chas. W. Dabney has been in this swamp, although to how great a distance is not mentioned, and that he brings back most interesting accounts of its wonders. It is of great extent, there being in it, upon a rough computation, 40,000 acres of land. The fertility is inconceivably great. It is now being drained and divided into sections, each four miles square. It presents such a view to the explorer as does a tropical forest. Indeed it is tropical in many of its characteristics. Enormous vines and creepers wrap the trees, small and large, in their close embrace, and run riot, at the earth's surface and far above. The most beautiful and fragrant wild flowers are there in luxuriant profusion and infinite variety of color and odor. The blue jessamine is one of the most fragrant of all. The progress of the great canal, or ditch, through the swamp is satisfactory and it will develop some of the best land to be found anywhere. The "blue jessamine" referred to is probably the flower known to us as the blue bell, a beautiful and fragrant blossom to be found in profusion on the banks of the ricefields near the city, and known to botanists as the blue clematis. Fullest assortment of Fishing Tackle can be found at JACOBI'S.
