WILMINGTON, N. C.

FRIDAY, JULY 18, 1884.

Entered at the Postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., as second-class matter.

HOW IT LOOKS.

We have seen it stated in several of the Northern papers that the Republicans would make earnest efforts to capture several of the Southern States in this campaign, and that some of the leaders of the party had expressed themselves upon the feasibility of the project as entirely confident of success. North Carolina is one of the States which they thought could be brought to give a Republican majority, basing their ideas upon the magnetic influence of their leader, Blaine, dissensions in the Democratic rank, and the blunders of Democratic leaders.

There was a possibility one time—but not a remote probability—that they might have the advantage of the last two contingencies to assist them, but since the meeting of the Democratic State and National Conventions all hope from those sources must be gone. The Republican State ticket—we suppose—is Republican, as the standard bearer fully endorses the Republican platform—is one of the weak, est that could have possibly been selected. It is a ticket at which many life-long Republicans are supremely disgusted, and if they vote for the nominees it will be entirely owing to their devotion to the party and not for any respect to the men.

On the other hand the nominees of the Democratic party on the State ticket are in themselves a tower of strength. There is not weak name in the list, and they are all invulnerable against attack, either personal or political. The campaign has commenced and there is not a shadow of doubt of the result. The attempt may be made, and it undoubtedly will be, to capture the State, but it will be one of the most hopeless jobs ever undertaken and it is but a foregone conclusion to say that it will end in a disastrous defeat. The campaign, so far as the Democracy of the State is concerned, will be entirely in the aggressive, while the entire tactics of the Republicans must necessarily be to act solely on the defensive, and they will have a hard task, even at that.

North Carolina is a grand old Democratic State and she will remain so. Her sacred honor demands it, and her loving children will see to it that her proud escutcheon shall not again be stained by Republican misrule. The sturdy yeomanry of her soil, from where the rude ocean lashes her shores with its never ceasing roar to the heaven-kissing mountains of the West, will array themselves for the battle, and fight as one man for the maintenance of the just and wise government which has put the State in the bright pathway of glorious success and influence. The Republicans have signified an intention to send speakers here, and we say let them come. We would be glad to see them and will guarantee to them a cordial reception and kind treatment. They also propose to send money here to influence the election, and we say, let it come, and a plenty of it. Money is a circulating medium, and we would be glad that any amount should be circulated in North Carolina. Send it along by all means, but allow us to whisper in your ear that North Carolina will go Democratic by 20,000 majority for all that.

BRIGHTER PROSPECTS.

The New York World, in an editorial characterized by its usual forceful logic, takes a very cheerful view of the financial outlook, and states very truthfully that "Mr. Jay Gould and Mr. William H. Vanderbilt are not safe authority on which to build hopes of a business revival. Speculators and stock operators generally color their opinions according to their interests for the moment. If they wanted to make a Black Friday they would try to persuade everybody that the country was going to destruction. If they wanted to raise prices or to save shrinking values they would paint everything a beautiful color of rose.

Just now these big operators are in a tight place and for their own protection they would naturally seek to create the impression that the prospects are bright and encouraging. They are not as rich as they were a year or two ago by several millions, and if shrinkage should continue they would be still less wealthy a few months hence. Nevertheless it is unquestionably true that business affairs promise to mend, and it seems probable that we may soon have much better times than we have recently experienced.

There are several sound reasons for this belief. Last year we had poor crops. This year, according to the most reliable accounts, the crop outlook is excellent. Prices bid fair to be better than last year. The condition of Europe warrants the hope of an increased demand for our breadstuffs, and with increased movement of freight railroad prospects will improve. Above all, the business interests of the country are relieved from the fear of unwise action by the Democratic National Convention. The Democratic platform is sound as a nut. There is no ghost of Free Trade in it. It guarantees protection of all business interests. It scouts the idea of injurious agitation of tariff matters or of violent changes. The candidates are safe, conservative and honest. These considerations restore public confidence, and a restoration of confidence is really all that is needed to set us again on the highroad of prosperity.

Tough!

Dyspepsia is one of the toughest of diseases to wrestle with. Many people have tried such a variety of alleged remedies for it, without success, that they will hardly believe dyspepsia can be conquered. But the record of Brown's Iron Bitters shows thousands of cures of this disease. Rev. Jas. McClay, of Fort Stevenson, Dakota, says, "Brown's Iron Bitters cured me of severe dyspepsia."

PERSONAL.

Ben Butler has a binocular mind. The Right Hon. Lyon Playfair will sail for America on September 7. Mr. Hendricks is giving Secretary Chandler an "aggressive campaign." Cincinnati now claims 200,000 population. Yes; but how many bath-tubs?

Eben H. Safford is one of the oldest of American editors. He has conducted the Essex (Mass.) Banner for fifty years and his cry is still "Long may she wave!"

Simon Knowles of Meredith, N. Y., is ninety-nine years old, a fair show of living a long way past the century mark. It gives this very old shoemaker a good deal of pleasure to mend the shoes of his great-grandchildren.

Governor Hubbard, of Texas, who was given national prominence at Chicago, was well thought of at Macon, Georgia, where he went to school when a lad. He used to say: "Boys, I'm going to Texas to be Governor" where at his college chums would laugh.

JULY JUMBLES.

"My name is oleomargarine; I'm mighty nice to handle; But when they want to make me They milk a tallow candle."

"So you think your son smokes, Mr. Jones?" "I'm sure of it, Mrs. Brown. I've found pieces of tobacco in his pockets." "Dear me, dear me, I'm sorry. My son has no bad habits; I never find anything in his pockets but cloves and coffee beans."

Raise chickens. If you have a nice little garden, by all means raise chickens. Yours neighbors' hens are the best ones to raise. You will find them from 5:30 a. m. until 6:30 p. m. on your lettuce, onion, radish and flower beds.—You can raise them higher with a shot gun than anything else.

A clergyman, in speaking of one of his parishioners who was so given to argument that it was difficult to converse with him on any subject, said, "Brother X. is so argumentative that he will dispute with a guide-post about the distance to the next town, and argue with a tombstone as to the truth of its epitaph."

They were sitting in the front parlor and he observed that he "really ought to go, as it was getting quite late." "No, wait a few minutes longer," she pleaded. "I want you to see the funny little man that brings around the morning papers. He passes the house now without looking up at the windows."

Is Your Blood Pure?

For impure blood the best medicine known, SCOVILLE'S SARSAPARILLA, OR BLOOD AND LIVER SYRUP, may be implicitly relied on when everything else fails. Take it in the spring time especially for the impure secretions of the blood incident to that season of the year; and take it at all times for Cancer, Scrofula, Liver Complaints, Weakness, Boils, Tumors, Swellings, Skin Diseases, Malaria, and the thousand ills that come from impure blood. To ensure a cheerful disposition take SCOVILLE'S BLOOD AND LIVER SYRUP, which will restore the mind to its natural equilibrium.

A Great Blood Medicine.

One of the best medicines ever known for the cure of diseases arising from impure blood, no matter from what cause is ROSADALIS. It is a great alternative medicine as well as a blood purifier. It cures Scrofula, Swellings, Goitre, Skin Diseases, Liver Complaints, Rheumatism, &c. Read the following important letter from a distinguished gentleman in Florida:

LAKE IRENA, FLA., June 10th, 1882.

I have been a great sufferer for 15 years, not able to walk, from an injured leg. Have tried many M. D.'s and their remedies to little purpose. I believe ROSADALIS will cure me. Send me one dozen by steamer. It was recommended to me by a friend. I have taken 2 bottles, and find it helping me. The Druggists who usually keep it are out of it, and I cannot afford to wait the slow arrival of their supplies.

For the Campaign.

THE POLITICAL CAMPAIGN UPON which the people of North Carolina are just preparing to enter will, beyond all question, be one of great excitement as well as one of vital importance to them. It will be no child's play.

All that is needed to insure Democratic success and continued prosperity to the State is a plain, truthful statement of the facts now the facts of history, or are daily becoming the reasons for Democratic victory, and the even stronger reasons for Republican defeat, are abundant, and it is the purpose of

to do its full part in laying them before the people.

As the best means in its power to this end, and in answer to appeals, the REGISTER will be furnished at such low rates as to put it in the reach of every one during the present State and Presidential campaigns.

If we do our full duty, victory will surely be with us; but that duty will leave us no idle time. There must be early work, late work, all the time. If good government and a people's peace and worth working for, let us all go to work, and at once.

CAMPAIGN RATES.

THE REGISTER will be furnished to Clubs, by November 15, at the following rates:

One copy, 50c. Six copies, $2.50. Twelve copies, $3.75; twenty copies, $7; fifty copies, $15; one hundred copies, $28.

In every case the paper will be sent until the returns of the election shall be received and published, and we invite the attention of Executive Committees of Counties and Townships, and of all others interested, to the Campaign Register as a sure and cheap means of furnishing information to the people.
